CHURCH CLEANING

Write for our pamphlet and "WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT US" leaflet

You will be surprised at the beauty revealed when the veil of dust is removed

The late COVENTRY CATHEDRAL undergoing our cleaning process (note vacuum pipe lines)

YOUR CHURCH CAN BE COMPLETELY FREED FROM DUST (including roof, roof timbers etc.) BY OUR POWERFUL MOBILE SUCTION PLANT

NO SCAFFOLDING REQUIRED

NO ELECTRIC CURRENT REQUIRED

We guarantee our work, which will be carried out with all due reverence. Our operators, who are skilled ladder men, have had years of experience of this work. All dust is conveyed by pipe line to our plant outside the church.

London Association in aid of MORAVIAN MISSIONS was founded in 1817 by members of several denominations in England to assist the missionary activities of the United Brethren (or Moravians). New spheres of labour are constantly opening which, because of lack of funds, we are unable to enter.

Please help this, the oldest Protestant Missionary Church (1732) to go forward, neglecting no opportunity to extend God's Kingdom.

Converts from heathenism are three times as many as the number of the home members of the Moravian Church, one in every seventy-five of whom are Missionaries as compared with about one in five thousand among Protestant Churches generally.
Contributions will be gratefully acknowledged by

DORIS E. HUNT, Secretary,

The Ecclesiastical Insurance Office

announces in its Report for the year ending 28th February, 1953, that the sum of £42,000 has again this year been set aside for Grants for Church purposes.

The sum so provided has been allocated as follows:—

£24,486 for Clergy Pensions;

£14,691 to be divided amongst the English Dioceses —the share of each diocese being proportionate to the amount of business derived from its area;

£2,823 to the Church in Wales.

With this further distribution, the amount provided for Church objects by the Company since it commenced operations in 1887 has been brought up to £1,474,480.

A HELPFUL SCHOOL

Reed's School, founded in 1813, is an unusual boarding school for two reasons: not only are all its pupils the children of widowed mothers but the fees charged are in every case scaled in accordance with the mother's resources. The School is recognised by the Ministry of Education and gives a full Grammar School course, while, on leaving, friendly guidance is available with regard to careers.

These facilities are available to fatherless children of good health who have an aptitude for Grammar School work.

QUEEN VICTORIA CLERGY FUND

The Church's Memorial of the Diamond Jubilee year of Queen Victoria's Reign.

LEGACIES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS, has been used to

(1) raise those incomes of Benefices which are normally very small;
(2) raise those incomes of Benefices which are nominally of substantial value, but which owing to large populations and consequent claims on the incumbents, demand a much larger income.

Both the Archbishops are Presidents and all the Diocesan Bishops are Vice-Presidents of the Fund.

Block Grants from the Central Fund are made to Diocesan Organisations and administered by them in accordance with the general principles of the Fund.

The Faith of the Gospel in the Church of England

THE CHURCH SOCIETY stands for the furtherance and defence of the Christian Gospel, to be maintained by definite and effective churchmanship through loyalty to the Church's acknowledged standards of doctrine, worship and order. The Society has a constructive programme closely related to the present domestic situation in the Church of England, and including in its scope the Anglican Communion overseas.

COLONIAL & CONTINENTAL CHURCH SOCIETY

Patron: HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

Vice-Patrons: THE ARCHBISHOPS OF CANTERBURY, YORK, etc.

President: THE LORD LUKE.

Treasurer: SIR FREDERICK ROWLAND, Bart, F.C.A.

For over 130 years the Colonial and Continental Church Society has sought to provide the Ministry of the Word and Sacraments to our own people overseas, and especially to those in the pioneer parts of the Empire and on the Continent of Europe. Proof that this purpose has been fulfilled in many places is to be found in the now well established Churches in Canada and Australia, the European Chaplaincies in Africa, and the British Chaplaincies in strategic centres on the Continent.

The Society's work is more urgent than ever to-day when the witness of Christians everywhere is of such vital importance.

You can help by your prayers and practical support.

ATTACKS ON THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

are subtle, yet numerous. The present state of the world calls for an active presentation of the Gospel Message.

Removing difficulties, correcting doubts, refuting the many untruths which are circulated in the Press and Public Parks, needs the treatment of specialists.

THE CHRISTIAN EVIDENCE SOCIETY WAS FOUNDED FOR THIS PURPOSE

Literature, and witness, combined with a reasonable statement of the claims of the Church of Jesus Christ, through the agency of the clergy and laity, must be an active part of the Church's message.

Preface

THIS issue of The Official Year-Book of the Church of England is intended to cover the years 1954 and 1955, as, for financial reasons, it is not proposed to issue one in 1955. The need for economy owing to the cost of paper and printing has also dictated certain curtailments of matter which is readily available elsewhere and which would be of reduced relevance in 1955. The most extensive omissions have been the summaries of the 1953 Acts of the Church Assembly and the Convocations, which are respectively available in full in the Reports of Proceedings and the Convocation journals. Another substantial economy has been the omission of the lists of members of many central bodies, lists which are printed in their annual reports to the Church Assembly.

It has been decided to include experimentally a Calendar for the two years, but great difficulty has been experienced—despite wide circulation of requests—in obtaining the dates of centenaries and other observances, especially in 1955. It is hoped, however, that the experiment will meet with approval and that it may be possible, with the co-operation of central and diocesan authorities, to compile a fuller Calendar for the 1956 issue. Suggestions of all kinds would be very welcome during the coming two years.

In view of the amount of material furnished in the 1953 issue relating to the Coronation of Her Majesty, it has not been felt appropriate to traverse this ground again save in the record of outstanding events in 1953.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Again as in previous years, the grateful thanks of the Church Information Board are tendered to Secretaries of Diocesan Boards of Finance, Diocesan Registrars and other diocesan officials, and the officers of the numerous Church Societies and Institutions, who have all shown their usual readiness to furnish information in order that the Year-Book may be kept up-to-date.

Thanks are due to the Secretaries of the Church of England Council for Education and its Councils for valuable help. Mr. L. S. Whitehead, Mr. J. G. Briggs and Mr. H. J. N. Fentiman have given their help, which is always deeply appreciated, in the revision of the sections dealing with the Church in Wales, the Church of Ireland, and the Episcopal Church in Scotland respectively.

The Board is also indebted to Canon C. Rankin Barnes of the National Council and to the Managing Editor of The Episcopal Church Annual for similar help in revising the material relating to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. The correction and revision of the Overseas material has been facilitated not only by the ready co-operation of the diocesan authorities concerned, but by much help from the Overseas Council and others in this country who are working for the Church Overseas. Valuable assistance has been given by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, the Church Missionary Society, the Colonial and Continental Church Society, the Indian Church Aid Association, the South African Church Institute, the Rev. H. M. Arrowsmith (in connection with the Church of England in Australia and Tasmania), the Right Rev. H. N. V. Tonks (in connection with the Church of the Province of the West Indies), Mr. L. H. Wilson, Provincial Secretary (in connection with the Church of the Province of New Zealand), the Right Rev. T. Arnold Scott (in connection with the Holy Catholic Church in China), the Right Rev. Kenneth A. Viall, S.S.J.E., Assistant Bishop of Tokyo, and the Right Rev. J. C. Mann (in connection with the Japan Holy Catholic Church), and the Archbishop of West Africa (in connection with the Church of the Province of West Africa).

Every possible effort has been made in compiling the 1954–1955 edition of The Official Year-Book to ensure accuracy, yet it is almost inevitable that a book summarising so many thousands of facts should be found to contain errors. Users of the book will be rendering useful service in pointing out any discrepancies, and suggestions for the improvement of the book will be warmly welcomed. Corrections and suggestions should be addressed to the Editor, The Official Year-Book of the Church of England, Church Information Board, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W.1.

THE CORONATION OF HER MAJESTY

THE Coronation of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II in Westminster Abbey on June 2nd was the outstanding ecclesiastical event of the year 1953 both at home and abroad. Through television and later colour films, hundreds of millions of people for the first time were able to watch this most majestic and moving of all ceremonies to be seen anywhere in the modern world, and innumerable testimonies from countries of the Commonwealth and Empire made clear its great spiritual value.

Special praise was felt to be due to the Archbishop of Canterbury for his conduct of the ceremony and when the Summer Session of the Church Assembly opened a few days afterwards it did so to the sound of wave after wave of applause echoing in the Church Assembly Hall. The applause began the moment His Grace appeared and continued long after he had reached the dais. It was a spontaneous tribute of appreciation by the members. Dr. Fisher, who was obviously moved by the warmth of the welcome, thanked the Assembly, and said it had added one more memory to those he already had of the Coronation, and which he would never forget.

The Death of Her Majesty Queen Mary on March 24th was mourned throughout the land and in the Commonwealth and Empire overseas. The countless tributes to her life of service included not a few to her devoted support of the Church of England and of many charitable causes.

Church Assembly and Economy. The business of the Church Assembly at its Spring and Summer Sessions included approval of drastic economies in the administrative Departments to produce a Budget of £185,000 for 1954, including the contractual obligations totalling £87,000 (on which economy was not legally possible) for Clergy Pensions; Church Training Colleges—Service of Loan Stocks; and Lay Workers' Pensions—share of Premiums.

The February Session was to an unusual extent " a private members' session." The Archbishops were requested in a private member's motion > " to appoint a Commission, including representatives of the Convocations, to consider how the clergy and laity can best be joined together in the synodical government of the Church ".

Clergy Stipends. Another motion (carried unanimously and with great applause) expressed appreciation of the work of the Church Commissioners in helping to carry out the Archbishop's Challenge to the Church in the matter of clerical incomes, the Commissioners having facilitated the raising of the target for net stipends in all dioceses to £550 per annum.

Sir Philip Baker Wilbraham, First Church Estates Commissioner, in acknowledging the tribute referred to their heavier task in recent years and mentioned that in the period of 10 years or so prior to 1945 the annual income of the Church Commissioners had been reduced by a figure in the region of £1,000,000 through the abolition of coal royalties, tithe, etc. When in addition to this the effects of taxation were taken into account, and the devaluation of sterling so that £1 today had only half the value it used to have, it was obvious that the task of the Church Commissioners had become more onerous.

The legislative business of that Session included General Approval of the New Housing Areas (Church Buildings) Measure giving powers to the Church Commissioners to help in the provision of Church buildings in new housing areas by grants or loans.

A motion to change the system of proportional representation in the representation of the laity was rejected. A motion condemning Chapels of Unity within or attached to a church or cathedral was defeated in a debate which showed considerable division of opinion.

Ancient Churches. The June Session gave General Approval to the Inspection of Churches Measure on the understanding that a committee would take into account various criticisms, e.g., doubts as to the practicability of asking small country congregations in certain cases to pay for the inspection of ancient churches. This Measure originated from a debate in 1952 on a Report of the Repair of Churches Commission. During the year 1953 the Historic Churches Preservation Trust made considerable progress in the great task of raising £4,000,000 in 10 years. At the Summer Session it was reported that the total of gifts and promises already amounted to £225,000, of which £100,000 had been promised by the Pilgrim Trustees.

Other subjects at the Summer Session included a Report by the Council for Ecumenical Co-operation commending the holding of Bible Weeks, which was approved; Hospital Chaplaincies; Women's Church Work; and Church Newspapers. On this last subject a motion was approved recommending churchpeople "to read a responsible Church newspaper regularly". During the debate a warm tribute was paid by Canon Waddington to the part played by the Press in connection with the Coronation. He said, "I think almost without exception the newspapers handled that tremendous news item in a dignified and responsible way and underlined the spiritual issues involved."

The Agenda for the Autumn Session (to be held after the Year-Book will have gone to press) includes: the consideration on the stage of General Approval of new Representation of the Laity and Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measures, which consolidate the existing law and make a number of amendments, none of outstanding importance; Reports on the law relating to disused churchyards and on the Church of England attitude to the Report of the Lund Conference on Faith and Order; the Annual Report of the Central Advisory Council of Training for the Ministry (which asks for the apportionment in 1954 of a sum of £168,000 between the dioceses for the training of ordination candidates); and Motions asking for the approval of new tables of ecclesiastical fees, the appointment of a commission to examine the system of ecclesiastical fees and the law relating to faculties, and the appointment of a committee to consider the size, composition and boundaries of dioceses.

The Convocations. In 1953 the main work of the Convocations of Canterbury and York was concerned with two matters: the Revision of the Canon Law and relations with other Churches. The former has so far been preliminary and informal; but at the Autumn Sessions Petitions were agreed for presentation to Her Majesty for the "Royal Licence to confer and agree upon Canons", with a view to their enactment and promulgation if and when they receive the Royal Licence and Assent. If this Petition is granted the work of Canon Law revision will reach a further and more formal stage.

Three aspects of relations with other Churches were discussed: First, certain Resolutions were passed concerning occasional interchange of preachers with the Church of Scotland, and the admission of members of that Church to Holy Communion in the Church of England. Secondly, a Committee was appointed to study the implications of the Report of the Conference on Church Relations (with the Free Churches) in England. Thirdly, Resolutions were discussed concerning the Churches of Norway, Denmark and Iceland, with particular reference to the admission of members of those Churches to Holy Communion in the Church of England.

Another important matter discussed was the Lectionary, and a committee was set up to prepare for submission to Convocation either one or two Lectionaries with a view to ultimate authorisation as the only permissible Lectionary. The subjects of Resolutions passed in one or both Convocations included the Church and the Race Question, and the more frequent use of the Ten Commandments. A Resolution still under discussion in the Lower House of Canterbury concerns Prayers with, and for, those who have entered into a second (civil) marriage after divorce. Other subjects before one or more of the four Houses included the Service of Reception into the Church of England; and the best use of available clergymen and lay helpers.

Women's Church Work. During 1953 the Central Council for Women's Church Work held three selection centres, which were attended by 52 candidates, of whom 38 were recommended for training as Church workers. Sixty-five Inter-Diocesan Certificates were also awarded. There are now nine Training Houses recognised by the Central Council where students may complete the necessary examinations for the award of the Inter-Diocesan Certificate.

The Meeting of the Central Council held in March, 1953, was concerned with the future of whole-time service given by trained women to the Church. Doubts and fears were expressed as to how women were going to be used; together with the conviction that their gifts were desperately needed by the Church at this time, and the hope and trust that the Holy Spirit would make plain the way.

Joint Committees have been authorised by the Convocations to consult together in the hope that the differences between the two Convocations on the part to be played by lay women in the service of the Church can be resolved.

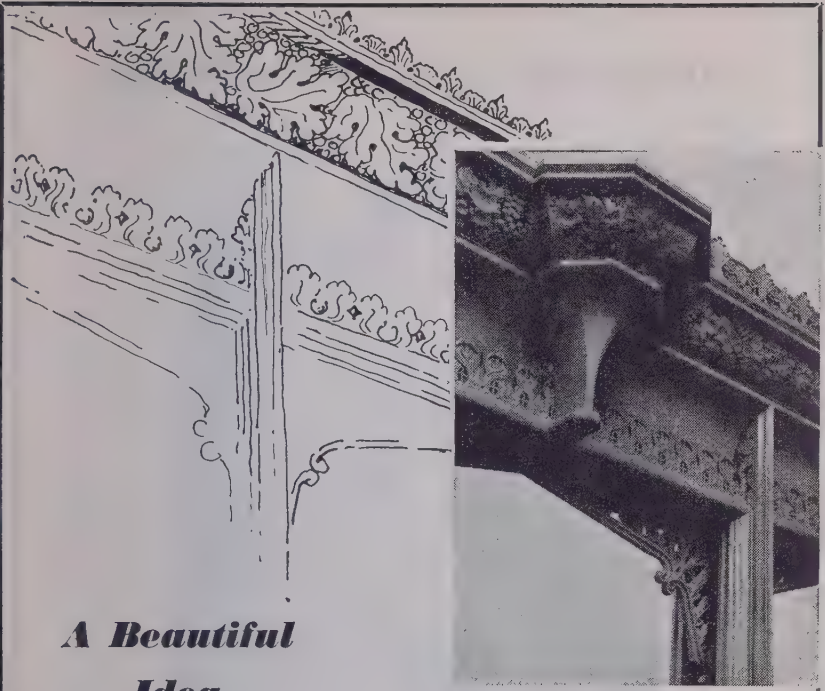
In the Overseas Field there have been some notable developments. A Christian University Settlement has been established at Patna University, which, with its 20,000 students, is a strategic centre of personnel for the vast economic and industrial developments now under way in Northern India. In connection with other Indian universities and colleges, a new opportunity has been presented of supplying 53 Christian professors or lecturers. Of these 12 have already been recruited and appointed.

The Malayan Resettlement Scheme with its hundreds of New Villages is a fresh field of missionary service which is being explored by both the Diocese and the Missionary Societies concerned.

The vast extensions of literacy campaigns now at work in 88 countries in 240 languages are providing the Church with both challenge and scope for initiative, in increasing Christian press services and training, in secular as well as religious journalism. Under the direction of Bishop Stephen Neill, a scheme for the supply of basic "World Christian Books" is already in hand. This will supply short fundamental works capable of interpretation, not merely translation, by nationals of other Churches overseas, for cheap distribution particularly to the indigenous clergy.

On the home side of the overseas field there is encouraging news of the rapid progress of St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, with a membership of 25 priests and ordinands from all over the world.

In connection with the ever-increasing numbers of overseas students in this country, now more than 14,000 in all, there have been many developments, particularly in relation to the William Temple House. This is the Overseas Council's Hostel for Anglican students from abroad, which is now full to capacity with nearly 40 students. Canon



A Beautiful Idea Fashioned by Artist Craftsmen

For almost a century, HAMMER's Designers and Craftsmen have worked together. With loving care, following the tradition of their ancestors they fashion delicately carved pieces, the gossamer tracery belying the hidden strength, that only experience in the selection of well seasoned timber can give. J. McLeod Campbell, General Secretary of the Overseas Council, announced his retirement to take effect at the end of 1953.

Education for Marriage and Family Life. The Moral Welfare Council prepared a campaign to be launched throughout the dioceses for Education in Marriage and Family Life, in which the help of parents, clergy, teachers, youth leaders, chaplains to the Forces and principals of theological colleges should be invited.

Proposals that member-churches should engage in such campaigns for better home life came from the Annual Meeting of the British Council of Churches held last April, under the Presidency of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The campaign in the Church of England has the keen support of the Diocesan Bishops.

The Church of England Council for Education at a meeting in Church House, Westminster, on October 9th, expressed its satisfaction that it had been possible by a process of mutual discussion and agreement to give the voluntary bodies some measure of assistance within the framework of the 1944 settlement under the provisions of the Education (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1953.

A £1,000,000 Appeal to "save Westminster Abbey from decay and ruin" was launched by the Prime Minister (Sir Winston Churchill) and at the time of going to press over half the money had been contributed or promised. Donations may be sent to The Dean of Westminster, Jerusalem Chamber, Westminster Abbey, London, S.W. 1. Items in the Appeal statement were: For the maintenance of the fabric an additional income of £11,000 a year, requiring a capital sum of £314,000; for immediate capital expenditure £330,000; to endow the choir school £9,000 a year, requiring a capital sum of £260,000; for future capital expenditure £70,000.

On June 22nd, at 13 Woburn Place, W.C. 1, the Bishop of London opened and blessed a Church of England Chaplaincy to the University of London. Among the many other events of the year were :—the visit of the choir of St. Paul's Cathedral to the United States; the appointment by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York of a Commission on Divine Healing; and the publication by S.P.C.K. of an important pamphlet—which was commended by the Archbishop of Canterbury in Convocation—entitled "Infallible Fallacies: An Anglican reply to Roman Catholic Arguments" by Some Priests of the Anglican Communion.

Church of England Newspaper

AND THE RECORD

Fridays — Fourpence

THE LEADING CHURCH WEEKLY

THOSE who read and enjoy their C.E.N. appreciate the scope of its influence throughout the country. It is quoted freely in the daily press, and has made for itself an outstanding position in the life and thought of the Church. Thus it is that this great weekly newspaper carries considerable weight with its large circle of readers.

It is read by the Clergy and Laity. The Clergy provide a vital leadership in the world to-day. Their influence is not confined to the Church, it extends to the day-to-day life of the parishes, thus helping to mould public opinion.

The Laity represent the live elements in the parishes. They are the better informed lay-folk, and because they want to remain so they look forward eagerly to their CHURCH OF ENGLAND NEWSPAPER each week.

The news coverage of the CHURCH OF ENGLAND NEWSPAPER is more than national since it reports from the Mission Field, and all parts of the World Church, without distinction of party.

Its distinctive features which include "Commentary," by the Editor; "The Church Family," by Ruth Adam; Films and Drama, by Kenneth Robinson; "Television," by Mary Hargreaves; "Talk of the Week," Book Reviews, Crossword, etc., maintain a permanent interest for everybody concerned with Christian Progress.

In every way it is the complete Church Newspaper.

Cry from Kikuyuland

Outbreak of Mau Mau terrorism in Kenya . . . world aghast and bewildered . . . Church in the Kikuyu area decimated . . . amazing witness of a faithful Remnant . . . Bishop asks for help . . .

C.M.S. acted swiftly. An Emergency Fund was opened, and within a few months over £7000 was raised, not only to undergird the stricken Kikuyu Church but to stimulate new adventures in evangelism at once and during the period of reconstruction. A special pamphlet was issued, and was widely acclaimed a most valuable help to understanding and prayer; its circulation was world-wide. Two members of headquarters staff, formerly missionaries in Kenya, were successively released for short periods for special assignments in the Mau Mau area. Homeless and endangered families were sheltered at the Society's centres in the Kikuyu Reserve. This and much else besides, was done in response to the cry from Kikuyuland.

Just a part of C.M.S. service to the Church in the world to-day.

appreciate your asking me to act as your executor. But I must go on to say that I feel it's too great a responsibility for me to accept alone. My line of business doesn't altogether qualify me for that sort of thing—and then there is always the possibility of illness or accident putting me out of circulation.

For these reasons I suggest that you appoint Lloyds Bank either as your sole executor or to act jointly with me if you prefer.

Lloyds Bank will always be available even if I am not and it has, of course, a specially trained and experienced staff to deal with such matters. May I suggest that you get in touch with the Bank now and

ADDITIONAL CURATES SOCIETY

ACS was founded in 1837 primarily to advance the work of the Church in all the new towns thrown up by the Industrial Revolution. It was founded by men who believed in two complementary truths—

1. The incumbent of the parish is not merely the minister of a congregation but is responsible for the souls of all the people who live within the parish boundary.
2. The basis of his task must be pastoral. He must deal with souls individually by visiting and in any other way that presents itself.

To further these two aims, since its foundation ACS has striven to provide ADDITIONAL CURATES. More men to work in the industrial areas and new housing estates in order that the pastoral task may be adequately performed.

By its grants it endeavours to bridge the gap between what the parish can raise and what the parish has to pay, so that no parish shall be deprived of the clergy it needs because of poverty.

Grants are made to every type of parish irrespective of Churchmanship and each one is based on the needs of the parish concerned.

In 1954 ACS has promised to assist in maintaining 788 assistant curates and has promised a total sum of £41,844.

ACS asks every parish to give some help, however small.

For preachers, speakers, film strips, etc., please write to The Reverend C. J. Read, General Secretary, Additional Curates Society, 14, Rothamsted Avenue, Harpenden, Herts.

WESTMINSTER ABBEY

(Description of Arms.—Azure, a cross patonce between 5 martlets or; on a chief or France and England quarterly on a pale, between two double roses, argent on gules, seeded and barbed proper.)

Collegiate Church of St. Peter

The collegiate church of St. Peter in Westminster, usually called Westminster Abbey, is a Royal Chapel and a Royal Peculiar, but it is not a Chapel Royal in the sense of being under the jurisdiction of the Dean of the Chapels Royal. As a Royal Peculiar it is extra-provincial as well as extra-diocesan and comes directly under the personal jurisdiction of Her Majesty the Queen, who is the Visitor.

Throughout medieval times it was the Abbey Church of a great Benedictine Monastery, which was in existence at Westminster before the Norman Conquest. After the dissolution of the monastery in 1540 it became increasingly a great national shrine, where famous writers, poets, statesmen, and leaders in Church and State are buried. It is the Coronation Church, and in it also take place from time to time Royal weddings and many services on great occasions of a National or Imperial character.

WINDSOR

The Queen's Free Chapel of St. George within Her Castle of Windsor

St. George's Chapel is not a "Chapel Royal", and indeed is not the property of the Crown. Its position is largely similar to that of Westminster Abbey. It is a Royal Peculiar and, as such, exempt from episcopal and archiepiscopal jurisdiction. The Chapel, with the cloisters and twenty-four houses adjoining them, are the freehold property of the Dean and Canons of Windsor. Like Westminster Abbey, St. George's is a Collegiate Church, but, unlike the Abbey, it was never monastic.

The Order of the Garter has its stalls and insignia in the Quire of St. George's. Edward IV, Henry VI, Henry VIII, and Charles I—the two latter in one small vault—are buried here, and all our monarchs, except Queen Victoria, from George III onwards. The daily services are open to the public.

H.M. TOWER OF LONDON

Within H.M. Tower of London are situated the Chapels Royal of St. John the Evangelist and St. Peter ad Vincula, forming what is traditionally described as "A cure of Souls and the Queen's Donative". The Chapel of St. John is in the White Tower and is the older. Bell's "Notices of the Historic Persons Buried in the Chapel of St. Peter ad Vincula in the Tower of London" states :—

> "The dedication of the Chapel to 'St. Peter ad Vincula' (St. Peter in chains or bonds) is peculiar, and at once points to its use as the place of worship for the prisoners within the fortress, in contra-distinction to the Chapel of St. John, which was for the accommodation of the Sovereign and Court when residing in the Tower."

CHAPELS ROYAL

A Chapel Royal is a chapel attached to the Court, and in theory should move from place to place with the Court. It is not subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop. The present Dean of the Chapels Royal is the Bishop of London, and it is as such that he has jurisdiction over the Chapel Royal, St. James's.

ROYAL MILITARY MEMORIAL CHAPEL, SANDHURST

The original Chapel on the present site was built by the Royal Engineers in 1879, replacing the Chapel (dedicated in 1813) in the Old Buildings of the Royal Military College. To commemorate the officers educated there who gave their lives in the First World War the Chapel was re-built and enlarged, and was dedicated in 1937.

On the amalgamation of the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, and the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, by the establishment of the Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst, the Chapel became the Royal Military Memorial Chapel, Sandhurst. Memorials to commemorate all officers of the Commonwealth Armies who gave their lives in the Second World War, including a special Memorial to All Ranks of the Indian Army, were dedicated in 1950. The Chapel has become not only a unique memorial to past officers but a parent church to officers throughout the Army.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF CHAPLAINS

The position of Royal Chaplain is a very ancient one. The Royal College of Chaplains, the members of which as such must not be confused with the Priests-in-Ordinary, who preach according to a Rota of Waits in the Chapel Royal, is presided over by the Clerk of the Closet. The Royal College comprises the Clerk of the Closet, the Deputy Clerk of the Closet, and thirty-six Chaplains. When a vacancy in the list of Chaplains occurs the Private Secretary to the Queen asks the Clerk of the Closet to suggest possible names to Her Majesty. The duties of the Clerk of the Closet include the presentation of Bishops to Her Majesty when they do homage before taking possession of the revenues of their Sees; and he also examines theological books whose authors desire to present copies to the Queen. He preaches annually in St. James' Chapel.

THE QUEEN'S CHAPEL OF THE SAVOY

Chapel of the Royal Victorian Order

The Chapel of the Savoy is a private Chapel of Her Majesty the Queen in right of her Duchy of Lancaster, and is thus a "free Chapel", i.e., a Chapel not under the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the Bishop of London or the Archbishop of Canterbury. Since 1937 it has been also the Chapel of the Royal Victorian Order.

When King Henry IV in 1399 annexed the Manor of the Savoy with all the estates of the House of Lancaster to the Crown, he declared them at the same time to be a separate inheritance distinct from that of the Sovereign. The distinction is expressed in the form of the National Anthem which is sung in the Chapel of the Savoy :

"God save our gracious Queen,
Long live our Noble Duke,
God save the Queen."

The Chapel is a link with the old Manor, Palace, and Hospital of the Savoy. It is administered through the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy, and its Chaplain is appointed by Letters Patent. Her Majesty the Queen is Lord of the Manor of the Savoy, in which the Chapel stands. The Services are open to the public with the exception of those on special and official occasions.

On the occasion of His Coronation in 1937, His Majesty the late King George VI, in right of His Duchy of Lancaster, commanded that : "On or from the date of Their Majesties' Coronation, the Chapel of the Savoy shall be placed at the disposal of the Royal Victorian Order and shall be regarded by the Members as the Chapel of the Order." At the same time it was ordained that the Chaplain for the time being should be the Chaplain of the Royal Victorian Order.

THE ROYAL FOUNDATION OF SAINT KATHARINE

"The Royal Hospital and Collegiate Church of Saint Katharine near the Tower" was founded by Queen Matilda in 1148, and refounded by Queen Eleanor in 1273. It remained on its site eastward of the Tower of London until its removal in 1825 to the Precincts in Regent's Park to make way for the construction of St. Katharine's Dock.

A Royal Peculiar under the patronage of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother, who has final authority, Saint Katharine's from ancient time was independent of any Diocesan or Provincial control, and had its own Ecclesiastical Court. The Chapter of Saint Katharine's originally consisted of a Master and three Brethren in Holy Orders, and three Sisters of equal rank and dignity and voting power to the Brethren, within the limits of the Capitular Body.

In 1914 the Royal College of Saint Katharine was established in Poplar to undertake maternity and child welfare work.

After the passing of the National Health Service Act in 1948 the work of the Royal College in Poplar was taken over by the London County Council, and the Patron, Her late Majesty Queen Mary, approved the recommendation of the Chapter to vacate the Precincts (including the Chapel) in Regent's Park, and to re-establish the Foundation on a religious basis as nearly as possible on its original lines in East London, with whose history it has for so many centuries been closely linked, and to alter its title to the Royal Foundation of Saint Katharine.

Its present site is in Butcher Row, Ratcliffe, where a new Chapel and premises have already been built in which (to paraphrase the Charter of Queen Philippa) the good conduct and works of piety of the Community shall rouse the people in the neighbourhood to greater devotion: for where God is worshipped devotedly, and the regular daily tasks undertaken with prayer, others are led to lead more neighbourly and kindly Christian lives among themselves.

The Church in Wales

THE Church in Wales was disestablished and partially disendowed by the Welsh Church Acts, 1914 and 1919, which came fully into force on April 1st, 1920. On that date the new Province of Wales was created.

The Province is practically co-terminous with Wales and Monmouthshire. It comprises six dioceses, namely, St. Asaph, Bangor, St. Davids, Llandaff, Monmouth, and Swansea and Brecon.

There are 14 archdeaconries, 950 incumbencies and 476 curacies in the Province. There are some 200,000 Easter communicants and the population at the census of 1931 was 2,583,410.

THE GOVERNING BODY

President : The Archbishop of Wales (The Most Rev. John Morgan, D.D.).

Hon. Secretaries.—

Clerical : The Very Rev. W. G. H. Simon, The Deanery, Llandaff;
Lay : Mr. L. S. Whitehead, 39 Cathedral Road, Cardiff.

The Welsh Church Acts enabled the bishops, clergy and laity of the Church in Wales to appoint a legislative body with power to frame constitutions and regulations for the general management and good government of the Church and the property and affairs thereof whether as a whole or according to dioceses. The Church in Wales set up a Governing Body for the whole Province consisting of the three orders of bishops, clergy and laity.

The order of Bishops consists of the Archbishop and the Diocesan Bishops; the order of Clergy consists of the Deans and Archdeacons (ex officio) and 25 members elected triennially by each of the six diocesan conferences; and the order of the laity consists of 50 lay persons elected triennially by each of the six diocesan conferences. In addition there are 10 clerical and 20 lay members co-opted.

Its President is the Archbishop; it has one annual meeting and such other special meetings as may be necessary.

Its powers are very wide and its decisions are binding upon all members of the Church. At its first session it passed the following resolution :—

> "The Governing Body does hereby accept the Articles, Doctrinal Statements, Rites, and Ceremonies, and save in so far as they may be necessarily varied by the Welsh Church Act, 1914, the formularies of the Church of England as accepted by that Church, and set forth in or appended to the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England."

THE REPRESENTATIVE BODY OF THE CHURCH IN WALES

Chairman : Colonel G. R. D. Harrison.

Secretary : Mr. L. S. Whitehead, 39 Cathedral Road, Cardiff.

Provision was made in the Welsh Church Acts for the setting up of a Representative Body of the Church in Wales with power, inter alia, to hold property for any of the uses and purposes of the bishops, clergy and laity of the Church in Wales.

The Representative Body was incorporated by Royal Charter (S.R. & O. 1919, No. 564) on April 24th, 1919. It bears somewhat the same relation to the Governing Body as the Central Board of Finance bears to the National Assembly of the Church of England. It is subject to the order and control of the Governing Body, but this does not mean that everything it does has to be confirmed by the Governing Body in order to make it effective. Its powers are mainly financial and administrative; it has certain statutory obligations; it has authority to do certain things under its charter; by Chapter III of the Constitution it is enabled to carry through sales, purchases, leases, investments, etc., and it has further powers under schemes approved from time to time by the Governing Body.

All churches, churchyards, parsonages, glebe lands, and other Church properties are vested in the Representative Body. It is expected to initiate financial reforms and to make recommendations accordingly for the approval of the Governing Body.

The stipends of the bishops, dignitaries, and beneficed clergy are paid quarterly by the Representative Body. It also pays substantial grants towards stipends of assistant curates; it pays the pensions of retired clergy and grants for the benefit of widows, orphans and dependants of deceased clergy. It administers funds out of which all parsonage houses in the Province are kept in good repair.

Recent Developments. The Welsh Church Appeal launched for one year at Eastertide, 1952, by " laymen to laymen " has been successful. Its aim was at least £500,000 to be used to make better financial provision for the maintenance of the Ministry. At the time of writing £617,000 has been collected and it is confidently expected that ultimately the Fund will exceed £620,000. The Appeal has shown in practical form the zeal and loyalty of church members throughout Wales as well as the goodwill of friends everywhere.

At Eastertide, 1953, the Welsh Church held its first Congress at Llandrindod Wells. The Congress lasted for four days and had for its theme the place of the Church in Wales in the history of Wales and her relation to the life of Wales to-day.

The Church of Ireland

Hon. Secretaries of Standing Committee of the General Synod.—

Clerical : The Ven. H. W. Rennison, Jenkinstown, Dundalk, Co. Louth. (One vacancy.)

Lay : Mr. J. D. Smyth, 17 Bedford Street, Belfast.
Mr. C. G. Carson, "Landfall," Baily, Howth, Co. Dublin

The Central Office of the Church of Ireland : 52 St. Stephen's Green East, Dublin.

UNTIL January 1, 1871, the Church of Ireland was established by law, and was united with the Church of England, by the Act of Union (1800). The Bishops and the beneficed Clergy had a freehold in their offices, and in the emoluments and privileges belonging to these offices; the resources of the Church were practically all derived from tithe rent-charges, from the annual rents or produce of Church lands, from occasional private subscriptions, and from the income arising out of invested private benefactions.

The Irish Church Act, 1869, provided that from January 1, 1871, the statutory union between the Churches of England and Ireland should be dissolved, and that the Church of Ireland should cease to be established by law.

Subject to the vested interests of the then existing Bishops, Clergy, and other Church officers, all Church property of every kind was vested in the "Commissioners of Church Temporalities," who were created by the Act, and who carried out all the transactions which the Act required—in realising all items of property, selling Church lands to occupying tenants and others, discharging all liabilities imposed by the Act, and, from time to time, as Parliament might direct, appropriating the surplus to various Irish purposes.

All the Ecclesiastical Corporations that existed under former conditions having been dissolved by the Irish Church Act, the necessity arose for the creation of a new corporate body to take over from the Church Temporalities Commissioners whatever property and moneys were, under the Act, to be transferred to the new authorities of the disestablished Church, and to be the trustee and agent in respect of property and funds subsequently acquired. This was met by the incorporation, in 1870, of the "Representative Church Body."

This body was constituted so as to include representatives from every part of Ireland, and it is a tribute to the wisdom and capabilities of its members—especially those who had to deal with the difficulties of the early 'seventies—that in their recent reports they are able to show an accumulation of assets amounting to over thirteen million pounds.

In this connection it is interesting to note that, in the period from 1870 to 1952, inclusive, the grand total of voluntary contributions received by the Representative Body amounted to £14,545,617 5*s.* 3*d.*

At a General Convention held in 1870, it was declared, as a general and fundamental principle, that a General Synod consisting of the Archbishops and Bishops, and of representatives of the Clergy and Laity "shall have chief legislative power in the Church and such administrative power as may be necessary and consistent with its episcopal constitution."

The General Synod consists of three orders, the Bishops, the Clergy, and the Laity. These sit as two Houses. The House of Bishops, consisting of all the Archbishops and Bishops, for the time being; and the House of Representatives, consisting of 216 Clerical and 432 Lay Representatives, distributed among the Dioceses and elected every third year by the Diocesan Synods.

Each Diocesan Synod consists of all the beneficed and licensed Clergymen of the Diocese, with lay Synodsmen, elected every third year by the Registered Vestrymen of each Parish or Parochial District, two being elected for each Clergyman officiating therein.

The Diocesan Synod, subject to the control of the General Synod, administers the temporalities of the Diocese, and appoints an executive body called THE DIOCESAN COUNCIL to carry on the financial and other business of the Diocese.

The REGISTERED VESTRYMEN are Church members who either own property or are resident in the parish, or are accustomed members of the congregation of the Church or Churches in the parish. They are the constituency that elects (a) one of the CHURCHWARDENS—the other being nominated by the Incumbent; (b) members of the SELECT VESTRY which controls Parochial Charity and Church Funds; (c) the lay Synodsmen who sit in the Diocesan Synod; and (d) the three PAROCHIAL NOMINATORS who with the Bishop and the three DIOCESAN NOMINATORS, elected by the Diocesan Synod, constitute the BOARD OF NOMINATION, with whom rests the appointment of the Incumbent of the Parish, in the event of a vacancy.

The Primatial Sees and the National Cathedral.—The Primate of All Ireland is chosen by the House of Bishops from among their own number; a bishop is normally appointed by the clerical and lay members of the Diocesan Synod; and an incumbent by a Board of Nomination on which the laity are represented. The Archbishop of Armagh is Primate of All Ireland, and the Archbishop of Dublin, Primate of Ireland. The Bishop of Meath is the Premier Bishop (St. Patrick having traditionally converted first the ancient Kingdom of Meath) and is also addressed as "The Most Rev." There is no cathedral or chapter in Meath.

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St. Patrick, Dublin, in which the Archbishop of Dublin occupies a Prebendal Stall and the Dean of which is also the Ordinary, holds a position which bears some analogy to that of Westminster Abbey in London, though of course it has not the status of a Royal Peculiar. Also, while it was endowed and raised to the status of a Collegiate Church in 1190 by John Comyn, Archbishop of Dublin, it was given full Cathedral rank (unlike Westminster Abbey) by his successor, Archbishop Henry de Loundres. In 1872 it was constituted by Chap. V. of Stat. General Synod the "National Cathedral of the Church of Ireland, having a common relation to all the Dioceses of Ireland." The appointments to the other twenty-three prebendal stalls are made, as to fourteen by the respective Dioceses of the Church of Ireland, and as to nine by the Dean and Chapter.

An appeal for £20,000 had to be launched in the summer of 1950 for the fabric of Armagh Cathedral.

Recent Legislation.—In 1952 there was legislation by the General Synod :—

To amend Section 22 of Chapter XV of the Constitution (Superannuation Assessment).

To amend a petition in the Litany.

To add two collects to that part of the Book of Common Prayer entitled "2. An Alternative Form of Evening Prayer."

To remove doubts as to the status of the Cathedral Church of Lisburn in the Diocese of Connor.

In 1953 there was legislation by the General Synod :—

To amend certain provisions of Chapter XIII of the Constitution (management of glebes and parochial buildings).

To amend Chapter X of the Constitution (Church Fabric Fund).

To amend Section 13 and Section 20 of Chapter III of the Constitution (Parishes and Parochial Organisation).

The Episcopal Church in Scotland

THE Episcopal Church was formerly the Established Church of Scotland. It was disestablished and disendowed in 1689 by King William III., who, almost entirely on political grounds, set up the Presbyterian Church in its place.

The disestablished Episcopal Church continued strongly until 1746, when, again for political reasons, severe Penal Statutes were imposed upon all Episcopalians. These laws made it illegal for them to possess any churches or chapels; all public services were forbidden and Episcopalian clergy were not allowed to minister to more than five persons at a time, under penalties of imprisonment or banishment.

These laws continued in force until 1792. Under such conditions it is not remarkable that the persecuted Church dwindled in numbers until it became "a shadow of a shade." Nevertheless, throughout the whole period the Bishops maintained their continuity and in 1784 gave the Episcopate to the American Church by the consecration, in an upper room in Aberdeen, of Bishop Seabury, its first Bishop.

To-day the Episcopal Church in Scotland has 7 bishops, over 339 clergy, and about 105,800 members, of whom 56,300 are communicants.

REPRESENTATIVE CHURCH COUNCIL

President: The Most Rev. the Primus.

Convener of Executive Committee: T. P. Spens, O.B.E., M.C., W.S., 169 West George Street, Glasgow, C. 2.

Secretary and Treasurer (to whom all communications should be addressed): H. J. N. Fentiman, A.C.I.S., 13 Drumsheugh Gardens, Edinburgh, 3.

The Council consists of the Bishops, the Deans, all instituted or licensed Presbyters, Diocesan Officials and a Lay Representative from each congregation and mission in the Church.

The following are the Funds raised by the Council and methods of raising them:—

1. Clergy Sustentation Fund, raised by subscriptions throughout the whole Church. From this Fund a Flat Grant of 60*l.* is due to the priests in charge of all independent congregations, each Bishop receiving three shares. There are, besides, congregations whose Rectors or Priests-in-Charge receive Augmentation Grants from the Fund in addition to the Flat Grant. Any surplus is used in raising such stipends as are below, to the minimum stipend declared for the year. For 1952 this was £400.

2. Home Mission Fund, raised by an annual offertory in every Church. Dependent Missions, Curates' Stipends, and Extension Work of the Church are supported by this Fund.

3. Education Fund, raised by an annual offertory in every Church, and used for the support of Sunday School work, Church Day Schools, and Adult Religious Education.

4. Overseas Mission Fund, raised by annual offertory in every congregation. It is for the support of the Special Overseas Mission Work of the Scottish Episcopal Church in Chanda, India, and St. John's (South Africa).

5. Social Service Fund, raised by subscriptions and donations for Moral Welfare, Youth, Eventide Homes, Temperance, and other Social Work.

6. Endowment Funds. Moneys raised and bequeathed for congregational purposes of Endowment are held by the Trustees of the Council and invested, the income thereof being paid over half-yearly to congregations.

7. Theological Hall Fund, raised by subscriptions and collections for the support of the Theological College, Coates Hall, Edinburgh, and by interest on endowments.

8. Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, raised by assessment on congregations, charged on the gross income of the Clergy, and by donations and legacies. At present maximum retiring allowances of £270 are granted to Clergy incapacitated by age or permanent ill-health.

9. Widows' and Orphans' Supplementary Fund, raised by contributions from congregations and individuals, also by donations and legacies. Eleemosynary grants are given according to circumstances to help to supplement the annuity to widows and dependants of clergy from the Statutory Fund. The income is administered by a Committee of three laymen and all details are confidential.

Besides these nine Funds there are other charitable Funds administered by the Council.

Recent Events. In 1952, contributions to the five main central funds showed a decrease of about £800 in all, due mainly to special donations in 1951. Legacies amounted to £4,850, and further legacies intimated, to £8,800.

The Clergy Fund advanced the minimum stipend from £380 in 1951 to £400 in 1952. In addition Family Allowances supplemented the Government scheme in respect of the first child and helped with the education of those too old for the National Allowances. The next aim is a stipend of £450, which requires an additional income of £6,600. The Home Mission Fund has maintained the graduated scale of stipends for mission priests and curates, carrying forward a balance of only £140 into 1953. The Church, to meet the ever rising cost of living, has agreed as from 1953 to step up the scale to begin at £275 for a deacon instead of £250, and to add £20 to each grade thereafter. Congregations will be asked to increase their local proportion of the stipend, but the Fund will have to find considerably more. The Report is awaited of the Commission on Clerical Stipends.

The balance on the Sites and Buildings Fund has been practically all earmarked, but there are several new schemes to be undertaken. The Hall-Church at St. David's, Pilton, Edinburgh, which serves this huge housing area, has been dedicated as a Church, and a new Hall and Parsonage have been built. It is hoped shortly to reconstruct the Parsonage at Glenurquhart, to be used as an Itinerant Mission centre for the south and west of the diocese of Moray. In the diocese of Argyll, a new church is to be built at Kinlochleven, and an Itinerant Priest has begun work based on Fort-William in a wide area including Mallaig and the Isle of Skye. A site has been secured for a Church in the new housing area of East Kilbride in the diocese of Glasgow.

In education, the central Board is providing a Scholarship of £226 per annum at Trinity College, Glenalmond, for one of the sons of the clergy. Efforts to foster Adult Religious Education include a Summer School for the laity. There are Chaplains for Anglican students at all Scottish University centres, and Conferences of students have been held in 1952 and in 1953. There are 3,000 Anglican students in Edinburgh alone.

The Churchwomen's Missionary Association, an auxiliary to the Overseas Mission Board, contributed over £4,000 in 1952 for overseas activities. An appeal for Medical Missions helped work at Nazareth, at Clydesdale in the diocese of St. John's, South Africa, and at Chanda, India, and the Medical Mission work of S.P.G. The Representative Church Council invited S.P.G., C.M.S., and U.M.C.A. to appoint representatives to the Board as from 1952, and this is proving stimulating to both sides.

In the Youth work under the Social Service Board, there has been an increase of 27 Clubs or Fellowships in the past two years, and the Youth House at Dalmahoy, Midlothian, attracts many young visitors. The Board is responsible for two Eventide Homes, and three Moral Welfare Workers are employed, one shared with the Church of Scotland.

The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America

Expansion. Under the vigorous leadership of its Presiding Bishop the Church has moved steadily forward. While gains are limited in the older parts of the country, many new churches, parish houses and rectories have been built in Florida, Texas, California, Oregon and Washington.

The 57th Triennial General Convention, held in Boston, September 8–19th, 1952, proved an outstanding event. Over 17,000 persons attended the colourful opening service, with some 5,000 turned away. Leading visitors were the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Primate of All Canada and the Presiding Bishop of Nippon Sei Ko Kai. The Missionary District of New Mexico and Southwest Texas was admitted to become a self-supporting diocese.

The National Council, which administers the Church's missionary, educational and social work, now operates under a budget of $5,546,566, the largest in its history. In the home field the major emphasis is on Christian education, while in the overseas field there is expansion in Japan and the Phillippines.

Ordinations rose to new high figures. Over 1,000 men are studying in the twelve theological seminaries. For the first time there are more licensed lay readers than ordained clergy.

Statistics. The following are for the year 1952 (1951 figures in brackets): Number of clergy, 6,958 (6,805); parishes and missions, 7,954 (7,851); Ordinations: deacons, 343 (287); priests, 310 (276); candidates for Holy Orders, 589 (566);

Postulants, 1,246 (1,210); Lay Readers, 6,971 (6,447); Baptisms: infants, 90,776 (91,987), adults, 16,626 (17,302); Confirmations, 88,089 (88,727); Church Members (baptized persons), 2,715,825 (2,643,488); Communicants, 1,742,188 (1,712,070); Marriages, 28,419 (30,426); Burials, 55,348 (54,316); Church Schools: Teachers, 66,958 (62,877); Pupils, 585,098 (543,167). Total receipts, $91,583,112.50 ($81,946,472.10).

The Church of India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon

General. The year 1952 has been one of further consolidation for the Church of India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon, but also one of financial difficulties. Famine has been felt in at least two dioceses. Decentralisation has its difficulties. Finance is a hindrance to the full development of new dioceses. The East Punjab hitherto an archdeaconry in the diocese of Lahore, has been made the missionary diocese of Amritsar, and it must now develop its own organisation and independent life. East Pakistan, in the diocese of Calcutta, under its new Assistant Bishop, the Right Rev. J. D. Blair, must also develop its own organisation and life. The other newly consecrated Assistant Bishop in Calcutta, the Right Rev. Ronald Bryan, has the Bengali district of West Bengal.

While the overwhelming majority of the peoples of the two Indian Dominions are still Hindus and Mahomedans, the supreme work of the Church of India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon is the presentation of the Gospel message to the non-Christians. The chief associations of the Church of England supporting the Church in India are the C.M.S., S.P.G., S.P.C.K., C.E.Z.M.S. and B.C.M.S. In addition the Oxford Mission to Calcutta, the Cambridge Brotherhood in Delhi, the Dublin University Mission to Chota Nagpur, the Scottish Episcopal Mission in the Diocese of Nagpur and the Religious Communities, both men and women, are doing most valuable work. The rapid growth of the new university at Patna which is attracting numbers of Christian students, is another urgent challenge to adventure on the part of the Christian Church.

The Church is making steady progress with its Prayer and Service Book, under the leadership of the Bishop of Chota Nagpur, and parts are now in use. The whole is to be revised after five years' experience.

The safeguarding of the rights of Christians, both Indian and Anglo-Indian, within the new Constitution of the Republic of India means a great deal to the whole Church. Article 25 guarantees all persons freedom of conscience and the right freely to profess, practise and propagate religion. Those numbered 29 and 30 ensure to Indian Christians and Anglo-Indians the right to establish and administer educational constitutions of their choice, as well as the right of any minority with a distinct language, script or culture to conserve the same. Human nature, however, will often override rights on paper and there are indications in several directions of racial discrimination and of a tendency in some officials to consider religion as a foe to the " secular " state. But others report that the integrity and faithfulness of the Indian Christian and Anglo-Indian communities are regarded as a bulwark against the corruption and bribery which are unfortunately increasing.

Air travel, radio and television and the cinema are now features of national life which the Church cannot disregard. They bring opportunities as well as dangers. Communism is making capital out of illiteracy or semi-illiteracy for political purposes. More Christian propaganda, and for the Church's priests and workers more Christian apologetics and literature in one or more of the main vernaculars, are urgent needs. The work of the British and Foreigh Bible Society and of S.P.C.K. need all the support of the Home Church.

The business, domiciled and Anglo-Indian communities are undertaking with willingness and self-sacrifice the task of maintaining their own chaplains and churches; but with the fewer numbers, such congregations will not be able to meet diocesan assessments on the former scales. The problem of how to provide for the shepherding of the small and scattered groups of British, Anglo-Indian and English-speaking Indians, weighs heavily on the Bishops today. Many of these English-speaking people have command of one or other of the vernacular languages, but not ot the particular vernacular in which local Christian services are held in the area where they are working.

In addition young men and women are still going out from England to India in considerable numbers. The problem of shepherding them provides both an opportunity and a challenge.

The need for educational bursaries to ensure to Anglo-Indian and other children Christian education is a vital problem and Englishmen and women are needed and welcomed in the schools. The expense of passages and furloughs cannot now be met by diocesan or school funds, and the problem is one for united action at home.

The Re-union negotiations of the Joint Committee for Ceylon have continued and there is a genuine desire on the part of negotiants to avoid if possible the obstacles and difficulties that have made for opposition to the South Indian union. The proposals for securing full unification of the Ministries of the several churches from the beginning are being discussed in detail; publicity in the Press tends to confuse points of divergence and of agreement and considered judgment must take time. The Joint Committee realises that there is still a long way to go.

For North India a Joint Committee is in process of formation, but a basis of negotiation has been provisionally prepared by a round table conference, and like the Ceylon scheme appears to offer an improvement on that applied in South India. It provides for the acceptance of episcopacy and contains suggestions for a unification of the ministry. (See Lambeth Report, pages 59–60.) The General Council has now its official representatives on the Joint Committee.

The Indian Church Aid Association, incorporated under the patronage of the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, was originally started to assist the Church in its efforts for the welfare of the Domiciled Community. In 1900 it was formally adopted as the agent of the Indian Episcopate in this country. It acts as Headquarters for Chaplains and the English Church Schools and seeks to maintain the interest of former residents in the Church; and will receive and forward subscriptions to any object in connection with the Church, and put anyone going to India in touch with church life there. But its principal policy is concerned with the cause of the definitely Church schools, teaching in English, the provision of bursaries and making known the need for priests, deaconesses, teachers and social workers and the training of an Anglo-Indian Ministry.

The Officers of the Association are: President, Most Rev. G. C. Hubback. Hon. Treasurer, (Vacant.) Secretary, Miss M. Tyrwhitt-Drake, 5 Victoria St., Westminster, S.W.1. (Tel.: Abbey 5883.)

The Church of the Province of South Africa

Official Title :—" The Church of the Province of South Africa (otherwise known as the Church of England or the English Church or Church of the Anglican Communion in these parts)."

EXTRACT FROM THE CONSTITUTION OF THE CHURCH OF THE PROVINCE OF SOUTH AFRICA

> " The Provincial Synod of this Church . . . shall be the Legislative Body of the Church of this Province; and every enactment of the said Provincial Synod shall be a Law and Rule of the Church of this Province in those matters to which it may pertain.
> " Provided that the Provincial Synod of the Church of this Province shall be subordinate to the higher authority of a General Synod of the Churches of the Anglican Communion, to which this Province shall be invited to send representatives, whenever such General Synod shall be convened."—Article II.

THE Provincial Synod meets normally every five years. Every diocese sends representatives, clerical and lay, in proportion to the number of clergy in the diocese. No enactment can be made without majority votes in the Houses of Clergy and Laity. Diocesan Synods meet more often. The Diocesan Synod " shall resemble, as far as possible, the Provincial Synod in its constitution and mode of procedure, but may not make regulations contrary to those of the Provincial Synod."

Bishops are elected by the clergy of the Diocese " with the assent thereto of the Representatives of the Laity " at an Elective Assembly, or the election may be delegated " to the Metropolitan and other person or persons . . . resident in the Province."—(Canon IV.)

The sixteen dioceses in the Church of the Province extend far beyond the Union of South Africa and fall under many varying administrations. There can, of course, in these circumstances be little common ground in respect of education or native policy, and it is not therefore to be expected that beyond very broad lines of natural justice the Church can make any general pronouncements which will be relevant to its work.

The Church's work in the Province falls under the following administrations: the Colonial Office (St. Helena); the Commonwealth Relations Office (the High Commission territories); the Portuguese East African Administration (Lebombo); the new East African Federation; and the Union of South Africa, a self-governing Dominion with separate citizenship.

The dioceses concerned with the High Commission Territories of Basutoland and Swaziland and Bechuanaland Protectorate are Basutoland, Zululand, and Kimberley and Kuruman respectively.

Consideration of a new Province for Central Africa, comprising the Dioceses of Mashonaland, Matabeleland, Northern Rhodesia and Nyasaland, has been postponed until 1954 in view of the uncertain political situation.

At the end of 1952 the Diocese of Southern Rhodesia was sub-divided into Mashonaland and Matabeleland, the former Bishop of Southern Rhodesia becoming Bishop of Mashonaland and early in 1953 the Right Rev. W. J. Hughes was nominated first Bishop of Matabeleland.

The South African Church Institute (14 Great Peter Street, Westminster, S.W. 1) is also the headquarters of the South African Church Railway Mission and the Transvaal and Southern Rhodesia Missions. The work done in close collaboration with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel is mainly in finding priests and lay workers for South Africa, and in making the needs of the Church of South Africa known throughout England. The Director is the Rev. C. T. Wood, Tel.: Abbey 1033. Publications: The Cape to Zambezi, quarterly by the Institute; The Net, three times a year by the Zululand Missionary Association; Lebombo Leaves, quarterly by the Lebombo Diocesan Association; Home Association News, twice a year by the Bloemfontein, Kimberley and Kuruman, and Damaraland Home Association; The Blue Quarterly, by the South African Church Railway Mission.

The Order of Ethiopia is a body of Bantu (chiefly Xhosa) Christians belonging to the Church of the Province of South Africa. They manage their own affairs, receiving no financial assistance whatever. The Order has a Constitution, approved by the Provincial Synod, and its Conference meets annually. The Provincial is appointed by the Episcopal Synod in consultation with the Chapter of the Order, and the Archbishop of Cape Town is the Visitor. The Order works chiefly in the Diocese of Grahamstown, having also stations in the Dioceses of St. John's, Johannesburg and George, and one in Cape Town. Provincial: Rev. Kayser Ngxhwana, Church of the Ascension, P.O. New Brighton, Port Elizabeth, C.P.

The Church of England in Canada

Primate of All Canada: The Most Rev. W. F. Barfoot, D.D., Archbishop of Rupert's Land.

Executive Secretary of General Synod: Canon R. A. Hiltz, D.D.

Offices of the General Synod and of its Departments: The Church House, 604 Jarvis Street, Toronto, 5.

Organisation. The General Synod, which normally meets triennially, consists of the Archbishops, the Bishops, and elected clerical and lay representatives of the 28 dioceses of the Canadian Church. The President is the Primate of All Canada. The archbishops and bishops comprise the Upper, the clergy and laity the Lower House. Between the sessions, the Executive Council carries on the work, meeting annually.

Each of the four Ecclesiastical Provinces, namely, the Provinces of Canada, Ontario, Rupert's Land and British Columbia, is organised under a Metropolitan and has its own Provincial Synod and Provincial Executive Council. Each diocese has its own Diocesan Synod meeting in most cases annually under the chairmanship of its Bishop.

A great deal of work has been delegated by the General Synod to special Departments, the Primate being, ex-officio, chairman of all these. Three are of particular importance, namely:—

1. The Department of Missions (M.S.C.C.): General Secretary: Canon L. A. Dixon, O.B.E., D.D. Superintendent, Indian School Administration: Canon H. G. Cook, D.D. Field Secretary: Ven. A. H. Davis.

All the definitely Missionary work of the Church comes under this Department and is administered by a Board of Management made up of the Bishops of the Church and elected representatives from each of the dioceses and from the Woman's Auxiliary. An Executive Committee carries on the administration between the Annual Meetings.

In Canada 15 of the 28 dioceses are Missionary dioceses requiring help. Annual grants-in-aid to them by the Church through the Department of Missions cover work among Eskimos and Indians; among "white settlers" in isolated areas; among Orientals and Jewish residents in Canada; and among loggers, fisherfolk and others along the coasts of Newfoundland and British Columbia. In co-operation with the Indian Affairs Branch of the Dominion Government, 16 residential schools for Indian boys and girls are administered.

Overseas the work is mainly in Japan and India. Canadian Missionaries have been appointed to the dioceses of Mid-Japan, Kobe, and Hokkaido. In India the Canadian Church is also assisting in the maintenance of the new Diocese of Amritsar under the Right Rev. C. H. R. Wilkinson. Support is also given to Technical Services Associated, in Pakistan; and to a School in Jordan.

2. The Department of Religious Education (G.B.R.E.): General Secretary: Rev. A. H. Priest, D.D. Editorial Secretary: Rev. D. B. Rogers, D.C.L. Assistant Secretary: Rev. T. E. Jones. Western Field Secretary: (Vacant). Central-Western Field Secretary: Rev. A. B. Craig. Eastern Field Secretary: Rev. T. Harris.

The work of this Department is under the direction of a General Board, consisting of all the Bishops, and of elected clerical and lay representatives from the 28 dioceses. The Board has also power to elect a limited number of members-at-large, not more than 12, of whom two at least shall be women.

All the distinctly educational work of the Church amongst children and young people comes under this Department, through which is provided all the material for Sunday School and Young People's work, and for the promotion of through-the-week activities. Special features are the Sunday School by Post and the Sunday School by Radio, to help the Religious Education of boys and girls in the more or less remote areas of the Dominion.

The work among Young People is carried on chiefly through the Anglican Young People's Association (A.Y.P.A.) which works in close co-operation with the Department of Religious Education. This Association is organised in all the dioceses.

3. The Department of Christian Social Service (C.S.S.): General Secretary: Canon W. W. Judd, D.D. Field Secretary: Rev. L. F. Hatfield.

This Department operates through a Council consisting of the Bishops, elected delegates from all dioceses, and twelve women appointed on the basis of population by the four Metropolitans. The Council is directed "to study social problems with a view to the solution of them in harmony with the spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ: to adopt such measures as may be advisable to promote the care and training of immigrants in Canadian citizenship: the maintenance of just conditions of living: the conservation of morals, health and life: and to promote the formation of a Christian public opinion upon social problems."

The Council keeps in touch with the clergy through The Bulletin and Diocesan Councils for Social Service. Besides promoting Christian studies of the larger social questions, the Council supports Port Chaplains at the Atlantic and St. Lawrence ports for the reception of Anglican immigrants; fosters special training for ordinands; and assists in extending the Church's ministry in public institutions.

Women's Work is organised under the Woman's Auxiliary, which is an auxiliary to the whole Church, and works in close co-operation with the Department of Missions, the Department of Religious Education, and the Department of Christian Social Service.

As a part of its co-operation with the Department of Missions, the Auxiliary maintains all women missionaries, and all work among women and children in the overseas fields, and assumes extensive responsibility for similar work in the Missionary dioceses of Canada and in the Indian Residential Schools.

Church papers. There are two official Church papers published by the Department of Religious Education under the direction of its Editorial Secretary. These are The Church Messenger (monthly) and The Canadian Churchman (twice a month).

Financial Support. The money to carry on the Departments of Missions, Religious Education, and Christian Social Service is raised by Apportionments, each diocese accepting, after consultation, its appropriate share. For the past four years, these have been considerably overpaid. In 1952 the total amount raised was $512,848.07, on an Apportionment of $487,204.00.

The Church of England in Australia and Tasmania

THE General Synod was formed in 1872. Its constitution has been amended on several occasions. It meets at least quinquennially under the presidency of the Primate. It consists of two Houses, namely: the House of Bishops and the House of Representatives. Both Houses sit together but vote separately.

In addition to the House of Bishops each Diocesan Synod is entitled to elect clerical and lay representatives in equal numbers, according to the number of clergy licensed in each Diocese.

As at present constituted the General Synod can consult on all matters concerning the order and good government of the Church. Its conclusions are issued in the form of Determinations passed by a majority of the Upper House consisting of the bishops, and a majority of the Lower House consisting of clerical and lay representatives. Provisions are also made for a vote by orders, when a majority of both orders in the Lower House is necessary to secure the passage of a Determination. No Determination of the General Synod is binding upon the Church in any diocese unless and until such Determination shall be accepted by the Synod of the Church in such diocese.

The Anglican Theological Colleges in Australia are as follows:—

Queensland: St. Francis College, Brisbane (Principal: Canon P. C. Nelson, B.A., Th.L.). New South Wales: Moore Theological College, Sydney (Archdeacon T. C. Hammond, M.A., Th.D.); St. John's College, Morpeth (Rev. T. M. Robinson, M.A., LL.B., Th.D.). South Australia: S.S.M. Crafers, Adelaide (Prior Basil Oddie, M.A., Th.D.). Victoria: Ridley College, Melbourne (Rev. S. B. Babbage, M.A., Ph.D.); St. Columb's Hall, Wangaratta (Rev. J. Hall, Th.L.). Tasmania: Christ College, Hobart (Rev. Alan Gray, M.A.).

There are also University Colleges as follows:—St. John's College, Brisbane; St. Paul's College, Sydney; St. Peter's College, Adelaide; Trinity College, Melbourne; and St. George's College, Perth.

Missionary Work.—The General Synod in 1945 by an amendment of the Australian Board of Missions Constitution created the Anglican Missionary Council of the Church of England in Australia. While leaving the Board and the Church Missionary Society free as heretofore to prosecute their great tasks, this Council is designed to bring about one united effort on the part of the whole Church in meeting the immense missionary challenges in this part of the world. This Council is composed of 12 members from the Australian Board of Missions and the Church Missionary Society respectively. This amendment won an almost unanimous support in the General Synod, and it has been accepted by all the Diocesan Synods in Australia, with one exception.

Australia occupies a strategic position in the South-west Pacific. A large country geographically, she has a comparatively small population. Her 8,000,000 people occupy a country of almost 3,000,000 square miles. The air-route from Perth to Brisbane, via Melbourne and Sydney, is slightly longer than that from London to Cairo.

Australia is next door to a huge Asiatic population on her north-western perimeter. She is near neighbour to Burma and Malaya, Thailand, Indonesia and Indo-China, New Guinea and the Philippines, whilst behind the cordon of these smaller areas there are the great sub-continents of India and China. This Asia is now awake and alert. Almost two-thirds of the world's non-Christian, coloured, and illiterate population is closer to Australia than to any other white and Christian nation. That this population is largely undernourished is a further complexity. Since 1814 Australia has been actively concerned in a missionary responsibility in the islands of the Pacific, but world-affairs, and Pacific trends, are now forcing Australia into a wider missionary and cultural influence than that represented by her century-old island orbit. Her strategic situation has vastly enlarged the range of her "frontier" problems. She is aware of a red finger pointing down through an Asia in revolt towards her largely unoccupied land, and of a brown Islamic finger pointing south-westward from Java.

The Church of the Province of New Zealand

THE Church of the Province of New Zealand was established as an autonomous Church in full communion with the Church of England, when its Constitution was accepted in 1857. Certain of the clauses of the Constitution are termed fundamental and it is not within the power of the General Synod or any Diocesan Synod to alter, add to, revoke or diminish any of them. The non-fundamental clauses can be altered by the General Synod after being first proposed in one General Synod, made known to the several Diocesan Synods, and finally agreed to in the meeting of the General Synod next ensuing. The Canons of the General Synod can be altered by the passing of a Statute. The Church of England Empowering Act passed by the Parliament of New Zealand in 1928 gives certain powers to the General Synod for the alteration of the Authorised Version of the Bible and the Formularies of the Church.

The controlling body of the Province is the General Synod, which under the Constitution meets in every third year, but there are provisions for meeting more frequently. While the General Synod is not in session there is a Standing Committee which under the Canons must meet at least in every year in which General Synod does not meet. The General Synod is composed of the Bishop, three clergy and four laymen from each Diocese.

The election of the Primate and Archbishop is made by General Synod after nomination by the Bench of Bishops. The nomination must be confirmed by both the clerical and lay representatives. If after a second nomination no election is made, the Senior Bishop becomes Acting Primate until General Synod elects a Primate.

The Thirty-second General Synod met in Christchurch in March, 1952. After the retirement of the Most Rev. Campbell West-Watson, Primate and Archbishop of New Zealand from April 1st, 1940, to October 31st, 1951, the Right Rev. Reginald Herbert Owen, Bishop of Wellington, was elected to the Primacy. The General Synod amended the Canons to permit the Synod of the Diocese of the Primate to authorise the creation of the office of an Assistant Bishop to the Primate. The person to be Assistant Bishop will be selected and nominated by the Primate for sanction by the General Synod or if the General Synod be not in session, by a majority of the Standing Committees of the several Dioceses. This is the first time that authority has been given for such an office and marks a step forward in the development of the Church in New Zealand.

Each Diocese has its own Synod, which must meet once at least every year. Every act of the General Synod, of a Diocesan Synod, or of the Standing Committee of either body, must be assented to by a majority of the Bishops and by a majority of the clergy and by a majority of the laity present in person.

The Bishop of a diocese is chosen by the Diocesan Synod, but it may delegate its right of nomination to others. When a nomination has been made it is submitted by the Primate to the Bishops of the Province to ascertain whether they have reason to disapprove. Before the invitation is sent to the nominee it must be confirmed by the Standing Committee of each diocese, or by the General Synod if in session. The consecration of a bishop-elect must take place within the Province of New Zealand.

Vicars are appointed in one of two ways. In each diocese there is a Board of Nomination consisting of the Bishop, and two priests and two laymen elected triennially by the Diocesan Synod. The vestry of each parish elects four persons annually to act as parochial nominators. On a vacancy occurring in a parish, the Board of Nomination and the Parochial Nominators meet together and nominate a priest to the Bishop to fill the vacant cure. The meeting is presided over by the Bishop and a nomination must be made by a majority of the whole of the members of the joint body.

The vicar of a parish can only be removed therefrom for an ecclesiastical offence and upon a decision of some competent tribunal constituted by the General Synod. Appointments to parochial districts are made by the Board of Nomination in the absence of regulations of the Diocesan Synod. The licence of a vicar of a parochial district cannot be revoked by the Bishop without the consent of at least one-half of the other members of the Board.

Missionary Dioceses. Two are associated with the Church of the Province of New Zealand and under its general jurisdiction and control. These are the Dioceses of Melanesia and Polynesia.

The Bishop of an associated Missionary Diocese is entitled to a seat in the General Synod with the right to speak and vote, and may appoint two clergymen and two laymen. The association of Missionary Dioceses is made upon certain conditions and the Canons of the Province do not apply except where provision to that effect is expressly made. A Bishop is appointed by the bench of bishops, but the priests working in the Diocese may appoint a delegation to confer with the bench of bishops. A majority of the Diocesan Bishops must approve the appointment. A bishop-elect need not be consecrated within the Province.

The whole question of the rights of Bishop and representatives of associated Missionary Dioceses in regard to membership of, and attendance, speaking, and voting at meetings of, the General Synod and the Standing Committee of General Synod, has been referred by the General Synod to a Commission which has been directed to report to the next session of General Synod, with a draft of any desirable legislation by General Synod or Legislatures. This followed a decision of the Standing Commission, which is appointed by General Synod to interpret the Constitution and Canons, that the Bishops of such Dioceses did not have a right to vote in the election of a Primate.

The Maoris. A great deal of work is carried out among the Maori race by the Church of the Province. The largest number of Maoris are resident in the North Island of New Zealand, but most of the Dioceses in New Zealand have special funds for such work. There are seven schools for Maoris and scholarships are provided. Many are ordained to the priesthood for work among their own people, the number of clergymen being approximately forty. A member of the Maori race is appointed by the Bishops of the Dioceses of the North Island of New Zealand as Bishop of Aotearoa. The Bishop so appointed is a Suffragan Bishop to the Bishop of Waiapu, in whose Diocese the greatest number of Maoris live. The Bishops of the other dioceses may also give the Bishop of Aotearoa episcopal supervision of members of the Maori race in their own dioceses. The Bishop has a seat in General Synod with a right to speak and may vote as a clerical member if he is elected as a representative of a diocese. The first Bishop of Aotearoa (the Right Rev. F. A. Bennett) died in 1950 and the Rev. W. N. Panapa was consecrated Bishop in August, 1951.

General. There are many institutions in the Church of the Province of New Zealand. Children's homes, rescue homes for girls, city missions, hostels for students, etc., all play an important part in the work of the Church. Many schools, both boys' and girls' secondary and primary, provide education with a religious background. Bible lessons are now given under the Nelson system by special teachers in most of the State Schools, but for many years this was not allowed. The teaching of doctrine is not permitted.

Three theological colleges cater for the training of candidates for the ministry and most candidates sit for the examinations conducted by the New Zealand Board of Theological Studies.

During the past few years a considerable number of new housing settlements have been established in the four main cities and these have presented many problems, especially in relation to the provision of new buildings. The problem is being faced and many of the Dioceses are conducting appeals for funds to enable the work to be expanded.

The foreign mission work of the Church of the Province of New Zealand is co-ordinated under the New Zealand Anglican Board of Missions.

At the time of writing the Melanesian Mission Committee in London are planning an appeal for a new Southern Cross, the mission ship which the Bishop of Melanesia uses as his home, to take the place of the present ship, which is almost worn out and in constant need of repair. At present prices the new ship will cost about £100,000. The Church in New Zealand is endeavouring to raise £35,000 towards this.

The Church of the Province of the West Indies

Federation. A representative conference discussed the federation of the West Indian colonies, and some form of federation should take place within measurable time. Its advantages are claimed to be political and social progress; fuller employment of qualified West Indians in administration; the welding together of communities, many of them small and isolated, so that ultimately the group may achieve real self-government " and be strong enough to stand against economic and cultural pressure and to formulate and carry through a policy and way of life of its own ". The difficulties are partly ethnographic and historical. Others are poor communications, differences in constitutional development and inequalities in natural wealth and financial resources. Every effort is being made to secure the backing of West Indians themselves. So far five of the territories have accepted federation in principle and three have rejected it. The eight dioceses of the Province of the West Indies, for good or ill, federated as far back as 1883 when the Province was formed. Political federation is sure to bring its own problems for the Church.

Distinguished Visitors. H.R.H. The Princess Royal gave great encouragement to the West Indies and her visit gave them an opportunity to display their great loyalty to the Throne and devotion to the Royal Family. The Archbishop of York's tour heartened both clergy and people.

University College of the West Indies, Jamaica. At present 255 students are in residence. Chaplain's duties are carried out by a neighbouring priest.

The Dioceses. Antigua has a new bishop—the Right Rev. Donald Rowland Knowles, O.B.E., B.A., L.Th. The Province now has three West Indian bishops. Codrington College, Barbados, the Provincial Theological College, has increased its accommodation to 32. The course is to become entirely theological. In the Windward Islands the churchpeople of Grenada have built a fine Secondary School for Girls. Trinidad has built a new church at La Brea not far from the Pitch Lake and a new school at Speyside in the Island of Tobago. British Guiana now has its new constitution and the first elections under universal adult suffrage have taken place. The Church has been teaching civic responsibility.

British Honduras has suffered great disappointment through the failure of the Colonial Development Corporation's banana scheme, said to be due to banana disease and lack of water. Money has been lost and more serious is the effect on the morale of the people.

In Jamaica there are 350,000 adherents of the Church in a population of a million and a quarter. There are 35,000 registered communicants and 80 clergy, of whom half are Jamaicans. Recovery from the last hurricane has been remarkable: 42 buildings were destroyed; 88 badly damaged; and 230 slightly damaged. Practically all have been restored in spite of the unemployment and poverty. It is estimated that nearly 100 babies are born each day who have no proper home. Moral Welfare work is now well established. A new school (secondary) is to be built. A home is to be opened to deal with poor and destitute boys and girls.

To-day is the Day of Opportunity for the Church of the Province and the future is bright with possibility if more men and money can be provided at once.

Chung Hua Sheng Kung Hui

(THE HOLY CATHOLIC CHURCH IN CHINA)

(Like other self-governing Churches in the Anglican Communion, this Church is fully independent of control from Canterbury)

ANGLICAN missionary work in China has a history of over one hundred years, the pioneers being the Church Missionary Society and the American Church Mission, which both started work in China in 1844. The first Bishop of the Anglican Communion, the Right Rev. W. J. Boone of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, arrived in Shanghai commissioned as "Bishop of China" in 1844. Between 1844 and 1846, shortly after Hong Kong was ceded to Great Britain, the Rev. George Smith visited it and the new Treaty Ports. In 1849 he was consecrated as the first Bishop of Victoria, Hong Kong, with jurisdiction over all British Anglican work in China and Japan. In 1872 Dr. Russell, of Ningpo, another C.M.S. missionary, was consecrated as Bishop of North China, the diocese which became in succession Mid-China and Chekiang.

The Church in China, which now contains fourteen dioceses, is truly catholic in its origin. It is the fruit of the work of six Anglican missionary societies: the American Church Mission, the Church Missionary Society (with which the Dublin University Mission to Fukien is associated), the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, the Church of England Zenana Missionary Society, the Canadian Church Missionary Society, the Bible Churchmen's Missionary Society and also of a section of the China Inland Mission. Both C.M.S. and S.P.G. have also received from the Church in Australia and New Zealand considerable support in personnel and finance. The C.M.S. has worked in South China, Fukien, Chekiang, Kwangsi-Hunan, Western Szechwan, and Yun-Kwei; the S.P.G. in North China and Shantung; the American Church Mission in Shanghai, Hankow, Anking, and Yun-Kwei; the Canadian Church in Honan; the Anglican missionaries of the China Inland Mission have been responsible for the diocese of Eastern Szechwan; the B.C.M.S. has had workers in South and West China.

The missionary district of Shensi has been, from its beginning in 1916, supported and staffed by the Church in China.

In 1912 the Chung Hua Sheng Kung Hui was organised and its first Synod held at Shanghai. Its constitution was approved in 1915. In 1930 it was recognised by the Lambeth Conference as a constituent Church of the Anglican Communion. The first British bishop to be elected and consecrated according to the Constitution and Canons of the C.H.S.K.H. was the Right Rev. John Curtis, D.D., consecrated in 1929 as Bishop of Chekiang.

Since 1947 two new dioceses have been created out of the diocese of Victoria, Hong Kong, namely Yun-Kwei (Yunnan and Kweichow) and South China (mainly Kwantung Province). The diocese of Victoria, Hong Kong, now covers only Hong Kong and Macao: and will not in future be actively connected with the Chung Hua Sheng Kung Hui. It has, however, received permission from the House of Bishops and Standing Committee of the C.H.S.K.H. to continue as a detached diocese " remaining faithful to the Canons and constitution of the C.H.S.K.H." The Archbishop of Canterbury in response to a request from the Diocesan Synod, has agreed to perform the metropolitical functions required alike by the Canons of the C.H.S.K.H. and traditional Anglican order, acting as trustee for the C.H.S.K.H.

The General Synod of the C.H.K.S.H. meets triennially. It consists of the House of Bishops and the House of Delegates (four clerical and four lay delegates appointed by each Diocesan Synod). At each General Synod the House of Bishops elects one of its number as Chairman, who acts as Presiding Bishop for a term of three years. During the war with Japan the regular triennial meetings had to be discontinued since nine of the then thirteen dioceses were wholly or in part occupied by the Japanese. The General Synod met again, after a lapse of ten years, in 1947. But meanwhile, a provisional central office for the C.K.S.K.H. had been opened in the unoccupied west, to facilitate the work of the Church and to act as a clearing house for information and for the co-ordination of finance and man-power. This experiment proved so valuable that the first post-war meeting of the House of Bishops (in Shanghai, 1946) decided to establish a Central Office of the C.H.S.K.H. with a General Secretary under the direction of the Chairman of the House.

The House of Bishops also decided to re-organise the Central Theological School, the work of which had been disrupted by the war. Bishop T. K. Shen resigned from the diocese of Shensi to take up the position of Dean of the School. The Right Rev. Lindel Tsen resigned as Presiding Bishop and Chairman of the House of Bishops in December, 1949. The Right Rev. Robin T. S. Chen, D.D., succeeded him.

The Present and Future. At the time of writing (June, 1953) China is under the control of the " People's Government " set up on October 1st, 1949. This is a coalition government with the Communist Party as the dominating influence. A clause in the new constitution guarantees religious freedom, but the Church is recognised only insofar as it co-operates with Government and severs all connections with the Churches of the West. Missionaries have found their presence an embarrassment and a source of misunderstanding, and have left China. The Church has requested the discontinuation of all financial aid from abroad. Even correspondence leads to misunderstanding. The Church built up over the years is now called upon to stand on its own, self-governing, self-supporting and self-propagating. Our fellowship can be expressed only by our continuing love, trust, and prayer.

Nippon Sei Ko Kai

(JAPAN HOLY CATHOLIC CHURCH)

Growth. The Secretary of the National Council expects that the figures for 1953 when available will show the Nippon Sei Ko Kai as having reached its pre-war strength in numbers. Although the 1952 figures are not yet complete, the rate of increase has been maintained in those dioceses which have reported so far. In Tokyo Diocese the 1953 total may exceed any previous year.

In 1939 there were 18,081 Communicants and 47,892 Baptized adherents; in 1948 there were 11,540 Communicants and 25,522 Baptized persons; in 1951 the figures were 15,975 and 32,000.

The post-war statistics confirm what is apparent to the casual visitor, that in most parishes about half the Sunday congregation are young people. Nearly half the members of the N.S.K.K. are new Christians, and usually, though not entirely, youths. The N.S.K.K. has 235 Clergy, including 19 Bishops and 26 missionaries; and in addition, 48 Japanese clergy retired or inactive, 59 lay evangelists, and 70 unordained missionaries. There is one ordained pastor for every 72 communicants. But when half the strength of the Church is young and unable to contribute much, the problem of pastoral support must remain acute. Fortunately the American Church is offering some aid to relieve the clergy of the necessity of "outside work", and the spiritual keenness of these new young Christians gives great hope for the future of the Church.

Missionary Staff. It is not surprising that even within the Church the regained independence of the nation should be reflected in some resurgence of a nationalistic spirit, usually expressed in fears of undue reliance on assistance from abroad. However, consciousness of the world-wide fellowship of the Anglican Communion largely helps to counteract such feelings. For this reason the contributions in money and personnel from Australia, Canada, and England are as important as the aid from America. The present missionary staff (roughly one-fourth of the full-time workers) is 96, composed of 44 Americans, 22 Canadians, 26 English, and 4 Australians. Hence the importance of the liaison between the missionary societies and the N.S.K.K. Conferences of the missionaries with the Bishops and National Council promote understanding, and the American Church has appointed the Rev. Kenneth E. Heim as representative-in-the-field of the Overseas Department and as senior priest of the American missionaries. This new development in liaison should prove useful in co-ordinating activities and deepening fellowship.

Theological Training. In the Spring of 1953 six students graduated from the Theological College. The entering class numbered ten. The newly built College near the Tama River (the southern boundary of Tokyo City) has been completed and can offer summer sessions and refresher courses for the clergy. Courses in theology are also offered at Shoin Junior College in Kobe and the Williams School of Biblical Studies in Kyoto.

The General Synod. The third regular General Synod of the N.S.K.K. since the end of the war, and the first since the close of the Occupation and the restoration of full sovereignty to Japan, was held in the week following Low Sunday, 1953, in Tokyo. Among the visitors were the Right Rev. Harry S. Kennedy, Bishop of Honolulu and military Ordinary for the U.S. Forces in the Pacific; Dr. Francis S. Sayre, personal representative to the N.S.K.K. of Bishop Henry K. Sherrill, Presiding Bishop of the American Church; the Rev. K. E. Heim; and the Bishop of Croydon, who brought personal greetings from the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Prayer Book Revision. Six years of painstaking work by a Commission resulted in a Prayer Book which has drawn on the liturgical practice of the Church of South Africa and the Scottish Episcopal Church as well as on the use of the Church of England and the American Episcopal Church. The resolution proposed to the Synod accepted the revision and authorised its permissive use during the three years until the next General Synod. This resolution led to many questions and a lengthy discussion. After four amendments had been lost the original resolution was finally passed. It was made clear, however, that this does not imply final acceptance three years hence. There are those who feel that the revision makes too radical a departure from the use of the two great branches of the Anglican Communion in England and in America. Fears were expressed that the balance of Anglicanism between Protestant and Catholic norms of worship had been upset. The permissive use is expected to provide a realistic method of testing the work of the liturgical scholars. All the work has been done by Japanese with some consultation of liturgical scholars in England and America.

Mission Centenary. Six years hence the centenary of the arrival of the first missionaries after the opening of Japan to the West will occur. The first, the Rev. Channing Moore Williams sent by the American Church, became the first Bishop of the Anglican Church in Japan. The National Christian Council plans an extensive programme of evangelism, commemorative observances, and training for Christian life and work, in which the N.S.K.K., as one of the co-operating groups will share. The House of Bishops in a Pastoral Letter after the General Synod urged the Church to give itself to intensive training and preparation for evangelism and to more active evangelistic effort, especially among laymen.

The Church of the Province of West Africa

On April 15th, 1951, with the consent of the Archbishop of Canterbury and according to Articles submitted by him after consultation with the dioceses concerned, the Diocesan Bishops of five West African dioceses holding mission from the see of Canterbury " solemnly decreed and declared " that their dioceses were by their

> " act and determination united in the Province of West Africa with the intention that its organisation should be developed in accordance with the Articles hereinafter contained as a Province of the Catholic Church in full communion with the Church of England and with the Anglican Communion of Churches ".

The Archbishop of Canterbury relinquished his metropolitical jurisdiction under the Articles, retaining certain powers during an interim period until a full Provincial Synod with three Houses of Bishops, Clergy and Laity should be brought into being. Thereafter, in the words of the Archbishop, the Province will be, "under God and with due regard to the whole Anglican Communion of which it is a part, entirely responsible for its future ordering". The Archbishop also expressed the hope that the diocese of Liberia might join the Province. He stated that this matter was "being submitted to the Bishop of Liberia and the Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America for their consideration".

The Articles make special provision for the Provincial Synod of the Church of the Province to have power to divide the Church into separate Provinces related to one another within the Church; to admit new dioceses; and to authorise the creation of Missionary Dioceses or Missionary Areas.

Life in West Africa is undergoing many changes simultaneously, some of them profound. It would be easy to illustrate this from the working of the new constitutions in Nigeria and the Gold Coast, or of the institutions for higher education, with their enhanced status; and it seems probable that further rapid changes will follow. All this must present the Church with new problems; and the new local autonomy in Church affairs should not only be consonant with the maturing independence and dignity of these Dependencies, but also enable the Church to take locally and more flexibly whatever decisions may be called for. The experiment will be watched sympathetically in many lands and the prayers of the whole Anglican Communion will be with this youngest of her Provinces.

The former Diocese of Lagos has now been divided into four dioceses:—Lagos; Ibadan; Ondo-Benin; and the missionary diocese of the Northern Provinces of Nigeria. The Diocese of The Niger Delta has been separated from that of The Niger.

East Africa

THE following are extra-provincial Dioceses in East Africa under the metropolitical jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury. Masasi, Northern Rhodesia, Nyasaland, the new Diocese of South-West Tanganyika and Zanzibar are supported by U.M.C.A.; Mombasa, Uganda and the Upper Nile by C.M.S.; and Central Tanganyika by the Australian C.M.S. The Church in all of them is called to redoubled effort in order to meet the situation created by rapid economic and political development and by the insistent demand for increased educational, medical and social welfare services.

The Church also has a very special contribution to make towards the creation of the right relationships between Europeans, Indians and Africans. It is essential for the well-being of both that there should be mutual respect, harmony and ready co-operation between them, but in fact tension is growing and the full influence of Christianity is needed if they are to be brought together in friendship.

North Africa

THE development of Anglican work in French Morocco through the Bible Churchmen's Missionary Society made practicable the formation (in 1936) of the Diocese of North Africa (separated from the vast Diocese of Sierra Leone). The Bishop is appointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the present bishop remains a missionary of the B.C.M.S., which pays his stipend. There is no cathedral, but a bishop's house and diocesan headquarters have been set up at Tangier.

BISHOP, ETC.

North Africa. Bishop in.—Right Rev. George Frederick Bingley Morris, Box 156, B.P.O., Tangier. Commissaries.—Rev. G. D. Savage, Marston Vic., Oxford; Rev. A. T. Houghton, B.C.M.S., 49 Romney St., London, S.W. 1; Rev. F. T. Ellis, St. Cuthbert Vic., West Hampstead, London, N.W. 2.

Jurisdiction.—North West Africa, comprising French and Spanish Morocco, Tunisia, Algeria, Tangier and the Canaries.

Dioceses not Included in any of the preceding Provinces or Areas

THE extra-provincial Dioceses which follow are missionary Sees under the metropolitical jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The Diocese of Newfoundland was one of them until July 21st, 1949, when the Archbishop relinquished his jurisdiction and the diocese was transferred to the Church of England in Canada. The "Area of North and Central Europe under the Jurisdiction of the Bishop of London" is not a diocese, but is an extra-diocesan jurisdiction of the Bishop of London exercised on his behalf by the Bishop of Fulham. There are some thirty permanent Chaplaincies in the area, in addition to the Chaplains of the Control Commission in Germany, who are in this Jurisdiction, and the holiday Chaplaincies open for summer and winter seasons.

Chamberlin, Holy Redeemer Clergy House, Exmouth St., London, E.C. 1.

Jurisdiction.—The ancient Kingdom of Korea. After the war Korea regained her independence, but has remained divided into a Northern Communist, and a Southern Democratic state.

At the time of going to press the political future of Korea remains uncertain, but presumably the division of the country into two will remain, and the North Communist State will remain closed to missionary work. Only two Korean priests now remain there, of whom there is no news. In the South Democratic republic the Church's work has not only survived, but considerable progress is being made, shown especially by the growing number of candidates for Baptism, and new openings for work.

The Bishop, after being held prisoner in North Korea for nearly three years, was released in April, 1953, and expects to return to his diocese in October, 1953. Meanwhile the Assistant Bishop, Arthur Chadwell, has given episcopal supervision, with a staff of two English mission priests, and seventeen Korean priests. The Korean women's Community of the Holy Cross kept together during the war, and among other work is in charge of the Girl's Orphanage. An orphanage for boys and girls has also been founded. The Theological College is open with six students, while two deacons after preparation there were priested in May, 1953. One English priest and an English Sister of the Community of St. Peter died in internment, while another English priest and two Korean priests disappeared leaving no trace of their fate.

The Church of South India

(Not in full Communion with the Church of England.)

THE going out of four dioceses from the Anglican Communion in September, 1947, to join with hitherto non-episcopal bodies in forming the Church of South India, was an event in the history of Christendom the results of which will be watched with anxious prayer by all Anglicans, and especially by members of the Church of India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon. It followed the acceptance in September, 1946, of the Scheme of Union by the South India United Church; and the Resolution in January, 1947, of the General Council of the Church of India, Burma, and Ceylon.

At that meeting the four dioceses of Madras, Travancore, Tinnevelly and Dornakal were given their freedom to unite with the Methodist Church and South India United Church to form the Church of South India. For the time being, these dioceses with their bishops and clergy have ceased to be part of what is now the Church of India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon, and of the Anglican Communion.

The inauguration of the South Indian Church took place in September, 1947. The four ex-Anglican diocesan Bishops retained their sees. The diocesan Bishops of the United Church numbered eight Europeans and six Indians. Of the fourteen, seven were Anglican and seven Free Churchmen. We give below a list of the dioceses that have been created.

For the comments of the Lambeth Conference of 1948 upon the Church of South India, see Resolutions 52–55 of the Report of the Conference. [The most important resolutions (52 and 53) will be found on p. 300 of the 1949 issue of The Official Year-Book.]

The growing together of a truly United Church must be a matter of time, and steady progress has been made. There is at present little fear of Anglican congregations departing from their former traditions, but the problem of staffing such churches in the future may be difficult unless more men at home are prepared to offer to serve in the Church of South India and thereby help in bringing her into full communion with the rest of the Anglican Communion.

THE CONSTITUTION

1. There shall be a National Assembly of the Church of England (hereinafter called "the Assembly") to deliberate on all matters concerning the Church of England and to make provision in respect thereof.

2. The Assembly shall consist of three Houses: The House of Bishops, the House of Clergy, and the House of Laity.

House of Bishops.

3. The House of Bishops shall consist of the members for the time being of the Upper Houses of the Convocations of Canterbury and York.

House of Clergy.

4. The House of Clergy shall consist of the members for the time being of the Lower Houses of the Convocations of Canterbury and York.

5. The members of the Houses of Bishops and Clergy shall continue to be members of the Assembly after the dissolution of the Convocations until the new Convocations come into being.

House of Laity.

6. The House of Laity shall consist of representatives of the Laity of the Provinces of Canterbury and York elected in accordance with the provisions of the Schedule to this Constitution. There shall be an election to the House of Laity every five years at such time as the Assembly appoints, or in the absence of such appointment, as the Archbishops of Canterbury and York direct.

Meetings of the Assembly.

7. The Assembly shall meet in session at least once a year, and at such times and places as the Assembly provides, or, in the absence of such provision, as the Archbishops of Canterbury and York direct.

Chairman.

8. The Archbishop of Canterbury, or in his absence the Archbishop of York, or in his absence the Bishop next in precedence present and willing to act, shall be chairman of meetings of the Assembly and of the House of Bishops when sitting separately or with another House.

9. The House of Clergy and the House of Laity shall each elect a chairman to preside over them. When they sit together they shall elect a chairman for the occasion.

Voting.

10. Nothing (except what relates only to the conduct of business) shall be deemed to be finally passed by the Assembly which has not received the assent of a majority of the members present and voting of each of the three Houses sitting together or separately; and accordingly at sittings of the Assembly, or of any two Houses :—

(1) any motion relating solely to the course of business or procedure shall be determined by a show of hands;

(2) any other motion may be similarly determined unless any ten members present demand a division by Houses, in which case the motion shall be lost unless it is carried by a majority of the members of each House present and voting.

Legislative Committee.

11. The Assembly shall appoint a "Legislative Committee," including members of all three Houses, to whom all Measures which it is desired should pass into law shall be referred. The Legislative Committee shall thereupon take such action as may be authorised by statute in order that such Measure may become law.

Standing Orders.

12. The Assembly may make, revoke, or alter standing orders, consistent with this Constitution, for the conduct of elections and for the meetings, procedure, and business of the Assembly, and for joint sittings of any two Houses.

13. Subject to this Constitution and to any standing orders from time to time made by the Assembly with reference thereto, the business and procedure at any meeting of the Assembly, or of any two Houses sitting together, or of any House sitting separately, shall be regulated by the chairman thereof.

14. The functions of the Assembly shall be as follows :—

Functions of the Assembly.

(1) The Assembly shall be free to discuss any proposal concerning the Church of England and to make provision in respect thereof, and where such provision requires Parliamentary sanction the authority of Parliament shall be sought in such manner as may be prescribed by statute :

Provided that any Measure touching doctrinal formulæ or the services or ceremonies of the Church of England or the administration of the Sacraments or sacred rites thereof shall be debated and voted upon by each of the three Houses sitting separately, and shall then be either accepted or rejected by the Assembly in the terms in which it is finally proposed by the House of Bishops.

(2) The Assembly or any of the three Houses thereof may debate and formulate its judgment by resolution upon any matter concerning the Church of England or otherwise of religious or public interest :

Provided that it does not belong to the functions of the Assembly to issue any statement purporting to define the doctrine of the Church of England on any question of theology, and no such statement shall be issued by the Assembly.

15. Nothing in this Constitution shall be deemed to diminish or derogate from any of the powers belonging to the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York or of any House thereof; nor shall the Assembly exercise any power or perform any function distinctively belonging to the Bishops in right of their episcopal office.

16. Any question concerning the interpretation of this Constitution shall be referred to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York and by them decided.

17. In the event of the Assembly receiving statutory powers in regard to legislation, it shall, before entering on any other legislative business, make further provision for the self-government of the Church by passing through the Assembly Measures—

(a) declaring that the Convocations of Canterbury and York have power, by canon lawfully passed and promulged, to amend the Constitution of the Lower Houses thereof;

(b) conferring upon the Parochial Church Councils constituted under the Schedule to this Constitution such powers as the Assembly may determine.

SCHEDULE

SUMMARY OF CHURCH ASSEMBLY MEASURES

WHICH HAVE RECEIVED ROYAL ASSENT, 1920–53

(Titles of those since repealed are in square brackets.)

1. Convocations of the Clergy Measure, 1920, declares that the Convocations of Canterbury and York have power to make canons for amending the constitution of their two Lower Houses. (Royal Assent, December 23rd, 1920.)

1921

2. Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, confers statutory powers on the Parochial Church Councils constituted under the Schedule to the Constitution of the Assembly. (Royal Assent, July 1st, 1921.)

3. Ecclesiastical Commissioners Measure, 1921, amends the Ecclesiastical Commissioners Act, 1840, so as to enable the Commissioners to apply their Common Fund to granting pensions to clergy of all classes, whether beneficed or unbeneficed. (Royal Assent, July 28th, 1921.)

4. [Union of Benefices Measure, 1921]. (Repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1950.)

5. [Representation of the Laity (Amendment) Measure, 1922]. (Repealed by the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929.)

6. [Pluralities Act, 1838 (Amendment) Measure, 1922]. (Repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1950.)

7. Revised Tables of Lessons Measure, 1922, authorises the use in churches, at the discretion of the minister, of the revised Tables of Lessons, in place of the Tables contained in the Book of Common Prayer. (Royal Assent, August 4th, 1922.)

8. Benefices Act, 1898 (Amendment) Measure, 1923, makes rights of patronage of a benefice incapable of sale after two vacancies from the date of the passing of the Measure, i.e. the date on which it received Royal Assent (July 14th, 1924). For Rules see Benefices Rules 1926, S.R. & O. 357 as amended by S.R. & O. 1933, No. 1148/L35.

9. Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, provides permanent machinery for carrying into effect the union of benefices. (Royal Assent, July 14th, 1924.) For Rules see Union of Benefices Rules 1926, S.R. & O. 967 and additional Rules, S.R. & O. 1930, No. 188.

10. Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measure, 1923, sets up a new system of dealing with dilapidations on the property of benefices in the Church of England based on an annual assessment on the incumbent in place of the unlimited and irregular liability to which he was subject under the old law. (Royal Assent, July 14th, 1924.)

11. Bishopric of Blackburn Measure, 1923, provides for the division of the diocese of Manchester into two parts by the constitution of a diocese of Blackburn consisting of the two archdeaconries of Lancaster and Blackburn. (Royal Assent, July 14th, 1924.)

12. Diocese of Southwell (Division) Measure, 1923, provides for the division of the diocese of Southwell into two parts by the constitution of a diocese of Derby. Each of the two dioceses consists of one county—Southwell of Nottingham and Derby of Derbyshire. (Royal Assent, July 14th, 1924.)

13. Diocese of Winchester (Division) Measure, 1923, provides for the division of the diocese of Winchester into three parts by the constitution of the dioceses of Portsmouth and Guildford. (Royal Assent, August 1st, 1924.)

14. Interpretation Measure, 1925, applies the Interpretation Act, 1889, to Measures passed by the Church Assembly under the provisions of the Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act, 1919, and contains various definitions which are frequently found necessary in Measures passed by the Assembly. (Royal Assent, May 28th, 1925.)

15. Bishopric of Leicester Measure, 1925, provides for the division of the existing diocese of Peterborough into two parts by the constitution of a diocese of Leicester. The proposed division makes one diocese of the county of Leicester, and another of the counties of Northampton and Rutland. (Royal Assent, July 31st, 1925.)

16. Diocesan Boards of Finance Measure, 1925, provides for uniformity in the powers and constitution of Diocesan Boards of Finance, and for their incorporation by law. (Royal Assent, December 22nd, 1925.)

17. Brislington Parishes (Transfer) Measure, 1926, transfers the two parishes of Brislington St. Anne and Brislington St. Luke from the diocese of Bath and Wells to the diocese of Bristol. (Royal Assent, March 26th, 1926.)

18. Rural Deaneries of Pontefract and Hemsworth (Transfer) Measure, 1926, transfers the rural deaneries of Pontefract and Hemsworth, comprising thirty-five large parishes, from the diocese of York to the diocese of Wakefield. (Royal Assent, March 26th, 1926.)

19. Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850 (Amendment) Measure, 1926. The main object of this Measure is to sever four canonries of Manchester Cathedral from the benefices which are annexed to them under the Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850. (Royal Assent, April 29th, 1926.)

20. Ecclesiastical Commissioners Measure, 1926, empowers the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to make payments out of their Common Fund towards the augmentation or endowment of archdeaconries, the endowment of new bishoprics, the payment, in certain cases, of bishops' costs in legal proceedings, and the upkeep and repair of Lambeth Palace and other episcopal residences. (Royal Assent, July 15th, 1926.)

21. First Fruits and Tenths Measure, 1926, extinguishes first fruits and tenths with the exception of those paid by sinecures and a few lay impropriators. (Royal Assent, July 15th, 1926. Appointed Day, July 16th, 1926.)

22. [Clergy Pensions Measure, 1926]. (Repealed by the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1948.)

23. Episcopal Pensions Measure, 1926, establishes a system of pensions for diocesan bishops in England. (Royal Assent, December 15th, 1926.)

24. Benefices (Ecclesiastical Duties) Measure, 1926, consolidates and amends the administrative procedure available in cases where the ecclesiastical duties of a benefice are inadequately performed, either with or without "negligence" on the part of the incumbent. (Royal Assent, December 15th, 1926. Partly repealed by the Incumbents (Discipline) Measure, 1947.) For Rules see Benefices (Ecclesiastical Duties) Rules 1928, S.R. & O. No. 406/L. 17.

25. Indian Church Measure, 1927, provides for the dissolution of the legal union between the Church of England and the Church of England in India, and for the last-mentioned Church becoming a voluntary association legally entitled to manage its own affairs (on the basis of "consensual compact") like other Churches in the same communion in the self-governing Dominions, the United States, China, and Japan. (Royal Assent, November 23rd, 1927.) Came into operation, January 1st, 1928 (S.R.O. 1927 No. 1231).

26. [Clergy Pensions (Amendment) Measure, 1927]. (Repealed by the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1948.)

27. New Dioceses (Transitional Provisions) Measure, 1927, enables the Church Assembly to meet certain purely temporary difficulties which arise upon the formation of new bishoprics with regard to—

(a) the representation of the new dioceses concerned in the House of Laity of the Church Assembly, and

(b) the constitution (or re-constitution) of their Diocesan Conferences. (Royal Assent, November 23rd, 1927.)

28. Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Provision for Unbeneficed Clergy) Measure, 1928, extends the powers of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners so as to enable them, if they think fit, to make grants out of their Common Fund, by way of additional stipend or otherwise, to elderly unbeneficed clergymen holding curacies or doing work of a like nature. (Royal Assent, July 2nd, 1928.)

29. Tithe (Administration of Trusts) Measure, 1928, makes the position of tithe-owning clergy easier by providing for equal quarterly payments of tithe. This is done by an arrangement between the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty and the Ecclesiastical Commission providing for advances to enable the Governors to pay to incumbents, whose tithe is being collected through the Area Committees established under the Tithe Act, 1925, quarterly sums on account of such tithe independently of the time of collection. (Royal Assent, August 3rd, 1928. Appointed Day, September 30th, 1928.)

31. Parochial Registers and Records Measure, 1929, provides for the better care, in certain cases, of Parochial Registers and other records in ecclesiastical custody. (Royal Assent, May 10th, 1929.)

32. Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929, repeals the existing Rules contained in the schedule to the Constitution of the Church Assembly, as well as the Representation of the Laity (Amendment) Measure, 1922, and substitutes therefor a new set of Rules which are exhibited as a schedule to the present Measure. (Royal Assent, May 10th, 1929.)

33. Ecclesiastical Dilapidations (Amendment) Measure, 1929, amends the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measure, 1923. Most of the amendments deal with matters of administrative detail, and are the outcome of suggestions made either by Queen Anne's Bounty or by the Diocesan Dilapidations Boards. (Royal Assent, May 10th, 1929. Appointed Day, August 1st, 1929.)

34. Westminster Abbey Measure, 1929, provides for the reapportionment of the "annual income of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster," a phrase specifically defined in the Measure. (Royal Assent, May 10th, 1929.)

35. [Parsonages Measure, 1930]. (Repealed by the Parsonages Measure, 1938.)

36. Archdeaconry of Surrey Measure, 1930, provides for the disannexation from the Archdeaconry of Surrey, now in the diocese of Guildford, of a canonry in Winchester Cathedral which has been annexed to it since 1865, and for the suspension of the said canonry. It further provides that upon the suspension of the canonry, tithe rent-charge amounting approximately to the maximum annual value of the canonry is to be held in trust for the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, who are to apply the income towards the stipends of new canonries in the cathedrals of Guildford and Portsmouth. (Royal Assent, March 20th, 1930.)

37. [Marriage Measure, 1930]. (Repealed by the Marriage Act, 1949.)

38. Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Pensions of Church Estates Commissioners) Measure, 1930, enables the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to pay pensions out of their common fund to the First and Third Church Estates Commissioners. The Measure does not apply to the Second Church Estates Commissioner who is unpaid, and goes out of office upon a change of Government. (Royal Assent, April 15th, 1930.)

39. Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Sodor and Man) Measure, 1930, enables the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to make grants from their common fund for the benefit of the clergy of the Isle of Man. (Royal Assent, April 15th, 1930.)

40. Clergy Pensions (Older Incumbents) Measure, 1930, provides a certain and uniform system of pensions for those clergy who are described in the Measures as "older incumbents," i.e. for beneficed clergymen who are outside the main contributory scheme of pensions established by the Clergy Pensions Measures, 1926 to 1928, owing to the fact that they attained the age of fifty-five years before the 1st January, 1927. (Royal Assent, June 4th, 1930. Appointed Day, June 16th, 1930.)

41. Pluralities Measure, 1930, amends the law relating to the holding of benefices in plurality—(1) by raising the limit of the annual value from £200 to £400, and (2) by providing that a commission appointed under the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to consider the advisability of the union of two or more benefices may instead of recommending a union, recommend the creation of a plurality. (Royal Assent, August 1st, 1930.)

42. Benefices (Transfer of Rights of Patronage) Measure, 1930, makes provision for placing some check on the secret transfer of advowsons. It imposes upon a patron who wishes to transfer an advowson, by sale or otherwise, the obligation of disclosing his intention of so doing both to the bishop of the diocese and to the parishioners of the parish concerned. (Royal Assent, August 1st, 1930.)

43. Episcopal Pensions (Sodor and Man) Measure, 1931, extends to the Bishopric of Sodor and Man the provisions of the Episcopal Pensions Measure, 1926 (q.v. No. 23). (Royal Assent, March 27th, 1931.)

44. Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Loans for Church Training Colleges) Measure, 1931, enables the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to make or guarantee loans for purposes in connection with Church of England Training Colleges. (Royal Assent, March 27th, 1931.)

45. Benefices (Exercise of Rights of Presentation) Measure, 1931, provides machinery for giving parishioners an effective voice in the appointment of their incumbent, and to the bishop a discretionary power of refusing any really unsuitable nominee, without either undue restriction of the patron's right of presentation or injury to the reputation of the clergyman whose name is put forward. (Royal Assent, July 8th, 1931. Appointed Day, January 1st, 1932.)

46. Channel Islands (Church Legislation) Measure, 1931, provides a simple machinery (in addition and without prejudice to whatever machinery may already exist) for the application to the Channel Islands of Measures passed by the Church Assembly. (Royal Assent, July 8th, 1931.)

47. Channel Islands (Representation) Measure, 1931, provides for the representation of the Channel Islands in the House of Laity of the Church Assembly and in the Diocesan Conference of the Diocese of Winchester. (Royal Assent, July 8th, 1931.)

Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Provision for Unbeneficed Clergy) Measure, 1928 (Amendment) Measure, 1931, extends the provisions of the Measure of 1928 (q.v. No. 28) to unbeneficed clerks employed as whole-time chaplains of any such religious establishments or institutions as may be prescribed by schemes or regulations made by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners under the Measure of 1928. (Royal Assent, July 8th, 1931.)

49. Cathedrals Measure, 1931, provides for the appointment of a body of Cathedral Commissioners to assist the Cathedral Authorities to revise their statutes, to frame new statutes and to prepare schemes for enabling the Cathedrals more properly to adapt themselves to the needs and opportunities of the present and future. (Royal Assent, July 8th, 1931.)

50. Benefices (Diocesan Boards of Patronage) Measure, 1932, provides for the establishment of a Board of Patronage in every Diocese, with power to hold and exercise rights of patronage. (Royal Assent, June 16th, 1932.)

1933

51. Benefices (Purchase of Rights of Patronage) Measure, 1933, gives to a Parochial Church Council the right, in certain cases, to acquire by compulsory purchase the patronage of its own benefice. (Royal Assent, March 29th, 1933. Appointed Day, June 1st, 1933.) For Rules see Benefices (Purchase of Rights of Patronage) Rules 1933, S.R. & O. No. 1148/L. 35.

52. Wythenshawe Parishes (Transfer) Measure, 1933, transfers an area of land comprising the parish of Northenden and parts of the parishes of Baguley and Timperley from the Diocese of Chester to the Diocese of Manchester. (Royal Assent, June 28th, 1933.)

53. Parish of Manchester (Revenues) Measure, 1933, places upon the Dean and Canons of Manchester the responsibility for the maintenance of the whole Cathedral Church and its services, and supplies them with a more adequate income for meeting this enhanced responsibility and other requirements. (Royal Assent, July 28th, 1933.)

54. Benefices (Sequestrations) Measure, 1933, defines with greater clearness the position of sequestrators appointed to act during the vacancy of a benefice. (Royal Assent, November 17th, 1933.)

55. Clerical Disabilities Act, 1870 (Amendment) Measure, 1934, enables a Clergyman who had executed a deed of relinquishment under the Clerical Disabilities Act, 1870, to revoke the deed and resume his ministry, subject to the approval of the Archbishop. (Royal Assent, June 22nd, 1934.)

56. [Banns of Marriage Measure, 1934]. (Repealed by the Marriage Act, 1949.)

57. Cathedrals (Amendment) Measure, 1934, seeks to remove certain difficulties which have arisen in connection with the preparation of schemes under the principal Measure, and to make provision for the special requirements of certain individual cathedrals. (Royal Assent, July 31st, 1934.)

58. Diocese of Southwell (Transfer) Measure, 1935, restores the Diocese of Southwell, which formed part of the Province of Canterbury, to its ancient position as part of the Province of York. (Royal Assent, August 2nd, 1935. Appointed Day, October 25th, 1935.)

59. Farnham Castle Measure, 1935, facilitates the use of part of Farnham Castle as an episcopal residence for the Bishops of Guildford. (Royal Assent, August 2nd, 1935.)

60. [Clergy Pensions (Amendment) Measure, 1936]. (Repealed by the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1948.)

61. Union of Benefices (Amendment) Measure, 1936, makes certain amendments in the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923. Of these, the most important are contained in section one, which alters the constitution of the Commission of Inquiry; and section two which defines the matters to which the Commissioners are to have regard in making their Report. (Royal Assent, May 29th, 1936.)

62. [Clergy Pensions (Widows and Dependants) Measure, 1936]. (Repealed by the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1948.)

63. Cathedrals (Houses of Residence) Measure, 1936, makes it possible to deal, in certain cases and subject to proper safeguards and consents, with the houses of residence of deans and canons of cathedral churches. (Royal Assent, May 29th, 1936.)

64. Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1936, confers additional powers and duties upon the Ecclesiastical Commissioners of which the most important is a power to make grants from their common fund up to £10,000 a year for twenty-two years for the purpose of assisting to meet the interest which will become payable under the loan scheme of the Central Board of Finance towards the cost of building churches and church halls. (Royal Assent, May 29th, 1936.)

65. Queen Anne's Bounty (Powers) Measure, 1937, provides that the income payable by Queen Anne's Bounty to incumbents be paid to them regularly by quarterly instalments and empowers Queen Anne's Bounty to transfer to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners certain funds held by the Governors of the Bounty on behalf of "Ecclesiastical Corporations." (Royal Assent, February 18th, 1937.)

66. House of Laity (Co-opted Members) Measure, 1937, enables the House of Laity to add to its number not more than ten co-opted members. (Royal Assent, May 6th, 1937.)

67. Southwark Cathedral Measure, 1937, establishes a constitution and statutes for Southwark Cathedral. (Royal Assent, July 1st, 1937.)

68. [Marriage (Licensing of Chapels) Measure, 1938]. (Repealed by the Marriage Act, 1949.)

69. Guildford Cathedral Measure, 1938, transfers the dignity and status of the Cathedral of the Diocese of Guildford from the Church of the Holy Trinity in Guildford to the Church of the Holy Spirit in course of erection on Stag Hill, Guildford. (Royal Assent, April 13th, 1938.)

70. Parsonages Measure, 1938, consolidates and amends the law in respect to the sale and acquisition of Parsonages. It repeals the Parsonages Measure, 1930. (Royal Assent, June 23rd, 1938. Appointed Day, July 15th, 1938.) For Rules see Parsonages Rules 1938, S.R. & O. No. 636.

71. Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, confers further powers, mainly of an administrative character, upon the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. (Royal Assent, June 23rd. 1938.)

72. Liverpool City Churches Act, 1897 (Amendment) Measure, 1938, amends the Liverpool City Churches Act, 1897, and enables the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to make grants from the "Building and Endowment Capital Fund " for the building or endowment of churches or for the purchase of sites near to as well as actually within the boundaries of the City of Liverpool. (Royal Assent, July 13th, 1938.)

73. Faculty Jurisdiction Measure, 1938, without altering the essential character of the faculty jurisdiction, makes that jurisdiction more effective in those cases where it is now disregarded, and affords greater protection to ancient churches; associates the archdeacons with the work of the Consistory Court, gives them some independent authority, especially in the matter of repairs and gives statutory recognition and statutory functions to the Diocesan Advisory Committees. (Royal Assent, July 13th, 1938.) For Rules see Faculty Jurisdiction Rules 1939, S.R. & O. No. 771.

74. Queen Anne's Bounty (Powers) Measure, 1939, confers upon the Bounty additional powers relating to the application of augmentation moneys and securities and the abatement and extinguishment of charges upon benefices. (Royal Assent, April 28th, 1939.)

76. [Clergy (National Emergency Precautions) Measure, 1939]. (Repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1950.)

77. House of Laity (Postponement of Elections) Measure, 1939, postpones the General Elections to the House of Laity which were due to be held in 1940 to a date not later than in 1945, to be fixed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York. The Measure also makes provision for future quinquennial General Elections. (Royal Assent, December 14th, 1939.)

1940

78. Benefice Buildings (Postponement of Inspections and Repayment of Loans) Measure, 1940, enables the quinquennial inspection of benefices under the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measures to be postponed where it is found impossible to make them during the war and in such cases continues the existing assessment in force until a new one can be made. It removes the restriction which prevents interim repairs exceeding £10 in cost being carried out without a certificate by the Diocesan Surveyor and confers on Queen Anne's Bounty—at its discretion—power to postpone the repayment of loans made to incumbents under the Dilapidations Measures as well as the payment of interest. (Royal Assent, July 17th, 1940.)

79. Ecclesiastical Dilapidations (Chancel Repairs) Measure, 1940, enables a Diocesan Authority, in suitable cases and under proper safeguards, to use part of the capital set aside under the Ecclesiastical

Dilapidations Measures and the Tithe Act, 1936, to provide a fund for the future repairs of a chancel, to be used for the purpose of carrying out immediate repairs. (Royal Assent, July 17th, 1940.)

80. Diocesan Reorganisation Committees Measure, 1941, provides for the setting up in every diocese of a representative committee capable of presenting, negotiating and settling claims for compensation under the War Damage Act, 1941, and of advising the Bishop as to such re-arrangement of the existing parochial organisation as may be either desirable or even inevitable in badly damaged areas in order that the best use may be made of any compensation that may be received. (Royal Assent, July 29th, 1941.)

81. Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1942, enables the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to make grants of temporary stipends, or grants of lump sums upon the sole authority of a resolution of the Board. (Royal Assent, April 29th, 1942.)

82. Loans (Postponement of Repayment) Measure, 1942, enables Queen Anne's Bounty to afford to hard pressed incumbents as well as to bishops, deans, canons and cathedral chapters a measure of relief by the postponement of annual re-payment for a fixed period of principal moneys advanced by way of loan. (Royal Assent, August 6th, 1942.)

83. New Parishes Measure, 1943, consolidates with minor amendments those provisions of the Church Building Acts, 1818 to 1884, and the New Parishes Acts, 1843 to 1884, which can still be regarded as alive and useful. (Royal Assent, February 4th, 1943.)

84. Episcopal Endowments and Stipends Measure, 1943, empowers the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to take over the endowments and property of any see, to pay to the bishop of the diocese an appropriate stipend, to provide for him a suitable residence, to accept responsibility in respect of certain stipends and other official expenses and to deal with any existing house of residence belonging to the see. (Royal Assent, February 4th, 1943.)

85. Diocesan Education Committees Measure, 1943, provides for the setting up of diocesan education committees in every diocese and defines their constitution, powers and duties. (Royal Assent, November 11th, 1943.)

86. Reorganisation Areas Measure, 1944, sets up procedure for the reorganisation of the parochial system in areas which have suffered war damage or in which changes have taken place or are likely to take place as the result of the war or of civil re-planning, and gives powers and duties to diocesan reorganisation committees established under the Diocesan Reorganisation Committees Measure, 1941. (Royal Assent, March 21st, 1944.)

87. Emergency Legislation Measure, 1944, extends,* where necessary, the provisions of the following Emergency Measures :—

The Clergy (National Emergency Precautions) Measure, 1939, and the regulations made thereunder,
The House of Laity (Postponement of Election) Measure, 1939,
The Benefice Buildings (Postponement of Inspections and Repayment of Loans) Measure, 1940,
The Diocesan Reorganisation Committees Measure, 1941,
The Loans (Postponement of Repayment) Measure, 1942.

(Royal Assent, December 21st, 1944.)

88. NOTE

This section is restricted to members of the Church Assembly ; of some of its principa permanent Committees, Commissions, Councils, Boards, and certain sub-Committees ; and of the Central Council of Diocesan Advisory Committees for the Care of Churches (the Central Faculties Council). Demands on space have made it impossible to increase this year the number of entries in this section of the Year-Book and for this reason it has not been possible to include members of a number of bodies whose connection with the Assembly has become more intimate in the last few years.

The name of a diocese in square brackets after a name indicates that the subject of the notice is an elected Proctor in Convocation or Lay Representative for the diocese in question. The names of ex-officio members are followed by a similar indication of the office which entitles the holder to his seat. Where the subject of a biography is not a member of the Church Assembly the name of the Commission, Council, etc., of which he is a member follows his name.

The Convocations of Canterbury and York

EACH of the Convocations consists of two Houses—an Upper House and a Lower House. The Upper House consists of all the diocesan Bishops in the Province, and the Archbishop presides. The Lower House comprises a number of ex-officio members in addition to elected representatives of the clergy. These elected representatives are known as Proctors in Convocation. Both these ex-officio and elected members will be found in the diocesan and subsequent lists at the beginning of this Year-Book. The University representatives will be found on page 161.

The preponderance of the non-elective element in the Lower House * was the subject of considerable complaint and agitation during the years following the Revival of Convocation in 1852 after a long period during which it had only been permitted to perform purely formal business. Many proposals designed to reform the Convocations were brought forward by prominent churchmen, but were brought to nought by the opposition or lukewarmness of the Government of the day.

With the passing of the Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act, 1919 (The Enabling Act), however, reform became practicable. By section 17 of the Constitution of the Church Assembly, which was recognised by that Act, it was provided that the Assembly should, "before entering on any other legislative business, make further provision for the self-government of the Church by passing through the Assembly a Measure declaring that the Convocations of Canterbury and York have power, by canon lawfully passed and promulged, to amend the Constitution of the Lower Houses thereof." The Measure thus contemplated received the Royal Assent as the Convocations of the Clergy Measure, 1920, on December 22, 1920, and in conformity therewith both Convocations passed Canons de Representatione Cleri in Inferiore Domo Convocationis, which received His Majesty's Royal Assent and Licence on April 14, 1921.

These Canons were not identical in wording, and as certain minor differences exist in the constitution of the two Convocations, they are here set out in parallel columns :—

The Lambeth Conference

President : The Archbishop of Canterbury.

Secretary of the Consultative Body : c/o Lambeth Palace, S.E. 1.

ALL preparations had been made for the eighth Lambeth Conference to meet in 1940, but the outbreak of the Second World War caused its indefinite postponement. In the event it could not meet until 1948. The Report of the 1948 Conference was published by S.P.C.K., price 5*s*. net., and was summarised in The Official Year-Book 1949. Further background information about the Lambeth Conference was given in "The Handbook of The Lambeth Conference, 1948," which was published as a Supplement to the 1948 issue of this Year-Book. Price 1*s*. By post, 1*s*. 2*d*. This is still obtainable from the Church Information Board, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1; or from S.P.C.K., Northumberland Avenue, W.C. 2.

HISTORY, STATUS AND FUNCTIONS

The following articles summarise the history, status and functions of the Conference :—

The nature and status of the Anglican Communion may be described in the following terms, taken from a Resolution adopted by the Lambeth Conference of 1930.

"The Anglican Communion is a fellowship, within the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, of those duly constituted Dioceses, Provinces or Regional Churches in communion with the See of Canterbury, which have the following characteristics in common :—

(a) they uphold and propagate the Catholic and Apostolic faith and order as they are generally set forth in the Book of Common Prayer as authorised in their several Churches;

(b) they are particular or national Churches, and, as such, promote within each of their territories a national expression of Christian faith, life and worship; and

(c) they are bound together not by a central legislative and executive authority, but by mutual loyalty sustained through the common counsel of the Bishops in conference."

Opportunities for such "common counsel" are provided by the Lambeth Conferences which meet from time to time within the walls of Lambeth Palace, the official residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The origin of these Episcopal gatherings is not without interest.

ORIGINS

The first Lambeth Conference arose out of a resolution passed in 1865 at a meeting of the Provincial Synod of the Canadian Church, urging that means should be adopted "by which the members of our Anglican Communion in all quarters of the world should have a share in the deliberations for her welfare." The terms of this resolution having been communicated to Archbishop Longley of Canterbury, His Grace raised the matter in Convocation, and in spite of the grave misgivings of some of his Episcopal Brethren, including the Archbishop of York, eventually decided to summon a gathering "of the Bishops in visible Communion with the united Church of England and Ireland" to be held at Lambeth Palace. Out of 144 Bishops who received an invitation, 76 accepted—of these, 18 were from England and Wales, 19 from America and the remainder from Ireland, Scotland and the Colonies. Among the absentees were (besides the Archbishop of York), the Bishop of Durham and certain other English Diocesans whose apprehensions with regard to so dangerous an innovation were not allayed by assurances from the Archbishop of Canterbury that it was not contemplated that the Conference "should assume the functions of a General Synod" or take upon itself "to enact canons."

The full Conference lasted only four days, September 24–28, 1867. In the course of his opening speech, Archbishop Longley was careful to explain the limited scope of their deliberations. "We merely purpose," he said, "to discuss matters of practical interest, and pronounce what we deem expedient in resolutions which may serve as safe guides to future action."

When the second Lambeth Conference met in July, 1878, Archbishop Tait had already been at pains to assure Convocation that he agreed with the limitations imposed by his predecessor. He stated emphatically that it was not proposed "that questions of doctrine should be submitted for interpretation in any future Lambeth Conference, any more than they were at the previous Lambeth Conference."

GROWTH

All subsequent Lambeth Conferences have followed the general lines laid down by Archbishops Longley and Tait. The size of the Conference has increased with the lapse of years, as the figures given below will show. The volume of work undertaken has grown to formidable dimensions. The time devoted to the consideration of the agenda has been extended to some six weeks. But the character of the Conferences has remained unchanged. The Lambeth Conference is to-day, as it was in 1867, a purely deliberative body, meeting in private, without either synodical authority or legislative powers. The decisions at which the Conference arrives are recorded in a series of resolutions based upon the Reports of the various Committees—but those resolutions are expressions of opinion, and not authoritative decisions binding upon the consciences of Anglican Churchmen. At the same time, expressions of opinion arrived at after prolonged consideration by a majority of the Bishops of the whole Anglican Communion gathered from all quarters of the globe must necessarily carry great weight, and many of the resolutions passed by successive Conferences have in fact exercised a profound influence far beyond the borders of the Churches in communion with the See of Canterbury.

Reference has been made above to the Reports of Committees. These Committees are a most important feature of the Conference—they consist of a selected number of Bishops to whom is entrusted the detailed consideration of the main subjects on the agenda. At the 1948 Lambeth Conference, for example, there were eight Committees, which dealt with The Christian Doctrine of Man; The Church and the Modern World; The Christian Way of Life; The Unity of the Church; The Anglican Communion; The Church's Discipline in Marriage; Baptism and Confirmation; and Proposed Chinese Canon on Ordination of a Deaconess to the Priesthood.

The Report of each committee, for the contents of which that Committee is alone responsible, is laid before the whole Conference, and the recommendations of the Committee form the basis of the Lambeth Conference Resolutions. Not a few of these Reports are documents of lasting value and of far-reaching importance —as, for example, the Appeal to all Christian People incorporated in the Report of the Committee on Reunion in 1920 and adopted by the whole Conference, or the statement of the Christian Doctrine of God presented to the Conference of 1930.

It may be of interest to show in statistical form the number of Bishops attending each of the eight Conferences held hitherto. These figures give an indication of the remarkable growth of the Anglican Communion during the course of the past eight decades.

	Year.	President.	No. of Bishops present.
1.	1867	Archbishop Longley	76
2.	1878	Archbishop Tait	100

4.	1897	Archbishop Temple	194
5.	1908	Archbishop Davidson	242
6.	1920	Archbishop Davidson	252
7.	1930	Archbishop Lang	307
8.	1948	Archbishop Fisher	326

During the intervals between the successive Conferences, Committees of Churchmen are sometimes appointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, at the request of the Conference, to consider special questions, such as relations with the Eastern Orthodox Church, the Old Catholics, the Church of Scotland, the English Free Churches, the Scandinavian Churches and the Moravians.

THE CONSULTATIVE BODY

Further, the Archbishop of Canterbury is in the habit of summoning at intervals, as occasion may demand, the Consultative Body of the Lambeth Conference, which acts as a kind of Continuation Committee of the Conference, without executive or administrative power.

This Body consists of all Primates and 24 other members, "appointed to represent the Lambeth Conference by the Archbishop of Canterbury, with due regard to regional requirements, after consultation with the Metropolitans and Presiding Bishops."

Its duties are: (1) To carry on the work left to it by the preceding Conference; (2) To assist the Archbishop of Canterbury in the preparation of the business of the ensuing Conference; (3) To deal with matters referred to the Archbishop of Canterbury on which he requests its aid; and (4) To deal (so far as it is competent to do so) with matters referred to it by any Bishop or group of Bishops of the Anglican Communion.

The fact that the Lambeth Conferences are held at the official residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury is an indication of the primacy of honour accorded to the Archiepiscopal See of Canterbury by Anglicans throughout the world.

The occupant of the throne of St. Augustine stands to the world-wide Anglican Communion in a relation not unlike that of His Majesty King George VI to the world-wide British Commonwealth.

It has been truly said that the British Monarchy is "the keystone of the Imperial Arch." The same might be said with certain obvious differences of the position which the Archbishopric of Canterbury occupies in the structure of the Anglican Communion. As Canterbury Cathedral may justly claim to be the Mother Church of the Anglican Communion, so Lambeth Palace may be said to be its home. Thither once every ten years Bishops come from every part of the word to be welcomed by the Archbishop of Canterbury as members of one family, and to take counsel together as inheritors of a common tradition.

THE AUTHORITY OF THE LAMBETH CONFERENCE

In view of misunderstandings which arise from time to time, the following is reprinted from the article on "The Anglican Communion" by the late Right Rev. F. J. Western, formerly Bishop of Tinnevelly, and the Right Rev. E. J. Palmer, D.D., formerly Bishop of Bombay, which appeared in the 1940 issue of this Year-Book :—

The Lambeth Conference is . . . the only central authority among the Anglican Churches, and it is important to make clear the value of its contribution to the life of those Churches and the nature of its authority.

1. It is a deliberative assembly and as such, has a great value to the Bishops who attend it. For them this value lies quite as much in their discussions and consultations during the Conference as in its resolutions and the reports of its Committees. They have the opportunity of meeting other Bishops who carry the same responsibilities in widely different circumstances. Outside the meetings they can compare their experiences and can consult those who have special knowledge or are regarded as leaders. Inside the meetings they hear problems of common concern discussed from every possible angle by Bishops working in most various conditions. There is no surer way of distinguishing the essentials of a problem from the non-essential or accidental phases of it, than to hear it discussed by persons who see the problem against an entirely different background of circumstances.

The conclusions reached are of value both to the fully organised Churches and to the most isolated Bishop. The latter continually feels his isolation and the great responsibility which he takes if he acts without consultation and without knowledge of the opinions and practice of other Bishops. The fully organised Churches are always in danger of taking a decision which, though it seems obviously expedient and right in their circumstances, may turn out to be wrong if viewed in the light of the experience of the whole Church. For there is some parochialism in every national or regional Church. Or again, the fully organised Churches may rightly wish to discover whether a certain action which they are inclined to take would commend itself to the Fellowship of the Anglican Churches as a whole or would endanger their fellowship with those Churches.

2. The fruit of the deliberations of the Lambeth Conference is advice. Its decisions do not claim to be more. There is an historical reason for this. When Archbishop Longley gathered together the first Lambeth Conference at the request of the Church of England in Canada, his action roused suspicion and encountered opposition. The Archbishop of York of that date refused to attend the Conference, and the Dean of Westminster refused the use of the Abbey for its worship. Archbishop Longley had cause enough to walk warily. He declared that the Conference which he was inviting to meet would not pretend to enact any canons, to make any decisions binding on the Church, or to lay down definitions on points of doctrine. Subsequent Conferences have all been summoned under the same understanding.

The Bishops meet at Lambeth as Bishops. They meet solemnly in the presence of God and invoking the aid of His Holy Spirit. They give advice. It is solemn advice.

It has been said sometimes that their resolutions have no authority. This opinion seems to be a hasty conclusion from the fact that the resolutions of a Lambeth Conference do not in themselves constitute the law or affect the practice of any Church. But any one of the Anglican Churches may enact a law or take administrative action on the lines of the advice of the Conference, which is thereupon converted into part of the law or of the adminsitrative rules of that Church.

When, therefore, it is said that the decisions of the Lambeth Conference have no authority, this is true only if there is no other kind of authority in the Church of God except legislative, administrative or coercive authority. But this would be a strange opinion for a disciple of Christ to hold. He spoke indeed with authority, but He used His authority primarily to persuade. He preferred the understanding loyalty of friends to whom He had explained His will, to the blind obedience of slaves.

Such is the authority which belongs to spiritual advice. It convinces by being true or wise. "Not by might nor by power but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts." It is to this ideal of Church authority that the Archbishops of Canterbury have been forced back. Whether its present constitution will remain unchanged the future will show. But for the present the authority of the Conference is that of God's Bishops met in His name to set forth (so far as they are able) the persuasive guidance of the Spirit of Truth. It is now (as it was in antiquity) the part of the Church at large to judge whether they have represented this guidance rightly. But that is only to say that the duty of the Conference is not command and coercion but guidance and persuasion.

ANGLICAN CONGRESS

The General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America in 1949 took note of Resolution 87 of the 1948 Lambeth Conference welcoming the suggestion that a Congress be held in 1953, at which bishops, priests, and lay persons of all dioceses and missionary districts of the Anglican Communion might gather to witness to our common faith and to confer on matters of common interest. The General Convention voted to request the Presiding Bishop to extend through the Archbishop of Canterbury an invitation for the holding of such a Congress in the United States in 1953 and appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements should such invitation meet with general acceptance.

The date has been fixed as August 4th–13th, 1954, in order to correlate the Congress with the meeting of the World Council of Churches. It will be held at Minneapolis, Minnesota, U.S.A.

The Committee appointed consists of the Bishop of Connecticut (the Rt. Rev. Walter H. Gray), Chairman; the Rev. Dr. John Heuss, Vice-Chairman; Mr. Robert McCracken, Secretary; also the Bishop of South Carolina (the Rt. Rev. Thomas N. Carruthers); the Rev. C. P. Trowbridge; and Mrs. James McCulloh.

The Central Committee, as appointed by the Archbishops, Metropolitans, and Presiding Bishops of the Churches to work with the American Committee, is composed as follows :—

CANTERBURY : Prof. Leonard Hodgson; YORK : Canon Alan Richardson; WALES : The Very Rev. C. Witton-Davies; SOUTH AFRICA : The Rev. L. A. Davis; THE WEST INDIES : The Most Rev. Alan John Knight; CHINA : The Right Rev. Y. Y. Tsu; JAPAN : The Most Rev. Michael H. Yashiro; MISSIONARY DIOCESES : The Right Rev. Geoffrey F. Allen; INDIA: The Right Rev. William Q. Lash; SCOTLAND : Prof. Donald MacKinnon; CANADA : The Rev. Dr. R. S. K. Seeley; IRELAND : The Most Rev. John A. F. Gregg; AUSTRALIA : The Right Rev. John S. Moyes; and NEW ZEALAND : The Right Rev. Percival W. Stephenson.

Attendance at the Congress will be invited from each Diocese and Missionary District of the Anglican Communion and will consist of the Bishops, one priest, and one lay person from each. It is hoped that ways will be worked out to provide an opportunity for the representatives of other sections of the Anglican Communion to become well acquainted with the Dioceses and Missionary Districts in the U.S.A.

The Church of England Council on Foreign Relations

President : The Archbishop of Canterbury. Vice-President : The Archbishop of York.

Chairman : The Bishop of Chichester. Vice-Chairmen : The Bishop of Derby; The Dean of Westminster.

Hon. Treasurer : Sir Nigel Davidson, C.B.E.

Hon. Librarian : Preb. A. J. M. Macdonald, D.D.

General Secretary: Rev. H. M. Waddams. Assistant General Secretary: Rev. J. F. Holt. Office: Palace Court, 222 Lambeth Road, S.E. 1. (Tel.: WATerloo 4880.)

In accordance with requests of the Church Assembly made in 1928 and 1930, the Archbishops of Canterbury and York constituted in 1933 a Church of England Council on Foreign Relations to survey and advise upon all matters concerning the contacts and relations of the Church of England with (1) the Roman Catholic Communion, (2) the Eastern Orthodox Communion, (3) (i) the Assyrian Church (ii) and the Communion consisting of (a) the Coptic and Ethiopian Churches, (b) the Syrian Orthodox (Jacobite) Church, including its daughter Church of South India, and (c) the Armenian Church; (4) the Old Catholic Churches and (5) the Protestant Evangelical Churches of the Continent.

It is authorised by the Archbishop of Canterbury :—

(i) To secure and make available to its members, and to such other persons as the Archbishop of Canterbury approves, reports on the general condition of foreign Churches, and on those political, economic and social conditions which closely affect their life.
(ii) To consider such questions as the Archbishop of Canterbury may refer to it, and to tender advice to His Grace on the policy which it seems wise to pursue.
(iii) To draw the attention of the Archbishop of Canterbury to those questions in the foreign relations of the Church of England which appear to merit his attention and, if requested, to recommend a course of action.
(iv) To recommend, if requested by the Archbishop of Canterbury, when and in what form he or the Church of England should be represented in interdenominational committees or interdenominational discussions concerned with the foreign relations of Churches.
(v) To assist the Archbishop of Canterbury, when he so desires, in initiating negotiations with foreign Churches.
(vi) To promote with the approval of the Archbishop of Canterbury mutual visits between English and foreign Churchmen and, when necessary, to cause suitable arrangements to be made for the reception and entertainment of visitors.
(vii) To carry out the wishes of the Archbishop of Canterbury in any matter affecting foreign relations.

The Council on Foreign Relations is not authorised :—

(a) To concern itself with relations with other Churches in these islands, e.g., the Church of Scotland and the Free Churches.
(b) To concern itself with the problems of other Provinces of the Anglican Communion, or with overseas missionary dioceses directly under the Archbishop of Canterbury.
(c) To determine or state the policy of the Church of England in relation to foreign Churches.
(d) To open or pursue any negotiations with foreign Churches on its own initiative.

Among other activities of the Council have been (1) arrangements for foreign clergy to stay in English parishes in order to obtain first-hand knowledge of the Church of England and its life, (2) the interchange of officially recommended foreign theological students with Church of England students, and (3) arrangements for sending English religious periodicals to foreign ecclesiastics. The Council has published surveys on the affairs of foreign Churches and keeps careful records of all transactions brought to its notice affecting the relations of the Church of England with foreign Churches.

The Council works in constant co-operation with those departments of the British Council of Churches which deal with inter-Church aid, refugees, foreign students and visitors, European voluntary workers, and similar matters. It keeps in close touch with the World Council of Churches and with foreign-relations organisations of other Churches of the Anglican Communion.

Nikaean Club

THIS club was founded in commemoration of the Service held in Westminster Abbey on June 29, 1925, in celebration of the 16th centenary of the Great Council of Nikaea and attended by an official Orthodox delegation led by the Patriarchs of Alexandria and Jerusalem, the Swedish Archbishop of Upsala, the Assyrian Patriarch Mar Shimun, etc. The Club exists primarily to entertain, with the approval of the Archbishop of Canterbury, foreign ecclesiastics and laymen.

The Club has had the honour of entertaining a number of distinguished guests from time to time, among whom have been outstanding leaders of the Orthodox, Lesser Eastern, Old Catholic and Protestant Churches. Patron: The Archbishop of Canterbury. President: The Viscount Falmouth. Chairman: Sir Ronald Storrs, K.C.M.G., C.B.E. Vice-Chairman: Sir Harry Luke, K.C.M.G., D.Litt. *Hon. THE Central Board of Finance was inaugurated in 1914 as the result of recommendations made by a Committee appointed by the two Archbishops to enquire into the most effective means of using and supplementing the funds raised for Church purposes by voluntary subscriptions. It was reconstituted in 1921 under licence from the Board of Trade in order that effective control might be vested in the newly formed Church Assembly and the Board empowered to act as its financial executive.

Membership.—The Archbishops of Canterbury and York are Presidents of the Board. The Chairman is a Lay member of the Assembly and is elected directly by it. Each of the 43 Diocesan representatives must be a member of one or other of the three Houses of the Church Assembly, and be elected by all the members of the Assembly belonging to that diocese. The Archbishops jointly nominate 5 members and the Standing Committee of the Church Assembly appoints a further 10. These 15 members need not necessarily be members of the Assembly.

Duties.—The duties of the Board were defined by the Church Assembly in November, 1920, as follows:—

1. To carry out the instructions of the Church Assembly.
2. To raise and adminster the Central Church Fund.
3. To hold property.
4. To present an annual report and budget to the Church Assembly.
5. To administer the votes voted by the Church Assembly.
6. To co-ordinate the work of existing central organisations, raising and administering central funds.

The Church Assembly Fund.—Except for a small income from legacies, the work of the Assembly is financed entirely by the dioceses, and the amount of the annual budget is divided amongst them in accordance with a Table of Apportionment presented to the Assembly at the same time as the estimates of expenditure for the ensuing year. While there is no statutory obligation on the dioceses to raise this money, the growing realisation of the importance of the Assembly's work is reflected in the steady increase in the percentage of the apportionment received in recent years. In 1952 it reached over 99%. Details of the budget for 1954 are set out below. Since the war it has been the practice of the Assembly to stabilise the amount of the budget for periods of three years at a time. Experience has shown that this is of advantage to the dioceses in planning their own budgets. In the present triennium 1953–55 the Church Assembly has substantially curtailed its budget requirements in order to help the dioceses to meet certain pressing demands, but in so doing the Assembly has made it clear that this is a temporary measure which cannot be taken as a precedent for limiting expenditure in the future.

The summary of the Estimates of Expenditure for 1954 as here set out amount to a total of £185,000, of which the dioceses are being asked to contribute only £182,000. The difference is to be met from accumulated balances in the Church Assembly Fund.

NOTES

Section D covers grants to Societies which retain control of their own resources but which report to the Assembly from time to time. In the case of grants in this section, 25% of the total is paid at the end of each of the months of March, June and September and 12½% at the end of December, the hope being that it will be possible to pay a further instalment early in February of the following year to make up the full grant. The exact amount of this final instalment depends upon the extent of contributions remitted by the Dioceses.

Section E covers allocations to special purposes. Grants under this section can only be made from any balance remaining at the end of the financial year after the claims of the main contractual obligations and of Sections B, C and D, have been met.

By custom, the Central Board is prepared to receive final diocesan contributions for any year up to the end of the following January.

Church Training Colleges.—In 1946 the Church Assembly accepted responsibility for securing the future of the Church Training Colleges for teachers, and requested the Central Board of Finance to formulate a policy of finance to provide for the essential extension and re-equipment of the Colleges. A Development Plan was therefore drawn up by the Council of the Church Training Colleges and a financial plan to correspond was prepared by the Central Board of Finance. The work to be done was divided into three priorities, and it was estimated that £1 million of Church money would be required to complete the whole.

The work included in the first priority was that immediately necessary to maintain the efficiency and even, in some cases, the existence of a number of Colleges. To finance this urgent work the Board has made four issues of Loan Stock to the total value of £450,000, and may make further issues, upon the security of an annual grant of £35,000 from the Church Assembly Fund which is to provide for both the payment of interest upon and the repayment of all issues.

The Dioceses were asked to finance the work in the second priority, which includes work equally essential and only less urgent in character. This part of the programme was to be undertaken as soon as possible. As it was not then expected that a start on this work could be made for some years, a plan was devised whereby the dioceses together should contribute £450,000 between the years 1952 and 1957. In fact, the building programme of the Ministry of Education has been accelerated, and work is already in progress on a number of projects in Priority II. This acceleration, welcome in itself, has created a financial situation that gives rise to some concern; and the Central Board of Finance hopes that the dioceses will send their contributions to the Gifts Fund at the earliest possible moment. At the time of going to press (November, 1953) a total of £125,558 has been received from dioceses, and £324,442 is still to come.

Central Ordination Fund.—In the past few years the financing of ordination candidates has been undertaken by the Central Advisory Council of Training for the Ministry from money raised by the dioceses through an annual appeal. The amount raised by this means has been sufficient only because of the accumulated reserves of the war years and of the numbers of ex-service men being trained on Government grants. The cost of training candidates now coming forward must fall more directly on the Church, and the Church Assembly in 1951 therefore appointed an Ordination Funds Commission to assess the financial needs and to make recommendations for raising the money. The Commission reported in 1952 and promulgated a plan whereby the dioceses were asked to provide annually, on the basis of their apportionment to the Church Assembly Fund, the Church's share of the sum estimated to be required for the full training of the candidates coming forward each year. The money raised is either administered by the dioceses themselves or sent to the Central Ordination Fund to be administered by the Central Board of Finance under the direction of the Central Advisory Council of Training for the Ministry.

The Central Board also holds legacies and donations in the Central Church Fund for the training of men for the Ministry, and where these are not designated for special purposes they are added to the Central Ordination Fund.

Central Loan Fund.—The Church Assembly in the summer of 1931 sanctioned the creation of this Fund from which loans might be made to the dioceses to help with the purchase of sites and erection of buildings for Churches, mission and church halls. The loans were interest free, but repayable as soon as possible and in any case not later than 1957. No further loans are being made as adequate facilities are now available through the Church Commissioners.

The Central Church Fund.—This fund was established before the Church Assembly was created and is administered by the Central Board of Finance without direct control by the Assembly. Since, however, the majority of the Central Board of Finance is elected by members of the Church Assembly from their own number, the administration of the Fund is closely associated with the administration of the Church Assembly Fund. The Fund was raised by public subscription in 1918 and 1919 for the central needs of the Church at home, and a considerable part of the money so raised was spent on the training of ordination candidates, the augmentation of clergy stipends, Theological College buildings and the Church Training Colleges for Teachers. The residue was invested, and the income is at the disposal of the Central Board of Finance, subject to any trusts declared or implied.

The total assets shown in the Balance Sheet of the Fund for 31st December, 1952, were £654,824; but of this total £259,074 represents monies advanced by other Funds and invested by the Central Church Fund on their behalf. Of the balance (£395,750) £110,398 is earmarked for special purposes, leaving £285,352 which represents the gross free assets of the Central Church Fund (net free assets £277,249).

The Central Church Fund provides a vehicle for the acceptance of legacies, subscriptions and donations whether for the benefit of the Church as a whole or earmarked for specific purposes. An increasing number of persons are entering into Deeds of Covenant with the Central Board of Finance, the proceeds of which are either added to the Central Church Fund or distributed by the Board in accordance with the wishes of the subscribers.

Lay Workers' Pensions.—For a number of years the Central Board of Finance has administered the Lay Workers' Pension Scheme which provides pensions of £52 per annum on retirement for licensed lay church workers. Negotiations are at present in progress for transferring as many members of this Scheme as possible to the Church Workers' Pension Fund, administered by the Church of England Pensions Board. This is a more flexible scheme, which covers a wider range of workers and under which it is possible to contract for a higher pension.

The Board continues to co-operate with the dioceses and the Central Readers' Board in making retirement grants to workers who were too old to enter the Lay Workers' Pension Scheme at its inception.

CONSTITUTION

The Church Commissioners were set up by the Church Commissioners Measure, 1947, on April 1st, 1948, to unite Queen Anne's Bounty (incorporated 1704) and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (established 1836); they exercise all the functions of the constituent bodies.

The full Church Commissioners meet as required and at least annually to consider the report and accounts (which are transmitted to Parliament and the Church Assembly and published by the S.P.C.K.) and to elect to the Board of Governors and Estates and Finance Committee by whom the business of the Commissioners is transacted under the Measure.

The Board of Governors, which normally meets monthly, comprises not more than thirty Commissioners. Of these, the Archbishops and the three Church Estates Commissioners are members ex-officio; twenty-two are appointed by the Commissioners, of whom six must be diocesan bishops, two deans or provosts, six other clergymen and eight laymen, six of them laymen appointed by the Church Assembly; and up to three more Commissioners may be co-opted. The term of office is six years and elections are triennial to eleven of the twenty-two places, thus securing continuity. The Board is responsible for the bulk of the Commissioners' business except the management of estates and finance and the control of staff, which are the exclusive responsibility of the Estates and Finance Committee.

The Estates and Finance Committee comprises the three Church Estates Commissioners (who are joint treasurers and control the day-to-day direction of business) and not more than four additional Commissioners appointed annually of whom at least one half must be laymen who are Commissioners otherwise than in right of office. The Committee also acts as the general executive of the Board jointly with a committee appointed by the Board, the Administrative Committee.

SCOPE OF THE WORK

The Commissioners activities cover a wide range of subjects which cannot adequately be described in a short survey. They arise partly under a number of Acts and Measures, and partly from a long tradition of services on behalf of the Church and the clergy.

The many administrative functions in relation to Church organisation for which the Church Commissioners are responsible include duties in connection with the ecclesiastical reorganisation of areas affected by the War or civil planning, general parochial rearrangement under the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, formation of new parishes, alterations of parochial boundaries and boundaries of rural deaneries, unions of benefices, the conveyance of sites for churches and houses, the fixing of tables of parochial fees, transfers and exchanges of patronage, central administration in regard to parsonage houses, sales and purchases of glebe, securing of gifts of property, and the regulation of capitular accounts. The Commissioners are responsible for the payment of pensions to bishops, diocesan and suffragan, under a contributory pensions scheme.

FINANCE

The revenues of the Commissioners are derived from their estates, principally the ancient Church estates transferred from bishoprics, deans and chapters and certain abolished dignities or offices in cathedrals, and from Stock Exchange and other securities. All their revenues, other than specific trust funds, are carried to a General Fund. The income of the General Fund amounted to £7,835,287 for the year to March 31st, 1953. The secured commitments amounted to £6,633,232, leaving a surplus of £1,202,055 for disbursement during the current year in the maintenance and extension of the schemes of grants for the benefit of the clergy.

The cost of the Commissioners' schemes of grants is met from the Appropriation Account of the General Fund. This Account held £2,753,412 in the year to March 31st, 1953; £650,598 was spent in grants for the benefit of the parochial clergy (£492,322 being the cost for the year of recurrent grants, £14,117 the amount of grants to incumbents on appointment to first benefices, and £144,159 grants of capital to meet benefactions and bequests for benefices and for endowment of new benefices); £50,000 was allocated for the assistance of living agents in cathedrals; £1,824 represents the interest charge in respect of loans made free of interest for the provision of buildings for worship in newly-developed areas; £108,594 was set aside to provide against future losses on dividends from securities and on maturity of annuities under the Tithe Act, 1918; also set aside were amounts of £100,000 for the exoneration of benefices from pension charges and £250,000 for the maintenance of clerical stipends; £1,092,396 was appropriated for the provision of churches, parsonage houses and the endowment of the clergy in new housing areas; a balance of £500,000 was carried forward in the Account.

This carry-forward of £500,000 represents the bare safety margin which must be kept in hand against any unforeseeable emergency.

SCHEMES OF ASSISTANCE

The Commissioners' policy is to carry out their general augmentation work by making block allocations for distribution at the discretion of diocesan authorities.

Towards making additional provision for the parochial cure of souls by increasing incumbents' incomes or the stipends of assistant curates, deaconesses or lay workers the Commissioners have promised to allocate among diocesan stipends funds a sum of £900,000 annually. The apportionments up to March 31st, 1954, included surviving schemes such as Scheme K and the block grants for curates, etc., originated by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in 1943. From April 1st, 1954, the amounts are wholly available at diocesan discretion for the increase of the incomes of the clergy.

Towards the maintenance and improvement of parsonage houses and other benefice property the Commissioners are allocating £350,000 per annum among the dioceses for use at the discretion of diocesan dilapidations boards for the provision or improvement or repair or decoration of benefice property or for relief of incumbents from dilapidations assessments or loan repayments.

The only grants which the Commissioners now make direct to the beneficiary are (a) lump sum grants, usually of £40, towards the expenses incurred by a clergyman on taking up his first benefice; (b) capital grants to meet benefactions or bequests in augmentation of the endowment of benefices or in favour of diocesan stipends funds; and (c) grants towards the endowment of new parishes in new housing areas, or towards the stipends of curates in charge of conventional districts and other areas where there has been substantial housing development.

The amount to be allocated in grants to meet benefactions and bequests in 1954 will be £100,000; the Commissioners hope to make grants within the new housing areas to the maximum extent the need requires, and a Measure has been passed to enable them to make grants for the provision of church buildings as well as for the endowment of the cure in these new housing areas. A sum exceeding £1,500,000 has been reserved by the Commissioners for use in this way over the next 5–10 years.

Under a Measure passed in 1953 the Commissioners have been authorised to increase their payments to any archdeacon to a maximum of £400 per annum.

All correspondence with the Commissioners should be addressed to The Secretary, Church Commissioners, 1 Millbank, Westminster, S.W. 1; but it is to be noted that applications for grants should no longer be sent to him except in the case of an application for a grant to meet a benefaction or bequest. If the enquiry relates to benefice property, the application should be addressed to the secretary to the diocesan dilapidations board, and if it relates to augmentation of benefice incomes, to the secretary to the diocesan board of finance.

The Corporation of the Church House

President: The Archbishop of Canterbury.

Vice-Presidents: The Archbishop of York, the Earl Grey.

Treasurers: The Earl Grey, the Dean of Westminster.

Secretary: Mr. H. Symons, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1. (Tel.: Abbey 5261.)

THE business of the Corporation is vested in its Council of 30 members; 10 ex-officio, 9 elected, 6 nominated by the Church Assembly and 5 co-opted by the Council.

In Queen Victoria's Jubilee Year the Church lacked an administrative headquarters, and the original Church House was built as the Church's memorial of the Queen's Jubilee.

At the end of 1932 all the outstanding leases on the property acquired in 1891 had fallen in and full development became possible. It was decided to clear the whole site and reconstruct the buildings to suit modern needs. A design by Sir Herbert Baker was accepted by the Council, and by the Church Assembly so far as its own accommodation was concerned.

The foundation stone of the main building was laid on June 26th, 1937, by Her Majesty Queen Mary, and on June 10th, 1940, H.M. King George VI, in the presence of H.M. The Queen, formally opened the new House, and graced with his presence the first session of the Church Assembly in the great circular hall designed for its use.

On the night of October 14th, 1940, the Church House received a direct hit from a bomb when the large circular hall was ruined and other parts of the Church House received severe damage. Six lives were lost in this unfortunate incident.

His Majesty's Government were aware that the Palace of Westminster did not afford sufficient protection for the Houses of Parliament to meet there during heavy aerial attack. The Church House, by its close proximity and the security offered by its structure, already tested by its successful reaction to a direct hit, made it the official choice as the alternative meeting-place of the Houses of Parliament; and in fact whenever circumstances made it necessary to sit elsewhere than in the Houses of Parliament, the House of Lords sat in the Convocation Hall, and the House of Commons in the Hoare Memorial Hall. Oak panels have been inscribed in these halls commemorating their use respectively by the House of Lords and the House of Commons during the war years.

Arising out of the San Francisco Conference, the Preparatory Commission of the United Nations Organisation occupied Church House and ultimately, when the first General Assembly of U.N.O. was held in London, Church House was the scene of the activities of the Security Council of that body.

PRESENT AND FUTURE POSITION

Much history was thus made within the Church House during the infancy of its newly constituted life. After nearly six years' occupation by H.M. Government, the Church House was de-requisitioned on May 31st, 1946. So scarce, however, is accommodation available for Government purposes, that its release was conditional upon about half of the building being retained by H.M. Government, to house the Colonial Office. By October, 1946, the work of removing blast walls and other fortifications had so advanced as to permit the administrative offices of the Corporation to be re-occupied and for the Church Assembly, the Central Board of Finance and other departments of the Church Assembly to re-occupy their offices in Church House from their various scattered war-time homes.

The war damage restoration of the Assembly Hall was completed in time for use by the Church Assembly at its Autumn Session, 1950, and on January 29th, 1951, Her Majesty Queen Mary formally unveiled Commemorative Panels recording its re-building and re-opening.

Church House has proved an increasingly important and popular centre for conferences and gatherings of all kinds, and there is ample evidence that there will be many demands for the use of the Assembly Hall and other accommodation outside the Sessions of the Church Assembly and Canterbury Convocation. During its reconstruction additional facilities and amenities required for congresses and large international meetings were introduced. These include a system of amplification giving complete audibility throughout, whether speeches are made from the platform or from any seat in the body of the hall. The system is too technical to describe in detail, but one of its features, so essential for the preservation of the intimacy of debate, is its unobtrusiveness. For the increasing number of international gatherings, facilities for simultaneous interpretation into any language are available. The other equipment throughout the building is constantly being improved and maintained at a very high standard.

Thus the Church House, with the original beauty of its Assembly Hall fully restored, has emerged from the shadow of its war-time destruction and the Church Assembly can meet in its own hall, in a centre worthy of the great Communion which the Church House is designed to serve.

The Library has been reorganised to make it more accessible for the debates of Convocation and the Church Assembly and one of its rooms, in which members of the Corporation of the Church House may consult books and other publications at their leisure, is comfortably furnished and provided with writing facilities. Books cannot, however, be issued on loan away from the Library. A special room on the ground floor is also available for the use of members.

Membership of the Corporation of the Church House may, upon election by the Council, be acquired by persons of either sex (being Members of the Church of England or of any Church in full communion therewith) on payment of an entrance fee of £1 1*s.* 0*d.* Members are not now called upon to pay an annual subscription.

Facilities of Membership have been extended without entrance fee or subscription, to all members of the Church Assembly during their term of office.

THE CLERGY PENSIONS MEASURE, 1948

This Measure governs the procedure relating to the superannuation of all clergy of the Church of England under the age of 76 on January 1st, 1948. Every clergyman under this age and engaged in ecclesiastical service, or holding an educational, charitable or public post within the Provinces of Canterbury or York is, whether licensed or not, a compulsory contributor under the Measure so long as he earns more than £150 per annum.

If, however, a clergyman is contributing under some other superannuation scheme (apart from the State insurance scheme) and can satisfy the Board that the benefits he will receive under that scheme are at least equal to those he could expect under the Pensions Measure, he may be excluded from the provisions of the Measure whilst he remains in the other scheme. He may also be excluded if he is a member of a Community which provides under its Rules for its members in old age or infirmity, and also if his possible service before age 70 is less than 15 years.

The Measure divides clergymen into two main classes :—

Class A—Clergymen ordained before January 1st, 1948.
Class B—Clergymen ordained on or after January 1st, 1948.

CLASS A CONTRIBUTORS

A Class A contributor pays an annual contribution (which is allowed in full as an expense of office for income tax purposes) of 3 per cent. of his net official income in multiples of £25 as assessed by the Board—e.g. on an assessable income of £476 to £500 the annual contribution is 3 per cent. on £500, i.e., £15. For this there is received :—

(i) A pension on retirement at the age of 70, the maximum being £200 per annum for 40 or more years of service. A smaller pension is payable for a smaller number of years of service, e.g. for 35 years' service it is £155; for 30 years' service £112; etc. (A minimum of 15 years' service is required to qualify for a pension of £34.)

(ii) A reduced pension on retirement other than through ill-health between the ages of 65 and 70. The amount of the reduced pension is a percentage of the pension which would have been payable had the contributor remained in office till age 70. If retirement takes place at age 65 the percentage is 55, at age 66 it is 64%, at age 67 it is 73%, at age 68 it is 82%, at age 69 it is 91%.

(iii) A disability pension on retirement before 70 equal to the pension which would have been paid at 70 less £2 for each year the contributor's age at retirement is less than 70.

Note. As a result of an actuarial surplus shown on a valuation of the Clergy Pensions Fund, all the above pensions have been increased by 5% as from January 1st, 1953, until further notice.

In addition to the contribution towards his own pension, a clergyman ordained between July 1st, 1936, and January 1st, 1948, pays compulsorily, if married (an unmarried clergyman may pay if he wishes to do so), a small annual contribution for a widow's or dependant's pension. This contribution provides a capital of £200 whenever the contributor dies, which is converted into a pension dependent upon the age of the wife or other nominated dependant at the time of the contributor's death. This contribution is allowed for income tax as a life assurance premium.

If the contributor dies after having entered upon a disability pension, the pension payable to his widow will be based upon a capital sum of £400 and not £200.

If a Class A contributor dies before entering upon receipt of a pension the contributions he has paid with interest are either :—

(a) refunded to his estate if he is not a contributor under the Widows and Dependants section of the Measure;

(b) if he is a contributor under the Widows and Dependants section, added to the £200 provided by his annual contributions under that section and the whole amount converted into a pension for his widow or nominated dependant.

In either case, if the contributor was ordained after 1926 and the contributions and interest are less than £200, then £200 is substituted for this sum.

CLASS B CONTRIBUTORS

A Class B contributor has to pay an annual contribution of 5 per cent of his net official income as assessed by the Board in accordance with the provisions of the Measure (i.e. 1*s.* for each £ of assessable income). Two-thirds of this annual contribution is allowed in full for income tax purposes as an expense of office, and one-third as a life assurance premium (see income tax scale of life assurance allowances). For this annual contribution is received :—

(i) A pension on retirement at the age of 70 or between the ages of 65 and 70 other than through ill-health at the same rates as for a Class "A" contributor.

(ii) A disability pension on retirement before 70 at the same rates as for a Class "A" contributor.

(iii) A pension of £50 per annum during widowhood to the widow of a clergyman who is either assessable to contribution or in receipt of a pension at the time of his death.

(iv) A grant for each fatherless child until age 18 of £25 a year.

Note. As a result of an actuarial surplus shown on a valuation of the Clergy Pensions Fund, all pensions to Class B contributors, other than widows and dependants pensions, have been increased by 17½% as from January 1st, 1953, until further notice.

PENSIONS

All pensions are payable quarterly in arrear on March 31st, June 30th, September 30th and December 31st in each year, with a proportionate first and last payment. Should a contributor die, however, before receiving a full year's pension, the balance of his pension for the first year will be paid to his personal representatives apart from any pension benefits which may be due to his widow or children.

The pension is assessable to income tax, but is treated as earned income, any tax due being deducted from the quarterly instalments of the pension under the P.A.Y.E. system.

The amount which a pensioner may earn is restricted by the Measure to £150 per annum, but it must be emphasised that the £150 is the net amount received, i.e., after deduction of any expenses incurred in connection with the work for which the payment is received, e.g., cost of transport, study allowance, subsistence, etc. In exceptional cases at the request of a diocesan bishop, the Board may authorise a pensioner to receive more than £150 per annum net without suspension of his pension, but in no circumstances can a pensioner be instituted to a benefice without forfeiting his pension.

SUPPLEMENTARY PENSIONS

In 1946 special provision was made by the Board, in close association with, and supported by, the Diocesan Boards of Finance, to relieve the distress which rising prices were causing among clergy pensioners, and which was preventing many aged or infirm clergymen from retiring.

The Pensions Board grants a supplementary pension of half the amount required to make up a pensioner's total income, including that of his wife, to £250. The dioceses have undertaken, subject to conditions in one or two cases, to grant the other half. In calculating the total income, the Pensions Board does not count £52 of a wife's income or £52 of a pensioner's earned income or the annuity purchased by contributions paid to the Clergy Pensions Institution. In most cases, the dioceses apportion their share of the supplementary pension in ratio to the number of years of service rendered in each diocese if over 10 years. The Pensions Board's supplementary pension is obligatory, the diocesan part is purely discretionary. This supplementary pension is not given to those who retire before the age of 70 otherwise than through disability.

Since January 1st, 1953, the Board has decided to increase the income limit for supplementary pensions to £260 per annum after disregarding the same items of income as mentioned above, the whole of the additional £10 being given by the Board.

SPECIAL AUGMENTATION OF PENSIONS

If the pensioner's total gross income from all sources (including that of his wife) is less than £300 per annum, the Board will grant a special augmentation to bring his total income up to £300 per annum. This special augmentation is only given to those who retire at or after the age of 70, or before that age on a disability pension and who, because they were over the age of 60 on July 1st, 1948, cannot qualify for the State contributory pension at the age of 70.

SERVICE OVERSEAS

The Board has entered into reciprocal arrangements with most of the Pensions Authorities of Churches overseas in communion with the Church of England. Under these agreements the actuarial value of a contributor's rights under the Pensions Measure is transferred to the Pensions Authority of the area in which he takes up work. The contributor is then credited with equivalent benefits in the scheme of that Church. The same principle applies to movements in the reverse direction.

If a contributor takes up work overseas in an area where there is no established pensions scheme, he may continue by agreement to contribute to the Pensions Board.

CLERGY WIDOWS AND OTHER DEPENDANTS

In 1938 the Board created a fund which is available to help those widows of clergymen who are in need. It is called " The Clergy Widows Fund ", although its full title is " The Clergy Widows and Dependants Pensions Augmentation Fund ", and the Board relies for support for this fund on church collections, legacies, donations and subscriptions.

Out of this eleemosynary fund the Board grants renewable pensions up to £50 a year, and, where there are children, makes additional smaller grants for them also. In co-operation with the diocesan and central societies, the Board's aim is to see that every widow or other aged or infirm dependant has from all sources an income of at least £150 a year upon which to live. When the pensioner is over 70 years of age and in receipt of the State non-contributory pension the maximum income must not exceed £132 per annum, as any amount given in excess would mean a reduction in the State pension. The Board is already paying out nearly £15,000 a year in these pension grants. Church collections and annual subscriptions for the fund are urgently needed.

ACCOMMODATION FOR RETIRED CLERGYMEN

The Pensions Board now administers seven homes for retired clergymen and their wives and widows of deceased clergymen. Six of these homes are run on hotel lines; the residents have bed-sitting rooms which they furnish themselves, and there are communal dining rooms, lounges, libraries, etc. The other home has been equipped as a nursing home for the chronic sick. In addition, the Board has one or two houses which it has converted into flats. It is now going ahead with the scheme to build small bungalows or cottages in any diocese where they are required, on a site to be provided by the diocese. These cottages will be let to the retired clergy at a small inclusive rental within their means.

The Board has created a "Clergy Homes Fund" out of which it finances all its housing projects. It is derived solely from annual church collections, or subscriptions from parochial church councils, and donations, legacies and subscriptions from churchpeople generally. £20,000 a year is wanted to enable the Board to continue this work, as so few of the clergy or their widows are able to pay the full cost of their maintenance.

CHURCH WORKERS' PENSION FUND

The Board now administers the above fund, which is available for making pension provision for all full-time lay workers in the Church, including the administrative staff of the diocesan and central societies.

REPORTS

The Board's annual and quinquennial reports are presented to the Church Assembly and to the Board of Trade. Copies may be obtained from the Church House Bookshop, Church House, Westminster, S.W. 1 (Price 1*s*. 8*d*. post free).

The Church Information Board

(Incorporating the former Press and Publications Board of the Church Assembly and the Central Church Committee for Defence and Instruction.)

Chairman: The Bishop of London (The Rt. Rev. J. W. C. Wand, D.D.).
Vice-Chairman and Chairman of the Executive Committee: (Vacant.)
Secretary: Mr. Christopher Bradby.
Editorial Secretary: Mr. Robert Stokes.
Office: Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1. (Tel.: Abbey 5796/7.)

On 1st April, 1950, the Church Information Board, set up by Resolution of the Church Assembly at the Autumn Session, 1948, took over the functions of the Press and Publications Board of the Church Assembly. It consists of 20 members, of whom 12 are appointed by the Standing Committee, 4 by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and 4 co-opted by the Board. The latter was constituted as a Board of the Assembly on October 1st, 1923, when the Press and Publications Committee and the Central Church Committee for Defence and Instruction were amalgamated.

Like its predecessor, the new Board carries out the work of spreading news about Church activities in every way possible.

This is done through four main channels which may, for convenience sake, be grouped as follows. 1. Publisher. Carrying out the full routine business of a publisher from the initiation of MSS. to the publishing of printed books and pamphlets. The Board acts as publisher for other councils as well as for works of its own. 2. Bookseller. There is a bookshop at Church House where enquiries are always welcome. There is also a stock-room where bulk stock is kept, and where mail orders are invoiced and packed. 3. Press and Publicity. There is a regular service of press dispatches to the daily and weekly press, and also a service of monthly notes for parish magazines. Advice on publicity for exhibitions, displays, conferences, etc., is frequently sought. 4. Information and Enquiries. A wide variety of enquiries are handled, by telephone and letter, from newspapers and the general public.

The Church House Bookshop is next door to the entrance in Great Smith Street. (Tel.: Abbey 3274.)

Legal Board

Chairman: Chancellor J. Neville Gray, D.S.O., Q.C.

Secretary: Mr. B. T. Buckle, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1.

THE Legal Board now has a membership of 21. The Board has met four times in the last year, and on each occasion there has been a large Agenda to consider. Advice was given on a number of questions which were of general interest, though most items considered this year were of a special or individual nature. Among those of general interest, the Board gave a further opinion on the matter of Rota Duty and Section 39 of the Burial Act, 1852, in amplification of an earlier opinion which appears on page 122 of the 4th Edition of the Board's published Opinions. It was resolved that an agreement under the above Section, confirmed by the Bishop, binds all the incumbents who are parties thereto, but does not bind their successors, nor does it bind any parishioner—who may insist on the attendance at a burial, of the incumbent of his parish—to accept the services of some other person.

Another matter considered was a question raised on the care and maintenance of churchyards. A new memorandum amplifying the present published Opinions on this matter has been prepared and will be published as a leaflet under the authority of the Board.

The Board was also asked to give a legal definition of the word "chancel", and amplified an earlier opinion resolving that, in its opinion, the chancel arch is, as a rule, part of the nave. Whether the screen forms part of the chancel or not is a question of fact in every case, but prima facie the screen is part of the chancel.

Numerous other letters have been considered and the Board's correspondence has once again shown a marked rise in the period under review, revealing a welcome sign of interest in legal matters affecting Church affairs. It is noteworthy that a comparatively small proportion of letters received contain questions on the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, and the Rules for the Representation of the Laity, 1929, indicating that in general the contents are now well known and understood, and that the basic structure of representation on the parochial level works smoothly.

The Ecclesiastical Courts *

THE Ecclesiastical Courts consist of (1) the Archidiaconal Courts, (2) the Diocesan or Consistory Courts, and (3) the Provincial Courts. From these there is an appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

(1) The Archidiaconal Courts.—An Archdeacon has a Court and may appoint an Official to preside over it or may preside himself. The jurisdiction, limited to the archdeaconry, is similar to that of the Diocesan Court, to which an appeal from the Archdeacon's Court lies. The jurisdiction of the Archdeacon's Court has fallen into abeyance, but the Court is still available for the trial of a parish clerk accused of neglect or misbehaviour.

(2) The Diocesan Courts.—Every diocesan Bishop has a Court for administering ecclesiastical law within his Diocese. In the Diocese of Canterbury this Court is known as the Commissary Court, but elsewhere as the Consistory Court. The judge of the Court is in Canterbury styled the commissary-general, and in other dioceses the chancellor. The status of the Bishop himself in his Court depends upon the terms of the patent appointing the judge. In some cases the Bishop expressly reserves to himself the power to sit and try certain cases. But except so far as this power is reserved, the commissary-general or chancellor is the sole judge, and indeed may try cases to which the Bishop is himself a party. There is no appeal from him to the Bishop. The principal jurisdiction of the chancellor is (a) the granting of Faculties (i.e. licences to permit something to be done in regard to alterations in the fabrics or fittings and ornaments of churches and consecrated chapels, and the erection of monuments therein), the removal of a body buried in consecrated ground, the reservation of grave spaces, and the laying out of closed churchyards as open spaces; (b) the granting of marriage licences. He may also be required to hear cases under the Clergy Discipline Act, 1892, the Church Discipline Act, 1840 and to preside over the "Special Court" under the Incumbents (Discipline) Measure, 1947. An appeal lies from the Diocesan Court to the Provincial Court, and thence to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, except in cases under the Clergy Discipline Act, 1892, when the appeal is either to the Provincial Court or the Judicial Committee. Cases under the Church Discipline Act, 1840, are frequently sent direct to the Provincial Court by a process known as "Letters of Request."

(3) The Provincial Courts are the Courts of the two Archbishops. The Court of Arches is the Provincial Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Dean of the Arches is its Judge, acting by delegation from His Grace. The Chancery Court of York and its Judge occupy similar positions with regard to the Northern Province. As already stated these Courts hear appeals from the Consistory Courts, and that is their primary function. In some cases, however, it is possible for the parties to a cause to carry their case direct to the Provincial Court without a preliminary hearing in the Consistory Court by means of "Letters of Request."

Under the Benefices Act, 1898, a quasi-Ecclesiastical Court has been constituted to deal with cases of refusal by a Bishop to institute to a benefice the presentee of the patron. The Court consists of the Archbishop of the Province in which the benefice in question is situate, and of a Judge of the Supreme Court nominated by the Lord Chancellor.

A special Provincial Court has been constituted by Canon 144, promulged in May, 1948, to hear appeals under the Incumbents (Discipline) Measure, 1947, from the special Diocesan Court constituted by that Measure.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, in his capacity of Primate of All England, and since the breach with Rome in the sixteenth century, exercises certain powers without restriction of area. These are, chiefly, the granting of special marriage licences, which may allow the solemnisation of marriages without compliance with the usual conditions of time and place, the grant of ordinary marriage licences to parties resident in any Diocese of either Province, the conferring of Degrees, the appointment of Notaries and the granting of dispensations for holding two benefices in plurality. These powers are exercised in part by the Archbishop personally and in part by His Grace's Master of the Faculties to whom certain of these powers are delegated. The duties of the Master of the Faculties are mainly administrative, but when matters of dispute arise with regard to cases within this jurisdiction, he sits as a Judge in the Court of Faculties in order to decide them.

Each Archbishop has an officer—the Vicar-General of the Province—who has certain administrative powers, especially as to the granting of ordinary marriage licences to parties resident within the Province, and who acts as the adviser of the Archbishop in legal matters. The Vicar-General also advises Convocation when requested to do so. The Vicar-General of each Province sits as a Judge in the Court of Confirmation, which is held for the purpose of confirming the election of a new Bishop by the Chapter of his Cathedral.

The personnel of the Diocesan Courts is given in the diocesan lists at the beginning of this book (pp. 35-112). The personnel of the Court of Faculties and of the Provincial and other Courts is as follows :—

The Central Council for the Care of Churches

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL OF DIOCESAN ADVISORY COMMITTEES FOR THE CARE OF CHURCHES

Chairman: The Very Rev. S. J. A. Evans, F.S.A., F.R.Hist.S., Dean of Gloucester.

Vice-Chairman: The Very Rev. Eric Milner-White, D.S.O., Dean of York.

Vice-Chairman of Standing Committee: Mr. W. I. Croome, J.P., F.S.A.

Secretary: Francis C. Eeles, O.B.E., D.Litt., LL.D., F.S.A.Scot. Assistant Secretary: Miss Judith Scott, F.S.A.Scot. Offices: Dunster, Somerset. (Tel.: Dunster 367.)

[Interviews at the Church House, Westminster, S.W. 1, can be arranged through the offices at Dunster.]

THE past year has seen the Historic Churches Preservation Trust set up under the patronage of Her Majesty and with distinguished Trustees, including the Prime Minister, the Speaker, Mr. Attlee, Lord Ammon, Mr. Arthur Deakin, Mr. Laurence Cadbury and the Governor of the Bank of England. The very active and efficient Chairman of the Executive Committee, who has been the presiding genius of the whole movement, is Mr. Ivor Bulmer-Thomas. The appeal is for £4,000,000 to assist the parishes in putting their churches into good repair, in which it will be their own duty and privilege to ensure that they remain. Towards securing better maintenance Archdeacons throughout the country have been impressing upon Churchwardens in their Charges, the need to open a parish fabric fund in which to collect the offerings of all who use or frequent the parish church for weddings, funerals and baptisms, and from visitors as well as the regular congregation; and to invite small legacies from all parishioners, whose custom it was in a past age to leave a little for this purpose by will as a normal token of gratitude and appreciation, however limited their means. An invested legacy of even £5 from every parishioner would do much to ensure the possibility of future maintenance.

The Trust's appeal, which will provide funds for the repair of any churches which can claim historic or architectural value whatever their age or denomination, is making progress, but has been somewhat hampered by other national appeals.

Regular Inspection of Churches. A Measure to ensure that parishes take steps to get their churches regularly inspected at least every five years by an architect who has specialised in such work, is now under consideration by the Church Assembly. Such regular inspection should go a long way to ensure that parishes do not suddenly find themselves faced with a heavy burden of repair, arising from the neglect of some detail of maintenance—a blocked gutter, missing slates, a flag pole whose pressure has wrenched the lead sheets of the tower roof, or the like: a trifle leading ultimately to costly damage. These inspections will not take the place of close vigilance by the less expert. Mr. Bulmer-Thomas, introducing the Measure, emphasised the importance of the churchwardens walking round the church after morning service each Sunday, to give a general eye to the fabric; and the continuing value of inspection by Archdeacons and Rural Deans. These official inspections, in the interval between the five yearly visits of the architect, will be important means of seeing that nothing has gone suddenly wrong—after abnormal storms or drought, for example—and will give opportunity for reminding the P.C.C.

to get on with whatever repair work the architect may have prescribed, and advising them on how to meet the cost.

One cannot too often remind everyone concerned with a Church building of the financial meaning of the proverb about the 'stitch in time'; or again, of the necessity to choose for the inspection and repair of an old church, an architect who has specialised, and received long training in, the repair of old buildings. This extra experience and skill lead to the saving of time and money, and the avoidance of unnecessary destruction of physical matter.

Church Roofs. Probably no part of a church involves greater expenditure over the years than the roof—either the covering or the timber structure itself. The Central Council, with the Society for the Protection of Ancient Buildings, recently prepared an excellent, fully illustrated, and cheap pamphlet on all the types of roof covering and the situation for which each is best suited, with precise directions for their fixing, repair and maintenance. Lead, copper, tiles, slates and shingles, thatch, aluminium, and all the new and temporary materials, are described by experts. It is called Church Roof Coverings, price 2*s.* 3*d.*, (postage 3*d.*), obtainable from the Church House Bookshop, Church House, Westminster, S.W. 1.

Another pamphlet is now in production on all the timber pests, their detection, treatment and the subsequent repair of woodwork, also by expert writers.

Replacement of Lead Roofs. The Council strongly dissents from the view that it is advisable for parishes to remove the lead from their roofs and sell it as a precaution against theft. Most particularly they deprecate the cases which have come to their notice in which the lead has been removed and sold, a temporary material substituted, and the balance of the money expended on repair of the church, or the provision of, perhaps, a new organ. This is equivalent to living on capital, and deserves the same condemnation: it is also a breach of trust towards former generations little better than the sale of church plate or ancient books for similar purposes. If for any reason the sale of lead is permitted it should be at once replaced with a permanent material: if this is unavoidably postponed, pending repair of the roof timbers for example, the money should be invested. The capital should be spent ultimately on a permanent roof covering, and the interest meanwhile devoted to maintenance and regular inspection of the temporary roof.

New Roofs for Old. Where lead needs recasting, expert opinion would wish to see it re-used wherever it is visible, as its beautiful texture and colour are an integral part of the design of old churches. Where it is invisible or where other reasons make a replacement essential, the pitch of the roof must largely govern the choice of a substitute. Slate and tile can be used on steep roofs. Copper is the only proven substitute on the flatter pitches: aluminium may prove its worth in time, but it is still in the experimental stage.

Unsuitable Roof Coverings. The Council has expressed strong views about the unsuitability of asphalt, bituminous felt and other similar substances as permanent coverings for ancient timber roofs. Their conviction is supported by the great majority of architects, and by the societies which have devoted themselves to the care of old buildings. If for any reason any such materials are used as a temporary expedient, they should be kept under constant expert observation, and before any contract for their use is entered upon, the fire risk should be discussed with the insurance company.

Materials in Short Supply. From time to time we are told that a parish cannot have a new roof carried out in copper because the material is unobtainable. Similarly we are told that our Electric Lighting regulations are impracticable because the types of cable recommended cannot be got. We understand that this is not the case. Although these materials are in short supply none of them are unobtainable for churches. If one contractor cannot supply, another will. Patience may be required, but as work in churches must be up to an exceptional standard, patience is justified.

If any material is really unobtainable in a particular district, special arrangements can generally be made through the Central Council office.

Standards of Workmanship. In the previous paragraph we have mentioned the needs for exceptional standards of workmanship and materials in churches. This point needs emphasis from time to time. First it must stand the test of time in a way not expected from work on the structure and fittings of houses and factories today. Secondly, conditions in our churches impose very severe atmospheric tests of materials and craftsmanship. Old buildings have no damp courses: the walls are nearly always damp, even when they do not appear so. The buildings are generally heated on one day in the week only, completely and suddenly changing the humidity of the atmosphere. Also, unfortunately, they are seldom adequately ventilated. All this imposes a heavy strain on the insulation of electric light cable, for example, and explains why special precautions, often rather resented by parish and contractor, are insisted upon.*

New Church Plate. Donors considering the gift of new church plate are reminded that since 1948 a scheme has been in operation whereby original and hand-produced articles in the precious metals may be relieved of Purchase Tax if they exhibit the highest qualities of design and craftsmanship. A limited Treasury grant to cover relief has been made available annually to the Design and Research Centre for the Gold, Silver and Jewellery Industries and to the Crafts Centre of Great Britain who have each set up adjudicating panels.

Exhibitions, Lectures and Literature. The care of churches and their improvement must, in the opinion of the Council, go together if the Church is to testify effectively to the vital importance of Beauty as a facet of Divine Truth. At the conference of Diocesan Advisory Committees for the Care of Churches held at Oxford in 1953, great emphasis was placed on the Committees' duty of propaganda for the improvement of the furnishing of churches. This, with the care of fabrics, can best be taught by eye, and the Council has small, portable photographic exhibitions available for parishes, dioceses or conferences to borrow. They have also lantern and film strip lectures on varied aspects of the subject, suitable for different audiences, which may be hired, and are specially recommended for Rural Deanery meetings of clergy or laity. Bookstalls can also be arranged. Lectures are regularly given for the Council at the majority of the Theological Colleges.

Constitution. The constitution of the Council provides for 25 members of the Church Assembly, 20 representatives of the Missionary Societies, 15 nominated by the Archbishops and 12 Chairman of Subsidiary Councils.

Personnel. Canon J. McLeod Campbell, M.C., D.D., resigned the position of General Secretary of the Council as from the end of 1953 (see page 19).

Functions. The Council is responsible to the Assembly for the maintenance of its relations with, and the discharge of the Church of England's obligation to, the Churches overseas. It is the function of the Council to stimulate the sense of corporate responsibility in the Church in such a way as to increase the volume and effectiveness of the service rendered by the Missionary Societies as officially recognised agencies of the Church of England for its overseas work. It seeks to promote every form of activity which may bring home to members of the Church of England and to the constitutional bodies of the parish, rural deanery and diocese, the responsibility which rests upon them to regard the overseas work of the Church as an essential part of their duty. The Council endeavours to present accurately and effectively the needs of the Church overseas and to stimulate in the home Church the will to provide through the Missionary Societies the funds and the workers that are asked for.

The Council is also concerned with the permeation of theological training with missionary spirit and understanding and has been greatly encouraged by the interest and co-operation of the Principals of the Theological Colleges in the holding of Conferences for Theological Students and the arrangement of Missionary Courses in the Colleges.

Recent Developments. The Commission appointed to report on the missionary organisation of the Church advocated—and the Societies have agreed—a new development of co-operation both between the Societies, and between Society-centred and Church-centred missionary organisations: co-operation both in external relations and at home. The Overseas Council is the official organ of such co-operation.

On the overseas side it has set up four of the Councils recommended by the Commission, namely Territorial Councils for (a) India–Pakistan–Burma–Ceylon; (b) Tropical Africa; (c) East Asia; and (d) The Muslim World. These are authorised to deal with questions of Church strategy in their respective spheres, maintaining contacts with the authorities of the Church in the field and relating their general policy to that of the Church at home and its recognised agencies, the Missionary Societies. The Councils have the further responsibility of considering what particular needs of their areas should be brought to the attention of the home Church.

The Archbishop of Canterbury appointed the former General Secretary of the Overseas Council to be at the same time Secretary to the Anglican Communion Council. The Territorial Councils will be in close touch with this body.

The further application of the principle of co-operation in the field of home organisation, also recommended by the Commission, is now proceeding both at the centre and in the dioceses. To this end the Overseas Council has set up a Home Council with subsidiary Development and Education Committees.

The Home Council deals in a consultative capacity with questions referred to it by the Overseas Council. Its members include representatives of Councils concerned with the Training of the Ministry, Education, Women's Church Work and Moral Welfare as departments of the Church's work which are related to the work of the Church overseas and to missionary education and recruitment at home.

The Council is encouraging Diocesan Missionary Councils to develop a similar extension of representation, particularly with reference to the education activities in the dioceses. It keeps under constant review problems and methods of the recruitment of clergy and laity to serve overseas. Its Enrolment Scheme, which invites men on their ordination to undertake to give equal consideration to invitations to serve overseas and at home, has contributed to the supplying of recruits. The Development Committee has sought the co-operation of Hospital Chaplains in laying before medical and nursing personnel the needs and opportunities of service abroad.

The Education Committee has been similarly developing contact with educationalists in this country. The recruitment and missionary education of young people are the major interests of the Youth Committee which the Council sponsors jointly with the Church of England Youth Council. The Council has a similar partnership with the Moral Welfare Council in a joint Committee which helps to provide moral welfare training for people preparing for missionary service and which recruits moral welfare workers for areas overseas.

To deal as effectively as possible with the many factors in the situation at home, the Council needs to keep under constant review the resources and the response in men, money and material. For this purpose the Development Committee, with the co-operation of the Missionary Societies, is engaged in an extensive survey of the situation in the dioceses.

During the past four years the Council has been enlisting laymen to assist the presentation to laymen of the missionary appeal throughout the country. This development, under the leadership of the Council's Honorary Lay Secretary, Mr. T. F. Sandford, has led to the appointment of Lay co-Secretaries by 22 Diocesan Councils. In many dioceses laymen and laywomen have been trained in speaking, visual-aid work and many other activities connected with the presentation of the work of the Church overseas.

One of the responsibilities of the Overseas Council is that of assisting missionaries to find suitable spheres of work on their return to this country. It exercises a further responsibility on behalf of the Church Assembly towards students who come to Britain from Africa and the East. The Council played a considerable part in the inauguration of a Centre for African students at 13 Chelsea Embankment and, with the co-operation of the C.M.S. and the S.P.G., it has opened "The William Temple House", a new Hostel at Earl's Court for overseas students. This is intended to help to meet the needs of Anglican students coming to this country from overseas by providing them with a Christian home and fellowship. It is administered by a Governing Body representative of the Overseas Council and the participating Societies.

Canon C. K. Sansbury, the Warden of Lincoln Theological College, who is a member of the Overseas Council, has been appointed Warden of St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, which has been re-opened as a College for the whole Anglican Communion. The Lambeth Conference of 1948 expressed the desire for such a central College at which priest-students and ordinands from all parts of the Anglican Communion could share in a fellowship of study, training and worship. This great new venture merits the widest possible support in interest, in giving and in prayer from the whole Anglican Communion.

Publications. On behalf of the Advisory Council on Missionary Strategy, the Overseas Council issues annually " The Anglican Communion Cycle of Prayer ". It is already used in Cathedrals and dioceses throughout the world, but it is hoped that the Cycle of Prayer will be used in every parish so that the spiritual bond of prayer may be as widely extended as possible. The new World Map of the dioceses of the Anglican Communion has been issued by the Council. The following publications of the Council are obtainable through the Church Information Board:—

THE Council (whose membership is as shown above) was established in 1912 as the result of Resolutions passed by the Convocations of Canterbury and York. In 1924 its constitution was altered in order to bring it into direct relationship with the Church Assembly. Its functions and composition are as follows:—

I.—Functions.

1. To watch the supply of Candidates for Holy Orders, and its sources.
2. To consider the best methods of training and testing Candidates, and to control the General Ordination Examination.
3. To provide for the inspection of Theological Colleges and any other institutions offering similar preparations to candidates for Holy Orders; and to advise as to the formation and supply of new Theological Colleges.
4. To receive money in order to finance individual candidates and make grants in aid of Diocesan Ordination Candidates Funds, and other bodies engaged in the work of preparing Candidates for Ordination.
5. Generally to promote unity of action between all those concerned in the training of Candidates for Holy Orders, and to collect information and make suggestions for the guidance of the Bishops.

II.—Composition.

As a result of a resolution passed by the Church Assembly in March, 1943, the Council was reconstituted as follows:—

15 members nominated by the Standing Committee of the Church Assembly; such members to retire triennially, but be eligible for reappointment;
15 members appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York; such members to retire triennially, but be eligible for reappointment;
6 members appointed by the Conference of Principals of Theological Colleges;
1 member each representing the Theological Faculties of Oxford, Cambridge, Durham, London, Manchester, Leeds, and St. David's College, Lampeter.

The main work of the Council at the present time is divided into four parts: (1) to implement so far as possible the findings of the Archbishops' Commission on Training for the Ministry, and to advise the Bishops on the steps to be taken in the post-war period; (2) to arrange inspections of the Theological Colleges and to consider the various problems connected with the training of students; (3) to arrange for "recruitment" for the Ministry in schools, colleges, the Services, and among older men; and (4) to arrange for selection of candidates for training in accordance with plans approved by the Bishops, and the organisation of Selection Centres.

The Council meets regularly for business meetings and annually for residential conferences, to consider these and other matters. The various committees of the Council meet frequently to conduct routine business. The great increase in recent years in the work of the Council has of necessity involved a corresponding increase in staff.

Plans for the selection, testing and training of candidates for Holy Orders have in particular been very carefully considered and proposals have been submitted to the Bishops who have approved of the following regulations. These and other suggestions are at present under further consideration.

A. SELECTION

All candidates shall be required before acceptance for a recognised course of training :

1. To have passed an examination of at least University Entrance standard or, in exceptional cases, to hold qualifications regarded as satisfactory by the Central Advisory Council of Training for the Ministry.

2. To pass such medical examination as shall be prescribed by the Central Advisory Council of Training for the Ministry.

3. To attend a Selection Centre at which a Selection Board appointed by the Central Advisory Council of Training for the Ministry shall (a) decide whether they shall be recommended as candidates for testing and training, and (b) if necessary advise what course of training they shall follow.

N.B.—Candidates of the age of 40 and over are exempt from Regulation A. 1 and may be exempted by the Bishop from Regulation A. 3 provided that before acceptance for training they are sponsored by the Bishop.

B. TRAINING

1. All candidates of the age of 25 and under shall normally be required :

either to obtain a University degree which shall be followed by two years' post-graduate theological, pastoral and devotional training, including residence at a recognised Theological College, and to pass the General Ordination Examination or its equivalent; or if a University course is not recommended, to take a course of three years' theological, pastoral and devotional training either at a recognised Theological College, or under some other authority approved by the Bishop in consultation with the Central Advisory Council of Training for the Ministry and to pass the General Ordination Examination or its equivalent.

2. All candidates between the ages of 30 and 40 shall normally be required :

(a) to be accepted for training by a Diocesan Bishop and, if exempted by him from the Regulations under B. 1;

(b) to take a course of two years' theological, pastoral and devotional training either at a recognised Theological College or under some other authority approved by the Bishop in consultation with the Central Advisory Council of Training for the Ministry, and to pass the modified General Ordination Examination or its equivalent.

3. Candidates of the age of 40 and over shall be required to follow such course of theological, pastoral and devotional training as shall be prescribed by the Bishop.

BISHOPS' SELECTION CENTRES

These centres, which were begun in the autumn of 1944, have received wide approval in the Church Assembly and elsewhere. The Bishops have recently agreed to their continuance as the method of selecting all candidates under 40 years of age for testing and training.

The method of Selection Centres is to hold conferences lasting 3 days to which are invited about 20 candidates and 5 selectors. The selectors are appointed by the Diocesan Bishops. Each diocese has nominated priests and laymen to serve in this capacity and the individual boards are composed from the diocesan lists. Each candidate is seen separately by each of the selectors and in the common life of the conference, in the discussions, lectures and services which are held, a real effort is made to discover the true vocation of each man.

At the conferences the lay as well as the clerical vocation is fully stressed and the claims of the whole Church at home and overseas are emphasised.

The Centres have recently been held in Conference Houses in different parts of England.

PRE-TRAINING

No grants for pre-training are available for candidates, who are normally expected to reach University Entrance standard before the Church can begin to finance their training.

A special residential course at Brasted Place, Kent, has been designed for selected candidates who would profit by a year of pre-training.

UNIVERSITY TRAINING

It is most desirable that those candidates who will be expected to read for a university degree before going on to a Theological College should get provisional acceptance at a college in a university at as early a date as possible.

THEOLOGICAL COLLEGES

The following Theological Colleges are now open:—Tyndale Hall, Clifton, Bristol; St. Aidan's College, Birkenhead; Queen's College, Birmingham; Ridley Hall, Cambridge; Westcott House, Cambridge; Bishops' College, Cheshunt; The Theological College, Chichester; The Theological College, Clifton; The Theological College, Cuddesdon; St. Chad's College, Durham; St. John's College, Durham; The Theological College, Ely; The London College of Divinity; The House of the Sacred Mission, Kelham; The Theological College, Lichfield; Scholæ Cancellarii, Lincoln; King's College, London; The College of the Resurrection, Mirfield; Ripon Hall, Oxford; St. Stephen's House, Oxford; Wycliffe Hall, Oxford; The Theological College, Salisbury; Oak Hill College, Southgate; The Theological College, Wells.

It is important that candidates should apply for provisional acceptance at the college of their choice well in advance of the date at which they hope to begin their theological training.

FINANCE

The arrangements approved by the Church Assembly in June, 1952, (C. A. 1038), for providing and administering funds for the training of ordination candidates came into operation on October 1st, 1952. Most dioceses have undertaken to raise in full the sum apportioned upon them out of the estimate of £168,000. Some dioceses are arranging the finances of all their candidates, and others are doing so in collaboration with the Grants Committee of the Council.

Details about the administration of grants can be obtained from the Secretary of the Grants Committee, C.A.C.T.M., Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

The routine work of the Council is carried on by the General Secretary of C.A.C.T.M., two other clerical secretaries and one lay secretary.

Candidates from the Forces who wish to be considered for ordination should either apply in the first instance to their chaplains, or write direct to the General Secretary, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1.

Candidates still at school or in civilian work should apply either to the Secretary of their Diocesan Training Committee or to the General Secretary of C.A.C.T.M., Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1.

Ordination Statistics

ORDINATION OF DEACONS, 1952–1953.

The Table below (compiled from information supplied by the Bishops' Registrars) is designed to show (i) the number of Deacons ordained during the last ten years arranged under the various dioceses; (ii) the proportion of candidates drawn from the universities and other colleges during the years 1872–1953.

Note.—The year is reckoned from Advent to Advent, and the figures given include Deacons ordained at home for service abroad; in 1953 there were three such Deacons.

Theological Faculties and Colleges

Faculties of Theology exist in a number of universities and some of the colleges in or associated with these have facilities for taking either the university course or a post-graduate theological course or both.

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

The Faculty of Theology includes eight Professors and about forty-five Lecturers, and other teachers. The Board of the Faculty of Theology consists of the eight Professors (official members), and eight elected members with power to co-opt three additional members.

Details of University scholarships open to the sons and daughters o clergymen or to those intending to take Holy Orders may be obtained from the Registrar, University Registry, Oxford. For details of similar College scholarships or exhibitions application should be made to the Bursars of Brasenose College, Exeter College, Keble College, Queen's College, St. Catherine's Society, St. Peter's Hall, Wadham College and Worcester College.

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

The Faculty Board of Divinity consists of the four Professors of Divinity, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Dixie Professor of Ecclesiastical History, and certain members (a) elected by the Faculty of Divinity; (b) nominated by the Council of the Senate and appointed by the Regent House; and (c) co-opted by the Faculty Board.

Details of University Studentships, Scholarships and other awards in ecclesiastical subjects may be obtained from the Registrary, University Registry, The Old Schools, Cambridge. For details of College Scholarships or Exhibitions open to sons of clergymen or to those intending to take Holy Orders, application should be made to the Tutors of Christ's, Corpus Christi, Emmanuel, Gonville and Caius, Jesus, King's, Pembroke, Queens', St. Catharine's, St. John's, Sidney Sussex, and Trinity Colleges, or to the Master of Selwyn College. Some Colleges give preference to candidates educated at Bedford Grammar School, Bradfield School, Chigwell School, Grantham School, King William's College, Oakham School and St. Paul's School.

The Gladstone Research Studentship in Divine Learning at St. Deiniol's Library, Hawarden, is open to graduates of the University.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

There are two Anglican Schools of Theology in the University.

King's College (Strand, W.C. 2) is one of the Colleges of the University. Its Theological Faculty is one of the six Faculties of the College. The Associateship of King's College (A.K.C.) is recognised as a qualification for Holy Orders and as an equivalent to the General Ordination Examination for candidates who have resided for three terms in the King's College Hostel, Vincent Square, Westminster, S.W.1, and for one year in the post-graduate College at Warminster. For further information apply to the Dean, King's College, Strand, W.C. 2.

The London College of Divinity (St. John's Hall), at Ford Manor, nr. Lingfield, Surrey, is a School in Divinity of the University and is also a Theological College. Information from the Principal, the Rev. F. D. Coggan, D.D.

UNIVERSITY OF DURHAM

The Board of the Faculty of Theology consists of twelve Professors, one Reader, eight Lecturers, together with two ex-officio members and two additional members.

St. Chad's College, St. John's College, University College and Hatfield College are constituent Colleges of the University, the first two being also post-graduate Theological Colleges. Information may be obtained respectively from the Principal (Rev. T. S.

Wetherall), St. Chad's College, Durham; the Principal, St. John's College, Durham; the Master (L. Slater), The Castle, Durham; the Master (E. Birley), Hatfield College, Durham.

UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER

The Faculty of Theology. There is an inter-denominational Faculty of Theology and the Senate has power to grant the degree of B.A. (Theol.) in the Faculty of Arts.

Neither St. Anselm Hall nor Hulme Hall are Theological Colleges, but theological students are in residence in both. Further information from the Warden in each case.

Details of courses of study are published in the Prospectus of the Faculty of Theology obtainable from the Registrar. Advice on courses of study may be obtained from the Dean of the Faculty of Theology.

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS

The Department of Theology has one Professor, three Lecturers and nine Recognised Teachers (members of Associated Theological Colleges), and co-operates closely with the Department of Hebrew, the Department of Education and the Institute of Education. Information about degree courses may be obtained from the Registrar, University of Leeds.

UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM

There is a Department of Theology. For information apply to the Registrar, University of Birmingham, Edmund St., Birmingham, 3.

The Queen's College, Somerset Rd., Edgbaston, Birmingham, 15, is a graduate Theological College. Information from the Principal.

UNIVERSITY OF BRISTOL

The University awards a General Degree B.A. for Theological Students. The degree may be awarded with honours or as a pass degree. Information may be obtained from the Registrar, University of Bristol, Bristol, 8.

Tyndale Hall (formerly the Bible Churchmen's Missionary College), Bristol, 8, and the Clifton Theological College, Stoke Bishop, Bristol, 9, are affiliated. Details from the Principal in each case.

UNIVERSITY OF READING

There is no Faculty or Department of Theology, but facilities are provided in the Department of Education to enable students who so desire to select Religious Education as one of the subjects in the course in preparation for the University Diploma in Education.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTTINGHAM

The Department of Theology has a Professor and two Lecturers. It forms a part of the Faculty of Arts and provides courses for the degree of B.A. with Honours in Theology as well as subsidiary courses for students taking the B.A. degree in other Honour Schools. Information from the Registrar, The University, University Park, Nottingham.

The Central Readers' Board

Presidents : The Archbishops of Canterbury, York and Wales.
Chairman : The Bishop of Hereford.
Vice-Chairman : Captain Julian Smith.
Hon. Secretary : Rev. James Wall.

Office Secretary: Miss K. Myland, 45 Great Peter Street, Westminster, S.W. 1. (Tel.: Abbey 7371.)

THE Central Readers' Board, as constituted with the approval of the Archbishops and Bishops, consists of the Archbishops of Canterbury, York and Wales, four Bishops, six representatives of the Church Assembly, two elected representatives from each diocese, and not more than twelve co-opted members. The Board co-ordinates the work of the Lay Ministry in the several dioceses; trains Readers and maintains and develops the work of Readers generally; and arranges for annual and other conferences. At the Spring Session (1951) of the Church Assembly approval was given in principle to the provision for the Board of "a sum not exceeding £500 per annum."

Immediately after the Reformation, early in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, owing to many parishes being destitute of Clergy, the ancient office of Reader was revived for a time to provide some religious teaching in these parishes. When the deficiency of Clergy was made good the Reader disappeared. In 1866 the office was again restored, with the approval of Convocation, by the Bishops.

Briefly, the present regulations are as follows: The candidate is required to be nominated by an Incumbent and to produce a written testimonial as to fitness. After examination, and the signing of a declaration of loyalty to the doctrine of the Church of England and to the Bishop and Incumbent, he is to be admitted to "the Office of Reader," accompanied by the delivery of the New Testament, but without the laying-on of hands. He shall receive a certificate signed by the Bishop indicating his admission into the Lay Ministry, and a list shall be kept by each Bishop (i.e. his Registrar) of all Readers so admitted, together with the declarations made by them on admission.

There is only one office of Reader divided into two classes—

1. Parochial Readers, whose work is restricted to the parish to which they are licensed; and—
2. Diocesan Readers, whose commissions authorise them to exercise their office throughout the diocese.

A certain amount of elasticity is allowed, however, in assigning particular functions or special duties.

The Licence of a Parochial Reader may include all or any of the following duties—

(a) To visit the sick, to read and pray with them, to teach in Sunday School and elsewhere, and generally to undertake such pastoral and educational work and to give such assistance to the Incumbent as he may direct. (b) To read Morning or Evening Prayer, to publish Banns of Marriage, to say the Litany, to read the Scriptures, to give addresses except at the Holy Communion, to catechise children in Church. The Commission of a Diocesan Reader enables him to perform all the above duties in any consecrated buildings throughout the Diocese.

Additional duties which, in exceptional circumstances and byspecial authorisation from the Bishop, may be assigned to a Reader are: To read the Epistle at the Holy Communion; and to administer the Cup at the Holy Communion.

The regulations relating to Readers can be obtained from the Central Readers' Board, 45 Great Peter Street, Westminster, S.W. 1.

The Reader Magazine, published monthly in the interests of the Lay Ministry, celebrates the jubilee of its foundation in January, 1954.

The Church of England Council for Education

Vice-President : The Archbishop of York.
Chairman : The Archdeacon of Totnes.
Secretary : Canon Marcus Knight.
Office : 69 Great Peter Street, Westminster, S.W. 1. (Tel.: Abbey 1672.)

THE Council for Education is responsible for the promotion and supervision on behalf of the Church Assembly of the general educational work of the Church. This includes the preparation of the Budget for the year on behalf of the Councils responsible for departments of educational activity. The Council has the ultimate responsibility for policy, but the greater part of its work is carried out by the Departmental Councils. These report annually to the Council for Education, and summaries of their work appear in this Year-Book. For questions of policy of interest to several councils, or for which no individual Council has primary responsibility, the Central Council may set up an advisory group to report directly.

Matters which have engaged the Council during the year have included the promotion and development of Adult Education and the problem of the establishment of a Residential College for such education; and the question of children's reading, which was referred to the Children's Council.

Questions affecting Modern Universities have also occupied the attention of the Council, and the problem of students coming to Great Britian from West Africa and other parts of the Commonwealth. The work of Chaplaincy Centres in the Modern Universities has been encouraged and developed, and conferences for University Chaplains were held in 1952 and 1953. New problems include the increasing significance of television in the formation of thought and culture, with its implications for Christian Education; and the impact of Christian Education in areas still largely unexplored, e.g. the Secondary Modern Schools and the Technical Colleges.

The Council has been planning a residential meeting to discuss at more leisure its own character and possibilities for greater influence, and ways in which it can implement the tasks with which it is charged by the Assembly.

The clarification of the future relations between the Council for Education and the National Society has occupied much attention during the year and it is believed that the new policy which has been agreed by the Council and the Society will be of benefit to both.

Field Secretary : Miss M. M. Bostock.

THE title Children's Council is short and pleasant and thus suited for its association with those small and pleasant people—children. Children—out of school—at home, at play, busily occupied or not occupied at all, in Church and Sunday School, out in the streets, or in the cinemas. They are the Church's concern: they are this Council's concern.

The Children's Council plans for children, but deals mainly with adults who work with them; and its lecturing staff is constantly answering requests for help. These come from many quarters: Clergy; Diocesan Advisers in Religious Education; the Mothers' Union; Health Visitors; Church Societies, e.g. the Girls' Friendly Society; and voluntary organisations, e.g. the Boy Scouts; the Church of England Children's Society, and the Nursery Schools Association. Invitations also come from Training Colleges and from the Parents Associations of schools of every type.

Lectures and discussions on religious training have again been included in the Child Care Courses arranged in connection with the Home Office, the Council providing some of the lecturers.

The Council has shown its concern about films and reading, two subjects which have a great effect upon children. Information and advice about films and film strips suitable for Sunday Schools and Children's Services, is available. The question of magazines and comics for children has also been considered with useful results, and the Council is prepared to make recommendations about these and other books which are of interest to parents, teachers and children.

Sunday School lesson books and other literature for use in voluntary religious education are of great importance to those who are working in this field. The Publications Committee encourages the writing and production of such material which is published by the Church Information Board. Some original and interesting publications in connection with the Coronation have been produced in 1953, in addition to the new lesson books and two new sets of lesson stamps.

Almost every diocese in England has a woman Adviser in children's work, and there is a close link between them and the Council's staff. Visits of a week's duration, including lectures, were paid to various Summer Schools and a large number of residential week-ends, evening training courses and other meetings have received help from the lecturers.

Teaching courses are arranged regularly in most of the Theological Colleges. A member of the Council's staff organises them, and takes with her one or two colleagues who help with the supervision of practical teaching in local schools and with lectures and demonstrations.

Nineteen Theological Colleges (two in the Province of Wales) receive regular help through these courses which last from a few days in some cases to three separate weeks during the two-year course in others. Twenty-six visits have been paid to these colleges in 1953.

The Van given by King George's Jubilee Trust to the Church of England Council for Education has been used on numerous occasions by members of the staff. It has been found most convenient for carrying apparatus which has made their visits of more practical value both on education courses and for demonstration lectures. It was particularly useful during an Education Week arranged by the Diocese of Derby, in which the work of all the Departmental Councils for Education was included.

Schools Council

Chairman: The Bishop of Peterborough.
Vice-Chairman: Mr. C. L. Berry.
Secretary: Canon R. W. Stopford, C.B.E., D.C.L.
Office: 69 Great Peter Street, Westminster, S.W. 1. (Tel.: Abbey 1672.)

The new Schools Council came into being in January, 1953, and, for increased efficiency, reduced the size of the Executive Committee and set up a Legal Sub-Committee. Detailed attention is being given by the Council and its committees to problems which have arisen in connection with Controlled Schools. The relationship of the Council to the National Society has been clarified, the Council is now solely responsible for advising the Council for Education on all matters connected with educational policy, and joint meetings with the National Society Standing Committee have been discontinued.

The Education (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act was passed in 1953. The Act incorporates most of the points made by the Schools Council and the National Society and will afford some minor reliefs to Church Schools. It proved impossible to introduce some amendments suggested by the Council which would have given some further assistance to the Church Schools. Though the debates in the House of Commons were not as free from controversy as had been hoped, they afforded evidence of increasing sympathy and support for Christian education.

As more Development Plans receive official approval by the Ministry of Education it is possible to see that the number of aided schools will be considerably larger than appeared possible some years ago. The financial arrangements under "Barchester" or similar schemes are working well. The slowing down of the building programme for schools has not been without some advantages to Managers and diocesan authorities, but in a number of dioceses a promising start has been made with the rebuilding of Church Schools.

The Rev. J. G. Williams' appointment as Field Secretary came to an end in September, 1953. He has given great service to teachers throughout the country. For financial reasons it has not been possible to appoint a successor, but Miss E. M. Verini, formerly Principal of Hughes Hall, Cambridge, has been appointed to the staff of the National Society as Adviser to Teachers.

The Church of England Youth Council

President: H.R.H. The Princess Margaret.
Chairman: The Bishop of Portsmouth.
Vice-Chairman: The Bishop of Warrington.
Chairman of the Executive: Rev. W. H. S. Purcell.
Chairman of the Training Committee: Rev. R. R. Acheson.
Hon. Treasurer: Mr. W. J. Jackson, F.S.A.A.

General Secretary: Rev. B. L. Spurgin.
Training Officer: (Vacant); Field Officer: Miss R. C. Hadow.
Administrative Officer: Miss A. Q. Neale.
Office: 69 Great Peter Street, Westminster, S.W.1. (Tel.: Abbey 2995.)

In July, 1952, Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret graciously consented to become President of the Church of England Youth Council in succession to Her Majesty The Queen, who, as H.R.H. The Princess Elizabeth, was President from 1947 to her Accession.

The Church of England Youth Council was first constituted by the Church Assembly in 1942, and was entrusted with the work of the Church for youth, being primarily concerned with all aspects of the Church's ministry to young people between 14 and 25 years of age, who had left school. Under the Church of England Council for Education Regulation, 1947, which came into force on January 1st, 1948, the Council became one of the five Departmental Councils of the new Council for Education. Part III of the Schedule to this Regulation provides for one representative to serve upon it from each of the Diocesan Youth Councils in England and one representative from each national voluntary youth organisation which has at least 5,000 members in units under Anglican auspices and whose work is approved by the Council. In addition to certain other representatives not more than 9 persons may be co-opted.

The Council invites observers from the Church in Wales, the Episcopal Church in Scotland, and the Church of Ireland, to attend its meetings.

The Main Task of the Council is that of assisting the clergy and lay youth leaders of the Church of England to equip young men and women " to go forth into the world to serve God faithfully in the fellowship of His Church," and its first concern is therefore to assist in the strengthening and extending of the Church's own youth work. But the Council is concerned with all aspects of the Church's ministry to young people, both within and outside the membership of the Church, and therefore has a responsibility for furthering both central and local co-operation between the Church of England and the statutory Youth Service, the Pre-Service Training Units and all national voluntary youth organisations.

The Council in no way desires to segregate youth from any other age group, and therefore is happy to determine and carry out its policy in close co-operation with all other bodies seeking to build up the life and witness of the Church.

In the light of experience of success and failure gained by Youth Leaders of the Church of England in various forms of youth work, the Council recommends that all Anglican youth groups, however organised, should be guided by the following aims, which should be expressed in their programmes and activities :—

Worship :—To provide opportunities both for the understanding of, and for progress in, corporate worship and private prayer.

Thought :—To enable young people to learn together the meaning of the Christian faith, and of its relevance to the life of their generation.

Service :—To lead young people to offer their work and their leisure to God as members of His Church, in local, national and international life.

Witness :—To prepare young people for Christian witness by life, word and action.

Recreation :—To give due recognition to the importance of fitness of body and mind. and to the provision of suitable and varied forms of recreation in all youth organisations and groups.

The Council believes that youth work which is guided by these aims will help young people to find true fellowship in and through the life of the Church in loyalty to Jesus Christ.

The Training of Leaders. The Council offers its experience and the practical assistance of its staff to the dioceses, the theological and training colleges and other bodies, in the training of leaders for Christian youth work through national, regional and local courses. The term " leader " is understood to include :

(i) Clergy (beneficed or unbeneficed).
(ii) Full-time paid youth leaders in the service of the Church, the Local Education Authorities or the Voluntary Organisations.
(iii) Part-time voluntary or paid leaders who wish to equip themselves for youth work in their leisure time.

The Council consults with the Ministry of Education and other bodies concerning future policy for the training of full-time men and women youth leaders. The Council seeks to promote courses which make provision for the study of theology as an integral part of the training. Through its Training Committee and its Training Officer it is in close touch with existing courses arranged by Universities and other training bodies and practical assistance has been given to many of them.

Bursary aid is available from Central Church funds to selected candidates taking approved courses.

The advisory services of the staff are available to men and women contemplating youth leadership training.

Short training courses are arranged by the Council from time to time for Diocesan Youth Organisers, as are also specialist courses of different kinds designed to help clergy and others who are working among young people. These include training courses for those engaged in youth work in rural areas.

Part time courses in voluntary youth leadership are arranged by a number of dioceses and the Council seeks to encourage and help forward these courses in every possible way, especially those which endeavour to provide continuous training for senior members of youth groups.

The services of the Church of England Council for Education Study Centre are commended as an aid to training schemes.

Presenting the Christian Faith to Youth. The Council is deeply concerned to assist leaders in every type of youth organiation to present the Christian Faith to their members and to build them up into membership of the Church. It seeks to do this by encouraging the closest co-operation with every agency in the field, and by advising national youth organisations and cadet units on their religious policy as opportunity arises.

One of the significant developments of recent years has been the concern of the organisations which have not a specifically Christian basis to provide for the spiritual welfare of their members. Among the organisations which now have Religious Advisory Panels are the Boy Scouts Association, the Girl Guides Association, the National Association of Training Corps for Girls, the Army Cadet Force, the National Association of Boys' Clubs, the National Association of Girls' Clubs and Mixed Clubs and St. John Ambulance Brigade Cadets, on all of which the Council is represented.

The Council has recently given special consideration to the spiritual needs of young people in industry and rural areas; preparation for Confirmation and post-Confirmation Care; Christian apologetics; and the pastoral care of nurses.

Adult Education Council

Chairman : Sir Richard W. Livingstone.

Vice-Chairman : The Dean of Salisbury.

Field Secretary : Rev. S. B. Calver.

Resolution 33 of the Lambeth Conference of 1948 reads as follows :—

> "The Conference calls special attention to the urgent need for more effective and continuous adult education through study and discussion. It believes that adult religious education should be included in the normal work of parish and diocese."

It would not be possible to find a better description of the purpose of the Adult Education Council. Its members are convinced that the need for this work is indeed urgent; that it will be of little value if it is treated only as an occasional stimulant—it must be continuous if it is to be effective; and that it were foolish to treat this as the special concern of a few enthusiasts alone—it must become normal in the life of parish and diocese.

The responsibility for the detailed development of adult educational work within a diocese must rest upon a Diocesan Committee. Its members are familiar with local needs and are the best judges of the local situation. The functions which remain to the Adult Education Council are as follows :—

(a) Inspiration and Stimulus : to keep before the Church the part to be played by adult education in educational and evangelistic work, and to give some guidance about the content as well as the purpose of adult education.

(b) Co-ordination : to arrange for the exchange of information about adult education.

(c) Training : to arrange for the provision of training courses in formal and informal methods of adult education.

(d) Publication : to encourage the production of printed material and pictorial material that will help those engaged in the work.

(e) Representation : to represent the Church in discussions at the national level with other bodies concerned in adult education.

Experience shows that there must be a clearer realisation by the Church of what is meant by Adult Education. It should be a stage in the education of all people, not something suitable only for a particular group. There must be diversity of approach and technique, and readiness to experiment, teaching not subjects but people. Adult education should not be regarded merely as an additional activity, but rather as part of the pastoral care for the equipment of Church people for effective witness in the world.

The enquiries addressed to the Council and reports from the dioceses show that generally the major subjects of study are the Bible, Christian Doctrine and Church History. Although greater resources applied along these lines would increase the numbers of students, courses of the customary sort do not always awaken response even among members of a settled congregation. They do not always see the relevance of what is offered, to their personal and social situations. One method is to start with the existing "secular" interests of people—their work, home life, politics, cultural interests and hobbies, and seek to develop understanding of them so that the religious issues and assumptions implied become evident. This means waiting until questions are raised to which the Christian religion provides answers, before beginning the exposition of the Christian faith.

Organisation. Adult education cannot be imposed from the top. It must have its roots in local needs. The task of the Council therefore must be to foster local responsibility and initiative, leaving each diocese to conduct the work in ways suited to local conditions.

In some dioceses there is considerable co-operation with a University Extra-Mural Department. Another diocese has tutorial classes which work exclusively as Church organisations. Some dioceses have classes at a number of centres, the same subject being studied at all the centres. In some there is emphasis on drama; in others the diocesan organisation helps with courses of teaching sermons. These are examples of the different approaches being made to the work. Nor should any survey be limited to activities directly sponsored by diocesan adult education committees, and even less to work of a particular kind. There is still a tendency to think of the tutorial class as the only kind of adult education and to forget the work of the Mothers' Union, the Church of England Men's Society, the Missionary Societies and other organisations.

The role of the Adult Education Council must be to stimulate this work without imposing any rigid pattern. Suggestions have been circulated to the dioceses for local adaptation. Visits have been paid to every diocese, in some cases a number of times, by the officers of the Council, to speak to meetings of Diocesan Conferences, Diocesan Education Committees and Ruridecanal Chapters, as well as to visit individual parishes. In the past year such visits have been made in twenty-five dioceses.

Training. Only slowly is the need being recognised for training in methods, if adult education is to be seen not as an additional activity for the parish but as something essential to its life, and if a real attempt is made to provide for the many and not only for the few.

Residential Adult Education. The Council sees residential adult education as a means of training Church members under favourable conditions, and of bridging the gap between the church and those out of touch with organised Christianity. A residential college founded on the presupposition of the Christian philosophy of life not only affords an opportunity for Church people to meet those whose way of life is apart from the Church, but through studies concerned with the normal activites of men and women can show how the Christian religion interprets life as men now encounter it and makes sense of the actual world we live in.

The Council would particularly wish to draw attention to the work of adult education at William Temple College; at Moor Park College, Farnham; and at the Y.M.C.A. College at Kingsgate, and at Cheshunt College, Cambridge. A number of Residential Colleges have been set up by Local Education Authorities and Universities; some dioceses have taken advantage of the facilities they offer, and most of the Wardens welcome co-operation.

Co-operation. Through its membership of the Adult Education Committee of the British Council of Churches the Council co-operates with other religious bodies and keeps in touch with the work of the Service Chaplains. With the wider field of adult education the Council is linked by its membership of the National Institute of Adult Education.

Ottley, St. Katharine's Coll., Tottenham, N. 17; Whitelands, Mrs. E. M. Williams, Whitelands Coll., West Hill, Putney, S.W. 15.

The Council came into being (under the name of The Board of Supervision) in 1918 to secure a closer co-ordination of the work of the individual Colleges, and their Governing Bodies, and to provide a central body capable of representing the needs of the Colleges both to the Church and to the (then) Board of Education. The instrument by which the Board of Supervision was established made it abundantly clear that its function was to reinforce, not to supersede, the activities and responsibility of Governing Bodies; and from the first it has been realised that its authority was consultative rather than executive.

The Constitution was modified in 1938 when the membership was increased from fifteen to twenty-three: and further changes were introduced in 1944 when, after careful consultation, the name "Board of Supervision" was changed to "Council of the Church Training Colleges."

On January 1st, 1948, the Council became a Departmental Council of the Church of England Council for Education, and its function was defined as "to promote the educational work of the Church of England in Training Colleges for teachers".

The Standing Conference of the Church Training Colleges consists of the members of the Council, together with three representatives of each College, of whom two shall be the Principal and the Chairman of the Governing Body. The Standing Conference meets annually for a two-day gathering, and serves as an opportunity for general discussion of common policy and interests.

In addition to the Chairman, the officers of the Council are a Moderator, appointed by the Archbishops, with general oversight of the religious life and teaching of the Colleges, and a Secretary, appointed by the Council as its executive officer. Canon R. W. Stopford holds both posts.

Work of the Council in 1952–1953. Development Plan.—In 1945 the Ministry of Education requested the Council to "plan a concerted policy for the Church Colleges which would enable them to use their resources in the most effective way". In view of the many claims on the limited resources of the Church, the Council classified the needs of the Colleges in three orders of priority:—

Priority I: work urgently needed to enable a College to maintain its efficiency and, in some cases, to increase its numbers to a total agreed with the Ministry as immediately desirable.

Priority II: work without which the amenities and equipment of a College would fall below modern requirements.

Priority III: work which, while definitely desirable, was not immediately necessary for the maintaining of a reasonable standard of efficiency.

The Church Assembly has provided the Church's half share of the cost of Priority I by the issue of Loan Stock, the service of which is financed by an annual charge upon the Church Assembly Fund. Priority II is financed by contributions from the dioceses to the Central Gifts Fund authorised by the Church Assembly.

All the work in Priority I has now been completed, including the rebuilding of Norwich Training College, destroyed by enemy action, and extensive reconstruction at St. Gabriel's College, Kennington, and St. Luke's College, Exeter, which were severely damaged. Considerable progress has been made with Priority II. In all about £1,750,000 has been spent on the Colleges since 1946, of which the Ministry of Education has provided half. All schemes for new buildings are supervised by the Council.

The Council, in consultation with Principals and Governing Bodies, gives continuous attention to the religious life of the Colleges and to the provision of adequate religious instruction. Religious Teaching Certificates are issued by the Colleges, with the authority of the Council, which indicate a student's competence to give religious instruction in schools. Theological Assessors, appointed by the Council, visit the Colleges.

Three Colleges have established Third-Year Supplementary Courses in Divinity, and many Colleges are co-operating in part-time courses for practising teachers.

Since 1949 the Council has been working to ensure that facilities should be available for Secondary Grammar School teachers to become qualified to give religious instruction. Many Institutes of Education have now established courses for Certificates in Religious Knowledge. Some of the Church Colleges are now admitting postgraduate students, most of whom will teach in Grammar Schools.

There are approximately 2,000 men and 3,200 women in the Church Colleges.

Though the demand for teachers remains very great, the supply of qualified candidates is barely sufficient to fill all the places provided for training. The number who apply for admission to the Church Colleges, nevertheless, is satisfactory and there were very few vacancies in these Colleges. The Council regards the question of recruitment as vitally important, and trusts that parochial clergy will do all they can to encourage Christian men and women with the right qualities of character and personality to enter the teaching profession. In conjunction with the Schools Council, the Council has during the year stressed the importance of the relationships between clergy and teachers.

Culham Training College celebrated its centenary on July 4th, 1953, when the Archbishop of Canterbury was present.

A conference for Principals was held at Cheltenham in April, 1953.

Church of England Council for Education Study Centre

Director of Studies: Rev. H. Bernard Tower.

Office: 69 Great Peter Street, S.W. 1. (Tel.: Abbey 1672.)

THE aim of the Centre is to help those who desire to equip themselves with knowledge of the Christian religion. In fulfilment of this aim the Study Centre will try to arrange coaching for any examinations in Religious Knowledge, as well as for its own examinations held annually in the spring, summer and late autumn. Help, however, is readily given to those anxious to learn but who do not intend to take any examinations. Recent developments include the arrangement of correspondence tuition for Lay Readers taking Continuation Courses, providing courses for Catechists abroad, and even Anglican courses of correspondence lessons for men in H.M. prisons who express a desire for it.

The Central Council for Women's Church Work

Chairman : The Bishop of Sheffield.
Vice-Chairman : Mrs. Michael Ridley.
Hon. Treasurer : Miss E. C. Busby.

General Secretary : Miss Dorothy Grose, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1. (Tel. : Abbey 2532.)

Assistant Secretary : Miss B. Hill.

THE Council, which meets twice a year, has for its objects :—

(1) To improve the quality and extend the range of the service given by women to the Church.
(2) To interpret as Church work all that is done in the fellowship of the Church to build up and extend the Kingdom of God.
(3) To seek out, train and care for, women who will devote their lives, in whole or in part, to specific work of this character.
(4) To plan and correlate training schemes and to maintain standards of qualifications.

The Council encourages the formation of Diocesan Boards of Women's Work. It provides a centre of information and means by which the work of the Boards may be co-ordinated and consolidated, and their experience shared. It surveys the changing conditions of Church life in town and country, and initiates and adopts schemes for the development of women's work in relation to modern needs. It seeks to carry out these aims in appropriate ways, including the following :—

(a) Informing Church people, clergy and laity, about the contribution of women to the work of the Church.
(b) Assisting in the selection and recruiting of candidates for Church work, and making arrangements for their training.
(c) Awarding the Inter-Diocesan Certificate after approved training and on diocesan recommendation.
(d) Selecting representatives of the women of the Church of England for various inter-denominational and other bodies.
(e) Advising women interested in all types of work for the Church about suitable employment.
(f) Recommending to the central financial authorities of the Church the disposal of any funds available for women's Church work.

The Inter-Diocesan Certificate is awarded to women who are Communicant members of the Church of England and at least 23 years of age ; have passed a Selection Board and medical examination ; have reached a satisfactory standard in Theology ; and have been trained in the practice and theory of Pastoralia and Education or Moral Welfare, or have other professional qualifications to use in the service of the Church. Normally, training is taken at a residential college and lasts two years. The final recommendation of a candidate must be made by a Diocesan Board of Women's Work, or where no such Board exists, by the Diocesan Bishop.

The following Training Houses are recognised by the Council :—

The Bible Churchmen's Missionary College for Women, Bristol ; Church Army Training College, London ; St. Michael's House, Oxford ; College of the Ascension, Selly Oak ; College of Christ and Blessed Mary the Virgin, Durham ; Gilmore House, Clapham Common ; Josephine Butler Memorial House, Liverpool ; St. Andrew's House, Southsea ; St. Christopher's College, Blackheath.

Three three-day residential Selection Centres were held in 1952; fifty-three candidates attended, of whom forty-two were recommended for training. In addition five candidates were interviewed by the Selection Board.

Sixty-six Inter-Diocesan Certificates were awarded during 1952.

Publications. News Bulletin published quarterly, price 3*d.*, obtainable from C.C.W.C.W., Church House, Westminster, S.W. 1. A pamphlet The Work of Women for the Church, and other leaflets giving details of the work, are obtainable from the Church House Bookshop, Church House, Westminster, S.W. 1.

The Order of Deaconesses

COUNCIL FOR THE ORDER OF DEACONESSES

Chairman: The Bishop of Guildford.

Hon. Sec.: Deaconess Edith Banks, The House of St. Joseph, Hindhead, Surrey. (Tel.: Hindhead 507.)

THE Order of Deaconesses was formally restored by the Convocation of Canterbury in 1923 and by that of York in 1925. In their Resolutions they stated that "the Order of Deaconesses is an Apostolic Order of Ministry in the Church of God: That the women admitted thereto are episcopally ordained with prayer and the laying on of hands: That a deaconess in her ordination is dedicated to a life-long service, though the extent and manner of its exercise by her may vary at different times of her life in accordance with her circumstances."

A form of service entitled "The Form and Manner of Making of Deaconesses," was adopted by the Upper Houses of the Convocations of Canterbury and York for use in the two Provinces, and in 1939–41 Resolutions on the Status and Functions of Deaconnesses were passed in the same form by all four Houses of the Convocations.

In the Resolutions passed by the Convocation of Canterbury (1923) and the Convocation of York (1925) it was stated (Resolution 6) "That it is desirable that for the superintendence of matters connected with the Order of Deaconesses and of the preparation of candidates for that office, there should be in the province under the Archbishop and in each diocese or group of dioceses under the Bishop or Bishops, an advisory Council, on which deaconesses should be adequately represented."

In accordance with this resolution a Provincial Council for the Order of Deaconesses was formed in the Province of Canterbury in 1925 and in the Province of York in 1927. In 1934 it was decided to merge these two Councils to form the Council for the Order of Deaconesses. This Council is at present the responsible body for both Provinces.

The Council has a Standing Committee, a Finance Committee, a Selection Committee which deals with the selection of candidates, and a Training Committee. Candidates should be fully qualified lay workers and should have done a period of lay work under a Bishop's licence or they should be professional women with a good theological qualification. If accepted by the Selection Committee they are required to take a short final training before ordination.

Another Committee of the Council is concerned with the Central Deaconess House, Hindhead. This House provides a centre for the whole Order for purposes of devotion, study and rest. It is a centre for intercession for the Order and is used by deaconesses on furlough from overseas, by candidates for ordination and by those who want to know more about the Order.

The Council's house for retired deaconesses—The Close, Vicarage Road, Staines—is now full and has a waiting list. The Council has altered some out-buildings so as to provide an annexe with a sick-bay. At present the house accommodates twenty-one deaconesses and staff.

A booklet entitled The Order of Deaconesses, with a Foreword by the Bishop of Winchester (the Right Rev. A. T. P. Williams, D.D.), is obtainable from the Church House Bookshop, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1. Price 1*s*. 6*d*. By post, 1*s*. 8*d*. A pamphlet "Deaconesses in the Church of England," similarly obtainable, price 6*d*., gives up-to-date information with regard to training, etc.

The Church of England Moral Welfare Council

Chairman : The Bishop of St. Albans.

Financial Adviser : Mr. H. R. Tooley, M.B.E.

Legal Adviser : Mr. A. J. P. Sellar.

Chairman of the Executive Committee : The Archdeacon of Oakham.

Chairman of the Education Committee : The Right Rev. E. Hamilton, the Dean of Windsor (ex-officio member of the Council).

Deputy General Secretary : Miss E. Kennedy.

Education Secretary : Canon Hugh C. Warner.

Lecturers : Rev. D. Sherwin Bailey, Ph.D.; Miss E. M. Fielding.

THE Council came into existence in 1939 to continue the work of the Archbishops' Advisory Board for Moral Welfare Work and of the White Cross League. In the words of the constitution approved by the Church Assembly in 1950, it is the central council of the Church for the co-ordination of thought and action in relation to sex, marriage and the family in the Christian life.

The significance of the moral welfare work of the Church lies in the conviction that problems of sex morality are to be seen, not in isolation, but in relation to the whole Christian conception of the nature and destiny of man. There is a two-fold responsibility for the Church to discharge; the provision of a personal service to those who need help to rebuild their lives and thus to avoid further tragedies (in every diocese there is family case work of this kind); and a teaching evangelism which will interpret the Christian doctrine about sex, marriage and parenthood. Modern scientific research brings new possibilities to light; the Christian must be aware of their implications and able to relate them to the basic truths upon which moral choices must be made.

The function of the central council is to help the dioceses to carry on and strengthen their own work, and to undertake work which can be done only by a central council. Perhaps the greatest contribution to the work in the dioceses is finding workers for vacant posts and candidates for training. This need is so urgent that a sum has been allocated for advertising in various periodicals the opportunities of serving the Church in this field. There is a continual interchange of information between the centre and the dioceses by correspondence, bulletins and the journal Moral Welfare. In 1952 the subject-matter included policy with regard to the adoption of children, record-keeping in case work, workers' pensions, a revised recommended salary scale, registration of voluntary Homes, information about grants from local authorities, and comparative figures for diocesan offering schemes.

In May, 1952, the Bishop of St. Albans chaired a Swanwick Conference for 291 workers and committee members; the theme was the concern of the Church through Moral Welfare with the broken families of men in the broken family of God. There were courses of study on personal relations, on marriage problems and on standards in case work.

A meeting convened by the Council at Lambeth Palace in 1952 between representatives of the American Air Chaplains and of the English dioceses where the American Air Force is based, has been followed by meetings arranged locally by the Diocesan Moral Welfare Councils to work out ways of safe-guarding the welfare of young girls and American Servicemen.

In 1952 the Council prepared material for the evidence laid before the Royal Commission on Marriage and Divorce by the Archbishop of Canterbury on behalf of the Church of England; this was published under the title "The Church and Marriage". The Education Secretary accompanied the Archbishop, the Bishop of London, Mr. J. E. S. Simon, Q.C., and the Rev. G. L. Russell (a former Education Secretary of the Council) to give oral evidence to the Commission on May 28th, 1953. There was also close collaboration with the Standing Conference on Sex, Marriage and the Family of the British Council of Churches and a statement summarised the points of agreement between the evidence submitted by the Free Churches and the Church of England.

Lectures and speaking engagements of the central staff numbered 372; one quarter being to students in Theological Colleges, two-fifths to students in other colleges and in Student Christian Movement Groups, and one-tenth to Clergy Schools.

The number of lectures requested for Clergy Schools, in which the clergy are helped to meet their pastoral opportunities in marriage preparation and marriage breakdown, is particularly encouraging. Too many clergy have been and are sent into the work of the ministry ill-equipped to deal with some of the basic situations and problems of human life, and to proclaim the will of God for men and women at a point where it touches most intimately the experience of the majority of people. A memorandum on the basic importance of the theology of sexual relationship and marriage was sent to C.A.C.T.M. and is being considered by those responsible for the training of ordinands.

The Overseas Committee arranged a conference on the moral and social problems of the Church overseas, to which the Missionary Societies appointed delegates, in July, 1953, at St. Augustine's College, Canterbury.

Social and Industrial Council

Secretary : The Secretary to the Church Assembly, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1.

THE Council is the successor of the Social and Industrial Commission, which was constituted in 1923. At the Summer Session, 1951, the Commission was renamed and a revised constitution was approved, providing for a membership as follows:—

12 members of the Assembly appointed by the Standing Committee of the Assembly; 4 persons nominated by the Archbishop of Canterbury; 3 persons nominated by the Archbishop of York; not more than 4 co-opted members.

The Chairman is appointed by the Archbishops, and the Vice-Chairman by the Council, both from among the members of the Council.

The functions of the Council are:—(1) To consider social, industrial and economic questions referred to it by the Church Assembly or by the Archbishops; (2) To bring to the attention of the Church Assembly social, industrial and economic questions, to indicate as far as may be the religious and moral issues involved, and to provide the Assembly, by means of reports and resolutions, with the material needed to form its judgment on such questions.

The Hospital Chaplaincies Council

Chairman: The Bishop of Ely.

Secretary: The Secretary to the Church Assembly, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1.

THE Council was constituted by the Church Assembly at the Autumn Session, 1952. Its functions are:—

(1) To consider questions relating to spiritual ministration to patients and staff in mental and medical institutions referred to it by the Church Assembly;

(2) To act as adviser to diocesan bishops and to Church of England Regional Advisory Committees on questions of policy;

(3) To watch (on behalf of the Church Assembly) matters affecting spiritual ministration in all mental and medical institutions, reporting to the Assembly as and when required;

(4) To act as a co-ordinating body through which the Regional Advisory Committees can be brought into close relation with each other;

(5) To act as a liaison between the Ministry of Health and the Church of England on all questions relating to spiritual ministrations in mental and medical institutions.

The Central Advisory Council for the Spiritual Care of the Deaf and Dumb

Vice-Chairman : The Bishop of Southwark.

THE Council was constituted a Council of the Church Assembly in November, 1933. The principal objects of the Council are :—(1) To see that the Deaf and Dumb in every Diocese shall be provided with the privilege of Church ministrations; (2) To endeavour to improve the facilities for Church ministration in those areas, where this provision is believed to be lacking; (3) To assist the organisations for the Deaf and Dumb throughout the Dioceses of the Provinces of Canterbury and York, with information and advice, with encouragement for propaganda, and to promote the spiritual interests and moral welfare of the Deaf and Dumb; (4) To get into touch with the governing Committees of Missions, and the local Chaplains and Missioners; (5) To gain contact with the Bishops, Diocesan Officials, the Clergy, and others, and initiate or stimulate interest in the Deaf and Dumb, to provide speakers for Diocesan or Ruri-decanal Conferences, and public meetings, and to advocate the training of qualified Missioners and Church Workers; (6) To encourage Church Teaching, and preparation for Confirmation, in the Schools for the Deaf; (7) To obtain statistics concerning religious work for the Deaf, and to draw up a Register of deaf and dumb communicants in each Diocese; (8) To make and embrace opportunities for educational work in making known the needs of the Deaf; (9) To act as an advisory bureau in all matters dealing with the religious side of work for the Deaf.

There are approximately 40,000 adult deaf and dumb people in this country, and 3,500 deaf and dumb children in the special schools, and some 70 Missions for the Deaf and Dumb in the Provinces of Canterbury and York are doing their best for the spiritual and social welfare of these handicapped fellow citizens.

The Secretary keeps closely in touch with the Dioceses and with the work of all these Missions, and visits as many as possible each year. In some places, where there is no Ordained Missioner, he is able to celebrate Holy Communion for the Deaf and Dumb, who greatly appreciate such opportunities for receiving the Sacrament from a Priest who is able to celebrate for them without the services of an Interpreter. The Council is also continuing to make the work better known to all those training for Ordination and Women's Church Work by arranging regular Talks by experts at the various Theological and Training Colleges.

Diocesan Festivals for the Deaf and Dumb and similar services have been again held in Cathedrals and large Churches; have been much appreciated by the Deaf and Dumb; and have helped them to realise that the Church is interested in them, and also to bring the work to the notice of hearing Churchpeople and the general public.

The Council is able to arrange for the training of suitable men for this specialised ministry, and has a Joint Examination Board for this purpose with the National Council of Missioners and Welfare Officers to the Deaf, which is at present revising its Constitution and Examination Regulations with a view to raising its standard and enlarging its scope.

Future activities include the consideration of more thorough and uniform provision for religious education in the Schools for the Deaf, possibly by means of the adoption of an Agreed Syllabus for general use by them; and in conjunction with the Joint Examination Board mentioned above, a Scheme for examining Deaf candidates for a Lay Reader's Licence. There is also a possibility of providing a Training College for Chaplains and Missioners to the Deaf and Dumb, where they could obtain improved facilities for training on the technical side of the work.

The usual activities of the Council, the "Ephphatha" Fellowship of Prayer, etc. have been continued and the Secretary is especially anxious for further opportunities of preaching about the work especially in Cathedrals and the larger Parish Churches, Colleges and Schools, and giving talks to appropriate organisations. The Council through its Secretary is kept closely in touch with the more important National Organisations concerned with the welfare of the Deaf and is ready at all times to give information and encouragement in all matters related to the spiritual welfare of the Deaf and Dumb.

The Church of England Advisory Council of Empire Settlement

President: The Archbishop of Canterbury.
Vice-President: The Archbishop of York.
Chairman: The Earl of Bessborough, P.C., G.C.M.G.
Chairman of Executive Committee: The Bishop of London.
Public Relations Officer: Major A. A. Whiteley.
Secretary: Miss E. F. Jones, M.B.E., 5 Albemarle St., Piccadilly, W. 1.
(Tel.: Hyde Park 2711.)

CONSTITUTED by the Church Assembly in 1925 for the purpose of dealing with all matters concerning migration in connection with the Church of England at Home, and to establish and maintain close and constant relations with H.M. Government, the Governments of the Dominions and the Church Overseas.

The settlement of the young in the Dominions is the most promising side of the work, but it involves careful selection, kindly reception, placing and scrupulous aftercare overseas. The Church of England has of recent years specially developed this side of its work, and is now proceeding with the settlement of children between the ages of 3 and 14 in the following States of Australia: Western Australia, Victoria, New South Wales, Queensland, S. Australia and Tasmania. Nearly two hundred children between those ages have been sent to these various homes during the last three years.

The Council also has its own schemes for young men and women between the ages of 18 and 45, in addition to which it is able, in a limited degree, to cater for the family unit. Efficient and energetic Committees play an important part in finding suitable employment and housing accommodation on their arrival, and putting them in touch with parish life; over 2,000 have been placed in this way since 1946.

The spiritual welfare side of the work flourishes. Prospective Church of England migrants applying through their parish priest, either to the S.P.C.K. or to the Council, are issued with letters of commendation and a badge which enables them to contact Church of England Chaplains at the ports of embarkation and disembarkation and in the ships. Latest emigration figures published show that the number of migrants who left these shores for settlement in the Dominions in one year is near the 100,000 mark, and it is interesting to note that 60 per cent. of these belonged to the Church of England.

The Oversea Committees are as follows :—

Western Australia. The Church of England Provincial Immigration Society Inc., (Hon. Secretary: Mr. A. A. Robertson) 11 Pier Street, Perth, Western Australia.

South Australia. Church of England Immigration Committee, (Hon. Secretary : Canon H. H. Coles) Church Office, Leigh Street, Adelaide.

Victoria. Federal Inter-Church Migration Committee, (Hon. Secretary : Archdeacon R. H. B. Williams) St. Paul's Cathedral Buildings, Flinders Lane, Melbourne, C. 1.

New South Wales. The Church of England Immigration Bureau, (Hon. Secretary : Mr. E. W. Pont) St. Andrew's Cathedral, Sydney.

Queensland. The Church of England Immigration Committee, (Hon. Secretary: Mr. Roland St. John) Diocesan Registry, Church House, Ann Street, Brisbane.

Tasmania. The Church of England Immigration Committee, (Hon. Secretary : Miss Gwen Watts) Bishopscourt, Hobart.

Canada. The Council of Social Service of the Church of England in Canada, (General Secretary : Canon W. W. Judd) Church House, 604 Jarvis Street, Toronto.

The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge

President : The Archbishop of Canterbury.

Treasurers : Capt. J. M. Donaldson; Canon W. A. Dunn; the Earl of Halifax; Preb. A. J. Macdonald, D.D.; the Hon. Archdeacon S. H. Phillimore, M.C.; Mr. C. H. Palmer; Mr. K. V. C. Ridley.

Chairman of the Standing Committee : The Bishop of London.

Secretaries: Canon L. E. Parsons (for General Purposes); Rev. F. N. Davey (for Publishing Dept.); Mr. E. W. Bishop (Financial Secretary); Rev. E. T. Thornton (Chief Organising Secretary).

Office: S.P.C.K. House, Northumberland Avenue, W.C. 2. (Tel. : Whitehall 8517.)

WHAT S.P.C.K. IS

S.P.C.K. is the oldest Missionary Society in the Church of England—having been founded on March 8th, 1698–99—and is the only Society which concerns itself with work at home and abroad. It is a learned Society producing theological and general literature, mothering the Church Historical Society and other specialised groups.

WHAT S.P.C.K. DOES

It helps the Church overseas by concentrating chiefly on supplying Christian literature and providing for the education of Christian leaders, clergy and teachers to serve their own people in their own lands.

Assistance is given in the establishment and building of Theological Schools and Teacher Training Colleges. In addition about 600 boys and girls in many countries overseas are helped by scholarships granted by the Society.

Religious and Educational literature is published in more than 100 languages. With the increase of literacy among the backward peoples of the world there is a constant and growing demand for sound Christian Literature.

To meet the spiritual needs of migrants who are going to Canada, Australia and New Zealand, the Society has appointed chaplains at the chief ports of embarkation, and arranges for voyage chaplains to sail with vessels outward bound.

At the request of the Archbishop of Canterbury the Society has agreed to provide for three years as much as £2,400 a year towards the running expenses of St. Augustine's College, Canterbury. This is four-fifths of the Church of England's share of the annual maintenance costs of the College.

In addition to its well known chain of bookshops operating in Britain, the Society has established overseas bookshops in many parts of the world.

WHAT S.P.C.K. IS TO DO

To work for the spread of Christian Knowledge in Britain and throughout the World :—

by training overseas ordinands and educating native students; by training teachers, at home and overseas;
by creating and enlarging the demand for religious reading among the people of this country, and of the world;
by distributing Christian literature through bookshops established at home and overseas;
by sponsoring the work of the Religious Drama Society;
by developing the use of religious films and filmstrips for clergy and teachers.

The Ecumenical Movement

THE Church of England has taken a full share in the modern ecumenical movement ever since Archbishop Davidson spoke at the Edinburgh Conference in 1910 when William Temple, later to be one of its outstanding leaders, was a steward in the hall. Previous editions of The Official Year-Book have told, under various entries, the story of this complex movement of inter-church co-operation. In this section will be found particulars of the two international bodies now linked in formal association, the World Council of Churches and the International Missionary Council, together with information about the two associated bodies which are the expressions of the ecumenical movement in the British Isles, the British Council of Churches and the Conference of British Missionary Societies.

On p. 249 will be found details of the Council for Ecumenical Co-operation set up by the Church Assembly in 1949 to bring forward in the Assembly such matters arising out of the business of either the World Council or the British Council as require action by the Church of England.

This Council has also taken over responsibility for facilitating the continued support of the Church of England for inter-church aid and refugee service, which is now the concern of a special department of the British Council of Churches.

It will be seen that the Overseas Council of the Church Assembly and twelve Church of England missionary societies are constituent members of the Conference of British Missionary Societies, through which body the Anglican missionary societies are linked with the International Missionary Council.

THE INTERNATIONAL MISSIONARY COUNCIL

Hon. President : Dr. John R. Mott.

Presidents : Archbishop Athenagoras of Thyateira, Bishop Berggrav, Dr. Marc Boegner, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Miss Sarah Chakko, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam.

Chairman of the Central Committee : The Bishop of Chichester.

General Secretary : Rev. W. A. Visser't Hooft, D.D.

Associate General Secretaries.—GENEVA : Rev. Robert Mackie, D.D. (for Inter-Church Aid and Youth); NEW YORK : Rev. O. F. Nolde, D.D. (for International Affairs).

London Office Secretary : Miss Sigrid Morden.

London Office Address : 39 Doughty Street, W.C. 1. (Tel. : Holborn 0303.)

The World Council of Churches was brought into formal existence by a resolution of its first Assembly, held at Amsterdam from August 22 to September 4, 1948. It is composed of 160 constituent churches, which include every Province of the Anglican Communion throughout the world, Orthodox Churches (outside areas of Communist control) and all the main Protestant traditions. The Church of Rome does not participate. The functions of the Council are defined in its Constitution as follows :—

(i) To carry on the work of the two world movements for Faith and Order and for Life and Work.
(ii) To facilitate common action by the Churches.
(iii) To promote co-operation in study.
(iv) To promote the growth of ecumenical consciousness in the members of all Churches.
(v) To establish relations with denominational federations of world-wide scope and with other ecumenical movements.
(vi) To call world conferences on specific subjects as occasion may require, such conferences being empowered to publish their own findings.

Details of the meetings leading up to the formation of this Council, and of the work of the Provisional Committee, were recorded in the 1942 issue of this Year-Book, pp. 599–600, and summarised on p. 354 of the 1952 issue.

Amsterdam Assembly (August 22nd to September 2nd, 1948), working through Committees and Sections, authorised the following Departments :

General Secretariat, Commission on Faith and Order, Study Department, Department of Inter-Church Aid and Service to Refugees, Youth Department, Commission of the Churches on International Affairs (q.v.), Ecumenical Institute, Department of Finance and Administration, Department of Information, Commission on the Work of Women in the Church, a Secretariat for Evangelism ; and to adopt a budget of $300,000 (£75,000) as a basic income from the participating churches.

A Central Committee of 90 members, with power to appoint its own Executive, meets annually. The Anglican members are the Archbishop of Sydney, the Bishop of Chichester, the Bishop of Washington, the Bishop of Malmesbury, Canon R. A. Hiltz, Sir Kenneth Grubb and Mr. C. P. Taft.

The four Sections at the Assembly received preparatory material issued by the Study Department and produced reports on : I. The Universal Church in God's Design. II. The Church's Witness to God's Design. III. The Church and the Disorder of Society. IV. The Church and the International Disorder.

The Constitution of the World Council lays it down that the Assembly has no legislative power and acts only in an advisory capacity. Its decisions therefore depend upon acceptance by the member Churches for their implementation.

Developments since 1948. At the Toronto meeting of the Central Committee in 1950 the Committee adopted a statement on 'The Church, the Churches and the World Council of Churches' which has since been the subject of a report by a Joint Committee of Canterbury Convocation. Early in 1951 Dr. R. B. Manikam began his work as East Asia Secretary of the International Missionary Council and the World Council of Churches by visiting Malaya and Indonesia.

The Department of Inter-Church Aid and Service to Refugees has considerably developed its work for refugees. Conferences were held on the refugee situation in Palestine, Germany, Austria and Korea, and for the Latin countries of Europe, in which special attention was given to religious freedom, and for representatives of the Orthodox Churches.

In connection with the Third World Conference on Faith and Order held at Lund, Sweden, in August 1952, reports were issued on the Nature of the Church, on Intercommunion and on Ways of Worship. The Church of England delegates, nominated by the Archbishops, were the Bishop of Durham, the Bishop of Derby, the Bishop of Chelmsford, the Bishop of Dorchester, Canon S. L. Greenslade

Canon H. E. W. Turner and the Prioress of Whitby. A report was submitted to the Church Assembly in November, 1953.

The fifth meeting of the Central Committee took place in Lucknow, India, in January 1953. The Committee considered a report from the General Secretary on his visit to South Africa (obtainable from the London Office, price 1*s.*); the report of a special committee on the Structure and Functioning of the World Council of Churches after the Second Assembly in 1954; and the plans for this Assembly.

Evanston Assembly (August 15th–31st, 1954). The main theme will be 'Christ, the Hope of the World' and the subsidiary themes are:

(1) Faith and Order—Our Oneness in Christ and our Disunity as Churches; (2) Evangelism—The Mission of the Church to those outside her Life; (3) Social Questions—The Responsible Society in a World Perspective; (4) International Affairs—Christians in the Struggle for World Community; (5) Inter-group Relations—The Church and Racial and Ethnic Tensions; (6) The Laity—The Christian in his Vocation.

The Assembly will be composed of 600 delegates elected by their Churches, together with 150 consultants appointed by the World Council Executive Committee. There will be up to 120 youth consultants and 600 visitors accredited by their Churches. The following 18 delegates will represent the Church of England:

Elected by the Church Assembly: The Bishop of London, the Bishop of Chichester, the Bishop of Durham, the Bishop of Malmesbury, the Rev. R. E. Raynes, C.R., Mr. O. W. H. Clark, Sir Kenneth Grubb, C.M.G., LL.D., Mr. F. B. Wilkins, Mrs. Joyce Coombs.

Appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York: The Archbishop of Canterbury, Canon S. L. Greenslade, D.D., Canon H. G. G. Herklots, Canon O. S. Tompkins, D.D., Rev. R. D. Say, Dr. Kathleen Bliss, Mrs. Fisher, Mr. George Goyder, Mr. J. O. Blair-Cunynghame.

Preparatory pamphlets on the six themes are available from 39 Doughty Street, London, W.C. 1, price 4*d.* each; as also two periodicals published by the World Council, The Ecumenical Review (quarterly, 14*s.* per annum) and The Ecumenical Press Service (weekly, £1 per annum, 17*s.* for clergy).

THE COMMISSION OF THE CHURCHES ON INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

President : Prof. Baron F. M. van Asbeck (Netherlands).
Chairman : Sir Kenneth Grubb, C.M.G., LL.D. (United Kingdom).
Director : Dr. O. Frederick Nolde (United States of America).
London Office Secretary : Rev. E. Philip Eastman, 39 Doughty Street, W.C. 1.

The Commission of the Churches on International Affairs is a joint agency established by the World Council of Churches and the International Missionary Council. It advises them and is an instrument for implementing their decisions in the realm of world order.

The Commission is a group of forty-three eminent churchmen in twenty-eight countries, commissions or committees on international affairs in twenty countries and officially designated correspondents in other lands. Some sixteen of the members of the Commission itself hold, or have held, positions of governmental responsibility.

The Commission has consultative relations with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations, the Food and Agriculture Organisation and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation. Informal relations are also maintained with other specialised agencies. The major concerns of the C.C.I.A. include questions of Religious Liberty, World Order and Justice in the defence of Peace, Ideological Tensions, Refugees, Technical Assistance for Economic and Social Development, Trusteeship and Non-Self-Governing Territories.

Chairman : Rev. John A. Mackay, D.D.
General Secretary : Rev. C. W. Ranson, D.Th.

London Office.—Secretary : Rev. Norman Goodall, D.Phil. Research Secretary: Rev. Erik W. Nielsen. Secretary for Survey : Mr. E. J. Bingle. Editors of International Review of Missions : Mr. E. J. Bingle, and Miss Margaret Sinclair, Edinburgh House, 2 Eaton Gate, S.W. 1. British Vice-Chairman of the Council : The Bishop of Manchester. New York Office.—Secretaries : Rev. J. W. Decker, D.D., Miss Glora M. Wysner, Ph.D.

The International Missionary Council, which has offices of equal status in London and New York, is composed of 33 national missionary organisations and Christian councils in different countries, and is in constant communication with a further 18 conferences and committees, not in formal membership in other countries. (See appendix to this statement).

Developing from the Edinburgh Missionary Conference of 1910 and its Continuation Committee, the International Missionary Council was formally constituted in 1921, and in the succeeding years through the service of such great figures in the ecumenical movement as Dr. John R. Mott (for many years the Chairman of I.M.C.), Dr. J. H. Oldham, the Rev. Dr. William Paton and the Rev. Dr. A. L. Warnshuis, the importance and scope of the work grew and gained impetus by the formation of an increasing number of Christian councils in the areas of the younger Churches, and in the results of certain world missionary conferences, notably Jerusalem, 1928, and Madras, 1938, which are still regarded as milestones in the ecumenical movement and as directives to further action.

At Madras careful consideration was given to future relations with the World Council of Churches, and the need for close association was reaffirmed in a statement issued at an enlarged meeting of the I.M.C. at Whitby, Ontario, in 1947, viz. :—

> "It is our judgment that the World Council cannot leave outside its purview the missionary enterprise of the Churches; that, at the same time, the Churches need a functional agency in this field such as the I.M.C. with its wider basis of membership and its particular responsibilities; and that the growing tasks of both these ecumenical bodies, and their common Christian interests and purposes, will require that they be increasingly united in vision, plan and sacrificial action."

At that time, the World Council of Churches was still "in process of formation" but, on the recommendation of the Joint Committee of the two bodies, the Whitby Committee of the I.M.C. (1947) and the Amsterdam Assembly of the World Council of Churches (1948) agreed that the principle of interdependence should be acknowledged in the mutual use of the following titles: "The International Missionary Council, in association with The World Council of Churches"; and: "The World Council of Churches, in association with The International Missionary Council." In addition to implementing this resolution in an increasing number of common undertakings, a standing Joint Committee provides for regular consultation and planning.

An enlarged meeting of the I.M.C.'s Committee held in July, 1952, at Willingen, Germany, as one stage in a series of studies entitled "The Missionary Obligation of the Church", concentrated on: (a) the theological imperatives of the Christian mission; (b) the indigenous church: its present strength and witness as an instrument for world-wide evangelism; (c) the place and function of the missionary society in a new day; (d) Christian vocation and its fulfilment in a world setting; (e) the pattern of missionary activity and the necessity for its reshaping.

There are two committees of the Council which operate as separate Departments, namely the International Committee on Christian Literature for Africa, which exists to further co-operation in the promotion, publication and distribution of Christian literature in that great continent; and the International Committee on the Christian Approach to the Jews, which seeks to promote understanding on the theological and evangelistic approach to the Jewish world, to combat anti-semitism, to show to Christians through literature and the "parish approach" their responsibilities to the Jews, and by direct approach to Jewish leaders to establish confidence and goodwill. The International Review of Missions, the official organ of the I.M.C., is edited at the London Office and published quarterly. On such issues as religious liberty, the I.M.C. works in close association with the Commission of the Churches on International Affairs, a body brought into being under the joint auspices of the I.M.C. and the World Council of Churches. Inter-Mission Aid has continued during 1952 through the Fund set up by the I.M.C.; the chief beneficiaries again being the German, Paris and Dutch Missions.

The British Council of Churches is a Fellowship of Churches in the British Isles which accept our Lord Jesus Christ as God and Saviour.

The Council was formally inaugurated on September 23rd, 1942, and its functions are defined as follows :—

(1) To facilitate common action by the churches in evangelistic enterprise, in promotion of international friendship, in stimulating a sense of social responsibility and in guiding the activities of the churches for the welfare of youth.

(2) To promote co-operation in study and to ensure adequate British participation in the studies promoted by the World Council of Churches.

(3) To assist the growth of ecumenical consciousness in the members of all churches and generally to promote Christian unity.

The schedule of representation is as follows :—

1. Representatives of the Churches : A. The Churches in England : the Church of England, 30; the Baptist Union, 5; the Congregational Union 5; the Methodist Church, 10; the Presbyterian Church of England, 3; the Churches of Christ, 1; the Independent Methodist Church, 1; the Wesleyan Reform Union, 1; the Moravian Church, 1. B. The Churches in Scotland, 13. C. The Churches in Wales, 7. D. The Churches in Ireland, 6. E. The Salvation Army, 2. F. The Society of Friends, 2. G. The Unitarian and Free Christian Churches, 2. Total, 89.
2. Representatives of Inter-denominational Organisations : The Y.M.C.A., 2; the Y.W.C.A., 2; the Student Christian Movement, 2; the Conference of British Missionary Societies, 3. Total 9.
3. Co-opted Members, 20. Total 118.

In 1947 by resolution of the Church Assembly the method of appointing the thirty representatives of the Church of England to the British Council of Churches was changed, ten are now elected by the Church Assembly, ten appointed by the Standing Committee of the Assembly, and ten appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York.

The representatives of the Church of England appointed to the Council in 1953 were as follows :—

The Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York, the Bishop of London, the Bishop of Chelmsford, the Bishop of Chichester, the Bishop of Sheffield, the Bishop of Dorchester, the Bishop of Malmesbury, the Bishop of Middleton, the Bishop of Stepney, the Archdeacon of Stow, Rev. M. Bruce, Canon J. C. Gill, Canon S. L. Greenslade, D.D., Rev. D. F. Horsefield, Rev. M. B. Morgan, Canon O. S. Tomkins, D.D., Dr. Kathleen Bliss, Mr. H. Montgomery Campbell, Mr. W. Clark, Sir Kenneth Grubb, C.M.G., LL.D., Mr. Laurence King, Mr. M. B. Reckitt, Mrs. Ridley, Sir John Shaw, Bt., Miss N. Secar, Mr. H. Wheeler, Mr. F. B. Wilkins, Mr. J. F. Wolfenden, C.B.E.

The Council works through eight main Departments and Committees :—

(1) Education : The Council fosters consultation and co-operative action among its constituent bodies on the administration and content of education. Contact is maintained with the adult education movement, and advice and help are given to the Chaplains Departments of H.M. Services, including the provision of literature.

(2) Evangelism : The Council encourages initiative and experiment in evangelism and is concerned to assist and promote carefully thought-out co-operation between the Churches in the presentation of the Gospel and its challenge.

(3) Faith and Order : The Council seeks to draw Churches out of isolation into closer relations of mutual trust. Its work is not to formulate schemes of reunion but to act as the handmaid of the Churches in the preparatory work of clearing away misunderstanding, discussing obstacles to reunion and providing opportunities for frank discussion between theologians of different traditions.

(4) Inter-Church Aid and Refugee Service : (See page 308).

(5) International Affairs : The Council has a programme for joint action by the Churches which is concerned with maintaining fellowship between Christians in east and west, the Christian contribution to European unity, the upholding of the Law of Nations, persistent negotiations for peace, race relations, the overseas services of the Churches, and social and economic assistance to the peoples of Asia and Africa.

(6) Social Responsibility : The Council has a special concern for the development of instructed Christian responsibility in industrial, economic, civic and family life. It co-operates closely with the agencies for social work.

(7) Rural Questions : A Committee studies questions affecting Christian responsibility in rural areas and the development of local Christian co-operation in the countryside.

(8) Youth : The Youth Department of the Council is the recognised link between the Ministry of Education and the Churches in all matters concerning Youth Service. The Youth Departments and organisations of the Churches act jointly through the Council in connection with ecumenical activities in Britain and other countries.

In the Central Churches Group the Council co-operates with the National Council of Social Service, and the Religious Bodies Consultative Committee functions as an advisory Committee in relation to the Churches' support of the United Nations and their co-operation with the United Nations Association. In these two last-named Committees representatives of the Roman Catholic Church and members of the Jewish community take part.

The British Council of Churches as such has no organic connection with the World Council of Churches; it does not appoint the delegates to the Assembly, these being appointed by the constituent Churches. It carries, however, a large share of the responsibility for bringing before Christians in this country the message and findings of the Assembly, and is responsible for raising money for the World Council in Britain.

The Council encourages the formation of Local Councils of Churches on the pattern of its own membership. Out of a considerably larger number of such Councils in existence one hundred and fifty are formally associated with the British Council of Churches.

The Council is financed in part by grants from the co-operating Churches, in part by subscriptions from associated local Councils, and in part by individual subscriptions and donations. The Church Assembly agreed to make grants in 1953 of £1,530 to the British Council of Churches and £1,120 to the World Council. This amount has to be supplemented by subscriptions from individuals and parishes to make up the increased contribution asked for from the Church of England by the World Council since the Amsterdam Assembly.

The Ecumenical Fellowship has been set up by the Council to associate individual Christians with the work of the World Council of Churches and the British Council of Churches. It seeks to:

"Unite Christians of all Communions in prayer.

"Keep them informed about the work of both Councils and of such activities as they may participate in themselves.

"Encourage their support of local Councils of Churches where they exist and of all efforts to promote local Christian co-operation.

"Provide them with the opportunity of contributing regularly to the support of the ecumenical movement in the British Isles and throughout the world."

Members of the Ecumenical Fellowship may earmark their subscriptions for the Church of England's supplementary contribution.

The Church in the World, the bulletin of the British Council of Churches, which gives news of the Ecumenical Movement at home and abroad, is sent to all who subscribe not less than 10*s*. per annum.

INTER-CHURCH AID AND REFUGEE SERVICE

Joint Chairmen : The Bishop of Sheffield; Rev. E. C. Urwin.

Board of Directors : Miss Mary Bailey, Mr. Percy Bartlett, Dame May Curwen, D.B.E., Rev. Dr. N. Goodall, Rev. R. C. O. Goodchild, Rev. Dr. Alexander King, Rev. A. Kingsley Lloyd, Mr. Michael Lubbock, Rev. C. Northcott, Mrs. Pilkington, Rev. Dr. G. L. Prestige, Rev. E. H. Robertson, Mr. Stanley Shaw, Rev. H. M. Waddams, Canon Eric Abbott (Chairman, Theological Committee).

Hon. Treasurers : Lord Luke of Pavenham, Mr. L. A. Ellwood.

Office : 5 Southampton Place, W.C. 1. (Tel. : Holborn 7301.)

In the belief that Inter-Church Aid is a permanent obligation upon the British Churches, the British Council of Churches agreed during 1949 to set up a new department of Inter-Church Aid and Refugee Service. The objects of this department are to develop and continue the work of Christian Reconstruction in Europe and the Ecumenical Refugee Committee and to seek to provide help to churches, church institutions, and individuals overseas or from overseas who are in want as a result of war, persecution, famine, or other distresses caused by crises throughout the world. These objects are furthered in full co-operation with the recognised churches or church agencies in the areas concerned, and in association with the World Council of Churches Department of Inter-Church Aid and Service to Refugees.

The Department is managed by a Board of Directors appointed by the Council, together with the chairmen of committees set up by the Board. The Board has its own budget, is responsible for raising its own monies and has complete control of monies at its disposal. The Board reports twice a year to the British Council of Churches, and in this way all the constituent Churches of the Council are kept informed about its work.

The Department is founded on the principle of full ecumenical co-operation with the British Churches as the vehicle of their Inter-Church Aid and Refugee Service obligations. In the twelve months ending February 28th, 1953, the Department raised £43,643. A broadcast appeal in March, 1953, resulted in a further £8,000 being received.

IV. Conference of Missionary Societies in Great Britain and Ireland

THE BRITISH COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Chairman of the Standing Committee : Canon M. A. C. Warren, D.D.

Secretaries : Rev. G. Appleton, M.B.E., Mr. L. Bruce Greaves, O.B.E., Rev. Frank Short.

Office : Edinburgh House, 2 Eaton Gate, London, S.W. 1. (Tel. : Sloane 9030.)

The Conference of Missionary Societies in Great Britain and Ireland which was the outcome of the Edinburgh World Missionary Conference, was formed in 1912. It now embraces sixty-two British Missionary Societies, including the C.M.S., S.P.G., C.E.Z.M.S., U.M.C.A., S.P.C.K., Church Missions to Jews, Jerusalem and the East Mission, South American Missionary Society, and the Representative Council of the Episcopal Church in Scotland.

The basis of the Conference is that the bodies entitled to determine policy are the churches and missionary societies, and that the Conference exists to enable the societies concerned in any question to express their mind and where they desire to do so to take joint action. The British Conference, as it is often called, is the centre of co-operative planning and consultation in the British missionary enterprise.

The Conference works mainly through a series of committees, with three permanent Secretaries, each of whom has had special foreign or home experience. The Overseas Committees cover Asia, Africa and Christian Literature, and are in direct relationship with National Christian Councils. The Home Committees are the Home Council, a Bureau for Visual Aids, a Schools and a Finance Committee, a Medical Advisory Board, a Committee on work among Jews, and the Standing Committee, which is the Executive Committee of the Conference.

Edinburgh House is also the recognised channel of relationships between the missionary enterprise as a whole and Government Departments, the B.B.C., the Press and the film world. It works in association with the British Council of Churches.

The Missionary Societies support this co-operative centre by a levy on their income, paying 67*s.* 6*d.* for every £1,000 of home income towards the Conference budget, which includes the British contribution to the International Missionary Council which has its London headquarters at Edinburgh House.

The annual income of the Conference is approximately £11,000.

List of Organisations

In this section will be found a list of Societies, Institutions, Unions, Leagues, Associations, etc., which do not appear in the main sections of the Year-Book, and which are wholly or partly supported from Church of England sources or may be of particular concern to Church people. The list is not exhaustive, especially in respect of the smaller Provincial charities and organisations.

In general, Anglican institutions, organisations, etc., have been indicated by means of an asterisk. It must not be assumed, however, that all of those unmarked in this way are necessarily inter-denominational, or that none are wholly Anglican at present.

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY'S EXAMINATION FOR THE LAMBETH DIPLOMA IN THEOLOGY, THE.—This examination was instituted by Archbishop Davidson in 1905 for the purpose of training women to be qualified to receive his licence as Teachers of Theology. It has since been extended to men as well.

The preparation takes three years' full time study but it can be planned over a longer period for those only able to devote part of their time to study. This has to be done under the guidance of a supervisor and coaches approved by the Director, whether at an approved College or privately. The examination which takes place in January is equivalent to an honours degree in Theology at Oxford or Cambridge.

The purpose of the examination is to fit men and women to receive the Archbishop's Licence to teach Theology. This is conferred by the Archbishop at his discretion on holders of the Diploma, being communicant members of the Church of England, who desire to make Religious Teaching their special work, and of whose personal fitness and teaching capacity the Archbishop has satisfactory evidence. Director: Canon H. ARCHBISHOPS' COMMISSION ON ECCLESIASTICAL COURTS, THE.—On October 18th, 1951, this Commission was appointed with the Hon. Mr. Justice Lloyd-Jacob as Chairman and the following other members : the Right Rev. M. G. Haigh, D.D.; Canon G. W. O. Addleshaw; Prof. E. F. Jacob, D.Phil.; Mr. H. B. H. Hylton-Foster, Q.C., M.P.; Canon E. C. Rich; Canon W. Telfer, D.D.; the Right Hon. H. U. Willink, P.C., Q.C.; Mr. W. S. Wigglesworth; and the Rev. E. G. Jay, Ph.D. (Secretary), Lambeth Palace, S.E. 1. Tel. : Waterloo 7235. The Terms of Reference were as follows :—

1. To take into review :—

(a) The general system of Ecclesiastical Courts as set out in draft Canons 112–125 of the Report on the Canon Law of the Church of England, below the Final Court of Appeal, and not including such Final Court.

(b) The nature of the Laws, statutory or otherwise, administered by the said Court in so far as they concern charges which may be brought against Clerks in Holy Orders whether on grounds of conduct or of Doctrine, Ritual or Ceremonial.

(c) The Church Assembly Measures entitled "The Incumbents (Discipline) Measure," "The Church Dignitaries (Retirement) Measure," "The Bishops (Retirement) Measure."

(d) The following Resolution passed by the Church Assembly on November 15th, 1949: —

"That the Assembly does not desire that the Bishops (Retirement) Measure (No. 2) shall make provision for the entertainment of complaints against Bishops involving questions of Doctrine, ritual and ceremonial; but requests the Convocations to give some priority to the making of such provision in the course of their revision of the Canons and to make it in respect both of the Bishops and of the clergy."

(e) Any other matters relevant to the above.

2. To report the results of this review and to draw attention to matters which in the opinion of the Commission would justify further action whether by Canon or Measure or Act of Parliament.

ARMY, CHURCH WORK IN THE.—Chaplaincy Services in the Regular Army.—There is a definite Establishment of Chaplains, Church of England, Church of Scotland, Roman Catholic, Methodist, United Board (Congregational and Baptist). This Establishment is governed by the strength of the Army. Chaplains of all denominations (except Roman Catholic) are administered by the Chaplain-General, assisted by the Deputy Chaplain-General, at the War Office, and through Assistant Chaplains-General at the Headquarters of Commands at home and overseas. The Chaplain-General is responsible to the Permanent Under-Secretary of State for the general well-being of the Department, and works under licence from the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Chaplains are "responsible for the provision of religious ministrations to the personnel of the Army, and their families, when these are accommodated in Government quarters, and for promoting by all practical means the spiritual and moral welfare of the troops" (Queen's Regulations, para. 154). This is further elaborated in Queen's Regulations, para. 1609, which reads : "The duties to be performed by a Chaplain include the Sunday Services, baptisms, churchings, funerals, attending the sick in hospital and reading prayers with the convalescents, visiting soldiers under sentence in military prisons or detention barracks at least once a week, and giving special religious instruction to the children and enlisted boys during one or two working hours in every week, besides attending generally to the religious instruction and welfare of the officers and soldiers and their families." The National Service men, by reason of their age and overseas service, need all possible spiritual care.

A Chaplain is commissioned to be a minister of religion and not to be a welfare or entertainments officer, although his help in these things is always welcomed. The religious training of the Army is an integral part of military life. There is regular instruction at Padres' Hours, and a plan of work. The Royal Army Chaplains' Department Training Centre and Depot has been established at Bagshot Park, Surrey, which is wholly concerned with the spiritual message to the Army. It has a chapel, library, reception, reading and writing rooms, and private bedrooms for Chaplains and students. This Centre serves the double purpose of a spiritual home for all Chaplains, and a Training Centre for all ranks, with different Courses designed to develop leaders, refresh churchmen, or inform enquirers.

In addition to Confirmation Classes, Christian Leadership Courses for Officers, N.C.O.s, Men, Q.A.R.A.N.C. and W.R.A.C., are held at different centres overseas, and these have been proved to provide a fine Christian leaven throughout the Army.

Commissioned Chaplains are under the same military discipline as all other officers, but have the right of direct communication on ecclesiastical matters with the recognised head of their denomination. Chaplains accompany units going on overseas service, and if they are married and local conditions permit, are entitled to take with them, or be joined later by, their wives and families at Government expense.

Short Service Commissions for 3 to 8 years. In order to meet Chaplaincy requirements in the post-war Army, Short Service Commissions of 3 to 8 years are granted to clergy under 45 years of age. A clergyman so commissioned would do one tour of foreign service of three years, spending the remainder of his time in the United Kingdom or B.A.O.R.

The initial rate of pay is 27*s.* 6*d.* per diem plus allowance of 15*s.* 6*d.* per diem for married Chaplains. In addition there is a gratuity of 75*l.* for every year of completed service. An outfit allowance is made to newly-commissioned Chaplains.

Confirmations and Easter Communicants.—In 1952 the return of Confirmations for the Army show that there were 2,464 male confirmees, and 450 female confirmees, making a total of 2,914. The number of Easter Communicants for 1953 was 10,061.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY, THE.—Founded in 1804, this Society exists for the sole object of encouraging "the wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures without note or comment."

Translation.—The Society has a Translation Department, able to advise on translational difficulties. The list of versions includes 818 different languages; but hundreds remain in which the Gospel has not yet been printed.

Publication.—After translation the Bible Society must carry out the publication of the manuscripts. A wide experience is needed to deal with the problems of character and type, of paper and binding, so as to make the editions useful and attractive to readers under varying conditions and with divers tastes and predilections.

Distribution.—The Bible Society has established depots at convenient centres in most of the countries in which it works. The various Churches and Missionary Societies are able to receive all the editions they need on favourable terms. The Society is itself one of the greatest of missionary societies. It maintains abroad a staff of some hundreds of colporteurs, experienced in commending the Book to others by Christian character as well as by word of mouth.

CHURCH ARMY.—The Church Army was founded in 1882 by the late Prebendary Wilson Carlile, C.H., D.D., and incorporated in 1892. It consists of a body of laymen and women who have dedicated their lives to the service of God and His Church.

It is a society pledged to the doctrine and practice of the Church of England, and its Officers work under the bishops and clergy. The social, preventive and reclamation work is done in co-operation with appropriate authorities.

Those who form the Church Army undergo definite training in evangelistic work and social service. The men are known as "Captains" and the women as "Sisters." At the conclusion of their training they are admitted as Evangelists by the Bishop of London and commissioned by the Chief Secretary of the Church Army. Where necessary they are then licensed by the Bishops in whose dioceses they work.

The Training College for both men and women is in London. Particulars of qualification and training are forwarded on application.

The Captains and Sisters strive for Conversion, Consecration and loyal Churchmanship in the lives of those among whom they work.

The Church Army is as comprehensive as the Church of England and knows no party spirit. The Officers are of all types of churchmanship and work loyally under the clergy wherever they are sent. Their purpose is, particularly by winning those outside organised religion, to extend the Kingdom of God.

1. Parochial Workers. In parishes, Officers are appointed to work under the clergy in all forms of evangelistic effort, especially in visiting, leading Mission services, open-air witness, Bible classes and young people's work.

2. Marching Crusaders. Columns of Officers undertake evangelistic route marches each summer; and united missions are organised in one or more parishes combined, in which the Officers are employed as missioners.

3. News Teams. Evangelism is promoted by News Teams, comprising lay members in a parish who are instructed and led to give their own witness. There are about 500 such teams and this method of Evangelism absorbs many Officers, as it is considered, in the words of the late Archbishop of Canterbury, to be "the most effective form of evangelism in the Church in the future." Diocesan News Team evangelists are at work in the following dioceses :—

Chelmsford, Coventry, Durham, Guildford, Liverpool, London, Manchester, Newcastle, Portsmouth, Ripon, Rochester, St. Albans, Worcester and York.

4. Mission Vans. The Gospel is carried to towns and villages by Officers who live in vans, from which they organise short teaching and preaching missions. Under the direct guidance of the bishops, vans are at present working in the following dioceses :—

Armagh, Bath and Wells, Blackburn, Carlisle, Chichester, Derby, Durham, Ely, Exeter, Gloucester, Lichfield, Lincoln, Norwich, Oxford, Rochester, St. Albans, Truro, Worcester and York.

5. Moral Welfare Work. Sisters specially trained in Moral Welfare are supplied to staff diocesan and other homes, and the social work of the Church Army enables them to give effective assistance to those who have strayed. There are Church Army Moral Welfare Sisters stationed in :—

Ashton-under-Lyne, Bognor Regis, Bromley, Canterbury, Chichester, Crewe, Deal, Dorking, Dover, Driffield, Fareham, Gillingham, Guildford, Grantham, Gravesend, Grimsby, Hammersmith, Harrow, Havant, Horsham, Hull, Lincoln, Luton, Newton Abbot, Portsmouth, Reading, Retford, Salisbury, Southampton, Stoke-on-Trent, Wallasey, Walsall, Walton-on-Thames, Wellingborough.

Home for young Girl Delinquents :—4 St. Ann's Cres., S.W. 18.

Mother and Baby Homes :—1 Devonshire Terr., W. 2; 179 Tulse Hill, S.W. 2.

Approved Probation Home :—The Red House, Stakes Rd., Pierbrook, Portsmouth.

6. Work in Prisons. Great opportunities are offered to Officers who give whole-time service in prisons. Other workers make periodical visits. Prison Missioners of the Church Army are permanently stationed in the following prisons :—

Birmingham, Durham, Holloway, Leeds, Liverpool, Manchester, Parkhurst, Pentonville, Portland, Stafford, Wakefield, Wandsworth, and Wormwood Scrubs.

7. Church Army Scouts and Guides are encouraged in parishes and centres. By affiliation, the Church Army is recognised as a "Kindred Society" of these movements, of which there is an Assistant Headquarters Commissioner for Scouts and a Headquarters Director for Guides.

8. Youth and Social Centres. These owe everything to leadership, and trained Officers exercise a Christian influence over the adolescent. These Centres are at :—

Bexhill; Combe Down, Bath; Chelsea; Highgate; Littlehampton; Matlock; Pensnett; Peterborough; Southall; Thurnscoe; Wallbrook; West Bromwich; Wick, Littlehampton; Maurice Settlement, Hoxton; Wood Green; East Ham; Harlesden; Vigo Village, nr. Meopham; Fleetwood.

9. Forces' Welfare Work. The two World Wars gave vast opportunities for evangelistic and general welfare work among H.M. Forces. Subsequently work has continued at Home and in the B.A.O.R. where such clubs and mobile canteens play a vital part in the life of the forces and their families. A Chapel in each centre is the focus for spiritual activities, and cultural programmes offer varied scope for those who seek to lead their fellows to Christ.

10. Lantern and Cinema Department, Bookshop and Printing Works. The former department is responsible for the supply of lantern slides, films, lantern and cine screens and full equipment. The latest development is the making and hiring and selling of film strips. The Bookshop supplies Bibles, Prayer Books, story books, etc., and is available for the purchase of general literature. Printing at the Church Army's Press at Oxford includes a weekly evangelistic Gazette and a Bi-Monthly "Review."

11. Overseas Mission Work. Many Officers work overseas in co-operation with Missionary Societies and under the direction of the bishops. About thirty Officers work in India, Tanganyika and other parts of Africa, and there are autonomous societies in Australia, New Zealand, United States and Canada.

12. Hostels for Women and Girls. Residential Hostels for working women and business girls provide safe and comfortable accommodation with a homely atmosphere and Christian influence. These hostels are as follows :—

Hostel for older Business Women : 84 Bell St., N.W. 1. Hostels for Business Girls (16–30 years): 24 Eccleston Sq., S.W. 1; 36 Chalcot Sq., N.W. 1. Hostel for "Problem" Girls : 5 Palace Rd., S.W. 2. 13. Welfare Hostels for Men and Lads. There are similar Hostels for men, where beds and food are obtainable at reasonable charges. In particular, assistance is given to homeless and unemployed men who are given every encouragement to rehabilitate themselves. These hostels are at :—

London :—8 Star Rd., W. 14; 10–22 Johnson St., E. 1; 187 Marylebone Rd., N.W. 1; 75 Great Peter St., S.W. 1; 12–14 Chilworth St., W. 2 (for men and women stranded at railway stations).

Provinces :—Birmingham, 145 Granville St.; Bolton, 20 Crompton St.; Bournemouth, 16–18 Tower Rd.; Brighton, 1 Upper St. James St.; Bristol, 44–45 Broadmead; Cambridge, 19 Willow Walk; Corby, The Lodge, Weldon Rd.; Derby, 18–20 Bridge St.; Edinburgh, 24–28 Broughton Place; Exeter, Melbourne House, Friars Walk; Gloucester, 16 London Rd.; Guildford, 5–7 Chertsey St.; Hull, 23 Trippet St.; Leeds, 53 The Calls; Leicester, 1–3 Ashleigh Rd.; Liverpool, 4–6 Dingle Mount; Maidstone, 15 Knightrider St.; Manchester, 174 Plymouth Grove; Middlesbrough, 10 Wellington St.; Norwich, 15 Palace St.; Oxford, 3 Cambridge Terr.; Southampton, 29 Carlton Cres.

Reception Centre for Homeless and Unemployed Men : 134 Seymour Place, W. 1.

Hostel for Young Men (18–25 years) : Livingstone House, 32 Stonebridge Park, N.W. 10. Youth Hostels : 127 Uxbridge Rd., W. 12; 8 Alexandra Grove, N. 12; 139 Paynes Rd., Southampton; 14 Linnaeus St., Hull.

Welfare Hut, Ducane Rd., W. 12 : Welcome Hut for discharged prisoners and for visitors to Wormwood Scrubs Prison.

Holiday Camp, Seasalter, nr. Whitstable, Kent.

14.—Training Home, Approved Schools etc. There are Training Homes for girls and Approved Schools with Sisters in charge as follows :—

Girls' Training Homes : Derby, Putney. Approved Schools for Girls : Huyton (Liverpool), Nottingham.

15. Work for Disabled Men. A 1919 scheme for training men injured in the Great War has been extended by additional workshops and a residential hostel at Brixton for ex-Service men and disabled civilians.

16. Help for Prisoners' Families. A link of much value is afforded by a Department which looks after wives and families, with whom contact is made as a result of visits to prisoners in their cells.

Weston-super-Mare, St. Leonards (2), Bexhill, Hurstpierpoint, Ryde, Pevensey Bay, Sheringham, Southport and Tankerton.

18. Clothing Department. Needy people are able to obtain clothing, and when necessary are helped by grants.

19. Women's Help Department. Dispenses gifts in kind and money grants.

20. Motherless Children's Homes, care for children whose fathers are unable to maintain homes after the loss of their wives. The Homes are at :—

Babbacombe, St. Leonards-on-Sea, Tunbridge Wells.

21. Homes for Elderly People. At the other end of life, are Sunset and Anchorage Homes for elderly women and men, to whom in their loneliness the friendly company of others with Christian sympathy and guidance is a blessing in their declining years. Sunset Homes are at :—

9 Merton Rd., Bootle; St. Marys', Bovey Tracey, Devon; 5 Branksome Wood Rd., Bournemouth; 42 Putney Hill, S.W. 15; Horsell Lodge, Woking; Harleston House, Lowestoft; 5 Avenue Rd., Southgate, N. 14.

Anchorage Homes are at :—

10 Montpelier Cres., Brighton; 1 Upper St. James St., Brighton; Court Moor Home, Reading Rd., Fleet, Hants.; Elswick Dene House, Georges Rd., Newcastle-on-Tyne; 1 Hunny Hill, Newport, I. of W.

22. Work for Distressed Gentlewomen and "Black-Coated" Men. Assistance is given to gentlewomen in distress, by the provision of work, help in securing pensions, help with rent, clothing, food, light and heat, etc. Many hundreds of "black-coated" men in distress have been helped in the course of years. The Church Army provides work, grants and assistance in securing suitable work, and has a special Hostel for such men.

23. Clergy Rest Houses. There are Clergy Rest Houses at Clevedon and Birchington-on-Sea for Clergy with low incomes.

24. Church Army Housing Ltd., now owns about 900 houses and flats in London and elsewhere, built to accommodate large families of the lower-paid wage earner, in all cases rehoused from overcrowded rooms and slum areas. Welfare work among the tenants offers unlimited opportunity for bringing Christ into the lives of many who have not known Him. A post-war development is the acquisition and adaptation of houses to provide unfurnished flatlets for elderly people at rents they can afford. These are known as "Churchill Houses," commemorating the leadership of Sir Winston Churchill in the war.

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—The C.M.S., founded in 1799, celebrated its 154th Anniversary in May, 1953. The pace of events has increased in almost every area of the Society's work. Events in Egypt, the Sudan, and Persia; in Malaya, China, and Japan; in the new India and Pakistan; in West and East Africa, have intimately affected the life of the Church and the work of C.M.S. within the Church.

Areas of Change. With the radical changes in the Middle East C.M.S. work in Israel has come to a close, though the Society is continuing for the present its activities in Jordan, including the important Arab refugee work at Zerka and Es Salt.

In Communist China, on the advice of the Chinese Bishops of the dioceses concerned, all C.M.S. missionaries have now withdrawn from the mainland and all material support is at an end. Before this the transference of responsibility to Chinese hands had already largely taken place in line with the Society's own policy and that of the Church. To maintain the closest spiritual links with the now isolated Chinese Church, the C.M.S. has appealed to its supporters for their continued partnership in prayer and understanding. In Hong Kong, where there is religious freedom, C.M.S. continues its educational work, and in 1952 a missionary was appointed to the task of evangelism among students in non-Christian schools.

The Society is using in new work some of the resources freed in China. In response to an invitation by the Bishop of Singapore to work among the large Chinese population in Malaya, the Committee decided in February, 1951, to inaugurate a limited Malaya Mission of the C.M.S. The experimental period of three years has more than justified itself and is to be prolonged. Missionaries with long experience of work among Chinese form the nucleus of this new Mission, whose aim is to help build up the local Chinese Church.

Strengthening the Churches. The Society's primary aim is to strengthen the life and the evangelistic spirit of the young Churches which it serves, that they may be equipped to fulfil their Missionary purpose.

In West Africa, the continued need for the Society's help in partnership is emphasised by African churchmen, particularly in regard to: training church workers; building up Christian homes; training African leaders in education and medicine; and meeting the challenge of Islam.

Following the inauguration of the Province of West Africa, the division of the dioceses of Lagos and the Niger in 1952 led to the appointment of three African diocesan bishops, a notable sign of developing African leadership. In 1953 the diocese of Sierra Leone celebrated its centenary.

In its East Africa work, which absorbs nearly one-third of the Society's missionary strength, the C.M.S. is increasingly aware of the need for flexibility in a changing society. The Society is at work in the heart of the Kikuyu Reserve and has been directly concerned with the disorders associated with the Mau Mau secret society. While many Christians took the oath under duress a staunch minority refused. Some met a violent death. In face of a common danger the fellowship between missionaries and African Christians has deepened. Early in 1953 the Africa Secretary of C.M.S. took to the loyal Kikuyu Christians a message of fellowship and understanding from the Church in Britain, together with a letter of greeting from the Archbishop of Canterbury. The congregation of Nairobi Cathedral readily responded to an appeal on behalf of distressed Kikuyu, whilst the C.M.S. in England has raised and sent out a fund of £7,000 to enable the Kikuyu Church to meet its obligations.

In Uganda significant contributions to racial reconciliation are being made by clergy and by doctors and nurses; more responsibility is devolving upon the shoulders of African clergy and in two areas African Rural Deans are ministering to both European and African congregations.

In the Sudan the Right Rev. Oliver Allison has succeeded Bishop Gelsthorpe as Bishop of the diocese, an appointment which makes for continuity in the critical days through which the country is moving towards full self-government.

In South India the C.M.S. has pledged its support to the primary task of training leaders who will strengthen the worship and witness of the Church; to that end certain of its missionaries have been set apart for the work of theological training. In Ceylon, Christ Church, Galle Face, celebrated its centenary in May, 1953.

Men and Money. The C.M.S., in company with other Societies, has to face constantly rising costs at home and overseas, and the serious shortage of manpower. Only by a substantial increase in the number of its regular supporters can its work be maintained without crippling reduction.

The Society views with the deepest concern the continued dearth of missionary recruits of suitable calibre and qualifications. Reiterating that it has a number of vacancies for which funds are available in pastoral evangelism, in medical and educational work, and in other avenues of service, the C.M.S. earnestly appeals to young Christian men and women to face the challenge of missionary service overseas.

Home Education. To call men and women to sacrificial giving—in time, money, personal service and prayer—is the motive behind all the Society's activities at home.

Particular emphasis is being put on the training of leaders in parishes and deaneries throughout England and Wales. The purpose of the many Training Conferences being held is to bring together people who desire to be active in the service of God; to give them the spiritual direction and information they need, so that they may be equipped to train a new generation.

Faced with immense opportunities and straitened resources, the C.M.S. is anxious to place at the disposal of incumbents and others concerned with Christian education, all its facilities for making known the development and present position of the World Church. Through its literature, films, exhibits, and other visual aids, the Society offers an up-to-date and comprehensive service for missionary education. Particulars are available from area secretaries or headquarters.

CHURCH MISSIONS TO JEWS (London Society for Promoting Christianity amongst the Jews).—Founded in 1809 with the Duke of Kent, father of Queen Victoria, as its first President, it claims to be the founder of medical missions. Has centres in Great Britain, Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Egypt, Persia, and in Ethiopia and Israel, where schools and clinics help the other evangelistic activities in the mission stations.

In Israel the Jerusalem Hospital and large schools have given way to more personal evangelism, e.g., visits to the Settlements, languages classes, clubs, and informal meetings. The Bible Shop at Tel Aviv gives fruitful contacts, and the complete Bible in Hebrew is in great demand. Pastoral work is carried on among the immigrants to the limit of available man-power. In Great Britain every effort is made to reach the Jews in towns and cities, and where necessary advice and literature are given to clergy.

CHURCH MUSIC SOCIETY.—Object: To facilitate the selection and performance of the music which is most suitable for different occasions of Divine worship, and for choirs of varying powers. It expresses no partisanship for any particular style of composition nor any particular ecclesiastical standpoint, but wishes to gather, and make available for use, the best music of all styles—old and new, simple and elaborate. The Society supplies information and advice to its members by means of its several publications. Hon. Sec.: Mrs. E. T. Cook, Cliff House, Marston Rd., Sherborne, Dorset. Tel.: Sherborne 624.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND CHILDREN'S SOCIETY (formerly Waifs and Strays Society).—The "Waifs and Strays" was established in 1881 as the official organisation of the Church of England for rescuing and caring for children in need, at a time when homeless and destitute children in thousands troubled the hearts of compassionate people in the cities. Today, although the "waif" or "stray" is no longer with us, the work of the Society does not diminish and there are many more children in its care than before the war. The Society specialises in the care of babies and very small children, and has greatly developed its always important boarding-out activities. The Society is a registered adoption society.

Over 69,000 children have been provided for since 1881. The present family numbers nearly 5,000. The Homes and Nurseries are small, there is no regimentation or uniform, and the children receive individual care in a home-like atmosphere. A number of the children have done very well educationally, and there is every encouragement to take scholarship examinations and, in suitable cases, to train for professional occupations. Children of all ages are accepted.

The religious training of the children is undertaken by local parochial clergy, and much of the voluntary help accorded the Society is organised on a parochial basis, including the committees of the various Houses.

The Society's new title came into use in July, 1946, and has been generally approved by its supporters.

At the present time nearly 1,500 of the Society's children are boarded out in good private homes, while others are in Homes and Nurseries throughout the country. The Society administers a grant system and certain of its funds are available for weekly payments in suitable cases so that children may remain in their own homes, or be placed by mothers themselves with suitable foster-mothers. The Society attaches the greatest possible importance to the preservation of family life and believes that the happiest and best place for a child is in the home.

Apart from a recently extended and reorganised plan for boarding-out (always a major item on the Society's programme), the extension of aftercare work has also been vigorously pursued. Several conferences have been held by the Society to discuss the problems of aftercare work with other workers and officials. Particularly noteworthy are the Society's new "mixed" and "family" Homes for boys and girls. The Society does not receive Family Allowances for the children in its care, and it remains a Voluntary Society not Nationalised or State subsidised.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND HOSPITAL CHAPLAINS' FELLOWSHIP.—The Fellowship welcomes as members all clergy engaged in hospital duty, whether full-time or in conjunction with parish work. Meetings are held in London and other centres where branches have been formed to promote the efficiency of the ministry of clergy in hospitals and for the discussion of common problems. An annual residential conference is held to give more time to these objects and to provide contact between members living at a distance from one another. The Fellowship is also concerned with the welfare of chaplains who now find themselves serving in the National Health Service. It is frequently consulted by official bodies in the Church on hospital work in all its aspects and it is represented on the Church Assembly Hospital Chaplaincies Council. The Fellowship's members serve in many types of hospital, mental, as well as general, and all schools of thought in the Church are represented. A report of proceedings and items of interest is issued yearly to members. President: The Bishop of Kensington. Chairman: Rev. J. H. S. Burton, Royal Free Hospital, W.C. 1. Vice-Chairman: Rev. D. B. Cumming, Middlesex Hospital, W. 1; Hon. Sec.: Rev. A. J. Toomey, Mayday Hospital, Croydon.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND MEN'S SOCIETY.—Established in 1899 for the spiritual and intellectual equipment of Churchmen of all ages, and the strengthening of their contribution to the evangelistic work of the Church. The Society's branches and federations, corresponding roughly to the parish and the rural deanery, are linked where possible into a diocesan union with the Bishop as President. Army branches are in process of formation. It seeks to promote friendship and co-operation between all organisations working in the same field. Full membership is confined to adult communicants. Men other than communicants who are professing members of the Church of England may be recognised as Associates. There are affiliated societies in Scotland, Australia, South Africa, and New Zealand, and also in the Merchant Navy. Gen. Sec.: (Vacant); Asst. Gen. Sec.: Major-Gen. A. G. B. Buchanan, C.E.M.S. CHURCH OF ENGLAND SOLDIERS', SAILORS' AND AIRMEN'S INSTITUTES.—To establish and maintain institutes or clubs at home and abroad for men and women of the Services, and to assist local and other efforts to effect these objects.

The institutes are primarily to assist Chaplains in their religious duties, and are open freely without question or interference to every man or woman wearing the Kings' uniform whatever may be his or her religious denomination. Chairman: Brig. A. T. Shakespear, D.S.O., M.C. Sec.: Major H. G. Aylmer, 537 Grand Bldgs., Trafalgar Sq., W.C. 2. Tel.: Whitehall 3701.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND TEMPERANCE SOCIETY (INCORPORATED).—Established 1862. Objects: To support and further all or any Charitable activities carried on in connection with the Church of England and in particular those relating to: (i) the promotion of habits of temperance and self-control; (ii) the reformation or moral well-being of the intemperate, and of "delinquents" and "deprived persons" more especially Children and Young Persons; (iii) the combating of evils arising from betting and gambling.

The Society receives into membership on equal terms those who abstain from intoxicants and those who use them in moderation. It has diocesan branches and works through sermons and lectures; Bands of Hope and adult societies; guilds; literature; and an annual syllabus, which is the basis of an annual inter-diocesan examination, prizes and certificates being awarded. Its activities include Police Court Mission, coffee stalls, market canteens, agricultural show and Hop-pickers' Missions, etc. It provides inebriate homes for men and women and a number of homes and hostels for lads and girls in various areas. A special effort is made to provide further homes to meet the need incidental to the recent large increase in juvenile crime.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND ZENANA MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—The only Anglican women's missionary society. In 1880 when the bigger societies were still unwilling to send unmarried women overseas, it emerged from an older women's interdenominational society working in India. It took over half the established work and half the personnel. Since that date the Society has spread its activities to China (1883), to Ceylon (1890), and to Singapore (1900).

Starting with evangelistic work among the secluded women, its missionaries gradually built up schools, hospitals and orphanages, and pioneered work among the deaf and blind. Today the Society is passing the oversight of all this work to the dioceses within which its missionaries are stationed. The coming of political autonomy in the East, far from reducing the scope of the Society has brought unexpected opportunity for expansion, and the cry is for more and more recruits and greatly increased financial support.

In view of this the Society looks to women of the Anglican Communion to support it in its special work of "Women to Women".

CHURCH SOCIETY.—The Society was founded in June, 1950, by the amalgamation of the Church Association (Founded 1865) and the National Church League (1899). The main objects of the Society are: to maintain the doctrine, order and worship of the Church of England; to uphold the character of the Church of England as the National Church; to unite all members of the Church in loyalty to the Thirty-nine Articles and the Book of Common Prayer; to promote friendly relations with other Protestant Churches, and to strive for reunion of Christendom on the basis of the supreme authority of Holy Scripture.

The Society has a constructive programme closely related to the domestic situation in the Church of England, as also to the Anglican Communion overseas. Its activities include evangelism, education, teaching missions, Ordination Candidates fund, patronage and publishing. Its publications are issued through the Church Book Room Press, Ltd., and its Youth work is carried out by the Young Churchmen's Movement. The Society owns two girls' schools (Westcliff, Weston-super-Mare, and Oakfield, Kirkby Lonsdale), and is also responsible for St. Michael's House, Oxford, a women's training college. There is a separate but dependent company for holding property and administering patronage called Church Society Trust.

CHURCH TEACHING FELLOWSHIP.—A fellowship of clergy and communicant laity, founded in 1942, by Canon J. R. Lumb to advance and defend religious education in loyalty to the Prayer Book and Catechism; and especially to promote research, conference, fellowship and personal service. Publications: The Church Teaching Quarterly and The Children's Church Newspaper. President: The Bishop of Blackburn. Warden: Rev. H. S. O'Neill. Sec.: A. O'Neill, Muggington Rect., Weston Underwood, Derby.

CHURCH UNION, THE, is a Society incorporating the English Church Union and the Anglo-Catholic Congress. Its principal objects are to uphold the doctrine and discipline of the Church; to extend the knowledge of Catholic Faith and Practice at home and beyond the seas; and so to bring everyone to worship the Lord Christ as Saviour and King.

The Union undertakes the work of defence and sustentation; it provides machinery for the organisation of the Anglo-Catholic vote in the Church Assembly and the Convocations; and deals with matters relating to Church Law and Church Schools.

The Fiery Cross Campaign was started by the Anglo-Catholic Congress in January, 1924. Since then continuous prayer has been maintained day and night in parish churches, religious houses, and by invalids and lonely Catholics. The movement has spread overseas.

The Church Literature Association carries on the work of propaganda by literature. Its aim is a Tract Case in every Church. It has mainly confined itself to the production in vast quantities of inexpensive and popular tracts, a large proportion of which it distributes free of charge to poor parishes at home and in the mission field. Editorial Sec.: Rev. H. Riley.

The Overseas Committee keeps in close touch with members in overseas missions and does its best to relieve their loneliness, and meet their most pressing needs.

Church Social Action includes all the work of the old Housing Association and the Summer School of Sociology. It has issued a booklet on Social Reconstruction, entitled "A Christian Realm," together with a series of explanatory leaflets, for the use of Study Circles, etc. Sec.: Rev. H. F. Runacres.

The Pilgrimage Committee, organises pilgrimages to the holy places at home and abroad.

Church Observer, issued monthly, is the official organ of the Union.

President: The Rt. Rev. K. D. Mackenzie. Trustees: The Rt. Hon. the Earl of Halifax, K.G., Lord Templewood, T. Knox Shaw. Gen. Sec.: Rev. Harold Riley. Treas.: Richard K. Cowie. Address: 6 Hyde Park Gate, S.W. 7. Tel.: Western 3531.

CHURCHES' COUNCIL OF HEALING, THE (Formed by Archbishop Temple as his Development Committee for Divine Healing).—Its functions are:—

(1) To provide a common basis for the healing movements which stand on Christian foundations. (2) To draw into closer fellowship and co-operation the movements which share this common basis. (3) To co-operate with these groups and other agencies in the promotion of united prayer and witness appropriate to their common and our basis. (4) To advise a common policy for the encouragement of doctors and clergy in the study and performance of their respective functions in the work of healing, and to promote this co-operation in thought and action throughout the country. (5) To explore the possibilities of establishing common centres of healing under adequate medical and clerical supervision. (6) To act as a centre for co-ordinating and distributing experience and research; and to promote the findings of this exchange of thought. (7) To bring the work of healing into closer relation with the regular work of the Churches.

President: The Archbishop of Canterbury. Chairman: The Bishop of Coventry. Sec.: Miss Deal, Swallowfield Lodge, Keymer, Hassocks, Sussex. Tel.: Hassocks 3012.

CHURCHES MAIN COMMITTEE, THE.—This Committee, upon which all the leading religious denominations are represented, was formed to watch and protect the common interests of churches of all denominations in connection with War Damage legislation and was responsible for the settlement with the War Damage Commission of the terms upon which church war-damage claims would be recognised. This beneficial result of co-operation amongst the churches led to the adoption of the same principles in connection with post-war legislation and cognate matters and the Committee has become a recognised medium through which negotiation with the Government authorities can be carried on.

CLERGY FRIENDLY SOCIETY.—Established 1882. Registered under the Friendly Societies Act. A unique Society, conducted by the Clergy for the Clergy, which exists solely to help Clergy in every part of the world in times of sickness. It provides sick pay and makes grants towards medical, surgical, dental and optical expenses. There is also a payment at death. Sec.: Rev. R. W. P. Dale, 48 Overton Rd., Sutton, Surrey. Tel.: Vigilant 2502.

CLERGY ORPHAN CORPORATION.—Founded in 1749, incorporated in 1809, to assist fatherless children of poor clergy. Up to the present about 5,000 children have been assisted. Help is never refused to necessitous fatherless children of poor clergy.

The Corporation maintains two Public Schools, St. Edmund's, Canterbury, for boys (Head Master, W. M. Thoseby, M.A.), and St. Margaret's, Bushey, Herts., for girls (Principal: Miss E. F. Birney, B.Sc.). Scholarships for boys and girls are available tenable at Oxford or Cambridge. Both schools take fee-paying non-foundation pupils, and thus avoid the psychological difficulties which may arise where recipients of charity are segregated.

COLONIAL AND CONTINENTAL CHURCH SOCIETY.—The Society exists to provide the ministrations of the Church to our fellow-countrymen overseas. It has been used of God especially in proclaiming the Christian faith in remote and sparsely populated regions of the British Commonwealth and to those living among people of other races and tongues.

Although the Canadian Church has assumed responsibility for nearly all of the work undertaken by the Society in Western Canada, help is still needed in laying spiritual foundations in pioneer districts of the Dominion, particularly in the supply of workers; and continuing co-operation in finding man-power has been asked for. The Society continues to maintain Emmanuel College, Saskatoon, where young men are trained for the ministry.

The Society assists the Bush Church Aid Society to maintain its Missions, Hospitals, Hostels and Flying Medical Service in the outback of Australia.

In East Africa the Society supports British chaplaincy work in the dioceses of Central Tanganyika, Mombasa, Uganda and the Sudan. The call to West Africa is equally insistent. The withdrawal of government support of chaplains in India has placed upon the Society the burden of helping to maintain work among Europeans and Anglo-Indians in that country.

Chaplaincies such as those in Jamaica, the Canary Islands and Mauritius meet a need in island communities.

The Society is responsible for many chaplaincies on the Continent of Europe. Its chaplains are at work in France, Belgium, Holland, Spain, Switzerland and Austria.

The Sunday School by Post, first begun by the Society, a work of far-reaching influence, is still maintained on four Continents.

COMMITTEE FOR MICRO-FILMING PARISH REGISTERS (under the patronage of the Archbishops of Canterbury and York).—This was established in 1939 to make micro-films of the ancient parish registers, so that in the event of the originals being lost or damaged facsimile copies could be produced. The Committee also undertakes to make typescript copies of parish registers down to the year 1840. These are indexed and presented to the Church, to lessen wear and tear on the originals. No charge is made for these services.

Chairman: The Viscount Mersey, P.C., C.M.G., C.B.E. Hon. Treas.: The Dean of Chichester. Hon. Secs.: Mrs. Kathleen Blomfield and Lt.-Col. H. K. Percy-Smith, 57 Church St., Old Isleworth, Middx. Tel.: Hounslow 0391.

CONGREGATION OF MESSENGERS OF THE HOLY CROSS.—An Order of women keeping a common Rule, under the counsels, with some measure of common life. Their purpose is to provide an expression of the Religious Life and to do evangelistic work. Some practise this at home and others at a common centre. Leader: Miss M. Carson, Antrim House, Abbey Rd., Rhos-on-Sea. Warden: Rev. Lothian H. Sumner, S.S.F., St. Francis House, Lady Margaret Rd., Cambridge. Tel.: Cambridge 3903.

CORPORATION OF SS. MARY AND NICOLAS (THE WOODARD SCHOOLS).—President: The Bishop of Oxford. Registrar: R. C. Freeman, 30A St. George St., W. 1. Tel.: Mayfair 2022. This Society was founded in 1848 by the late Canon Nathaniel Woodard for the purpose of promoting and extending education in the doctrines and principles of the Church then established, it being his earnest wish and the object and intention of all benefactors of the Corporation, as expressed in Statutes which he delivered in the year 1880, "that for all future time the sons of any of Her Majesty's subjects should be taught, together with sound grammar learning, the fear and honour of Almighty God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, according to the doctrines of the Catholic Faith as it is now set forth in the Book of the Offices and Administration of the Sacraments of the Church of England." The Founder later provided for the inclusion of schools for girls in his Foundation.

The Corporation was divided by the Founder and remains divided into five parts or colleges, to act in five several divisions of the Kingdom. Of these colleges or Divisional Societies, four only have so far been established, as follows:—

HISTORIC CHURCHES PRESERVATION TRUST.—The Trust was founded in 1952 by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York at the request of the Church Assembly. The Commission on the Repair of Churches appointed by the Assembly had estimated that over the next ten years a sum of £4,000,000 was needed to supplement the utmost that the parishes could do in putting our parochial churches back into a good state of repair.

Over 8,000 of our parish churches were built before the close of the Middle Ages. Their upkeep would in any case be a big task, and it has been increased by the movement of population over the centuries. Many of the largest and loveliest parish churches now have only a few hundred people living around them. The enforced postponement of normal maintenance during and after the war brought to a head a problem that was already serious.

The Trust was created to help the parishes solve this problem by voluntary means. Her Majesty the Queen has been graciously pleased to become Patron of the Trust, and the Duke of Edinburgh is President. The Trustees include leaders in Church and State. All the main political parties and both sides of industry are represented among them, as well as the main bodies concerned in the preservation of ancient buildings.

The Trustees appeal to the whole nation for help in this task, and are prepared to entertain applications on behalf of all churches having architectural features or historical associations that require their preservation. A first list of grants totalling £50,000 was made for the most urgent cases in 1952.

INDUSTRIAL CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP.—Objects: (1) To present Christ as the living Lord and Master in every department of human life, and to proclaim the supreme authority of the Christian law of life. (2) To minister by living Agents, to all engaged in the industrial world, seeking to win them to personal discipleship of Jesus Christ, and to unite all classes in a bond of Christian fellowship and prayer. (3) To study under the guidance of the Holy Spirit how to apply the moral truths and principles of Christianity to the social, economic and industrial systems of the world.

The Work of the Fellowship is Evangelistic. Lay missioners have to undergo a two years' course of training at the Fellowship's Training College, in theology, social science and public speaking. Another aspect of the work, formerly carried out by the Christian Social Union, seeks to bring home to churchpeople their obligation for the social order in which they live. This is done in large measure by the Clerical Directors, and by a number of priests and laymen, including some engaged in industry. Crusades and Campaigns are organised on a large scale, both in industrial and rural areas.

Industrial Sunday is organised year by year, with the commendation of the Archbishops and Bishops, as a rule on the Sunday preceding May 1st, when Industry is brought to the bar of judgment and dedicated to the service of God and His children.

Literature. A monthly review is issued, "Man Today". Pamphlets published during the year include "Our New Understanding of Christian Social Witness" by the Bishop of Berlin (Dr. Dibelius); "The Church and the Welfare State" by the Bishop of Peterborough; "The Status of the Worker in Modern Industry" by H. B. Bush; "Education in a Free Society" by the Very Rev. Dr. P. A. Micklem; and "Prayer and Crops" by the Rev. J. L. T. Speechly.

ISLINGTON CLERICAL CONFERENCE.—This is a gathering of Evangelical Clergy convened by the Vicar of Islington for the discussion of Church topics, more especially from the Evangelical point of view. It owes its inception to a small company of Clergy first invited to meet on January 7, 1827, in the Vicarage Library in Barnsbury Park by the Rev. Daniel Wilson, the elder, better known as the Bishop of Calcutta. Year by year it has grown in numbers, gradually outgrowing the accommodation of various halls in Islington, and in 1920 was moved from Islington to the Church House, Westminster, where normally the meetings have since been held. It is still presided over by the Vicar of Islington, who issues the invitations year by year. Owing to war conditions the Conference was not held for a number of years after 1939, until the 1947 Conference. Over 400 clergy and ordinands attended in 1953. The 1954 Conference will be held on January 12th, at the Church House, Westminster. Convener and Chairman: The Vicar and Rural Dean of Islington, Rev. Maurice A. P. QUEEN VICTORIA CLERGY FUND.—The object of this Fund (incorporated by Royal Charter, 1897) is to impress upon the laity their duty of assisting in providing an adequate income for the Clergy.

The intolerable financial burdens of the Clergy, due in no small measure to the stringency of life today, are being tackled at the centre, in the dioceses and in the parishes alike, and they are a first charge upon the laity to remedy.

Many who have this crying need at heart, have given to the limit of their diocesan and parochial demands, but there are some who could still give additionally to help those outside their own locality who are less fortunate. To these it is that the Queen Victoria Clergy Fund appeals for a still further and sustained effort.

Block grants from the Central Fund are made to the affiliated Diocesan Organisations and administered by them in accordance with the general principles of the Fund.

Forms for bequests and Deeds of Covenant will gladly be supplied by the Secretary.

RELIGIOUS BROADCASTING DEPARTMENT OF THE BRITISH BROADCASTING CORPORATION, THE.—This arranges for the supply of a wide variety of religious broadcasts for transmission in the B.B.C.'s three home services, the overseas services and the television service. These include broadcasts from the Church of England, the Church of Scotland, the Roman Catholic Church and the Free Churches. Effectiveness in evangelistic broadcasting, i.e., in reaching those many millions of listeners who have no effective part in the life of a local congregation, is the main criterion by which most broadcasters are chosen. On religious broadcasting policy the Corporation is advised by representative Religious Advisory Committees in each B.B.C. Region and by a Central Religious Advisory Committee of which the Chairmen of the Regional Committees are members.

Anglican members of the Central Religious Advisory Committee : The Bishop of Bristol (Chairman); the Bishop of London; the Bishop of Liverpool (Chairman, North Regional Religious Advisory Committee); the Bishop of St. David's (Chairman, Welsh Religious Advisory Committee); the Dean of Hereford (Chairman, Midland Regional Religious Advisory Committee); the Dean of Belfast (Chairman, Northern Ireland Religious Advisory Committee); Canon H. G. G. Herklots; Dr. Kathleen Bliss; Mr. J. F. Wolfenden, C.B.E.

Anglican members of the staff of the Religious Broadcasting Department : Rev. F. H. House (Head of Religious Broadcasting); Rev. J. A. Fisher; Rev. W. D. Kennedy-Bell; Rev. R. Tatlock (Broadcasting House, London, W. 1); Rev. M. W. Willson (Broadcasting House, Bristol); (Vacant) (Broadcasting House, Birmingham); Rev. G. M. P. Hamilton (Broadcasting House, Manchester).

Office : Broadcasting House, London, W. 1. Tel. : Langham 4468.

ROYAL AIR FORCE CHAPLAINCY SERVICE (a Department under the control of the Air Member for Personnel).—Applications for Chaplaincies should be addressed to Canon A. S. Giles, C.B.E., Q.H.C., Chaplain-in-Chief R.A.F., Air Ministry, 15 Cadogan Gardens, Sloane Sq., S.W. 3. Tel.: Kensington 4581.

The normal method of entry into the Chaplains Branch of the R.A.F. is through the medium of a Short Service Commission. This Short Service Commission is for three years, extensible by a further three years. Candidates must be medically fit for service in any part of the world. A candidate for appointment as a Chaplain must, as a general rule, have been three years in Priest's Orders, and the written commendation of the candidate's Bishop must be sent to the Chaplain-in-Chief. There is no age limit for Chaplains on entry, but normally on first appointment he will be approximately 28 years.

Selections for Permanent Commissions will be made from those holding Short Service Commissions.

Chaplains enter the Service at a daily rate of pay of 27*s.* 6*d.* per day with biennial increases of 2*s.* 6*d.* per day during service. Marriage allowance on entry is 15*s.* 6*d.*–23*s.* 6*d.* per day and is taxable.

Moral Leadership Schools are doing excellent work in various parts of the world and have become a normal part of the post-war activities of the Chaplains' Branch. In addition to the Chaplains' School at R.A.F. Dowdeswell Court, nr. Cheltenham, Moral Leadership Courses are held in the Far East, in the Middle East and in Germany.

Women "Chaplains' Assistants" are serving with the Royal Air Force on stations which have a large number of W.R.A.F.

Confirmations and Easter Communicants. In 1952 the return of Confirmations throughout the Royal Air Force in the United Kingdom and overseas shows that there were 780 male confirmees, and 148 female confirmees, making a total of 928. In 1953 the number of Easter Communicants of R.A.F. personnel in station churches in the United Kingdom and overseas was 5,264.

ROYAL ALEXANDRA AND ALBERT SCHOOL, THE (Incorporating the Royal Alexandra School and the Royal Albert School).—Founded 1758 (interdenominational). Receives fatherless or motherless boys and girls from 5 years to 12 years of age; and retains them till 15 or over, maintaining and educating them. Children whose fathers are incurably ill and unable to maintain them are also eligible. Patron: H.M. The Queen. President: H.R.H. The Duke of Gloucester, K.G. Sec.: E. A. Corner, Gatton Park, Reigate, Surrey. Tel.: Merstham 2576.

ROYAL MARTYR CHURCH UNION.—Hon. Sec. and Treas.: Mrs. Stuart Houston, The Manor House, Codford, Warminster, Wilts. Tel.: Codford St. Mary 211.

ROYAL NAVAL LAY READERS' SOCIETY, THE.—It is a Church Society founded in 1860 by Naval Officers working in co-operation with their Chaplain. Its object is to help the men of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines in their spiritual lives.

It consists of a staff of Lay Readers licensed by the Archbishop of Canterbury and administered by a Committee in which Naval Officers predominate.

The Readers are carefully selected laymen of the Church of England, preferably ex-Servicemen, who live and work amongst Sailors and Marines, setting forth the simple truths of the Gospel and endeavouring to lead men to personal faith in Our Lord Jesus Christ. Each Reader works under the direction of a Naval Chaplain. They are employed in Dockyards, Barracks, Air Stations and Hospitals, visiting on the messdecks and in barrack rooms and wherever men are to be found. Some Readers are accommodated in Naval messes and thus not only work but live amongst Sailors, Marines and Naval Airmen. Many of these men are young and away from home influence and the friendship and advice which the Readers (most of whom have served on the Lower Deck) are able to offer is of untold value. The Society is fully recognised by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Org. Sec.: Captain C. I. Horton, R.N. (Retd.), Chaplain's Office, H.M. Dockyard, Portsmouth. Tel.: Portsmouth 74571, Ext. 2915.

ROYAL NAVY, CHURCH WORK IN THE.—The appointment of clergy to work as Chaplains in the Royal Navy is handled in the first instance by the Chaplain of the Fleet acting on the recommendation of the Bishop of the diocese in which the candidate is working at the time of making application.

Chaplains are entered initially for a Short Service Commission of four years' duration and must be in Priests' Orders and of not more than 34 years of age, except in certain exceptional cases.

Chaplains are employed not only in seagoing ships in all parts of the world but also in Dockyards at home and abroad, in Naval and Marine Barracks, in Hospitals, in Naval Colleges, in Royal Naval Air Stations, and in the various Training and Technical Establishments. The Training Establishments afford unexcelled opportunities for teaching the Christian Faith and these appointments are filled by Chaplains specially fitted for such work.

Apart from conducting the customary Services in his Ship for which all the necessary facilities and equipment are provided, a Chaplain will find numerous opportunities for extending the work of the Church by such means as "Chaplains' Hours", the visiting of the sick and those undergoing punishment, dealing with family welfare problems and taking part in the social, recreational and sporting activities of the ship. Moral Leadership Courses for all Naval ranks are provided at the R.A.F. Chaplains' School, Dowdeswell Court, nr. Cheltenham. In general, the Navy offers a splendid field of work for hard working, enthusiastic clergymen of the right type.

In 1902 a very important step was taken towards bringing the Church in the Royal Navy into closer touch with the Church ashore when the Archbishop of Canterbury instituted the Chaplain of the Fleet, Archdeacon for the Royal Navy. The Archbishop issues a special Licence to all Chaplains on the Active List which is recognised by the bishops of the Anglican Church and of Churches in Communion with her throughout the world. This procedure received the sanction of H.M. the King in an Order in Council dated August 13th, 1902.

Full particulars as to the entry of Naval Chaplains can be obtained on application to the Chaplain of the Fleet, the Ven. F. N. Chamberlain, C.B., O.B.E., Q.H.C. The Admiralty, Queen Anne's Mansions, St. James' Park, S.W. 1. Tel.: Whitehall 9444.

Full-time lay readers are employed by the R.N. Lay Readers' Society, of which the Organising Secretary is Captain C. I. Horton, R.N. (Retd.), Chaplain's Office, H.M. Dockyard, Portsmouth.

Confirmations and Easter Communicants. The return of Confirmations for the Royal Navy during 1952 shows that a total of 1,125 were confirmed (males 1,062, females 63). The number of Easter Communicants in 1952 was 4,817 and in 1953 was 5,911. It should be noted that in the case of most shore establishments and ships in home waters, Easter falls during a leave period when comparatively few remain on board.

ROYAL SCHOOL OF CHURCH MUSIC.—Founded in 1927 by the late Sir Sydney Nicholson, M.V.O., D.Mus. and incorporated in 1930 as a company limited by guarantee and having no share capital. Established to further the study and practice of music and singing in connection with the services of the Church of England and Churches in Communion with it. For the first twenty-five years the main work has been to meet the needs of affiliated choirs and to help the clergy, lay-readers, ordinands, choirmasters, and organists. In future emphasis will be laid upon the music of the whole worshipping body—congregation and choir.

The R.S.C.M. moved in 1953 from Canterbury to larger premises at Addington Palace, Croydon, a former home of Archbishops of Canterbury. This is now the Headquarters of all R.S.C.M. work, and it is hoped that it will come to be recognised as the centre of Church Music for the whole Anglican Communion. Already R.S.C.M. members are to be found in every part of it and students come from many countries to study Church music.

Choir membership has grown to 3,500. Students are received for a full Course of a year's duration and this may be combined with musical studies in London. Since 1946, a total of 1,350 students have attended courses at Canterbury and elsewhere, and 5,500 choirboys have attended residential Instructional Courses arranged by the R.S.C.M. since 1940. One-Day Schools and Three-Day Courses of evening instruction are held for members of choirs as well as for organists or the clergy. Festivals with previous rehearsals are held. Commissioners visit affiliated choirs in their own churches. A quarterly magazine English Church Music is given to members. Suitable music is published at low cost, and gramophone records are issued.

SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS.—Purpose. Dr. Thomas Bray founded the S.P.G. in 1701 to minister to the British settlers in other lands, and to propagate the Gospel amongst the heathen. Since then it has played a leading role in building up the Anglican Communion in every part of the world.

Policy. In every aspect of this S.P.G. is obedient to the authority of the Church. The Archbishop of Canterbury is always its President and its spheres of work are chosen at his request or that of the Bishops overseas, and developed in consultation with them. Clergy are sent overseas as the servants of the Church, not of the Society.

Present Position. S.P.G. has always stood firm for the building up of the oversea episcopate. To-day the Metropolitan of India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon is an Indian, the Presiding Bishop of Japan is a Japanese, and recently the first Burmese, Karen, and Nicobarese bishops have been consecrated. A strong indigenous ministry is growing up in every land, and missionaries are needed more than ever to train and advise the leaders of these younger Churches, and to staff the Church schools and theological and training colleges.

The Church in South Africa works in a society where racial discrimination is an accepted fact. This challenges the Church to proclaim with no uncertain voice the truth of the Fatherhood of God and consequent equality of all His children. The policy of "apartheid", which aims at placing the various race groups in different localities, will strain Church finances when buildings have to follow the Africans to new locations. The Province of West Africa (see p. 153) has its difficulties too, not least the increasing strength of Islam in its midst.

The Church in India, adjusting itself to new political conditions, cries urgently for wise missionaries to work as colleagues of and subordinates to Indian leaders. Schemes for church union in North India and Ceylon, as well as the Nandyal "island" of Anglicans in the Church of South India territory, call for wise and careful handling.

Burma and Malaya are politically unsettled; the Church's work tends to become isolated in different areas, making local leadership the key to the situation: Christian schools have great opportunities in Malaya.

In the West Indies there is a serious shortage of priests. Several of the clergy in Nassau diocese have each twelve or more churches to care for. Everywhere plans for church development are frustrated through lack of finance and manpower.

In the Home Church, S.P.G. continues to encourage interest and support through exhibitions, conferences, and summer schools. Thought has been stimulated in large gatherings of sixth-formers and students discussing such vital problems as "Colour Bar", and "Slavery, Then and Now". Many new links have been formed with schools, clubs and other young peoples' organisations; over 300 clubs are now linked to the S.P.G. under the title "World Venturers" and King's Messenger Branches continue to give the children the vision of the world-wide Church. Following on from these junior organisations, the S.P.G. Fellowship has 6,000 members who pledge themselves to prayer, study, and personal service and giving for the Society.

Finance. Every effort must be made by Home parishes and organisations to increase the General Fund. In many places S.P.G. is the main Anglican Society to which the Bishops look for missionary staff and support. If this Fund is not maintained, the Church's regular work in all these dioceses is threatened with retrenchment, and development becomes impossible. In 1952 the General Fund (Subscriptions, Donations and Collections) totalled 142,581*l.*, and the Medical Missions General Fund was 23,845*l.* The South India separate account totalled 5,855*l.*

Increased costs everywhere make the Society's income quite inadequate. Far more is needed if the great opportunities are to be met. By consolidation grants and grants towards the endowment of new dioceses S.P.G. is making a great contribution towards the growing stability and independence of the Oversea Church.

SOUTH AFRICAN CHURCH INSTITUTE.—Formed in 1914 at the instigation of the Archbishop of Capetown, and with the unanimous approval of the Episcopal Synod of South Africa. Reconstituted in 1924. Objects: To help the Church of the Province of South Africa: (a) By keeping their work and needs before the Home Church. (b) By assisting the commissaries of the South African Bishops to secure clergymen and other workers for the various Dioceses. (c) By welcoming clergymen, lay workers, and other members of the Church of South Africa who visit England on furlough, especially those who are doing so for the first time. (d) By providing temporary work (when desired) for such persons; and if possible permanent work for them on the completion of their term of service in South Africa. (e) By providing news and information about the Church of the Province, more especially through the quarterly magazine "Cape to Zambezi." See also p. 135. Director: Rev. C. T. SOUTH AFRICAN CHURCH RAILWAY MISSION.—Ministers to European and Coloured people in areas of Southern Africa not covered by the parochial system. There is shortage of staff, and chaplains and women are urgently needed. Information from the Secretary, 14 Great Peter St., Westminster, S.W. 1. Tel.: Abbey 1033.

SOUTH AMERICAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, THE.—(Formed 1844.) The evangelisation of the primitive peoples of the inland areas of Argentina, Chile and Paraguay is the main object of the mission. Volunteer evangelists, both licensed and unlicensed, of all the native tribes are extending the work in all directions.

By arrangement with the Bishop in Argentina, the institutional work, embracing boarding schools and orphanage homes primarily for children of British descent, is being administered by the Diocesan Board of Missions, with excellent results.

The nationalistic tendencies in all the Republics seem likely to necessitate a change in the Society's educational policy. Provision for more intensive training of the native evangelists with a view to the ordination of suitable candidates is one of the features of the Society's plans for the extension and stabilising of the Church already in being. In Araucania the native Church has its own native pastors and its own missionary society operating within the S.A.M.S.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT IN SCHOOLS (for boys and girls in the senior forms of secondary, grammar and public schools) works through residential and non-residential conferences at which an opportunity is given to boys and girls to approach the problems of religion with the same intellectual honesty and seriousness as is demanded of them in any other study. About 75 such conferences are held annually for approximately 16,000 senior pupils. The conferences are followed up by more permanent discussion and study groups in schools and by summer conferences and international camps. The Student Christian Movement in Schools publishers a "Broadsheet of Christian Thought and Action" twice each term. The aim and basis is the same as that of the Student Christian Movement and the two societies co-operate closely. The S.C.M.S. is also associated with the University Women's Camps for Schoolgirls. Gen. Sec.: Rev. J. S. C. Miller, Annandale, North End Rd., Golders Green, N.W. 11. Tel.: Speedwell 2311. *N.E. STUDENT CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND (Affiliated to the World Student Christian Federation).—The purpose and spirit of the Movement is best expressed in the words of an official Aim and Basis :—

> The S.C.M. is the Fellowship of students which seeks to acknowledge and to lead others to acknowledge God through Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. It works for the understanding and acceptance in the thought and life of college and university, of the Lordship of Christ over the whole life of mankind. It seeks the extension, unity and renewal of the Church throughout the world, and calls students to bear witness as responsible members of a particular Church, in personal commitment to Jesus Christ as their Saviour and Lord.
> The basis of the Movement is the word of God witnessed to by prophets and apostles in Holy Scripture and affirmed by the Church in its worship and its creeds.

The Movement is inter-denominational, international and missionary. Men and women come into its ranks from every kind of college, university, training, medical, theological, technical and engineering, and from fine art and music schools. In 1951–52 in an estimated college field of 118,970 students, the Movement had 9,147 members. It employed 25 Secretaries and had an income of 22,779*l*. Hon. Chaplain: Canon Tissington Tatlow, D.D. Sec.: Rev. J. Philip Lee-Woolf, Annandale, North End Rd., Golders Green, N.W. 11. Tel.: Speedwell 2311.

TOC H (INCORPORATED).—The Movement originated in Talbot House, Poperinghe, near Ypres, in 1915. Many thousands of men found peace and purpose there. Those who survived wished to perpetuate the fellowship and the spirit they had discovered and to direct their energies into creative channels.

Toc H (Army signal language for the initials T.H.) started in London in 1919 and spread to all parts of Britain and the Commonwealth. Today it has some 1,500 branches and 23 residential houses ("Marks") for young men. The membership, consisting of men (from 16 years of age) of every social background and political opinion, is pledged to fellowship, fairmindedness and personal service of all kinds, and " to strive to listen for the voice of God, to know His Will revealed in Christ, and to do it fearlessly ".

Toc H seeks to help the Churches and to provide friendship and a corporate and practical expression of Christian service for those who belong to different denominations: but it is not a substitute for them. Toc H welcomes those who are not members of any Church in the hope that they will be led to a deeper understanding of the Christian faith and its relationship to every aspect of human life.

UNITED SOCIETY FOR CHRISTIAN LITERATURE (R.T.S. 1799; C.L.S. India, 1858; C.L.S. China, 1884).—The oldest inter-denominational Society for producing Christian literature at home and abroad, with a Committee drawn in equal proportions from the Anglican and Free Churches. It has been engaged for over 150 years in the production of books, magazines, pamphlets, etc. in some 350 languages, in co-operation with the missionary societies abroad and the Church at home. In Britain, grants of books are made to final year theological students; prizes are given for Scripture knowledge in day schools; and literature is produced for evangelistic campaigns. The home publishing side, Lutterworth Press, produces theological and general literature.

The India branch publishes Christian literature in the chief languages of South India at its presses in Madras, Mysore, and Bangalore. A developing branch in Ceylon has centres at Colombo, Jaffna, and Kandy. In Northern Rhodesia the Society is building up a nation-wide literature service through centres at Lusaka and in the Copper Belt. Books in English and vernaculars are produced mainly in London and distributed throughout Africa. Close co-operation is maintained with the younger churches and the missionary Societies. Other recent assistance by subsidy includes grants to projects in Greece, Hong Kong, Canada, Germany, and Holland.

UNIVERSITIES' MISSION TO CENTRAL AFRICA.—The Mission, which was proposed by David Livingstone in 1857, maintains the dioceses of Zanzibar, Nyasaland, Northern Rhodesia, Masasi and South-West Tanganyika, the last named being a new diocese formed in 1952 by the division of the diocese of Nyasaland.

The aim has always been to respond to the call of Christ and to win Africa for Him. Today Africans need Christian help and Christian education as never before. Economic development is turning their country upside down and they are being brought increasingly into contact with men and women of other races and ways of life. Tension, and sometimes bitterness, result and only the Church can save the situation and secure the happiness and welfare of both black and white. The Mission needs an increased staff: of priests, doctors, nurses; of trained educationalists and industrialists; men and women who are prepared for adventurous service in the cause of Christ.

At Home U.M.C.A. stimulates interest through its visual aid department, exhibitions, summer schools, youth department, Coral League (for children) and literature (including the monthly magazines, Central Africa and African Tidings). Increased costs at home and in Africa make income inadequate for present responsibilities and the Mission appeals for more generous support to meet opportunities and make new ventures for Christ.

WILLIAM TEMPLE COLLEGE, The Old Rectory, Rugby.—An Anglican foundation named after Archbishop William Temple. It provides a sound course of study of the Christian Faith and its bearing upon man and society. There are: a two year course, a one year course, and shorter courses, including week-end and holiday courses, for men and women. These courses comprise the study of the Old and New Testaments, Christian Doctrine, the history and worship of the Church and introductory studies of man and society. The College is useful to all those who in industry, commerce, social work or education desire to be more articulate about their Faith and thus to pursue their Christian vocation and witness. To this end corporate worship and opportunities for individuals to build up a life of prayer contribute an essential part. The College is recognised by the Ministry of Education for supplementary courses in Divinity. Teachers from different types of schools find the combination of theological and social studies peculiarly valuable. The consideration of the problems of our contemporary industrial society from the Christian angle is particularly relevant for those who have responsibility in industry. The Religious Life

ADVISORY COUNCIL ON THE RELATION OF BISHOPS AND RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES.—This Council, to serve the needs of the two Provinces of Canterbury and York, has been established by the Archbishops after consultation with the Bishops and the Lower Houses of the Convocations. Its functions are: (1) to advise the Bishops upon (a) questions arising about the charters and rules of existing Communities, (b) the establishment of new Communities, (c) matters referred to it by a diocesan bishop, especially in regard to the Regulations proposed by the Bishops, (d) any amendment that may seem to the Council to be desirable in the said Regulations; (2) to advise existing Communities with a view to their obtaining enrolment in accordance with the Regulations or in other matters if they so desire; (3) to give guidance to those who wish to form Communities; (4) to certify to the Bishops as to Communities which have a rule consonant with the Regulations with a view to their being enrolled at Lambeth.

The Chairman and Convener of the Council must be a diocesan bishop appointed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York. The Council consists of twelve members, six of whom are appointed by the Bishops and six by the Communities. The Chairman of the Council is the Bishop of Oxford. Hon. Sec.: Rev. Fr. Fitch, S.S.J.E., St. Edward's House, 22 Great College St., Westminster, S.W. 1.

MEN

The Community of the Resurrection is a community of celibate Clergy living under a Rule and with a common purse. Each Priest who joins the Community after a novitiate makes a profession for life under a specific promise and vow of obedience to the Rule and Constitution. It is intended that the Community shall consist of Priests occupied in various works—pastoral, evangelistic, literary, educational—with the life of religion as their foundation. The Community may also include lay brethren. The Community had its origin in 1892 at the Pusey House, Oxford, moved in the following year to Radley, and had for a time an additional house in Little Cloisters. Westminster. In 1898 the House of the Resurrection, Mirfield, became its centre; at the beginning of 1902 a College for training Candidates for the Ministry was opened there, and later in the year a House at Johannesburg, for Mission work among Europeans and Natives. The Community is now in charge of a college for training African Clergy, the mission work in Sophiatown and Orlando, Johannesburg, the mission work in Sekukuniland, Northern Transvaal, as well as St. Augustine's, Penhalonga. Retreats for Clergy and for Laymen are held at intervals at Mirfield, and are conducted by Members of the Community. There is a Branch House at 8 Holland Park, W. 11, and a Hostel at Leeds for Theological Students during their attendance at the University. The Community also has charge of St. Teilo's Hall, Cardiff, a house of residence for students at Cardiff University College, and also a centre for evangelistic work in Wales. In October, 1951, St. Francis House, Hemingford-Grey, Hunts, was opened as a Retreat House. The Superior is the Rev. R. E. Raynes, House of the Resurrection, Mirfield, Yorks.

Society of St. John the Evangelist. The Society of Mission Priests of St. John the Evangelist, commonly called the Cowley Fathers, The Mission House, Marston St., Oxford. Superior General, Rev. F. B. Dalby. The Society was founded by the Rev. R. M. Benson in 1865 for the cultivation of a life dedicated to God according to the principles of Poverty, Chastity, and Obedience, and is engaged in works both Missionary and Educational, at home and abroad for the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ. Lay Brothers are united with the Clergy in Dedication to the Religious Life, and assist in the works of the Society. The Mother House is at Marston St., Oxford. The London House is at 22 Great College St., Westminster, S.W. 1. The Scottish House is on the outskirts of Edinburgh, 7 Milton Rd., Joppa, Midlothian. The Society has also houses where Mission work is carried on at Bombay and Poona in India, and in South Africa at Cape Town and St. Cuthbert's, Kaffraria. It is also established, as an independent Congregation, in the United States with houses at Cambridge, Boston, and in Japan. A third Congregation has a house at Bracebridge in Canada.

Society of the Sacred Mission, Kelham, Newark, Notts. Founded in 1894, a community of priests and laymen bound together for the service of the Church. Objects:

(1) By its rule and discipline to maintain in its members the spirit of self-sacrificing devotion. (2) By its organisation to coordinate the use of individual gifts in common undertakings, and thereby to make such devotion effective. The Society's main work in England is the training of men for ordination, at the Mother-house at Kelham; the college is an integral part of the house, and the students, together with members of the community on the college staff or engaged in other work, share in the common life and live under the common rule. There are also three parishes under its care, at Nottingham, Sheffield, and Averham. In South Africa the Society has pastoral and educational work covering much of the Orange Free State, including a large area in the new gold-fields, where it ministers to both Europeans and Africans; at its headquarters at Modderpoort there is also a training college and a high school; in Basutoland there are two centres, one in a remote mountain area. The main work in Australia, at the Society's house near Adelaide, is the training of ordinands, by the methods used at Kelham, for service in all parts of the Commonwealth. The Society recruits its priest members largely, but not exclusively, from the students of its colleges; lay members are recruited from any source and, if they are not already qualified for some trade or profession, the Society provides training suited to their capacities. Director: Rev. Paul Hume, S.S.M.

Order of St. Benedict, Nashdom Abbey, Burnham, Bucks. A Community of priests and laymen living under the Rule of St. Benedict.

The Society of St. Francis, consists of those who are called to live the life of Friars. The object of the Brothers is to follow our Lord in His poverty, and to minister especially to the poor and destitute. At the Franciscan Friary, Cerne Abbas, Dorset, they have a home for men, a market garden, and several industries, hand printing, basket making, etc. There is accommodation for about 24 men in addition to the Brothers. The Brothers conduct parochial Missions, Conventions and Retreats. The Friars also work in Cambridge, and in East London, and have a school for maladjusted boys. The Minister is the Rev. Southwark.—Community of Reparation to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament (Mission Sisters of St. Alphege), at The Convent, 31 White Rose Lane, Woking, Surrey, and The Convent, Rushworth St., S.E. 1. The Community was founded in 1869 by the Rev. A. R. Goulden, and its main object is continuous intercession and good works for those who do not know Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The activities of the Community comprise mission work in the populous district of Southwark. Warden, Rev. C. R. Bryant, S.S.J.E.

Truro.—Community of the Epiphany, Truro. Its object is to manifest the light and life of Christ by prayer and works—more or less equal time being given to each. The latter include: (1) Retreats (conducted and private). (2) Parish and diocesan mission work. Mission Houses at Truro, Penzance and Walthamstow. (3) Church Embroidery, Needlework and Art. (4) Making Altar Bread. (5) Laundering Altar Linen. (6) Sacristan work at Truro Cathedral. (7) Home for Children. (8) Convalescent Home for Men. (9) House in Japan. Warden, Most Rev. G. C. Hubback. Sub-Warden, Rev. A. F. Mayhew.

Wakefield.—Community of St. Peter, Horbury, exists to enable those who receive a vocation to live a life of separation from the world under the vows of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience, "to the end that they may, by the aid of prayer and self-abnegation, the better follow in the footsteps of Our Lord and Master Jesus Christ, and by union with Him give glory to God by the furtherance of those works of mercy to which the Community may from time to time be called." Activities: School for maladjusted children (not mentally deficient); Retreats; Parochial and Mission work; Ecclesiastical embroidery; Altar bakery; Preparatory School. Other House: Mission House, Wakefield Cathedral. Warden: Rev. R. L. Wrathall, C.R. Visitor, the Bishop of Hereford. Chaplain to St. Peter's Convent School, Rev. W. E. Plumbridge.

Worcester.—Community of the Holy Name, Malvern Link. Founded in 1865. Object of the Community: Winning of souls to Our Lord by means of dedicated life, intercessory prayer and active mission work. Mother House: Convent of the Holy Name, Malvern Link. Four conducted retreats annually for Associates and other women, private retreats arranged at any time. Guests received. Moral Welfare Training Home for Girls: Home of the Good Shepherd, Malvern Link. St. Catherine's House, Malvern Link, Hostel for unmarried mothers with their babies; Branch and Mission Houses: St. Edward's, West Malvern, Rest House and Residential for a few old ladies, etc.; St. Alban's, Birmingham; Holy Cross Liberian Mission; St. John Baptist, Staveley, Derbys.; St. Saviour's, Pimlico St. John's, Coventry; St. Mary's, All Hallows and All Saints', Wellingborough Chaplain-General, Rev. L. D. Heppenstall.

Alphabetical Summary of Legal Information

For the Guidance of Clergy and Others

COMPILED UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE LEGAL BOARD OF THE CHURCH ASSEMBLY

NOTE.—This summary, which is not to be regarded as exhaustive, is intended to help the clergy and others in the general problems arising in the ordinary life of the Dioceses and parishes.

ACCOUNTS.—See Churchwardens ; Parochial Church Council.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE.—The Faculty Jurisdiction Measure, 1938, has given statutory authority to these Diocesan Committees, for it provides by Section 5 that one shall be appointed by the Bishop in every Diocese and its duties are defined as the giving of advice (a) to intending applicants for faculties (b) to the Chancellor (if required) before the grant of a faculty and (c) to the Archdeacon before the issue of a certificate under the Measure. Rules in relation to the proceedings of the Committees, and the methods by which members thereof may be summoned to give evidence in the Consistory Court, were made in May 1939. The discretion, however, to grant or refuse an application remains as heretofore with the Chancellor alone. The Committees do not deal with the legal or religious aspects of an application. There is also a Central Committee to deal with questions of difficulty relegated to it by the Diocesan Committees or the Chancellor.

ADVOWSON.—See Patronage.

ALMS AND COLLECTIONS.—The Communion alms, or money given at the Offertory in the Communion Service, are to be disposed of in accordance with the Rubric placed at the end of that Service in the Book of Common Prayer, that is, for such " pious and charitable uses " as the Minister and churchwardens think fit. If these cannot agree, the Bishop decides how the money shall be used. The churchwardens should keep an account of these moneys. The Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, has not substituted the P.C.C. for the churchwardens for the disposal of those moneys. (See Sec. 6 (iv) of that Measure.)

Other Collections in church.—The purposes to which these are to be allocated are to be determined by the Parochial Church Council, jointly with the Incumbent, and in case of disagreement the Bishop may give directions. (See Sec. 6 (iv) and Sec. 16 (i) of the Parochial Church Council (Powers) Measure, 1921.) The Parochial Church Council must keep accounts of all moneys so collected. The Treasurer or Treasurers of the Council are the responsible officers of the Council for this purpose. The churchwardens are the proper officers to make the collection, either alone, or with the aid of the sidesmen or other persons selected by them, and, where they are not themselves the Treasurers, they hand over the moneys (other than the Communion alms) to the Treasurers of the Council.

ARCHDEACON.—An Archdeaconry may be coterminous with a Diocese, but is usually smaller. It is presided over by the Archdeacon, who is usually appointed by the Bishop. He must be over thirty years of age, and must have been at least six years in priest's orders.

Subject to the paramount rights of the Bishop of the Diocese, an Archdeacon has the power of visitation within his archdeaconry, and it is normally at his visitation after Easter that churchwardens and sidesmen are admitted to office. In respect of such admissions his functions are purely ministerial, and can be enforced by mandamus. He is the person who of common right has power to " induct " (or to appoint a commissary to " induct ") clergy who are presented to benefices, i.e., place them in possession of the temporalities of the benefice, though others may make inductions by prescription.

The two senior Archdeacons in every diocese who are willing are ex-officio members of Convocation, and all Archdeacons are ex-officio members of their diocesan conference.

An Archdeacon has a court and an "official," who advises the Archdeacon upon any legal matter referred to him, and can admit churchwardens for him. Litigation in the Archdeacon's court is practically extinct, but during his visitation he is technically holding a court.

The 86th Canon directs that every Archdeacon shall survey the churches in his jurisdiction once in every three years. But this does not preclude more frequent visitations.

An Archdeacon conducts the elections of Proctors for Convocation, and is responsible for the examination and presentation of ordination candidates.

The Bishop may delegate to the Archdeacon the exercise of any of the powers or duties assigned to him by the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measures, 1923–1951, other than the issuing of sequestrations, and also all the powers of the Bishop under section 2 of the Benefices (Sequestrations) Measure, 1933.

Under Rule 12 (1) of the Rules scheduled to the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929, the Archdeacon may convene an extraordinary meeting of the Parochial Church Council if requested to do so by not less than one-third of the lay members of the Council, or an extraordinary parochial church meeting if requested to do so by one-tenth of the persons on the electoral roll.

Under various other Measures, e.g. the Benefices (Ecclesiastical Duties) Measure, 1926, the Benefices (Exercise of Rights of Presentation) Measure, 1931, the Benefices (Diocesan Boards of Patronage) Measure, 1932, the Diocesan Reorganisation Committees Measure, 1941, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, ex-officio membership of Diocesan Boards or Committees is given to the Archdeacon.

By the Faculty Jurisdiction Measure, 1938, the Archdeacon is placed with regard to faculties in much the same position as a parishioner. He is also empowered, with the approval of the Advisory Committee, and in some cases also of the Chancellor, to issue certificates, equivalent to faculties, in cases of minor repairs to and decorations of churches.

See also Faculties and Advisory Committee.

BANNS OF MARRIAGE.—See Marriage.

BAPTISM.—A rubric in the office for Holy Baptism enjoins that the baptism of infants is to take place within a fortnight of birth, and from this it appears that the incumbent of a parish must be prepared to baptise his infant parishioners at any reasonable time, but notice must be given to him. In the case of adults at least one week's notice must be given to the Bishop "or whom he shall appoint for the purpose," presumably the Incumbent himself. No fee or reward may be demanded for the celebration of this sacrament or for the registering thereof.

All public and private baptisms must be registered in a book provided for the purpose at the expense of the parish and kept in the custody of the Incumbent in a fire-proof safe, similarly provided. Under the Forgery Act, 1830, s. 21, errors may be corrected within one month of their discovery in the presence of the "parents of the child baptised." Under s. 20 of the Act there are severe penalties on the making of false entries, and as to forging entries, see Forgery Act, 1913, s. 3 (2).

When the birth of a child has been registered without a name, or with a name which has been altered at baptism, the baptismal name may, within 12 months after registration of the birth, be inserted in the register of births and deaths on delivery to the Registrar of a certificate in the prescribed form by the person who baptised the child, which he must give on payment of a fee not exceeding one shilling (Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, s. 8 and Schedule I).

The Report of the Joint Committee of the Convocation of Canterbury on the Administration of the Sacrament of Holy Baptism is published for the Joint Committee by the Church Information Board, Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W. 1, and by S.P.C.K., Northumberland Avenue, W.C. 2. Price 3*d*., by post 5*d*.

BENEFICE.—See Enforcement of Duties of Benefice ; Induction to Benefice ; Institution to Benefice ; Loans to Benefices ; Plurality ; Parochial Registers ; Presentation ; Sequestration : Union and Disunion of Benefices : Vacancy in Benefice.

BISHOP.—The only essential unit of ecclesiastical organisation is the diocese, just as the only essential officer is the Bishop who presides over it. All spiritual authority in the diocese comes from him, and he has a cure of souls over the whole diocese, though he delegates a share in it by institution or licence. At his consecration he takes the oath of canonical obedience to the Archbishop, and he is bound to govern his diocese in accordance with ecclesiastical law.

The Bishop may hold a visitation of his diocese when he pleases, though in practice he does not do so oftener than once in 3 years; the visitations in other years being held by the Archdeacons. During an episcopal visitation the Archdeacons are inhibited from visiting.

BURIAL.—Every parishioner has the right of burial in the burial-place of his own parish, that is, the parish where he resides, or owns rateable property. For the purposes of burial the body of a person who dies in a parish, or whose body is found or cast on shore from tidal or navigable waters within a parish, is a parishioner of that parish. The establishment in rural parishes of large camps and airfields has raised the question of the burial of "parishioners" in churchyards. Any person whose death takes place within the area of a parish is by law entitled to be buried in that parish as a parishioner, irrespective of the length of time he has lived there—e.g., the victim of an air "crash" or motor accident, who may have entered the parish only a few minutes before his death occurred. Every person has an unqualified right to burial in the parish in which he dies, but this right coexists with his right to be buried in the parish in which he lived and his personal representatives are therefore entitled to remove his body to that parish and demand its burial there.

Inhabitants of a New Parish under the New Parishes Measure, 1943, retain their original rights of burial until a burial ground is provided for the new parish.

Burial where no other arrangements can be made is regulated by the National Assistance Act, 1948, S.50.

Parishioners (including persons who for this purpose are regarded as parishioners) are entitled to Christian burial except those who die unbaptised, or excommunicate, or have laid violent hands upon themselves. In practice the last-named class is restricted to those who have died knowingly by their own hands; those who were not responsible for their action are usually allowed the Church service.

Apart from these special cases, the Incumbent is bound to say the Burial Service in its entirety over every parishioner, upon pain of three months' suspension. But he is entitled to convenient warning of the funeral. By the Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880, e.g., a minister in Holy Orders may use at the burial (a) in any case when the Prayer Book service may not be used, and (b) in any other case when requested to do so, such service consisting of prayers taken from the Book of Common Prayer and portions of Holy Scripture as may be prescribed or approved by the Bishop. The Act allows parishioners to be buried in the churchyard without any religious service or with such Christian and orderly religious service as the person responsible for the burial may think fit.

It should be noted that whereas parishioners have the right of burial in the churchyard, they have no right to be buried in any particular spot, nor have they any right to the exclusive property in a grave. The selection of the particular grave is a matter which is within the discretion of the Incumbent, and he cannot give any person exclusive rights in it. This can only be done by Faculty.

It is essential that all burial fees should be sanctioned by proper authority and it is a legal requirement that a complete list of fees should be openly displayed in the church or churches of the parish. The power of fixing new fees or altering existing fees is now vested exclusively in the Church Commissioners. See Fees recoverable by the Clergy.

The responsibility for digging a grave is upon the executors or other persons responsible for the funeral arrangements. The Incumbent's duty is merely to indicate the place at which the grave is to be dug, and its depth; he is not obliged to provide a grave-digger.

CHANCELLOR.—The Chancellor is the Bishop's Official and Vicar-General, appointed by him to exercise his "Ordinary" jurisdiction, whether in the Consistory Court, or in granting marriage licences or otherwise. He is the principal lay officer of the Diocese, and holds his office "for life," so that he cannot be removed either by the Bishop who appointed him or by any succeeding Bishop. When the Archdeacons are inhibited, the Chancellor may at the request of the Bishop hold a visitation for admittance to office of churchwardens.

The Chancellor frequently acts as the adviser of the Bishop when legal or other questions arise in the administration of the Diocese; though these in the first instance are generally referred to and dealt with by the Diocesan Registrar or the Bishop's Legal Secretary. He also, in many cases, similarly advises the Clergy of the Diocese.

See Consistory Court.

CHOIR.—See Organist and Choir.

CHURCH.—The persons having recognised rights or duties in the church are—(1) the Rector (if any), who has the freehold in the whole church. He may have the right to the chief seat in the chancel, and should be consulted as to any alterations in the chancel; if a lay Rector he is generally liable for its repair unless his liability has been compounded under the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measure, 1923, s. 52, as amended by the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations (Amendment) Measure, 1929, or has ceased through the replacement of his tithe rentcharge by redemption stock under the Tithe Act, 1936; (2) the Vicar, who (if no Rector) is generally entitled to the freehold, and in any case to access to, and the use and control of, the whole church for church purposes; (3) the Churchwardens, who have a right of access for the purpose of their duties (see Churchwardens); (4) the Parochial Church Council for the like purpose (see Parochial Church Council), and (5) the Parishioners for church services, and other offices.

Generally speaking, no alterations in or additions to a church, or anything in it, can be lawfully made without a Faculty; and any repairs (beyond ordinary current repairs) and any repairs involving removal outside the precincts of the church, require a Faculty, but now under the Faculty Jurisdiction Measure, 1938, minor repairs to, and decorations of, churches can be effected under the authority of a licence from the Archdeacon (see Faculties, Seating).

CHURCH ASSEMBLY, or more fully, "The National Assembly of the Church of England" is governed by a Constitution (see p. 164) drawn up by the Convocations, and, by the Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act, 1919 (see p. 396), has power firstly, to discuss matters concerning the Church of England and "to make provision" (by legislative Measure) "in respect thereof," and secondly, to "debate and formulate its judgment by resolution upon any matter concerning the Church of England or otherwise of religious or public interest." The Assembly may not issue any statement purporting to define the doctrine of the Church of England.

Legislative Measures passed by the Church Assembly are submitted through the Legislative Committee of the Assembly to a Joint Committee of the two Houses of Parliament (the Ecclesiastical Committee) whose duty it is to make a report to Parliament "stating the nature and effect of the Measure" and giving the Committee's views "as to the expediency thereof especially with relation to the constitutional rights of all His Majesty's subjects." If the Committee reports favourably upon a Measure a resolution is moved in each House recommending that it be presented for the Royal Assent, and when this is given the Measure has in all respects the force and effect of an Act of Parliament. Parliament has thus a right of veto on Measures, but no power to amend or alter them.

The Assembly consists of three Houses, the House of Bishops, the House of Clergy and the House of Laity. The first two consist respectively of the members of the Upper and Lower Houses of the Convocations of Canterbury and York. The House of Laity consists of representatives of the laity elected by proportional representation for five years by the lay members of the diocesan conferences in accordance with the Rules for the Representation of the Laity scheduled to the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929 (see p. 399). Not more than ten additional members may be co-opted —House of Laity (Co-opted Members) Measure, 1937.

The procedure of the Assembly is governed by Standing Orders. In enacting a Measure it follows closely the procedure of Parliament in respect of Bills, the stages of "General Approval," "Revision" and "Final Approval" corresponding to the parliamentary stages of "Second Reading," "Committee and Report," and "Third Reading." By the same procedure the Assembly can make "Regulations" in regard to matters concerning the Church of England when such provision does not require the sanction of Parliament (e.g. the Diocesan Conferences Regulation, 1935). Regulations have not, of course, any statutory authority.

The three Houses generally sit together and vote as one body. They can, however, sit and debate separately, and may vote by Houses. Any proposition voted upon "by Houses" requires a majority in each of them.

Through the Central Board of Finance, whose budget and accounts it considers and sanctions every year, the Assembly is responsible for raising and expending money for central Church purposes. It also exercises control to a greater or less degree over many other central administrative bodies, either through representation, or financially by the voting of money in the annual budget.

The Assembly usually holds three sessions in every year, in February, June and November, each session taking from Monday afternoon to Friday morning. The work of Committees goes on throughout the year.

CHURCH COMMISSIONERS.—See p. 255.

CHURCHWARDENS AND SIDESMEN.—By Canon 89 of 1604, "all churchwardens or questmen in every parish shall be chosen by the joint consent of the minister and parishioners, if it may be; but if they cannot agree upon such a choice, then the minister shall choose one and the parishioners another; and without such a joint and several choice none shall take upon them to be churchwardens." By custom in most ancient parishes the incumbent chose one churchwarden and the parishioners in vestry the other, or others where there were more than two in all.

The choice of churchwardens has now passed from the vestry to a joint meeting consisting of the vestry and the parochial church meeting (Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, s. 13). Having regard to Canon 90, this joint meeting should apparently be held during Easter Week; but an earlier election, though irregular, would not necessarily be invalid. In view, however, of the necessity of admission by the Ordinary, an earlier election is hardly feasible. The sidesmen are in all cases elected by the parochial church meeting and the incumbent (s. 14 of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, and Rule 8 (3) of the Rules scheduled to the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929). As their duties are to assist, particularly in matters of public worship, the churchwardens, by whose instructions they should be guided, it is desirable that they should be elected at about the same date. Sidesmen must be on the electoral roll.

By virtue of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, which may be described as a consolidating Measure, in every district or new parish constituted under that Measure and in every ecclesiastical district constituted before that Measure under the Church Buildings Acts, 1818 to 1884, or the New Parishes Acts, 1843 to 1884, two churchwardens shall be annually appointed and shall be chosen at a joint meeting (convened as provided by s. 13 of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921), of the Parochial Church meeting of the parish or district and persons who would be entitled to vote at the election of a churchwarden if the parish or district were an ancient parish, if possible, by the joint consent of the incumbent and the meeting; otherwise one shall be chosen by the incumbent and the other elected by those present and entitled to vote at the meeting. To qualify for the appointment, a person must be of full age and must either be a member of the Church of England resident in the district or parish or on the electoral roll.

The usual method of choosing a churchwarden is by show of hands. A poll may be demanded, however, even if no show of hands is taken. Detailed directions as to a poll in connection with the annual meeting are contained in Appendix V to the Rules scheduled to the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929, but s. 13 of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure prescribes for the joint meeting the ordinary vestry procedure (including a poll) though limiting every person qualified to vote to one vote only, save a casting vote for the chairman. The cost of a poll demanded by a candidate is borne by him. Under the ordinary vestry procedure, the chairman fixes the duration, time and place, and all other details, of the poll.

But nomination by the incumbent or election by the parishioners is not in itself sufficient. Before entering upon their duties the churchwardens must each year be admitted or readmitted to office. This takes place at the visitation. In the year of an episcopal visitation the admission takes place before the Bishop or Chancellor or his deputy, and in other years before the Archdeacon or his official.

Generally speaking, every householder is liable and every parochial elector is eligible to be made churchwarden.

The Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure provides that, without prejudice to existing qualifications, any person who is eligible as a member of a parochial church council is eligible as a churchwarden. Thus, a person who is a "non-resident" elector and a person who is not a householder may now be elected.

A person who is not a communicant is eligible for election as churchwarden if he is otherwise qualified; but such a churchwarden is not a member of the parochial church council.

Minors, aliens, Jews, and persons who have been convicted of felony, perjury or fraud are absolutely disqualified from serving; and by s. 15 (2) of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure a person is disqualified from being elected or acting as churchwarden or sidesman if a conviction order or finding becomes or has become conclusive against him, which, if he were a clergyman, would render him incapable of holding preferment under s. 1 of the Clergy Discipline Act, 1892.

Subject to the foregoing rule as to disqualification, and certain professional claims which may be made for exemption, every householder is liable to serve as a churchwarden.

Churchwardens vacate their office on and their duties continue up to the admission to office of their successors. Before finally quitting office they must hand over to their successors all the funds and other property and documents belonging to the church which are in their possession, and they may be sued if they do not do so. A churchwarden can resign with the consent of a joint meeting of the vestry and parochial church meeting called for that purpose, and (if chosen by the incumbent) of the incumbent. If he dies in office his colleague may act alone, or another person may be chosen to fill his place. If a churchwarden permanently quits the parish, and has no property there, his place should be filled, as soon as his name ceases to be on the electoral roll. In addition, the office is vacated if the churchwarden is convicted of treason or felony and if sentenced to death or imprisonment for more than twelve months. He may also be removed from office by an ecclesiastical court for misconduct. See leaflet L.C. 40 issued by the Legal Board of the Church Assembly.

Churchwardens have a right of access to the church for the purpose of their duties, but they have no right to possession of the key. The property in the goods of the church is vested in them, though the care, maintenance, preservation and insurance of such goods is in the Parochial Church Council. If such goods are unlawfully taken away, they are the persons entitled to recover them, and this is one of the purposes for which admittance to their office is essential. It is their duty to maintain order in the church and churchyard, and they may remove persons who disturb divine service. Under the Ecclesiastical Courts Jurisdiction Act, 1860, they can arrest persons guilty of bad behaviour in the church or churchyard, and bring them before the magistrate. They seat the congregation, and act in general as officers of the Ordinary. They have various statutory duties under the Charitable Trusts Amendment Act, 1855, s. 44, the Benefices (Transfer of Rights of Patronage) Measure, 1930, and the Benefices (Exercise of Rights of Presentation) Measure, 1931, and they frequently act as sequestrators (as to which see Sequestration).

CHURCHYARD.—The freehold in the churchyard is in the Rector (if any); if there is no Rector, it is generally in the Vicar. The freehold gives certain rights of herbage, etc. The Rector or Vicar can also enter into agreements for using a disused burial-ground as an open space under the Open Spaces Act, 1906 (cap. 25), but such an agreement on his part should be sanctioned by Faculty.

The Parochial Church Council have the care and maintenance of the churchyard, including, in most cases, a closed churchyard. They and the incumbent together have, subject to the jurisdiction of the ordinary, and any rights by faculty, complete control of the churchyard. The Parochial Church Council can recover the costs and expenses certified as such of keeping a closed churchyard in decent order and repair from the rating authority, under the Burial Act, 1855, s. 18; if they do so in any Parish in a Borough or Urban District, or in a Rural Parish having a Parish Council, the functions and liabilities of the Parochial Church Council with respect to the maintenance and repair of the churchyard are transferred to the Council of the Borough or Urban District, or to the Parish Council as the case may be (see s. 269 (2) of the Local Government Act, 1933).

As to trees in a churchyard, see leaflet L.C. 35, issued by the Legal Board of the Church Assembly, and as to closed churchyards, see leaflet L.C. 43; leaflet L.C. 45 is a form of the certificate above referred to.

CLERGY DISCIPLINE.—Criminal proceedings in ecclesiastical matters have been regulated by the Church Discipline Act, 1840, the Public Worship Regulation Act, 1874, and the Clergy Discipline Act, 1892. The Church Discipline Act, 1840, empowers the bishop to issue a Commission of Inquiry in case of an alleged offence by a clergyman in ecclesiastical matters, such as doctrine, ritual, and the due performance of the services of the Church, or alternatively the bishop may by letters of request send the case to the court of appeal of the Province. If the Commission report a prima facie case or letters of request are issued, the matter proceeds to a hearing, and suspension or deprivation may follow. The proceedings must be taken within two years from the offence. Offences against morality no longer come under this Act. Under the Public Worship Regulation Act, 1874, there is a more simple form of procedure where a clergyman is charged with the use of unlawful ornaments or decorations, with interfering unlawfully with the fabric of the church or with using unlawful services, rites or ceremonies. The Clergy Discipline Act, 1892, deals with offences by the clergy against morality in its widest sense as distinguished from offences in respect of doctrine or ritual or breaches of ecclesiastical regulations. Certain convictions in the criminal courts accompanied by imprisonment or any greater punishment, or a bastardy order, or adultery proved in a divorce or matrimonial cause, involve immediate deprivation. Otherwise if a clergyman is convicted in the temporal courts of an ecclesiastical offence, or is alleged to be guilty of immorality, he may be prosecuted by any parishioner or by the bishop or anyone approved by him in the Consistory Court before the chancellor sitting with or without assessors, and if found guilty may be sentenced to suspension or deprivation, and, in case of deprivation, he may be deposed from Holy Orders. Proceedings must be taken within five years from the offence.

The bishop may exercise a veto against the taking of proceedings under all three Acts, and in each case an appeal may be made against the decision or sentence.

By the Incumbents (Discipline) Measure, 1947, proceedings may be instituted against an incumbent in respect of conduct unbecoming the character of a Clerk in Holy Orders or in respect of serious or continuous neglect of duty, whether or not cognisable under the Clergy Discipline Act, 1892. This Measure permits the Bishop to refer complaints to the Ministerial Committee set up in each diocese under the Incumbents (Disability) Measure, 1945, and on receipt of the report of the Ministerial Committee either to deal with the complaint in person or to refer it to a Special Court and consisting of the Judge of the Consistory Court, two Clerks in Holy Orders and two lay representatives.

By the Church Dignitaries (Retirement) Measure, 1949, provisions are made for the retirement of deans, provosts, archdeacons, canons, prebendaries and other church dignitaries if incapacitated by age or physical or mental infirmity or if guilty of unbecoming conduct or neglect of duty.

See also Enforcement of Duties of Benefice.

CONSISTORY COURT.—Every diocesan Bishop has a Court for administering ecclesiastical law within his diocese. In the diocese of Canterbury this court is known as the Commissary Court, and elsewhere as the Consistory Court. The judge of the court is in Canterbury styled the Commissary-General, and in other dioceses the Chancellor (q.v.). The status of the Bishop himself in his Court depends upon the terms of the patent appointing the judge. In some cases the Bishop expressly reserves to himself the power to sit and try certain cases. But except so far as this power is reserved, the commissary-general or chancellor is the sole judge, and indeed may try cases to which the Bishop is himself a party. There is no appeal from him to the Bishop An appeal lies from the Diocesan Court to the Provincial Court, and thence to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, except in cases under the Clergy Discipline Act, 1892, where the appeal is either to the Provincial Court or the Judicial Committee.

Cases under the Church Discipline Act, 1840, may be sent direct to the provincial court by a process known as "Letters of Request." See Chancellor, Clergy Discipline.

CONTROL OF SERVICES.—The incumbent's control of the arrangements for Divine Service is absolute, but he must, of course, comply with the provisions of the Book of Common Prayer. He must hold morning and evening service on Sundays and certain Holy Days, but the times fixed for such services are matters for him. He must celebrate the Holy Communion as directed by the Prayer Book, but the frequency of celebrations is within his discretion. "He may direct when the organ shall and shall not play, and when the children shall or shall not chant."

CONVENTIONAL DISTRICT.—Where a large new population grows up as the result, it may be, of a housing scheme, the question may arise of making special provision for its spiritual oversight without or (more often) as a preliminary to the formation of a new district or parish. A convenient method of doing this is to constitute the area a "Conventional District," by means of an agreement between the bishop and the incumbent or incumbents of the parish or parishes concerned. By such an agreement the area is taken out of the legal incumbent's charge and placed under that of a separate "Curate in Charge," who may be licensed by the bishop and given by his licence a greater or less degree of independence in ministering to the population of the "Conventional District" and building up the work towards its legal separation. Since the status of the district rests upon agreement only, the legal position of the parishioners remains unaffected, and they remain parishioners of the parish of which the area in which they dwell forms part. Their rights and obligations as to marriage, burial, and attendance at their parish church and so forth remain unaltered. The area as a whole is, however, able to organise itself as a distinct parochial unit, and in particular, under the Rules for the Representation of the Laity, may have its own Parochial Church Council. While an agreement for the formation of a Conventional District may strictly bind only the individual parties to it and require to be renewed on any change of incumbent, such renewal is, in the absence of any steps to denounce it, ordinarily assumed. In some cases a greater degree of stability is sought by joining the patron or patrons in the agreement.

CONVOCATION.—The Convocation of each Province consists of two Houses, an Upper and a Lower. The Upper Houses consist of the diocesan Bishops of the Province, and the Archbishop is President of the whole Convocation.

In the Lower House of the Convocation of Canterbury the following persons sit as members:—

(1) The Dean of every cathedral church in the Province and the Deans of the two collegiate churches of St. Peter in Westminster and of St. George, Windsor; if the Dean of any such cathedral or collegiate church be unwilling or unable to act, one proctor elected by the Dean and Chapter; when there is no Dean, one proctor elected by the Chapter from among the members of the Chapter; the Provost of Eton, if in priest's orders in the Church of England.

(2) The two Archdeacons in each Diocese who are senior by date of appointment as Archdeacons in the diocese, or if either of them is unwilling or unable to act, the Archdeacon who is next in seniority of appointment.

(3) The proctors for the clergy, elected in the manner following in such proportion to the number of electors as shall from time to time be determined by Convocation, provided that no Diocese shall have less than three proctors:—

(a) The Electoral Areas are—

(i) The several Dioceses in the Province.

(ii) The Universities in the Province, namely, Oxford, Cambridge, London and the other Universities acting together for this purpose.

(b) The electors are—

(i) Where the Diocese is the area, all clergymen beneficed in the Diocese, or licensed under seal by the Bishop, or holding office either in a cathedral or in the above-mentioned collegiate churches, provided that they be not ex officio members of Convocation, and that no one shall be entitled to vote in more than one Diocese. One proctor is elected for every hundred electors in the Diocese.

(ii) Where a University, or group of Universities, is the area, all clergymen whose names are entered on an electoral roll kept in accordance with rules made from time to time by Convocation.

Provided that no one shall be entitled to vote in more than one such electoral area.

(c) All clergymen in the Church of England who have been admitted to priests' orders are eligible for election.

(d) The mode of voting is determined by Convocation, at present by the method of proportional representation.

In the Province of York similar rules apply, except that the Diocese of Sodor and Man returns only one proctor. The electors are all the clergy beneficed in the Diocese, and all unbeneficed clergy who hold the Bishop's licence to officiate in the Diocese, and are resident therein. One proctor is elected for each seventy electors in the Diocese. No one votes in more than one Diocese, and only priests entitled to vote are eligible as proctors of that Diocese. The method of voting in every Diocese is to be decided by the Bishop of the Diocese subject to the approval of the Archbishop.

The National Assembly of the Church of England, shortly called "the Church Assembly," consists of the Convocations and the House of Laity.

See Church Assembly.

COURTS.—See Archdeacon ; Clergy Discipline ; Consistory Court ; Faculties ; Provincial Court.

CURATE.—See Curate-in-Charge ; Perpetual Curate ; Stipendiary Curate.

CURATE-IN-CHARGE.—There are from time to time circumstances (e.g. the vacancy of a benefice or the inhibition of the Incumbent) in which a clergyman is placed temporarily in charge of a parish to perform the duties of the Incumbent, and placed for all practical purposes in the same relation to the Bishop as an Incumbent, not, however, instituted as to a benefice but licensed as to an assistant curacy or stipendiary curacy. A Curate so appointed is styled "Curate-in-charge." His tenure of office in some measure depends upon the circumstances in which he is appointed, but it is not the tenure of an Incumbent of a benefice. A Curate-in-charge appointed to a benefice which is vacant under the Benefices (Suspension of Presentation) Measure, 1946, is deemed to be incumbent (or minister as the case may be) for the purposes of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, the Rules for the Representation of the Laity, 1929, and for such other purposes as the Bishop may direct. He may be required by the Bishop to reside in the house of residence of the benefice.

DILAPIDATIONS.—The law relating to the dilapidations of benefice buildings is now for the most part contained in the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measure, 1923, as amended by the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations (Amendment) Measure, 1929 and the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measures, 1923 to 1929 (Amendment) Measure, 1951. These Measures have no application to buildings annexed to Archbishoprics, Bishoprics, Deaneries or Canonries.

The chief principle of the Measures is that an incumbent's liability for dilapidations (other than wilful dilapidations) is limited to an annual payment. This annual payment, however, may be varied at the discretion of the Diocesan Dilapidations Board.

The result is that an Incumbent has the assurance that on his vacating the benefice no claim for dilapidations can be made against him or his estate except in respect of (1) any annual sums due from him and in arrear and the proportion of the current annual sum up to the date of vacation, or (2) wilful dilapidations, i.e. dilapidations caused by his deliberate action or gross neglect.

The buildings of a benefice are liable to an official survey under the Measures every five years. But a survey may be postponed under the provisions of the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measures, 1923 to 1929 (Amendment) Measure, 1951, which (inter alia) provides in certain cases for the quinquennial period to be extended up to seven and a half years.

The "buildings" of a benefice liable to survey include all such houses of residence, glebe buildings, walls, fences and other buildings and things as the Incumbent is by law or custom bound to maintain in repair, and the drainage and water supply thereof, but do not include churches or chancels, or buildings vested in trustees for a benefice.

The repairs which can be ordered under the Measures are such repairs as are needed in order to put the buildings in good and substantial repair. Papering and other decorative work are not included in this category.

The Measures contain special provisions as to buildings let on lease, but these provisions apply only to leases for lives or years entered into by the Incumbent in such a form as to be binding on a successor for the term of the lease. No lease of this kind is legally possible in the case of the parsonage house of a benefice, except by sequestrators under special powers conferred for a limited period by the Benefices (Suspension of Presentation) Measure, 1946.

The estimated cost of the immediate repairs and future repairs respectively, and also the estimated sum for which the buildings ought to be insured, are based on the figures given in the surveyor's report as confirmed by order of the Diocesan Dilapidations Board, with or without variation, after consideration of objections made by any person sought to be made responsible for the dilapidations.

Notice of any objections must be given in writing to the Board within one month after service of the report. The Board may require the person objecting to pay a sum not exceeding 5*l*. to meet the cost of inquiry, and the Board, if it finds an objection to be well founded, is to refund the whole or so much of the amount paid as in the circumstances may seem to be reasonable.

The Measures contain provisions under which the Diocesan Dilapidations Board can order superfluous buildings either to be removed or to be allowed to dilapidate.

Future repairs are divided into two categories: (a) repairs which in the opinion of the surveyor, and upon the assumption that the immediate repairs will be duly carried out, will be required to be carried out during the next five years (quinquennial repairs), and (b) any additional future repairs for the execution of which during a period exceeding five years from the date of his report it is, in the opinion of the surveyor, desirable to provide a fund (deferred repairs).

A copy of the Board's order is sent to the Church Commissioners, who then proceed to issue a formal Assessment or Assessments, based on the estimated amounts for future repairs and fire insurance stated in the surveyor's report as confirmed by the Dilapidations Board.

An assessment to provide for the quinquennial repairs is called an "Ordinary Assessment," and an assessment to provide for the deferred repairs is called a "Long Assessment."

The annual sum payable under an Ordinary Assessment is made up of three components—

(a) The "Repair Rate" to meet the estimated cost of the quinquennial repairs;

(b) The "Insurance Rate" to provide the premium to insure the benefice buildings against fire loss for the capital sum stated in the surveyor's report as confirmed;

(c) The "Administration Rate" (not to exceed 10 per cent. of the Repair Rate) towards the expenses of the Diocesan Dilapidations Board, including the salaries or fees of the Surveyors.

An additional Administration Rate (not to exceed 1 per cent. of the Repair Rate) can be charged towards the administrative expenses of the Church Commissioners, but the Commissioners have decided to waive the charge until further notice.

The first annual payment for future repairs becomes due to the Commissioners on the date named in the Assessment and subsequent payments fall due at equal intervals of twelve months, beginning from the date fixed for the first payment. The payments are a charge on the revenues of the benefice and can be recovered by sequestration or distraint.

The Repair Rate as received by the Church Commissioners is credited in their books to the Repair Account of the benefice, and can be disbursed by them for repairs ordered by the Dilapidations Board on the certificate of the diocesan surveyor, countersigned by the Incumbent, or (in certain cases) of a certificate of the Dilapidations Board.

As from the due date of the first annual payment under the first Ordinary Assessment in respect of each benefice, the Church Commissioners insure the benefice buildings in their own name for the capital sum stated in the surveyor's report as confirmed. This sum is normally the sum estimated by him as adequate to reinstate the buildings of the benefice in the event of destruction by fire, but, if any building is considered by the Dilapidations Board unsuitable to the needs of the benefice, the insurance can be reduced by them to the sum estimated as necessary to provide an adequate building.

If a benefice building is destroyed by fire, the Incumbent should report the fact without delay to the Dilapidations Board, and obtain their instructions as to procedure.

If a benefice becomes vacant, the annual sum payable under an Ordinary or Long Assessment is apportionable between the outgoing incumbent or his representatives, and the incoming incumbent, on the footing that the annual sum accrues from day to day.

A " Long Assessment " is similar in form to an Ordinary Assessment, except that (i) the annual payments are spread over such a period longer than five years as the Dilapidations Board may think reasonable, and (ii) no insurance rate is included.

The main object of a Long Assessment is to provide in good time for the cost of some expensive work of reconstruction or renewal (e.g. the provision of a new roof) which can be foreseen at the time of survey, although not likely to be necessary during the next five years, and thus prevent this heavy charge having to be raised wholly in one quinquennial period.

The Repair Rate included in a Long Assessment when received by the Church Commissioners is carried to the Deferred Repair Account of the benefice, and can be disbursed on certificate in the same manner as money standing to the credit of the Repair Account.

The Church Commissioners have power to retain the annual dilapidations payment, in quarterly instalments as it accrues, from the quarterly payments of income payable by them to an incumbent. In most cases this is the practice.

The Measures contain provisions for the variation of Ordinary or Long Assessments as may be necessary for special reasons, such as sale or purchase of buildings.

It is the duty of the Incumbent or (if the benefice is under sequestration) of the sequestrator to execute the repairs ordered by the Diocesan Dilapidations Board under the Measures, but neither is under an obligation to execute any repairs (except repairs needed to be done without delay in order to prevent further dilapidations and ordered as such by the Dilapidations Board), the cost of which exceeds the sums actually standing to the credit of the Repair Account, or in the case of deferred repairs to the credit of the Deferred Repair Account of the benefice, plus (in the case of an Incumbent) any sums due from him to the Church Commissioners to the credit of those accounts respectively.

If an Incumbent, after entering into a contract to execute the repairs, vacates the benefice before they are completed, he or his representatives, subject to certain limitations, are entitled to complete the repairs.

The Church Commissioners have power under the Measures to make good a deficit either in the Repair Account or in the Deferred Repair Account of a benefice by advancing such sum as may be required and charging the revenues of the benefice with the repayment of the advance by annual payments over a term of years with interest. The usual term of a loan for repairs is five years. The Commissioners, however, do not as a rule create such a charge except with the concurrence of the Incumbent (or the sequestrator), and the length of the term is decided by the Commissioners with the consent of the Diocesan Dilapidations Board. The instrument creating the charge is termed a " Charging Assessment."

If, after the requirements of the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measures in respect of the repairs of the buildings have been satisfied, there remains a surplus to the credit of the Ordinary Repair Account or Deferred Repair Account of a benefice, it can be paid to the Incumbent (or to the late Incumbent or to the Parochial Church Council or to any Diocesan Body) proportionately to the amount contributed by them, unless it is applied in payment or reduction of an outstanding loan under the Measures.

In the event of interim repairs becoming necessary during a quinquennial period, it is open to the incumbent to apply to the Dilapidations Board to allow the cost to be paid by the Church Commissioners out of the Repair Account or Deferred Repair Account of the benefice as the case may be. The application to the Board should be made before the repairs are executed. It is not, however, contemplated that every trifling repair (e.g. a broken window) should result in a special payment.

If the amount to the credit of the benefice is insufficient to meet the cost of the interim repairs, or if the amount required is so large as unduly to deplete the sum available for repairs at the end of the quinquennial period, the Church Commissioners can, if they think fit, advance the amount for a term of years on a Charging Assessment.

The Measures empower the Commissioners, with the consent of the Dilapidations Board, to deal in certain ways with repair money appertaining to benefice buildings which have been sold or removed unrepaired. Such repair money is not automatically returned to the contributors.

An Incumbent who, as Rector or otherwise, was solely liable under the old law for the repair of the chancel of his parish church is now relieved from this liability, but an Incumbent who, as Incumbent, owns impropriate property in another parish may still remain liable for the repairs of the chancel of the church of that parish. It is possible under the Measures to compound this liability by a capital payment.

It should be noted that, under section 48 of the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measure, 1923, it is now unlawful for an incumbent to make any additions to or alterations of the buildings belonging to a benefice without the sanction of the Dilapidations Board and the consent in writing of the patron, and that if he makes unauthorised additions or alterations he can be compelled to bear the cost of reinstatement. The expression "additions" includes not only additional buildings in the ordinary sense, but also additions to the permanent fittings of a house, e.g. new electric light or hot-water installations.

Any application for a grant from moneys made available by the Commissioners towards dilapidations, improvements or decorations or for a loan in respect of dilapidations and improvements must be made by the incumbent to the Dilapidations Board and not to the Commissioners.

DILAPIDATIONS BOARD.—See Diocesan Conference, etc.

DIOCESAN CONFERENCE.—The Diocesan Conference now has statutory functions and consists of three houses, the Bishop, the Chamber of Clergy and the Chamber of Laity. Its constitution must comply with the Diocesan Conferences Regulation, 1935, but apart from this it may vary in different dioceses. The Diocesan Board of Finance, which in some cases is incorporated under the Companies Acts, is the finance department of the Diocesan Conference and acts under its directions. The body which acts in a diocese as the Diocesan Trust is either the Board of Finance or some other body recognised for the purpose by the Diocesan Conference. The Diocesan Dilapidations Board is constituted by a scheme framed by the Diocesan Conference. Some important functions of the Diocesan Conference are the election by the Chambers of Clergy and Laity of the members of the Diocesan Board of Patronage and of the Advisory Body for the purposes of the Benefices (Exercise of Rights of Presentation) Measure, 1931: also the appointment of a Committee to survey conditions in the diocese in relation to the Union of Benefices, and of a panel of persons eligible to serve on commissions of enquiry under the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 and 1936.

DISTRICTS AND NEW PARISHES—FORMATION OF.—(See also Conventional Districts).—The creation of new parishes and districts is now governed by the New Parishes Measure, 1943, which consolidated with minor amendments the numerous Church Buildings Acts and New Parishes Acts of the 19th century. The Measure brings into one simple code the long and involved provisions of the earlier Acts of which no fewer than twenty-three are repealed in whole or in part. The Measure sweeps away the many different types of new ecclesiastical areas, each with their different titles and status, so that in future any new area will, sooner or later, correspond in every way to an ancient parish except that unless and until it has a parish church it will be a "district" only.

Both "Districts" and "Parishes" are formally created by Order in Council confirming a Scheme prepared by the Church Commissioners. The Scheme accompanied by a map, defines the area of the new district or parish which may be taken from either one or more than one existing parish or parishes, whose incumbent, patron and parochial church council have rights of objection but no veto upon the proposals. Before promoting the Scheme the Commissioners have to be satisfied upon three points, that the spiritual interest of the area will be best served by the creation of a new parish, that a suitable church exists or is intended to be provided and that a suitable endowment has been or will be provided.

Whether the area becomes a parish depends upon the existence of a consecrated church. If there is no such church, it becomes a "District" and its incumbent the "Minister," having the status of a perpetual curate, with such cure of souls as his licence from the bishop may define and a right of succession when the district becomes a parish. When a church in the district has been both consecrated and approved by the Commissioners as suitable to be a parish church the district becomes a parish, and the church and incumbent acquire the rights and status similar to those enjoyed by an ancient parish.

The patronage of districts and parishes formed under the New Parishes Measure, 1943, belongs to the bishop of the diocese unless

(a) it has been or is otherwise assigned or

(b) an existing church becomes the parish church the right of presentation to which already belongs to someone other than the bishop.

The Measure provides also for the dissolution of a district by Scheme and Order in Council if after a reasonable time a parish church has not been provided and is unlikely to be provided within a reasonable time.

EASTER OFFERINGS.—The ancient "ecclesiastical duties" accustomably due to the Incumbent of a parish at Easter rarely survive to this day, but, founded on these, there has grown up a very general practice of the parishioners making to their Incumbent at Easter a special voluntary offering known as the "Easter Offering," given to the Incumbent for his own use. It has become an important method of adding to the often inadequate provision for Incumbents arising from the endowments of their Benefices. They are voluntary offerings made or collected in a variety of ways, most generally by collections in church on Easter Day, but sometimes by collections supplemented by individual gifts from parishioners or other well-wishers, or wholly by way of private gifts or gifts specially collected out of church. The ways in which the offering is raised or the grounds upon which it is given may affect its liability to income tax, but in accordance with decisions in the Courts the Inland Revenue Commissioners are usually in a position to claim payment of income tax in respect thereof.

See Whitsun Offerings.

ECCLESIASTICAL COMMISSIONERS.—See Church Commissioners, pp. 255–258.

ELECTORAL ROLL.—The basis of lay representation in the Parochial Church Council, Ruridecanal Conference, Diocesan Conference and House of Laity of the Church Assembly is the Church Electoral Roll which is directed to be kept in every parish. It is of the utmost consequence, therefore, that this Roll should be kept in accordance with the statutory directions. These are set out in detail in the Rules for the Representation of the Laity scheduled to the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929: see pp. 399-418. The Rules prescribe the qualifications of electors, both resident and non-resident, the mode of preparing and revising the Roll, and the rights of appeal of any person who may have had his application for enrolment refused or his name taken off the Roll. On these and all other points relating to the Roll, reference should be made to the Rules.

EMERGENCY LEGISLATION.—The Church, like the State, found it necessary to pass special legislation to deal with special emergencies caused by the war and its aftermath. Some have already expired but the following may be noted :—

The Clergy (National Emergency Precautions) Measure, 1939, and the Regulations under it enabled bishops to give special leave of absence to clergymen (e.g. to serve as chaplains to the Forces), to direct clergymen to serve outside their benefices or preferments, to close or authorise the disuse of churches and the suspension of services and to authorise the publication of banns and the solemnisation of marriages elsewhere when new arrangements became necessary. The Measure also enabled the Church Commissioners to vary their customary payments as, for instance, by reducing them in the case of chaplains and others receiving other remuneration, and to compensate those who suffered loss as the result of the Measure. These powers expired on May 1st, 1946, except that leave of absence and variations of income in force on that day may be extended, and directions for the closure of churches continue until revoked.

The Reorganisation Areas Measure, 1944.—See Reorganisation.

The Emergency Legislation Measure, 1944, amends the above Measures in certain respects (the effect of such amendments is included above). It also authorises the Church Commissioners to act on behalf of clergymen in dealing with claims for war damage to glebe and enables Measures passed during the war to be adopted in the Channel Islands.

ENFORCEMENT OF DUTIES OF BENEFICE.—The Incumbents (Disability) Measure, 1945, enables a bishop on his own initiative to instruct the Ministerial Committee set up in each diocese under the Measure, to consider and report to him whether in their opinion an incumbent, through disability arising from age or infirmity (whether bodily or mental) is unable to discharge adequately the duties attaching to his benefice, and if so whether it is desired

(1) that he should be given assistance in discharging such duties; or
(2) that he should resign his benefice;

and in the latter case whether any and if so what, annual sum should be secured to him by way of pension in addition to the pension payable by the pensions authority.

EXCHANGE OF BENEFICES.—An exchange of benefices (properly so called) cannot be carried out, until a licence to treat for an exchange has been obtained by each of the incumbents concerned from his Ordinary. The exchange is effected by an instrument in writing by which the parties agree to the exchange and for that purpose resign their respective benefices into the hands of the Ordinary, the resignation being expressed to be conditional on the exchange taking effect, and being accepted as such by the Ordinary.

When a benefice is so resigned, a vacancy occurs in it on the date when it is accepted, but if—as should always be the case—it has been expressed to be conditional, the vacancy which occurs is also conditional in this sense that, if for any reason the exchange is not carried out, the whole of the proceedings in respect of it becomes void, and each incumbent, if alive, will thereupon be back in his old benefice. It is important to observe that the Benefices (Exercise of Rights of Presentation) Measure, 1931, applies to vacancies occurring in connection with a proposed exchange. See Patronage.

The Ordinary will give directions whether sequestration is or is not to issue on an exchange.

The law of simony applies to an exchange, and no consideration must pass.

FACULTIES.—The consecrated buildings and lands situated within a diocese and all the contents of such buildings are in the ultimate guardianship of the Bishop, who exercises his authority through his Chancellor. Applications for Faculties to authorise additions to or alterations in churches or churchyards are made by way of petition to the Chancellor, and instructions on the subject are to be found in the Diocesan Year Books and other publications. They are usually made in the name of the Incumbent and churchwardens, but any parishioner may make them. Any such work done without a Faculty is unlawful, and it is open to any parishioner to apply for a Faculty authorising the removal of the work. Though unauthorised it cannot, however, be removed without a Faculty. It is frequently supposed in respect of churches and their contents that any matters which can properly be described as "replacements" or "substitutions" or "repairs" are matters which the Incumbent and Churchwardens can lawfully carry out (provided that the Parochial Church Council do not object) without obtaining a Faculty. But this view is not well founded. The following words of the late Sir Alfred Kempe are a useful summary of the true position :—

> "So far as jurisdiction is concerned, the Ordinary has the fullest authority to direct and control any dealings with the fabric, decoration, fittings, furniture, and ornaments of a church, and can properly insist that even in matters of mere repair no church shall be injured or deformed by the caprice of individuals."

Such "direction" and "control" is exercised by the Ordinary, i.e. the Bishop acting by his Chancellor, by means of a Faculty or (in cases of trifling moment) an informal licence. It should be observed that the term "ornament" in Ecclesiastical Law is not confined, as by modern usage, to articles of decoration or embellishment, but is used in the larger sense of the word "ornamentum," which is used "pro quocumque apparatu seu instrumento."

As the whole of the contents of a church, no less than the church itself, is by law placed under the care of the Ordinary, it is illegal without a Faculty or licence to remove anything from the church even for a temporary purpose. There have been many cases in which plate, bells, pictures, glass and other objects have been lost or injured through having been thus unlawfully sent away for repair, valuation, exhibition, or other purposes. Thus "replacements" and "substitutions" may normally involve a dual illegality, namely, the removal of one object and the introduction of another. The "replacement of lighting" and "renewal of bells" are typical instances of matters for which a Faculty is not only theoretically necessary, but also in practice most desirable, for they are matters in respect of which much serious damage has been done by ill-considered proposals and inferior work.

Again, under the pretext of "mere repairs," too trifling to require the attention of the Ordinary, such matters have been unlawfully perpetrated as (i) pointing ancient stone or brickwork with an unsuitable mixture or a disfiguring finish, such as "strap" or "line" marking, (ii) putting paint or varnish on ancient woodwork, (iii) removing canons from bells or attempting to tune them in a manner unsuited to ancient bells and (iv) "patching" plate. No doubt mere "mending," where the proper method of doing it is obvious and involves neither alteration or addition, nor removal from the church, is within the discretion of the temporary custodians of the church and its contents, upon the principle of de minimis non curat lex. Common sense is the only guide to the solution of the problem of whether any particular proposal is or is not a minimum, but it may safely be said that, however innocuous a proposal may appear, it is, nevertheless, always potentially one upon which the Ordinary ought to be consulted. It is, for example, sometimes argued ad absurdum that no faculty would be required for a set of new kneeling hassocks, but even in such an extreme case it is conceivable that harm might be done by the selection of unsuitable colours, shapes or sizes. There are various matters of repair or preservative treatment where methods or materials customary in former days have been superseded, and where an uninstructed craftsman may with the best intentions carry out some apparently simple repairs in a way which is now recognised as injurious.

By the Faculty Jurisdiction Measure, 1938, the Archdeacon and non-resident persons on the Electoral Roll are to be deemed to have an interest in Faculty proceedings. Section 3 provides that in cases of proved breaches of the law the Chancellor may order the responsible parties to pay the resultant costs and expenses.

By the same Measure, the Archdeacon is empowered with the approval of the Advisory Committee to issue certificates, which are equivalent to Faculties, in the case of repairs to a Church not involving any substantial alteration in its structure, or of redecorations.

See also Advisory Committee and Archdeacon.

The Clergy should be encouraged to inquire at the Diocesan Registry whenever there is the least doubt whether a Faculty or Certificate is needed. Such inquires are frequently made, and when the Chancellor rules, as he often does, that no Faculty is required and no fee payable, he is enabled first to assure himself that the proposal (whatever it is) has been carefully considered, and is likely to be competently and sensibly carried out. The Consistory Courts repose confidence in the Incumbent and Churchwardens, who will not be liable to censure if in good faith they undertake matters of small moment without a Faculty or Certificate. It is, however, most important that they should know that "replacements," "substitutions" and "repairs" are all of them descriptive of matters which are essentially under the control of the Ordinary, who has full power to order what they have done to be undone, if on investigation it proves to be improper, and to censure them if they have acted in wilful impatience of his control or disregard of his authority.

A Faculty is also necessary for the removal of a body buried in consecrated ground, for the reservation to a particular person of the exclusive right of burial in a grave, and strictly for the erection of a monument in a churchyard, though in practice the requirement of a Faculty is confined to cases where the monument is of unusual size or character. Faculties may be granted for the widening of a highway at the expense of a portion of the churchyard, or for the erection of certain buildings in a churchyard.

FEES RECOVERABLE BY THE CLERGY.—These are among the sources of clerical income though not ordinarily considerable in amount. They are payable to Incumbents for certain services (e.g. in relation to marriages, burials, etc.) or for privileges granted (e.g. in relation to the erection of monuments in a churchyard, etc.). Some fees are fixed by statute, as for example, fees for inspection of Tithe Maps and Awards, for searching registers of marriages and issuing certificates of entries therein. Other fees, e.g. for publishing banns of marriage and solemnising the marriage, for burial and matters in relation thereto, are either based upon custom or have been fixed as part of a Table of Parochial Fees for the particular parish by the Church Commissioners or other lawful authority. No fee may be charged for baptism. Under the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, the sole power of establishing new Tables of Fees in parishes or altering existing Tables is vested in the Church Commissioners.

Fees for burials elsewhere than in a churchyard or additional burial-ground attached to a church (i.e. in cemeteries or burial-grounds under a civil burial authority) are fixed by the civil authorities.

Where an existing Table of Parochial Fees is felt not to be satisfactory, whether it be a Table of customary fees or a Table fixed by the Church Commissioners, application should be made to the Church Commissioners for a new Table. They will furnish all necessary instructions. The Commissioners have power, under certain conditions, to fix Tables compulsorily.

It is essential to fair dealing with the persons concerned that the fees charged should have been properly authorised. Incumbents and Churchwardens should make it their immediate duty to ascertain that fees are not being paid or received under some mistaken assumption. It is the Incumbent's duty to provide for a copy of the Table of Fees in force in the parish to be publicly exhibited at all times in the church or churches of the parish.

FEES PAYABLE BY THE CLERGY.—These are payable to Bishops' Secretaries, Diocesan Registrars and others in respect of institution and induction, licence to a perpetual curacy, resignation of a benefice and other matters, and are for the most part fixed by an Order of the Privy Council published in the London Gazette on June 2nd, 1908, in pursuance of the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, and other Statutes. The Ecclesiastical Officers Remuneration Measure, 1939, provides for the establishment of further tables of fees, but this has not yet been done.

GLEBE.—Where the endowments of a benefice include land of any kind, or houses, or other buildings, whether anciently belonging to the benefice or acquired by gift or otherwise in modern times, such lands, etc. (other than the parsonage house and grounds occupied therewith) are commonly called the glebe of the benefice. As a rule this glebe is vested in the incumbent for the time being, and he is entitled to the rents and profits and liable for the outgoings in respect thereof. He is, however, unable, without the sanction of other persons or bodies, to make a lease of any such glebe to extend beyond his own Incumbency, or to sell the land, or to authorise the working thereout of any minerals. If there were no means of doing these things the Incumbent would be practically unable to develop the glebe property or to realise in the form of rent or otherwise its full value. Accordingly, authority has been given by various Acts of Parliament, and glebe and the minerals thereunder can now be leased or be sold by the Incumbent with the consent of the Church Commissioners and the Patron under the Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts. Alternatively glebe can be sold by the Incumbent (a) where the land was acquired with money appropriated to the purpose by Queen Anne's Bounty with the consent of Bishop, Patron and the Commissioners, and also, if the glebe is within the parish or an adjoining parish, of the Archbishop; (b) with the approval of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries and after notice to the Bishop and the Patron in any case where the Incumbent is in receipt of the rack rent and the land is not in lease for a term originally exceeding 21 years (the minerals if of value must be reserved).

Incumbents, like other owners, are subject in respect of their glebe to any compulsory powers of acquisition given to any public Authority or Statutory Undertaking by Act of Parliament.

Where there is any question of a lease or sale of glebe, Incumbents should consult a solicitor; the Commissioners will furnish any information necessary as to procedure. These observations do not relate to the parsonage house or house of residence of a benefice and the lands (up to a maximum of twelve acres) occupied therewith: for these see Parsonage House.

INSTITUTION AND INDUCTION.—By the process of institution the Bishop places a clergyman in possession of the spiritualities of the benefice, i.e. places in his hands the cure of souls in the parish. Before this takes place, notice of the intention to institute is sent to the churchwardens and by them affixed to the church door, where it must remain for one calendar month. The clergyman must also make his declaration of assent to the Thirty-nine Articles and the Book of Common Prayer, and the declaration against simony, and must take the oaths of allegiance to the Queen and of canonical obedience to the Bishop.

Induction is performed by the Archdeacon (after institution) acting on a mandate from the Bishop, or by the Rural Dean or some other clergyman acting on a precept from the Archdeacon. By it the incumbent is placed in possession of the temporalities of the benefice, and becomes entitled to receive the accounts of the sequestrators who have been receiving the rents and profits during the vacancy.

LOANS TO BENEFICES.—The Statutes and Measures under which loans can be granted by the Church Commissioners are—

(1) The Acts commonly known as "Gilbert's Acts."

Under these Acts and by virtue of subsequent Acts and Measures of the Church Assembly the Church Commissioners can lend for (a) purchasing a parsonage house or site or land for occupation with the parsonage house, (b) building or improving parsonage houses, (c) building, improving or purchasing farm-houses, farm buildings or labourers' dwelling-houses belonging to or desirable to be acquired for any glebe farm or lands, (d) purchasing removable fixtures in parsonage houses, (e) dividing a parsonage house into two or more parts, (f) the erection, improvement, enlargement and purchase of any house, cottage or other buildings or land belonging to or suitable for acquisition for the benefice, (g) the construction and improvement of the drainage of any such house, cottage, building or land and the provision and improvement of the supply of water, gas and electricity thereto, and (h) the making up of roads and footpaths adjoining any property belonging to the benefice and the improvement of the drive, paths and garden of the residence house of the benefice.

The consents of the Bishop and of the patron are necessary, and it is essential that no work, for which a loan under these Acts is required, should be executed without the previous authority of the Church Commissioners.

As under section 48 of the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measure, 1923, an incumbent cannot make any addition to or alteration of the buildings of his benefice without the sanction of the Diocesan Dilapidations Board and the written consent of his patron, the consent of the Diocesan Dilapidations Board, as well as the consent of the Bishop and of the patron, is required to any loan involving such an addition or alteration.

(2) The Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measures, 1923 to 1951.

Under these Measures the Church Commissioners can lend, with the concurrence of the Diocesan Dilapidations Board, to meet the cost of repairs ordered by the Diocesan Dilapidations Board. See Dilapidations.

The Commissioners cannot lend under the before-mentioned Acts or Measures in respect of houses of residence vested in trustees.

Loans by the Commissioners are made for a term of years, and are repayable by annual instalments of principal with interest on the balance for the time being outstanding.

MAINTENANCE OF ORDER IN CHURCH.—See Churchwardens.

MARRIAGE.—The law on this subject has now been consolidated by the Marriage Act, 1949. The references to Sections in this title are to the Sections of that Act.

Persons within the prohibited degrees may not marry: these are now set out in the First Schedule to the Act.

No person under the age of 16 can be married.

In the case of persons under 21 certain consents are required. They are set out in Section 3 and the Second Schedule. In the case of a person who has been divorced and whose husband or wife is still living, any Clergyman may refuse to officiate, or to allow the use of his church for such marriage (Matrimonial Causes Act, 1950, Section 13 (2)).

Speaking generally, a person above the age of sixteen has the right to be married in his parish church, or in the church which is his usual place of worship: that is the church on the electoral roll of which his name is entered (Section 72 (1)). He may also, if residing within the district, be married in a public chapel licensed by the Bishop for the marriage of persons residing within a certain district.

The marriage may be after publication of banns or by licence. Banns and licences alike hold good for three months only (Sections 12 (2) and 16 (3)). Marriages after banns or by general licence must be celebrated between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. (Section 4).

After the marriage the officiating clergyman must register the marriage in duplicate Register Books provided by the Registrar-General (Section 53). Where the marriage is in the usual place of worship as distinguished from the parish church, it may be well to add a note as to the parties or one of them being on the church electoral roll. Copies of the Registers are to be certified and sent to the Registrar quarterly (Section 57), and when the books are full, one must be sent to him and the other kept by the Incumbent with the registers of baptisms and burials (Section 60).

Under Section 8 notice of the intended marriage after banns must be given to the Incumbent of the parish in which each party resides, and, if the marriage is to be solemnised outside the parish, in the usual place of worship of either of them, also to the Incumbent of the parish on the electoral roll of which his name is entered. An Incumbent may claim seven days' notice in writing by the parties, who have to give their Christian names and surnames, their respective abodes, and the time during which they have dwelt there. The particulars must be entered in a book provided for this purpose by the parochial church council, and the banns must be published from this book on three Sundays (Section 7). It is not essential that these be three successive Sundays.

The time for this publication is during morning service or (if none) during evening service. The rubrical form of publication should be followed, but in cases of a marriage in a church which is only the usual place of worship, it is permissible to substitute for the words "of this parish," the words "on the electoral roll of this parish." Certificates of publication must be sent before the marriage by the other Incumbent or Incumbents to the Incumbent of the church where the marriage is to be. Under Section 9, where a clergyman does not officiate at the service at which it is usual in that church to publish banns, the publication may be made (a) by a clergyman at some other service at which banns may lawfully be published or, (b) by a layman subject to the following conditions: (i) The publication must be made during a public reading authorised by the Bishop of portions of Morning or Evening Prayer, such public reading being at the hour when the service at which banns are usually published is commonly held, unless the Bishop shall authorise otherwise; and (ii) the Incumbent or Minister in charge or some other Clerk in Holy Orders nominated by the Bishop must before the first publication have made or authorised to be made the requisite entry in the register of banns. A layman publishing banns must sign the register of banns, and for that purpose is deemed to be the officiating Minister; and a certificate of due publication signed by the Incumbent or Minister in charge, or by some other clergyman nominated by the Bishop, is equivalent to a like certificate given by a clergyman who has published banns. A certificate by a Superintendent Registrar under Sections 17 and 26, takes the place of publication of banns.

Marriage may also take place upon a licence obtained from the Ordinary: in practice this licence is obtained by application to the Diocesan Registrar or a Surrogate. Such a licence is, in fact, a dispensation from the necessity of publishing banns. The procedure is laid down by Sections 15 and 16. In some cases a special licence can be obtained from the Archbishop of Canterbury enabling a marriage to be solemnised at any convenient time and place.

In cases where the Registrar's certificate supersedes publication of banns or the marriage is by licence, regard must be had to the consents required by Section 3, and to the various dispensing powers thereby given which enable the Court to override refusals to consent. It is obvious that difficulties may easily arise in ascertaining whether the proper consents have been given, and in any such case the minister should act with caution, and consult the diocesan registry if he is in doubt.

ORGANIST AND CHOIR.—The direction and control of the Organist and Choir in so far as they play a part in Church services is with the Incumbent alone. He is therefore the proper person to engage and dismiss them. It is the duty of the Parochial Church Council to supply the necessary moneys; and if they do so they should, of course, be consulted. The Organist has no legal status as such, and the terms of his engagement depend upon the contract entered into, which should always be in writing. In the absence of any specific contract, the ordinary rules of law relating to employees will apply as to his dismissal and otherwise. Before engaging him, an Incumbent should obtain a resolution by his Parochial Church Council providing for payment of the agreed salary, and generally for indemnity, including insurance. The same course should be taken in respect of a paid Choir. (See leaflet "Organists in Parish Churches.")

Omission to have a contract is a constant source of trouble in case of doubts arising, disputes, holidays and illness.

PARISH CLERK AND SEXTON.—Prior to 1921 the office of parish clerk, as also that of sexton, was in ancient parishes a freehold for life, and the appointment rested normally with the Incumbent. In churches and chapels provided under the Church Building Acts the clerk was appointed year by year by the Minister, and in new parishes he was appointed by the Incumbent for an indefinite period, and could not be removed from office except with the consent of the Bishop.

By the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, the power to appoint and dismiss the parish clerk and sexton, and to determine their salaries and the conditions of their tenure of office or employment, is vested jointly in the Incumbent and Parochial Church Council. These offices have therefore become merely the subject of a contract of service between the parish clerk or sexton on the one hand, and the Council and the Incumbent on the other, and the ordinary law as to contracts of service applies.

The Measure does not affect the rights of any person holding the office of parish clerk or sexton at the date of the commencement of that Measure.

The office of parish clerk may be held by a layman or by a person in Holy Orders. If a layman, the clerk must be at least twenty years of age. Apart from any salary payable under his contract (if any), he is remunerated by the accustomed fees on marriages and burials, and he can sue for his fees either the Incumbent or the churchwardens to whom they have been paid.

The office of sexton may be held by a woman.

In some cases the sexton is paid by fees and in others by salary.

PAROCHIAL CHURCH COUNCILS.—The Constitution of a Church Council is governed by Rules 10 and 11 of the Rules for the Representation of the Laity (pp. 405–406, which should be consulted. The Council consists of (i) the minister of the parish, (ii) certain ex officio members, (iii) such number of lay representatives as the Annual Parochial Church Meeting may decide, and (iv) if the Council so decides, a limited number of co-opted members.

Where the population of the parish does not exceed three hundred, the lay members of the Council, if the Diocesan Conference so determines, consists of all persons qualified to be elected lay representatives, together with the churchwardens if the latter are communicants.

The minister of the parish is the Chairman, and a lay member of the Council must be elected Vice-Chairman.

The method of electing lay representatives to a Church Council is also governed by the Rules for the Representation of the Laity; see especially Rules 8 (2), 13 and 18 (pp. 404–409).

The powers and duties of a Parochial Church Council are defined by the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921 (pp. 418–426), which should be consulted.

Under Section 2 of this Measure, it is the primary duty of the Council to co-operate with the incumbent in the initiation, conduct and development of Church work both within the parish and outside.

By Section 4, certain powers are transferred to the Council (a) from the Vestry of the parish, and (b) from the churchwardens. The latter include all the powers, duties and liabilities formerly attaching to churchwardens in relation to the financial affairs of the church; the care, maintenance, preservation and insurance of the fabric and ornaments of the church; and the care and maintenance of the churchyard.

By Section 5, the Council is given power to acquire any property real or personal for any ecclesiastical purpose affecting the parish, subject to the conditions mentioned in that section.

By Section 6, various new powers are given to the Council, mainly with regard to finance and the appointment of church officers. Some of these powers are exercisable by the Council jointly with the incumbent; and where this is so, the incumbent as an individual must concur with the Council in the exercise of the power.

By Section 7, the Council is given the right of representation on the governing bodies of any parochial charities which are ecclesiastical charities.

Under Section 8, the Council must keep accounts of the money administered by them, and submit these accounts to the Annual Parochial Church Meeting, together with a Report upon the fabric, goods and ornaments of the Church.

By s. 10, the chairman and the churchwardens, if members of the Council, are constituted the Standing Committee of the Council, with additional members if the Council think proper to appoint them. Though a Parochial Church Council cannot delegate its powers, or abdicate its functions in favour of any Committee, the Standing Committee can between the meetings of the Council "transact the business" of the Council, subject to any directions which the Council may have given to it. Apart from any limitation which may have been set by such "directions," practically every power which the Council itself possesses can, in appropriate circumstances, be exercised by the Standing Committee in the course of its interim transaction of the Council's business. A Committee is, however, by its nature a subordinate body and answerable to the higher authority for which it acts. The real purpose of the Standing Committee of a Parochial Church Council is to carry on the routine work of the Council between the meetings, and while it has powers which may be conveniently extensive for the purpose of enabling it to deal with matters of real urgency, it would be an abuse of such powers if they were so exercised as to usurp the functions of the Council, or unnecessarily to preclude it from coming to free and unfettered decisions on matters of moment at its next meeting. The Standing Committee is and should act merely as a Committee, dependent upon and responsible to the Council.

A Schedule to the Measure (pp. 424–426) contains Rules of Procedure, which apply to all Councils except so far as they may be varied with the consent of the Diocesan Conference.

See also Patronage ; Union of Benefices ; Vestries.

PAROCHIAL CHURCH MEETING.—The procedure for convening and holding the Annual Parochial Church Meeting and the business to be transacted thereat, are prescribed by Rules 5–8 of the Rules for the Representation of the Laity (pp. 403–404). Special Parochial Church Meetings may be held, if required, under Rule 9.

Under Section 13 of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921 (p. 423), the Vestry and the Parochial Church Meeting sit together for the election of churchwardens. Under Section 14 (p. 423) sidesmen are elected by the Parochial Church Meeting and the Incumbent.

PAROCHIAL ELECTORS.—See Electoral Roll.

PAROCHIAL REGISTERS.—The following statement of the law is taken from the Report (C.A. 227) of a Commission appointed by the Church Assembly in the autumn of 1925 to investigate the subject of the custody of parish registers and documents of similar character :—

> Under the Parochial Registers Act, 1812 (commonly called George Rose's Act), it seems clear that the registers of baptisms, banns and burials, as well as the parish duplicate of the marriage register, belong to the parish, and, technically, to the churchwardens on behalf of the parish.
> The duty of providing the registers (except for marriages) and a "dry, well-painted iron chest" for their safe-keeping, lies upon the parish (i.e. upon the Parochial Church Council, under the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921).
> Once these are provided, the onus of their custody is on the Incumbent. They are to be kept by him and to remain in his power and custody "in some dry, safe and secure place" either at his residence (if it is in the parish) or in the parish church.

During the vacancy of a benefice the custody of the register books rests with the churchwardens.

By the Parochial Registers and Records Measure, 1929, Bishops are empowered to give directions for the better care of parochial registers and other records in ecclesiastical custody.[1] Under the same Measure diocesan record offices may be established in which register books and other documents may be deposited, either voluntarily by the minister of the parish with the consent of the Bishop and Parochial Church Council (Section 3), or compulsorily by order of the Bishop, if the books and documents appear to be exposed to danger of loss or damage (Section 4).

PARSON.—The Incumbent of a parish, whether rector or vicar, is an ecclesiastical corporation sole. The residence house and glebe are vested in him as owner upon whatever tenure they are held. The church and churchyard are ordinarily, unless there be a lay rector, the Incumbent's freehold subject to the rights of the parishioners and the jurisdiction of the Ordinary. But in respect of all these freehold rights the Incumbent for the time being is a limited owner—for his incumbency only—and is subject to restrictions as to his dealings with the properties.

He is instituted or licensed to a benefice, and on his admission thereto becomes entitled to hold it for a freehold estate, namely for life, or until he resigns or is deprived by lawful authority.

See also Institution and Induction ; Perpetual Curate ; and Vacancy in Benefice.

PARSONAGE HOUSE.—See also Dilapidations. The parsonage house with adjoining glebe (not exceeding in all twelve acres) can now be sold or the parsonage house pulled down with certain consents under the Parsonages Measures, 1938 and 1947.

PATRONAGE.—The right to present or appoint a person to a benefice is called an advowson, and the owner of this right who is called the patron, may be a private individual or any other person or corporation recognised by the law.

A clergyman is presented to the Bishop by the patron, except when the Bishop is himself the patron. This process is called "presentation." It must be in writing, and is in effect a nomination of the clergyman to the Bishop by the patron, the patron being the person having the legal estate in the advowson. When the Bishop is himself the patron, there is no "presentation," but the clergyman is said to be "collated" to the benefice. The Bishop may refuse to accept the clergyman on grounds of want of learning, or behaviour, or relating to doctrine or ritual, and this refusal may be contested in the courts. The presentation may be withdrawn before institution.

But if an alien or lunatic or Roman Catholic owns the patronage, he cannot present, and the right is exercised by the Crown, the Lord Chancellor or one of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge.

If a patron neglects to present within six calendar months of the vacancy arising (omitting the period allowed for under the Benefices (Exercise of Rights of Presentation) Measure, 1931, s. 5, the suspension period under the Benefices (Suspension of Presentation) Measure, 1946, s. 5), and the period during which exercise of rights of patronage is restricted under s. 7 and s. 8 of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, his right is said to lapse, and passes for that turn to the Bishop. If the Bishop fails to collate within a further six months, the right lapses to the Archbishop, and in the event of the Archbishop failing to present within a similar period, the right to present passes to the Queen.

Where prior to 1921 the patronage of a benefice was vested in or in trust for the parishioners it was transferred to the Parochial Church Council by s. 4 (1) (i) of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, and by s. 6 (v) of that Measure the Council may in other cases make representations to the Bishop on the subject of the patronage of a vacant benefice.

By the Benefices Act 1898 (Amendment) Measure, 1923, which came into force on July 14, 1924, an advowson cannot be sold after the next two vacancies in the benefice subsequent to that date, but this provision does not apply to assignments of patronage under the New Parishes Acts or to sales of land to which rights of patronage are appendant. A new right of patronage created under the New Parishes Measure, 1943, cannot be sold. A patron may by declaration under seal filed in the Diocesan Registry declare his intention that his right of patronage shall not thereafter carry with it the power of sale, and thereupon the advowson at once becomes incapable of sale. By the same Measure a presentation to a benefice of which the presentee or his wife or someone on his or her behalf has since the passing of the Measure become the patron is void.

By the Benefices (Transfer of Rights of Patronage) Measure, 1930, which came into force in August, 1930, provision was made to secure publicity for transfers of advowsons.

Under the Benefices (Exercise of Rights of Presentation) Measure, 1931, the Parochial Church Council may, upon a vacancy or impending vacancy, make representations to the patron as to the conditions, needs and traditions of the parish, but without mentioning the name of any particular clerk. If the Parochial Church Council passes a resolution bringing the provisions of s. 3 of the Measure into effect, the patron cannot exercise his right of presentation without either the consent of the churchwardens acting as the representatives of the Parochial Church Council or the Bishop's approval (given not less than 60 days after the vacancy or impending vacancy has been notified to the Parochial Church Council under the Measure) of the clerk presented as being suitable for the duties attaching to the cure of souls in the particular benefice concerned. A body of advisers is set up in every diocese, and such body may be consulted by the Bishop before giving or withholding his approval, and must be so consulted if required by the patron or Parochial Church Council. The patron may appeal from the Bishop to the Archbishop where s. 3 is brought into effect; if the Bishop is patron he is obliged to consult the churchwardens before making an appointment, and he must also consult the body of advisers if the churchwardens so require. The Measure does not apply to rights of patronage vested in the Crown. It does apply in the case of an exchange of benefices.

Under the Benefices (Diocesan Boards of Patronage) Measure, 1932, a Board of Patronage has to be established in every Diocese consisting of the Bishop (who is Chairman), three clerks in Holy Orders and five laymen elected respectively by the Chambers of Clergy and Laity of the Diocesan Conference, and, for the purpose of transacting any business relating to any particular benefice, the Archdeacon and Rural Dean of the Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery in which the benefice is situate. The Board has power to acquire and exercise rights of patronage, and such rights may also be transferred by the Board with the consent of the Parochial Church Council concerned, or without such consent if the transfer is to the Board of Patronage of another Diocese of which the parish becomes part.

Under the Benefices (Purchase of Rights of Patronage) Measure, 1933, which came into force on June 1, 1933, if a transfer of the right of patronage of a benefice has been registered since July 14, 1924, and at the date of such registration two vacancies of such benefice since July 14, 1924, have not occurred, the right of patronage may be compulsorily acquired by the Parochial Church Council. If the transfer was before June 1, 1933, the necessary resolution by the Council must have been passed within three years after that date, but if the transfer is after that date then the resolution must be passed within three years after the registration of the transfer. The resolution in either case requires confirmation within three months at a special or extraordinary Parochial Church Meeting and the patronage when acquired will be vested in the Board of Patronage of the Diocese. In some cases it may be possible for the price to be agreed with the patron, but where this is impracticable it is to be fixed by an arbitrator chosen by the parties (or failing their agreement by the Bishop) from a panel of three persons appointed from time to time by the Church Commissioners with the approval of the Lord Chancellor.

Where the incumbent of a parish, of which the advowson has been transferred within the period mentioned, is by virtue of his office patron of other benefices, then the parish of which he is incumbent may put the Measure into operation as regards the patronage of the daughter parish, the purchase money being in such a case applied as increased endowment of the mother parish.

If action is taken under the Measure by the Parochial Church Council of a mother parish there is a process by which the Council of one of the daughter parishes instead of leaving its own patronage in the incumbent of the mother parish may take steps to get it vested in the patron who has acquired the patronage of the mother parish, but who is being dispossessed. This is to meet the case of a daughter parish which approves the transfer which has taken place, and does not desire to have an incumbent who would be its own patron appointed by the Diocesan Board of Patronage.

This Measure does not apply to Crown Patronage or any patronage vested in Greenwich Hospital or in an Archbishop, Bishop or Dean as such or a Dean and Chapter, or transferred on sale in conjunction with a manor or an estate of not less than 100 acres in the parish or adjoining parish, or by operation of law, or on the appointment of a new trustee where no beneficial interest passes.

There are necessarily several technicalities to be observed, and any parish which desires to take action should obtain expert advice.

By the Benefices (Suspension of Presentation) Measure, 1946, as amended by the Beneficies (Suspension of Presentation) Measure, 1946 (Amendment) Measure, 1949, a Bishop may declare that a vacancy may not be filled for such period not exceeding five years as he may specify. This power may be exercised within seven months of the occurrence of the vacancy, and if so exercised, the benefice must be sequestrated. The period of five years mentioned above may subsequently be extended to seven years. See further, Sequestration.

PENSIONS.—Until 1927, the Bishops and Clergy of the Church of England could only receive pensions on retirement at the expense of their successors in office. Under the Clergy Pensions Measures, 1926 to 1946, contributory schemes were set up, and when existing interests expire will be universal. These Measures were repealed and replaced by the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1948.

(i) Archbishops, Diocesan Bishops and Bishops Suffragan.—The following Measures make provisions affecting the payment of pensions to Archbishops, Diocesan Bishops and Bishops Suffragan of dioceses in England (including the Isle of Man):—The Episcopal Pensions Measure, 1926, the Episcopal Pensions (Sodor and Man) Measure, 1931, the Episcopal Pensions Measure, 1945, and the Bishops (Retirement) Measure, 1951.

[N.B. These Measures do not apply to Archbishops and Bishops in overseas dioceses or to Assistant Bishops in dioceses in England.]

Subject to payment of contributions calculated (1) in the case of Archbishops and Bishops appointed before June 15th, 1945, as a proportion of the income of the See and (2) in the case of Archbishops and Bishops appointed after June 15th, 1945 at rates varying from £80 to £150 per annum, Archbishops and Diocesan Bishops are entitled upon retirement (a) on or after attaining the age of 70 or (b) at an earlier age by reason of physical or mental disability to pensions varying from £800 to £1,500 per annum payable out of the general fund of the Church Commissioners.

In the case of Diocesan Bishops appointed after June 15th, 1945, contributions previously paid by them under the Clergy Pensions Measures are transferred to the Church Commissioners.

Past contributions by Bishops Suffragan under the Clergy Pensions Measures are transferred to the Church Commissioners. Subject to payment thereafter of contributions at the rate of £50 per annum, Bishops Suffragan are entitled upon retirement as above to a pension of £500 per annum.

The Bishops (Retirement) Measure, 1951, provides, inter alia, for the payment to a Diocesan Bishop or Bishop Suffragan who resigns because it appears that in the interests of the diocese a change of administration is desirable, of a reduced pension not exceeding three-quarters of the pension to which he would have been entitled had he retired upon or after attaining the age of 70 or upon earlier physical or mental disability.

The Episcopal Pensions Measure, 1945, secures to the widow of a Bishop Suffragan and to the widow of a Diocesan Bishop appointed after June 15th, 1945, a pension of a capitalised value of £500 and also enables any Bishop to make provision for a widow by agreement with the Pensions Board.

(ii) Deans and Residentiary Canons.—Deans and Residentiary Canons who were 55 years of age or over on the 1st January, 1927, on resignation by reason of age or mental or permanent physical disability, may receive a pension of one-third of the income of their preferment or, alternatively, in the case of a Dean 400*l.*, or in the case of a Canon 250*l.*, which ever sum is the greater. (Deans and Canons Resignation Act, 1872. Deans and Canons who were not 55 years of age on January 1st, 1927, pay contributions and are pensionable under the contributory scheme of the Clergy Pensions Measures applicable to other clergy (see below), except that Deans and Canons of Cathedral and Collegiate Churches appointed before January 1st, 1927, are on retirement entitled to receive pensions of 450*l.* and 300*l.* respectively, according to the office

(whether a Deanery or Canonry) they hold on retirement. Under the Cathedrals Measure, 1931, new Cathedral Statutes may provide for additional pensions payable out of the capitular revenues and for a fixed retiring age.

(iii) Beneficed and Unbeneficed Clergy.—The pensions of the clergy, both beneficed and unbeneficed, are now governed by the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1948. Full details will be found at p. 260, and in the explanatory leaflets obtainable on request from the Pensions Board.

(iv) Supplementary Pensions.—In addition to the ordinary pension every pensioner who is not eligible for benefit under the Government Insurance Scheme and whose total income as computed by the Pensions Board is less than 250*l.* may apply to the Board who will pay to him one half of the difference between his total income and 250*l.* a year. In many cases the pension will be further augmented from Diocesan sources, the object being where possible to make up the income in every case to not less than 250*l.*

(v) Widows and Dependants of the Clergy.—A clergyman ordained after July 1st, 1936, must, if then married, or on marriage later, pay a premium or its equivalent, in addition to that for his own pension, by which to secure a pension for his widow, or should he not leave a widow, for a dependant nominated by the contributor. Clergy ordained after that date but not married can join the scheme by voluntary agreement on the same terms. It is greatly to their advantage to do so, because over ninety per cent. marry sooner or later, and because the premium they must then pay is necessarily increased for every year during which joining the Scheme is deferred. Clergy ordained before July 1st, 1936, may obtain similar benefits for their widows or dependants on actuarial terms (subject to medical examination), either by the payment of an additional premium, the surrender of their own rights to a return of premiums under the Clergy Pensions Measures, or by the acceptance of a reduced pension themselves.

(vi) Deaconesses and Lay Workers.—A pensions scheme for Deaconesses and authorised whole-time, lay, Church workers has been approved by the Church Assembly and adopted by 43 Dioceses. Under the scheme a pension of 52*l.* per annum at the age of 60 can be provided for those to whom it is applied by means of insurance policies, the premiums upon which are payable jointly by the person insured and the employer. The scheme is administered by the Diocesan Boards of Finance and a Committee of the Central Board.

PERPETUAL CURATE.—At the dissolution of the monasteries, when appropriations were transferred to lay persons, and there was no regularly endowed vicar, the lay impropriator had to nominate some person to the Bishop for him to licence to serve the cure. Such curates became perpetual, and are now for most purposes on the same footing as vicars. Ministers of new churches of separate parishes, ecclesiastical districts, consolidated chapelries, and district chapelries are perpetual curates, and licensed as such. So also are ministers to new districts or parishes under the Church Building and New Parishes Acts and the New Parishes Measure, 1943. The Plurality Acts apply to perpetual curacies.

PEW RENTS.—See Seating of Congregation.

PLURALITY.—By plurality is meant the holding of more than one benefice by one person at the same time. Without special authority, institution to a benefice while already in possession of another benefice automatically involves loss of the original living. (There are special provisions relating to Archdeacons and Cathedral clergy whose offices are benefices, though not "with cure of souls," and to deans of cathedral or collegiate churches.) Authority for the holding of benefices in plurality may be given in either of the two following ways :—

1. By an Order made by the Bishop, with the approval of the Church Commissioners, under the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, Section 5. Such an Order may authorise the holding in plurality of two or more benefices without restriction as to distance apart or as to the income of the benefices concerned, and may impose any conditions, in particular conditions as to house of residence, clerical or lay assistance, resignation of incumbent, or diversion to the diocesan stipends fund of surplus endowment income over a specified amount (such amount not being less than £500 per annum or such other sum as the Church Assembly may hereafter fix by Regulation). An order under this Measure must contain directions for the settlement of the future exercise of rights of patronage in the event of the plurality being renewed by a subsequent Order.

The initiative for setting procedure in motion for such an Order is with the diocesan pastoral committee which may, under the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, after consultation with incumbents and parochial church councils concerned, formulate provisional proposals for plurality, which, if agreed by the bishop, are forwarded to the Church Commissioners for circulation to patrons, incumbents and parochial church councils concerned and for preparation of a draft Order incorporating the proposals. Copies of the draft Order are sent to patrons, rural deans, incumbents and parochial church councils concerned, with notice of a right of objection to the Commissioners. The Commissioners must give full consideration to any objections in consultation with the bishop and the objectors. If the Commissioners decide to certify their approval of the draft Order, the bishop may make an Order in writing under his hand accordingly.

2. By a Dispensation granted by the Archbishop of Canterbury. This was the only method prior to the passing of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949. The grant of such a dispensation is at the Archbishop's discretion, subject to a limited right of appeal against refusal. Under the Pluralities Act, 1838, a dispensation may be for the holding in plurality of two benefices "with the cure of souls" only, except as mentioned below.

Pluralities authorised by dispensation are, under the Pluralities Measure, 1930, subject to the restrictions that the parish churches may not be more than 4 miles apart, and that the annual value of one of the benefices may not exceed £400.

The same Measure, however, provides that (with like dispensation from the Archbishop of Canterbury) any two or more benefices may be held in plurality without regard to the limits of distance or annual value, if this be recommended by a commission of inquiry under the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and the recommendation be approved by the Church Commissioners, the Bishop or Bishops and the Patron or Patrons concerned.

PROVINCIAL COURT.—Each Province has a Provincial Court, in Canterbury the Court of Arches, in York the Chancery Court of York.

QUEEN ANNE'S BOUNTY.—The Ecclesiastical Commissioners and Queen Anne's Bounty were united into one Body under the title of the Church Commissioners, by the Church Commissioners Measure, 1947. A full account will be found at pp. 255–258 ante.

See also Loans to Benefices.

REORGANISATION.—The Reorganisation Areas Measure, 1944, sets up machinery for making new arrangements for pastoral supervision in war damaged areas and areas affected by planning schemes or shift of population. The period allowed by the Measure for the declaration of such an area as a Reorganisation Area has now expired, but any Reorganisation Area which has been duly declared may be the subject of a Scheme to be prepared by the Church Commissioners at the request of the bishop and the diocesan committee appointed under the Diocesan Reorganisation Committees Measure, 1941. Such a scheme may provide for parochial and benefice boundaries to be rearranged, endowments to be rearranged and surplus endowments diverted to the diocesan stipends fund, churches and other buildings to be demolished and provided, and compensation to be paid to displaced clergymen. Schemes must be prepared in consultation with all concerned. Proposals for Schemes must be submitted to the Commissioners before March 21st, 1954.

REQUISITES FOR WORSHIP, ETC., PROVISION OF.—The goods, utensils and ornaments deemed necessary for the service of the Church (the provision of many requisites is a duty expressly imposed on the churchwardens by the Canons of 1604), include a copy of the Book of Common Prayer, a "carpet of silk or other decent stuff" for the Communion table and a fair linen cloth, a large Bible, the Book of Homilies, a stone font, a pulpit, a reading desk, a surplice, sacramental bread and wine (the wine to be brought to the Communion table "in a clean and sweet standing pot or stoop of pewter if not of purer metal"), an alms-chest, a parchment book for registering baptisms, marriages and burials, and a chest with three locks for keeping it in, a book in which to enter the names of visiting preachers, and a table of the prohibited degrees.

The Book of Common Prayer also directs the provision of a decent basin for the reception of the alms, and the Marriage Act, 1823, a banns book.

The duties imposed by the Canons as to the provision of register books are independent of the duties imposed on the clergy by the Parochial Registers Act, 1812, and the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1836.

Reference should be made also to the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, section 4 (i), as to the care, maintenance, preservation and insurance of the goods and ornaments of the Church.

RESIDENCE BY INCUMBENT.—It is the duty of an Incumbent to reside within his parish, and if there is a house of residence he must inhabit it unless he has the licence of the Bishop to reside elsewhere. If he is absent without such licence for more than three months in any year he is liable to certain penalties, and residence may be enforced by sequestration of the benefice. If the benefice remains sequestrated for a whole year or is twice sequestrated in any year it becomes void without further formality unless otherwise directed by the Bishop. An appeal lies to the Archbishop against the refusal of a licence or the revocation of an existing licence. An Incumbent who is also a member of a cathedral or collegiate body may reckon his residence at the latter as equivalent to residence in his parish provided that he is not absent from his parish for more than five months altogether in any calendar year.

When a house of residence is erected, purchased or improved under the Parsonages Measure, 1938, or where a house of residence is divided into parts, the Bishop may certify the house or part (as the case may be) to be the residence house of the benefice.

Subject to the provisions of the Incumbents (Disability) Measure, 1945, the Bishop may give to an incumbent, reported to him as unable to discharge his duties, leave of absence for a period not exceeding two years.

RESIGNATION.—See Vacancy in Benefice.

RURAL DEAN.—Every parish is included in an area known as the Rural Deanery. A parish is always wholly within the same deanery and a deanery is wholly within one archdeaconry. The boundaries of a Rural Deanery can be altered under the Archdeaconries and Rural Deaneries Act, 1874 (cap. 63). The head of the deanery is the Rural Dean, who may be appointed by the Bishop, and may by him be removed at any time. He is usually, though not necessarily, a beneficed clergyman.

Formerly the office was of considerable importance, but its duties appear to have been gradually absorbed by the Archdeacons and it is only in comparatively recent times that the Rural Dean has again become an essential unit of ecclesiastical organisation. The duties of Rural Deans are not clearly defined. They consist generally in carrying into effect, within their areas, the expressed wishes of the Bishop. Rural Deans are members of various statutory committees issued by the Bishop and they are sometimes charged with inspecting the churches and reporting generally on the condition of Church property. They notify vacancies in benefices to the Bishop, examine the licences of assistant curates, receive notice of appeals under the Rules for the Representation of the Laity, and are the presiding officers at elections to the Diocesan Conferences when representatives in that conference are elected in the ruridecanal conference.

RURIDECANAL CHAPTER AND CONFERENCE.—The Rural Dean is president of the ruridecanal chapter and conference. The former is exclusively a clerical body and normally consists of the incumbents and clergy licensed under the Bishops' seal who are resident in the deanery. The latter comprises the chapter and the laymen elected to the conference by the Parochial Church Meetings. In this way the Rural Dean becomes the normal channel of communication on matters of diocesan policy between the Bishop and the parishes. In some cases the lay members of the conference elect the members of the diocesan conference.

SEATING OF CONGREGATION.—The churchwardens are entrusted with the duty of providing seats for the parishioners. In this capacity they act as the officers of the Ordinary. Their rights and duties may be limited by some over-riding right of a private person, e.g. when a particular pew is attached to an estate by prescription or held under a faculty. Subject, however, to such rights, the churchwardens may direct persons where to sit, and where not to sit, and may do this beforehand or for a particular service or for an indefinite period. But they cannot legally give the right to a particular seat for all time, because to do so would divest themselves or their successors of the liberty to rearrange the seating accommodation at a future time. Seats can legally only be assigned to parishioners, and before dispossessing a parishioner of a seat usually occupied by him, the churchwardens would be well advised to give him notice of their intention, in order that he may show cause why he should not be so dispossessed.

This control of the seating accommodation belongs to the churchwardens in the interests of good order. They cannot exclude an orderly person on the ground that the church is full if he can stand in such a part of the church as will not interfere with the conduct of the service. If a parishioner intrudes himself into a seat contrary to the directions of the churchwardens, they may remove him, provided that they do not use unnecessary force or cause a scandal by disturbing the worship of the church.

SEQUESTRATION.—When a vacancy in a benefice occurs sequestrators are appointed by the Bishop, who are usually (but not invariably) the churchwardens. Sometimes the Rural Dean is appointed to act jointly with the churchwardens. A "Writ of Sequestration" is issued by the Bishop, and under it the income is ordered to be taken by the sequestrators and to be applied by them in manner required by the circumstances of the case. The sequestrators pay out of the rents and profits received by them all legally chargeable outgoings and the cost of serving the cure during the vacancy. Great care needs to be exercised to keep the cost within proper limits. They account to the new Incumbent, and pay him any balance which they have in hand, or, on the other hand, receive from him any sum which they have properly paid in excess of what they have received.

The purpose of a Writ of Sequestration during a vacancy is to put the sequestrators in the legal position to take charge of the benefice for the good management of the properties belonging to it and the protection of its interests, as well as to enable them to receive the income for the purpose of providing for the duties of the cure. Sequestrators receive their authority from the Bishop, and on any matter of doubt they should consult the Bishop's Legal Secretary.

The Benefices (Sequestrations) Measure, 1933, has cleared up various doubtful points relating to the powers of sequestrators, and should be consulted. Section 1 gives the Bishop power to fix the amount of remuneration payable to clergymen undertaking occasional duty in addition to any stipend payable to a curate acting during the vacancy. Section 2 makes it clear that the sequestrators may, in proper cases, and subject to the approval of the Bishop, provide out of the income of the benefice for the care and custody of the house of residence and the upkeep of its garden, pay for professional assistance, and overdraw their banking account. Section 3 enables the sequestrators to obtain payment of any income of the benefice which may have accrued during the vacancy, even after the institution of a new incumbent.

Under Section 1 of the Benefices (Suspension of Presentation) Measure, 1946, the Bishop has power with certain consents to declare that a vacant benefice shall not be filled during a period not exceeding five years. This period may subsequently be extended to seven years; but the powers given by this section cannot be exercised after the expiration of ten years from the passing of the Measure (Section 8). Section 2 provides that, where the Bishop has exercised this power, he shall ensure that one at least of the sequestrators appointed is specially qualified to discharge efficiently the duties of the office. Section 3 makes certain special provisions for the performance of the ecclesiastical duties of the benefice during the period of suspension. Section 4 as amended by the Benefices (Suspension of Presentation) Measure, 1946 (Amendment) Measure, 1949 (12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. No. 4), enables the sequestrators appointed under Section 2, in addition to their existing powers, to exercise with the consent of the Bishop in relation to any property of the benefice any other power which an incumbent would have. They may also, with the consent of the Bishop, and after consulting the parochial church council, make such arrangements as they may deem advantageous for the use and occupation of the parsonage house during the suspension period so long as the curate in charge of the benefice is not required to reside therein. This provision gives to the lessee a security of tenure which even the incumbent cannot give him. The Section also provides for the payment, as the Bishop directs, of balances in the sequestrators' hands exceeding £200 and for the rendering of annual accounts to the Bishop. Sequestrators appointed under this Measure should consult the Bishop's legal secretary before exercising any of the special powers conferred upon them by this Measure.

See the Memorandum on the duties of sequestrators during a vacancy, L.C. 42 issued by the Legal Committee of the Central Board of Finance.

Although sequestrations during a vacancy are by far the most common case, a Writ of Sequestration may also be issued when the Incumbent becomes a lunatic or of unsound mind, or on a judgment for the recovery of a debt from him, or on his bankruptcy or as a consequence of proceedings taken against him in an ecclesiastical court and in certain other cases.

A writ of sequestration is not appropriate to the case of a vacancy in a conventional district.

SHORTENED SERVICES.—By the Act of Uniformity (Amendment) Act, 1872, a shortened form of Morning and Evening Prayer (set out in the Schedule to the Act) may be used in lieu of the Prayer Book services on days other than Sunday, Christmas Day, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and Ascension Day; special services for special occasions may within strictly defined limits be authorised by the Bishop; additional services within similar limits may be used on Sundays and Holy Days; and provision is made as to the separation of services. Under the last-mentioned heading it is provided that Morning Prayer, Litany and Holy Communion may be used together, or in varying order as separate services; or that the Litany may be said after the third collect at Evening Prayer, either in lieu of or in addition to the use of the Litany at Morning Prayer. Any of such forms of service may be used with or without the preaching of a sermon or lecture or the reading of a homily.

SIDESMEN.—See Churchwardens and Sidesmen.

STIPENDIARY CURATE.—The position of a stipendiary curate is the same whether he comes to a parish on his ordination or from another parish. He must first be nominated to the Bishop by the incumbent, and his letters of orders (both deacon's and priest's if he is a priest) sent to the Bishop together with letters testimonial under the hands of three beneficed clergy. He must then make the Declaration of Assent and take the oaths of allegiance and canonical obedience. The Bishop then licenses him to the parish to which he has been nominated.

The effect of the licence is that the Incumbent cannot terminate the stipendiary curate's engagement without the latter's consent, except by leave of the Bishop and on giving six months' notice. But if there is a change of incumbency the new Incumbent may, without leave of the Bishop, terminate the engagement on giving the stipendiary curate six weeks' notice, provided that the notice is given within six months from the date of the new Incumbent's admission. This special right of dismissing a predecessor's stipendiary curate lapses on the termination of the six months.

This rule is modified by s. 14 of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, which provides that in any united benefice, or benefice held in plurality a curate's engagement may be terminated by a new incumbent on six weeks' notice only if the bishop's consent is obtained. There is a right of appeal to the archbishop of the Province if consent is withheld.

A stipendiary curate may terminate his engagement by giving his Incumbent and the Bishop three months' notice at any time.

A Bishop may revoke a licence at any time, but in such a case the stipendiary curate has a right of appeal to the Archbishop.

It is a term of the licence that the Incumbent shall pay to the stipendiary curate such a stipend as is named in the licence. The Incumbent is liable for the payment of this stipend without any deduction except the payment for the contribution which the stipendiary curate is liable to pay as a compulsory contributor under the Clergy Pensions Measures. Any agreement to pay or to receive less than the stipend (apart from pensions contributions) is void. The liability of the Incumbent is not affected by any undertaking by the Parochial Church Council or other person to be responsible for the stipend.

TREES.—For information relating to the felling of timber on glebe land and in churchyards, and to liability for damage caused by trees falling or being blown down.

the Memorandum on Trees prepared by the Legal Board (L.C. 35), which is published by the Church Information Board (price 1*d.*) and is reprinted in Opinions of the Legal Board, 4th ed., pp. 207–213, should be consulted.

UNION AND DISUNION OF BENEFICES.—Unions of benefices elsewhere than in the City of London are carried out under the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923–36, which are administered by the Church Commissioners. In addition to providing for the union of two or more benefices, Schemes under these Measures may provide for union of parishes and for incidental matters such as patronage, houses of residence, surplus churches and other property, alteration of boundaries, and appropriation of surplus endowment, and must provide when, without affecting the rights of any existing incumbent, the union shall take effect.

Under the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure provisional proposals for unions of benefices are formulated by the diocesan pastoral committee in consultation with incumbents and parochial church councils concerned. If approved by the bishop the provisional proposals are forwarded to the Church Commissioners who send copies to patrons, incumbents and parochial church councils concerned and prepare a draft scheme incorporating the proposals. Procedure from this stage is governed by the Union of Benefices Measures which provide for publication of the draft scheme locally and the right of objection to the Church Commissioners and of appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council before the Scheme is given effect by Order in Council.

There is an alternative method of initiation of union Schemes under the Union of Benefices Measures by means of a commission of inquiry appointed by the bishop. Until the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure was passed in 1949 this was the normal procedure. It is now used only exceptionally. Under this method the recommendations of the commission of inquiry are incorporated by the Church Commissioners into a draft Scheme, and procedure is then as described above.

Disunion of a united benefice or division of a single benefice may be carried out by a similar procedure.

See also Plurality; Reorganisation.

VACANCY IN BENEFICE.—When an Incumbent ceases as such to serve the duties of the cure there is said to be an "avoidance of the benefice." This may occur by death, resignation, exchange, cession or deprivation, and by sequestration.

A benefice may be resigned either personally before the Ordinary or by a deed duly executed and sent to him. It may be made to take effect at a future date, but must, except on an exchange, be unconditional. It only becomes valid when accepted by the Bishop either personally or in writing.

Cession takes place when an Incumbent is created a diocesan Bishop or when he is appointed to another benefice or preferment which he cannot lawfully hold with the benefice which he holds at the time of his creation or appointment. Deprivation takes effect when there has been simony in connection with the presentation, institution, collation or admission to the benefice, whether the Incumbent was or was not a party thereto, or when the Incumbent was disqualified from holding the benefice, or by sentence of a court for an offence by the Incumbent.

An Incumbent ceases to have any rights to the emoluments of his benefice on the date when his incumbency ceases, and those emoluments as from that date become the property of his successor when appointed, subject to the cost of providing for the performance of the duties during the vacancy. If the avoidance is brought about by his death, and he was residing at his death in a parsonage house annexed to his benefice, his widow may continue to occupy and enjoy the parsonage house and garden, etc., for two calendar months thereafter.

VESTRIES.—The Local Government Act, 1894 (cap. 73) (replaced by the Local Government Act, 1933 (cap. 51), s. 269), took away the powers, duties and liabilities of the Vestry except (inter alia) so far as they related to the affairs of the Church, or to charities. The Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, has taken away from the Vestry most of the powers that were left to it by the Act of 1894. By this Measure the powers, duties and liabilities of the Vestry relating to the affairs of the Church have been transferred to the Parochial Church Council, which body is now, together with the incumbent, responsible for the administration of church work in the Parish. To-day there remain to the Vestry only the right exercised jointly with the Parochial Church Meeting to elect Churchwardens (see Churchwardens and Sidesmen) and certain powers with regard to the administration of ecclesiastical charities. The Vestry is entitled to accounts of ecclesiastical parochial charities under s. 44 of the Charitable Trusts Amendment Act, 1855 (cap. 124).

Meetings of the Vestry are summoned by the incumbent or churchwardens, and the Minister of the parish is ex officio chairman. Any person assessed and rated for the relief of the poor in respect of any property in the parish can attend, and votes are apportioned to each voter according to his liability for rates, except at the joint meeting with the Parochial Church Meeting for election of Churchwardens when each elector has one vote only. A poll can always be demanded. The minutes must be entered in a book and signed by the chairman at least.

VISITATION.—See Archdeacon, Bishop.

WHITSUN OFFERINGS.—In recent years a practice has grown up of inviting parochial contributions at Whitsun under the name of "Whitsun Offerings," generally for the benefit of the Assistant Clergy. These offerings may take the form of collections in church on Whitsunday or contributions to a Whitsun offerings fund, or partly the one form and partly the other or even the form of direct personal gifts. They differ from Easter offerings in that they are not founded upon or substituted for any former "dues" of legal obligation: they are also, as above-mentioned, generally for the benefit of the Curates or clergy who assist the Incumbent in the performance of the duties of his benefice, and obviously the "office" held by an Assistant Curate differs in material elements affecting the mode of his remuneration from that of the Incumbent of the benefice. Whitsun Offerings are presumably promoted for the purpose of encouraging the parishioners by their gifts to render friendly financial aid to men whose circumstances often call for such assistance, by which aid also they can testify their appreciation of the qualities and services of the Assistant Curate. Notwithstanding differences, as above indicated, from Easter Offerings the High Court has found sufficient resemblance to Easter Offerings to declare these Whitsun Offerings also to be taxable income for Income Tax purposes, under the same conditions as the Easter Offerings.

Certain Church Assembly Measures and Regulations

Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act, 1919

An Act to confer powers on the National Assembly of the Church of England constituted in accordance with the constitution attached as an Appendix to the Addresses presented to His Majesty by the Convocations of Canterbury and York on the tenth day of May nineteen hundred and nineteen, and for other purposes connected therewith. [23rd December, 1919.]

WHEREAS the Convocations of Canterbury and York have recommended in Addresses presented to His Majesty on the tenth day of May nineteen hundred and nineteen, that, subject to the control and authority of His Majesty and of the two Houses of Parliament, powers in regard to legislation touching matters concerning the Church of England shall be conferred on the National Assembly of the Church of England constituted in the manner set forth in identical terms in the Appendix attached to their several Addresses:

And whereas it is expedient, subject to such control and authority as aforesaid, that such powers should be conferred on the Church Assembly so constituted:

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Definitions.

1. In this Act—

(1) "The National Assembly of the Church of England" (hereinafter called "the Church Assembly") means the Assembly constituted in accordance with the Constitution set forth in the Appendix to the Addresses presented to His Majesty by the Convocations of Canterbury and York on the tenth day of May nineteen hundred and nineteen, and laid before both Houses of Parliament;

(2) "The Constitution" means the Constitution of the Church Assembly set forth in the Appendix to the Addresses presented by the Convocations of Canterbury and York to His Majesty as aforesaid; *

* See Section three (1) of the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929, p. 399.

(3) "The Legislative Committee" means the Legislative Committee of the Church Assembly appointed in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution;

(4) "The Ecclesiastical Committee" means the Committee established as provided in section two of this Act;

(5) "Measure" means a legislative measure intended to receive the Royal Assent and to have effect as an Act of Parliament in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Establishment of an Ecclesiastical Committee.

2.—(1) There shall be a Committee of members of both Houses of Parliament styled "The Ecclesiastical Committee."

(2) The Ecclesiastical Committee shall consist of fifteen members of the House of Lords, nominated by the Lord Chancellor, and fifteen members of the House of Commons, nominated by the Speaker of the House of Commons, to be appointed on the passing of this Act, to serve for the duration of the present Parliament and thereafter to be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament to serve for the duration of that Parliament.

Any casual vacancy occurring by the reason of the death, resignation, or incapacity of a member of the Ecclesiastical Committee shall be filled by the nomination of a member by the Lord Chancellor or the Speaker of the House of Commons, as the case may be.

(3) The powers and duties of the Ecclesiastical Committee may be exercised and discharged by any twelve members thereof, and the Committee shall be entitled to sit and to transact business whether Parliament be sitting or not, and notwithstanding a vacancy in the membership of the Committee. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Ecclesiastical Committee may regulate its own procedure.

Measures passed by Church Assembly to be submitted to Ecclesiastical Committee.

3.—(1) Every measure passed by the Church Assembly shall be submitted by the Legislative Committee to the Ecclesiastical Committee, together with such comments and explanations as the Legislative Committee may deem it expedient or be directed by the Church Assembly to add.

(2) The Ecclesiastical Committee shall thereupon consider the measure so submitted to it, and may, at any time during such consideration, either of its own motion or at the request of the Legislative Committee, invite the Legislative Committee to a conference to discuss the provisions thereof, and thereupon a conference of the two committees shall be held accordingly.

(3) After considering the measure, the Ecclesiastical Committee shall draft a report thereon to Parliament stating the nature and legal effect of the measure, and its views as to the expediency thereof, especially with relation to the constitutional rights of all His Majesty's subjects.

(4) The Ecclesiastical Committee shall communicate its report in draft to the Legislative Committee, but shall not present it to Parliament until the Legislative Committee signify its desire that it should be so presented.

(5) At any time before the presentation of the report to Parliament the Legislative Committee may, either on its own motion or by direction of the Church Assembly, withdraw a measure from further consideration by the Ecclesiastical Committee; but the Legislative Committee shall have no power to vary a measure of the Church Assembly either before or after conference with the Ecclesiastical Committee.

(6) A measure may relate to any matter concerning the Church of England, and may extend to the amendment or repeal in whole or in part of any Act of Parliament, including this Act:

Provided that a measure shall not make any alteration in the composition or powers or duties of the Ecclesiastical Committee, or in the procedure in Parliament prescribed by section four of this Act.

(7) No proceedings of the Church Assembly in relation to a measure shall be invalidated by any vacancy in the membership of the Church Assembly or by any defect in the qualification or election of any member thereof.

Procedure on Measures reported on by the Ecclesiastical Committee.

4. When the Ecclesiastical Committee shall have reported to Parliament on any measure submitted by the Legislative Committee, the report, together with the text of such measure, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith, if Parliament be then sitting, or, if not, then immediately after the next meeting of Parliament, and thereupon, on a resolution being passed by each House of Parliament directing that such measure in the form laid before Parliament should be presented to His Majesty, such measure shall be presented to His Majesty, and shall have the force and effect of an Act of Parliament on the Royal Assent being signified thereto in the same manner as to Acts of Parliament:

Provided that, if upon a measure being laid before Parliament the Chairman of Committees of the House of Lords and the Chairman of Ways and Means in the House of Commons acting in consultation, shall be of opinion that the measure deals with two or more different subjects which might be more properly divided, they may, by joint agreement, divide the measure into two or more separate measures accordingly, and thereupon this section shall have effect as if each of the measures resulting from such division had been laid before Parliament as a separate measure.

Short Title.

5. This Act may be cited as the Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act, 1919.

Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929

A Measure passed by the National Assembly of the Church of England to amend the Rules for the Representation of the Laity contained in the Schedule to the Constitution. [10th May, 1929.]

1.—(1) From and after the passing of this Measure the Rules for the Representation of the Laity contained in the Schedule to the Constitution, as amended by the Representation of the Laity (Amendment) Measure, 1922, shall cease to have effect, and the Rules for the Representation of the Laity contained in the Schedule to this Measure shall be substituted therefor. Substitution of new Rules for the Representation of the Laity.

(2) Provided that nothing contained in this Measure shall affect anything duly done or suffered or any right or obligation acquired or incurred under the said first mentioned Rules.

2. The Representation of the Laity (Amendment) Measure, 1922, is hereby repealed. Repeal.

3.—(1) In the Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act, 1919, and the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, the expression "the Constitution" shall include the Constitution as varied by this Measure. Interpretation of 9 & 10 Geo. 5, c. 76, and 11 & 12 Geo. 5, No. 1.

(2) In section eight of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921, the words "Subject and in addition to the provisions of section III, paragraph 4, of the Schedule to the Constitution" are hereby repealed.

4. This Measure may be cited as the "Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929." Short Title.

SCHEDULE

RULES FOR THE REPRESENTATION OF THE LAITY

PRELIMINARY

Interpretation

1. In these Rules—

"Parish" means an ecclesiastical parish or district, whether old or new, the minister of which has a separate cure of souls therein, and includes any district within a parish which is constituted a "conventional district" for the cure of souls and has a separate curate licensed thereto;

"Minister" means the incumbent, perpetual curate, or curate in charge of a parish;

"Ruri-decanal Conference" means an assembly of clergy and laity containing lay representatives elected in accordance with these Rules, and meeting periodically under the presidency of the Rural Dean;

Words importing residence import an abode of a permanent and not merely of a casual or temporary nature.

Lay Representation

2.—(1) The laity shall meet in Parochial Church Meetings and be represented in—

(i) Parochial Church Councils;

(ii) Ruridecanal Conferences where such Conferences exist;

(iii) Diocesan Conferences; and

(iv) the House of Laity,

by representatives of either sex (in these Rules referred to as "lay representatives") who are actual lay communicant members of the Church of England of twenty-one years of age and upwards.

(2) No person shall be qualified to be elected as a lay representative in any of the said bodies unless previously to his election he shall have consented to serve as a lay representative in that body.

(3) No person shall be disqualified from being elected as a lay representative—

(i) by the fact that he is not himself qualified to vote at the election at which he is elected (but this provision shall not apply to a lay representative in a Parochial Church Council who must be qualified to vote at such election); or

(ii) by the fact that he is also a member ex officio or otherwise of the body to which he is elected.

(4) No lay representative shall vacate his seat upon the body to which he has been elected by reason of the fact that subsequently to his election he has become a member of that body ex officio.

CHURCH ELECTORAL ROLL

Formation, Revision, and Publication

3.—(1) There shall be a Church Electoral Roll (in these Rules referred to as " the Roll ") in every parish.

(2) The persons entitled to have their names entered upon the Roll of a parish shall be lay members of the Church of England, of either sex, of eighteen years of age and upwards, who—

(a) are baptised and declare that they are members of the Church of England and that they do not belong to any religious body which is not in communion with the Church of England; and

(b) are resident in the parish, or (whether or not so resident) have habitually attended public worship in the parish during a period of six months prior to enrolment, and

(c) have signed the form of application for enrolment set out in Appendix I to these Rules.

(3) No person shall be entitled to be upon the Roll of more than one parish in the same diocese.

(4) The Roll shall, until a Parochial Church Council (in these Rules referred to as " the Council ") has been constituted in a parish, be formed and revised by the minister and churchwardens (if any), and shall, after a Council has been constituted, be kept and revised by the Council.

(5) The names of persons who are entitled to have their names entered upon the Roll of a parish shall, subject to the provisions of these Rules, be from time to time added to the Roll by or under the direction of the Council.

(6) The names of persons who have ceased to be entitled to be upon the Roll of a parish, or who have signified in writing their desire that their names shall be removed from the Roll, may, subject to the provisions of these Rules, be at any time removed from the Roll by or under the direction of the Council.

(7) The Roll of a parish shall be revised annually by or under the direction of the Council, such revision being effected pursuant to a public notice in the form set out in Appendix II to these Rules (or in a substantially similar form), given not less than fourteen days before the commencement of the revision. The revision shall be completed not less than fifteen days or more than twenty-eight days before the Annual Parochial Church Meeting.

(8) Upon every revision all enrolments or removals from the Roll which have been effected since the date of the last revision (or since the formation of the Roll, if there has been no previous revision) shall be verified, and such further enrolments or removals from the Roll as may be required shall be effected.

(9) After the completion of the revision the Roll as revised (or the Roll as originally formed in any case where there has not been any revision thereof) shall, together with a list of the names of the persons removed from the Roll since the last revision, be published by being exhibited continuously for not less than fourteen days before the Annual Parochial Church Meeting on or near to the principal door of the church in such manner as the Council shall appoint, and no name shall be entered upon or removed from the Roll during the period in any year between the completion of the revision and the Annual Parochial Church Meeting.

(10) Any person desiring to continue upon the Roll of a parish after he has ceased to be resident in that parish, and being qualified by habitual attendance at public worship, shall make a fresh application for enrolment in the form set out in Appendix I to these Rules.

(11) Upon the alteration of the areas of any parishes any necessary consequential transfers from the Roll of one of such parishes to that of another of them which may be required shall be effected by or under the authority of the Councils concerned, and no application for enrolment consequential upon such alteration shall be required.

Notices to be sent in certain cases

4.—(1) In any case where the name of a person residing in one parish is entered on the Roll of another parish in the same diocese, notice of the fact shall be sent by the Secretary of the Council having the custody of such Roll to the Secretary of the Council of the parish in which such person resides.

(2) When a person applying for enrolment on the Roll of any parish signifies his desire that his name shall be removed from the Roll of any other parish, notice of the fact shall be sent by the Secretary of the Council receiving the application to the Secretary of the Council of such last mentioned parish.

(3) When the name of any person is removed from the Roll of a parish owing to his having become resident in another parish, notice of the fact shall, whenever possible, be sent to the Secretary of the Council of the parish in which such person has become resident.

(4) The forms of notice set out in Appendix III to these Rules (or substantially similar forms) shall be used for the purposes of this Rule.

(5) An omission to comply with any of the requirements of this Rule shall not disqualify any person whose name has been entered upon any Roll.

ANNUAL PAROCHIAL CHURCH MEETING

When to be held

5.—(1) In every parish there shall be held annually not later in the year than in Easter week or in the following week the Annual Parochial Church Meeting of all persons whose names are entered upon the Roll of the parish (in these Rules referred to as " the Annual Meeting ").

(2) Clerks in Holy Orders who are resident in a parish and who are not beneficed in or licensed to any other parish or who, whether resident in the parish or not, are licensed to the parish, shall be entitled to attend the Annual Meeting, and to take part in its proceedings, except that they shall not be entitled to vote at any election of the parochial lay representatives.

Convening of Annual Parochial Church Meeting

6.—(1) The Annual Meeting shall be convened by the minister of the parish by a notice in the Form set out in Appendix IV to these Rules (or in a substantially similar form) affixed on or near to the principal door of the church, and of every other building licensed for divine service in the parish, for a period including the last two Sundays before the day of meeting.

(2) The Annual Meeting shall be held at such place on such date and at such hour as shall be directed by a previous Annual Meeting, or by the Council (which may vary any direction given by a previous Annual Meeting), or in the absence of any such direction as shall be appointed by the minister.

(3) During a vacancy of the benefice or curacy or when the minister is absent or incapacitated by illness or any other cause, the Vice-Chairman of the Council, or if there shall be no Vice-Chairman, or if he shall be unable or unwilling to act, the Secretary of or some other person appointed by the Council, shall have all the powers vested in the minister under this Rule.

Chairman

7. The minister, if present, or if he is not present, the Vice-Chairman of the Council, or, if he also is not present, a chairman chosen by the Annual Meeting shall preside thereat. In case of an equal division of votes, the Chairman of the Meeting shall have a second or casting vote; but no clerical chairman shall have a vote (except a casting vote) in the election of the parochial lay representatives.

Business

(a) A copy or copies of the Roll;

(b) An Annual Report on the proceedings of the Council and on the financial affairs of the parish;

(c) The audited Accounts of the Council for the year ending on the 31st of December immediately preceding the meeting; and

(d) A Report upon the fabric, goods and ornaments of the church or churches of the parish.

(2) The Annual Meeting shall elect parochial lay representatives—

(a) to the Diocesan Conference, unless the Diocesan Conference shall otherwise determine;

(b) to the Ruri-decanal Conference, where it exists; and

(c) to the Council of the parish, subject to and in accordance with the Rules hereinafter contained relating to such elections respectively.

(3) The sidesmen of the parish shall be elected by the Annual Meeting and the minister as provided by section fourteen of the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921:

Provided that if the Annual Meeting and the minister are unable to agree, one-half of the whole number of sidesmen shall be elected by the Annual Meeting and one-half shall be nominated by the minister.

(4) Any person entitled to attend the Annual Meeting may ask any question about parochial church matters, or bring about a discussion of any matter of parochial or general church interest, by moving a general resolution or by moving to give any particular recommendation to the Council in relation to its duties.

(5) The Annual Meeting shall have power to adjourn, and to determine its own rules of procedure.

(6) The Secretary of the Council (or, in his absence, another person appointed by the Meeting in his place) shall act as clerk of the Annual Meeting, and shall record the minutes thereof.

Special Parochial Church Meetings

9.—(1) In addition to the Annual Meeting, the minister of a parish may, and he shall, on receipt of a written requisition signed by not less than one-third of the lay members of the Council, convene a Special Parochial Church Meeting.

(2) The provisions of these rules relating to the convening and the conduct of the Annual Meeting shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to a Special Parochial Church Meeting.

PAROCHIAL CHURCH COUNCILS

Members

10.—(1) The Parochial Church Council shall consist of—

(i) The minister of the parish;

(ii) The following ex officio members, namely—

(a) the licensed assistant curate, or one licensed assistant curate nominated by the minister when there are more than one;

(b) the churchwardens, being communicant members of the Church of England; and

(c) any lay members of any Ruri-decanal Conference, or any Diocesan Conference, or the Church Assembly, who are on the Roll of the parish;

(iii) such number of lay representatives as the Annual Meeting may decide, and so that the number determined may be altered from time to time by a resolution passed at any Annual Meeting, but such resolution shall not take effect before the next ensuing Annual Meeting; and

(iv) co-opted members, if the Council so decides, not exceeding in number one-fifth of the lay representatives elected under the last preceding paragraph of this Rule, and being either in Holy Orders or lay communicant members of the Church of England of either sex, of twenty-one years of age or upwards.

(2) In the case of a parish the population of which does not exceed three hundred, the lay members of the Council shall, if the Diocesan Conference so determines, consist of all persons who would be qualified to be elected lay representatives if an election were held, together with the churchwardens, being communicant members of the Church of England.

Chairman and Vice-Chairman

11.—(1) The minister of the parish shall be Chairman of the Council.

(2) A lay member of the Council shall be elected as Vice-Chairman.

EXTRAORDINARY MEETINGS

12.—(1) On representation made to the Archdeacon by not less than one-third of the lay members of the Council, or by one-tenth of the persons on the Roll of the parish, and deemed by the Archdeacon to have been made with sufficient cause, the Archdeacon shall convene an extraordinary meeting of the Council or an Extraordinary Parochial Church Meeting, and shall either take the chair himself or shall appoint a Chairman to preside at such meeting.

(2) At any such Extraordinary Meeting, when seven days' notice has been given of a motion that any representation relating to the conduct of the minister shall be made to the Bishop of the diocese, the Archdeacon may, in his discretion, request the minister not to be present, but to make a communication in writing to the Chairman. If such communication be made, it shall be read to the Meeting.

(3) Provided that in any case where the Archdeacon is himself the minister, any representation under sub-section (1) of this Rule shall be made to the Bishop, who shall either act personally or appoint some other clerk in Holy Orders to act in place of the Archdeacon; and the Bishop or the clerk so appointed shall have all the powers conferred on the Archdeacon by this Rule.

PAROCHIAL AND OTHER ELECTIONS

Elections to the Parochial Church Council

13.—(1) The number of lay representatives to be elected in each parish to the Council shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Rule 10 of these Rules.

(2) Lay representatives in the Council of a parish shall hold office from the date of their election until the conclusion of the next ensuing Annual Meeting of the parish:

Provided that the Annual Meeting may decide that one-third only (or the number nearest to one-third) of the lay representatives elected to the Council shall retire from office in every year, and in any case where it is so decided the lay representatives to retire from office at each Annual Meeting shall be those who have been longest in office, and so that as between lay representatives elected on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be selected by lot.

(3) A retiring lay representative in the Council shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible for re-election.

(4) In any parish where there are two or more churches an Annual Meeting may frame or adopt a scheme for the election of lay representatives to the Council in such manner as to secure due representation on the Council of the congregation of each of such churches:

Provided that no such scheme shall be valid unless approved by at least two-thirds of the persons present and voting at the Annual Meeting, nor shall it become operative until the next ensuing Annual Meeting. Every such scheme shall, on its approval, be communicated to the Secretary of the Diocesan Conference.

Elections to and Composition of the Ruri-decanal Conference

14.—(1) The number of lay representatives to be elected in each parish to the Ruri-decanal Conference (if any) shall in all cases be such as the Diocesan Conference shall from time to time appoint.

(2) Lay representatives elected to the Ruri-decanal Conference shall hold office for one year, or such longer period, not exceeding three years, as the Diocesan Conference shall from time to time appoint.

(3) The following persons shall be ex officio members of the Ruri-decanal Conference of every rural deanery, namely:—

(a) all members of the House of Laity whose names are entered upon the Roll of any parish within such rural deanery; and

(b) in any case where such Ruri-decanal Conference elects lay representatives to the Diocesan Conference, all persons who are so elected.

Elections to the Diocesan Conference

15.—(1) Unless the Diocesan Conference otherwise determines, the Annual Meeting of every parish shall elect such number of lay representatives to the Conference as the Conference shall from time to time appoint.

(2) In any diocese in which the Diocesan Conference determines that the lay representatives in that Conference shall not be elected, or shall not be exclusively elected, at the Annual Meeting in every parish of the diocese, they shall be elected, according as the Diocesan Conference may determine, either

(i) by the lay representatives in each Ruri-decanal Conference voting in such manner as, subject to the provisions of the next succeeding Rule, the Ruri-decanal Conference may determine; or

(ii) partly at the Annual Meetings, and partly by the lay representatives in the Ruri-decanal Conferences; or

(iii) according to a scheme approved by the Diocesan Conference whereby parishes may be grouped for the purpose of jointly electing lay representatives to the Conference; or

(iv) according to a scheme approved by the Diocesan Conference combining two or more of the methods of election authorised by this Rule.

(3) Lay representatives elected to the Diocesan Conference in the year 1927 and in any subsequent year in which an election is held shall hold office for three years.

Method of Voting at the above Elections

16.—(1) At every election to the Parochial Church Council, the Ruri-decanal Conference, and the Diocesan Conference, each person entitled to vote shall have as many votes as there are persons to be elected, but may not give more than three votes to any one candidate.

(2) Where an equality of votes renders a casting vote necessary to decide the election, it shall be given by the person presiding over the election.

Conduct of Elections by the Annual Meeting

17.—(1) All candidates at elections of lay representatives by the Annual Meeting of a parish must be nominated and seconded by persons whose names are entered on the Roll of the parish.

(2) If the number of candidates nominated is not greater than the number of seats to be filled, the candidates nominated shall forthwith be declared elected.

(3) If more candidates are nominated than there are seats to be filled, the election shall take place at the Annual Meeting, unless a poll is demanded by at least one-fifth of the voters present.

(4) If the election takes place at the Meeting, votes may be tendered either on voting papers in a form substantially similar to that set forth in Appendix V to these Rules, or, if all those present consent thereto, by show of hands.

(5) If a poll is duly demanded, the Annual Meeting shall forthwith elect a person to preside over it, and the poll shall be conducted in the manner prescribed in Appendix V to these Rules. The expenses of the poll shall be defrayed in such manner as shall be directed by the Diocesan Conference.

(6) The result of an election by an Annual Meeting shall be announced as soon as practicable by the person presiding over the election, and a notice of the result shall in every case be affixed on or near to the principal door of the church and of every other building licensed for divine service in the parish, and shall bear the date on which it is affixed. Such notice shall remain affixed for not less than fourteen days, and a copy thereof shall be sent to the Rural Dean, or, in the case of there being no Rural Dean, to the Archdeacon.

APPEALS

18.—(1) There shall be a right of appeal by any person aggrieved against—

(a) any enrolment, or refusal of enrolment, on the Roll of a parish;

(b) the removal of any name, or the refusal to remove any name, from the Roll of a parish;

(c) the allowance or disallowance of any vote given or tendered under the foregoing Rules; and

(d) the result of any election held or purporting to be held under the foregoing Rules.

(2) Notice of any such appeal shall be given in writing to the Rural Dean, or if there be no Rural Dean, to the Archdeacon. Such notice shall be given—

(a) in the case of an appeal against an enrolment or a refusal of enrolment, or in the case of an appeal against the removal of any name or the refusal to remove any name from the Roll, not later than seven days after the date of the Annual Meeting next following such enrolment or refusal of enrolment, or removal or refusal to remove;

(b) in the case of an appeal against the allowance or disallowance of a vote, within seven days after the date of such allowance or disallowance; and

(c) in the case of an appeal against the result of an election, within seven days after the result thereof has been announced.

(3) A lay electoral Commission shall be constituted in each diocese by the Diocesan Conference, and any appeal shall be considered and decided by such two or more members of the Commission as the Commission shall appoint, and their decision shall be final.

(4) For the purpose of such consideration and decision, the members of the Commission so appointed shall consider all the relevant circumstances, and shall be entitled to inspect all documents and papers relating to the subject matter of the appeal, and to be furnished with all information respecting the same which they may require.

(5) The Commission appointed in any diocese under this Rule shall have power at any time to extend the time within which a notice of appeal may be given.

ELECTIONS TO THE HOUSE OF LAITY

19. The members of the House of Laity in the Church Assembly shall be elected every five years * by the diocesan electors in the several Diocesan Conferences, according to the principle of proportional representation as hereinafter provided.

Diocesan Electors

20. The diocesan electors in each diocese shall be—

(1) the lay representatives for the time being in the Diocesan Conference;

(2) the lay ex officio members of the Diocesan Conference; and

(3) fifteen or any less number of teachers and students (not being in Holy Orders) selected by the other lay members of the Diocesan Conference in such manner as may be prescribed by the Conference to represent the members of Universities, University or Training Colleges, and School Staffs in the diocese who are members of the Church of England. All the teachers or students so selected shall be for all other purposes members of the Diocesan Conference.

Basis of Representation

21.—(1) The number of the members of the House of Laity shall from time to time be fixed by the Church Assembly.

(2) The number of the members of the House of Laity to be elected for any diocese at a general election shall be proportionate to the number of persons on the Rolls of such diocese as revised in preparation for the Annual Meetings held in the year immediately preceding the year in which such general election is held.

* The next election will take place in 1955.

(3) The Church Assembly may provide by regulation * for ascertaining the numbers on the Rolls of the several dioceses, and for apportioning to each diocese the number of members to be elected for that diocese.

Electoral Areas

22.—(1) Subject to any division of a diocese under this Rule every diocese shall be an electoral area for the purposes of elections to the House of Laity.

(2) A Diocesan Conference may, for the purposes of any election, divide a diocese into two or more areas, and apportion the number of members of the House of Laity to be elected for the diocese among such areas, and the election shall be conducted in each area as if such area were a separate diocese. Where a diocese is so divided, a diocesan elector who is a lay representative shall vote in the area to which the body by which he was elected belongs, and a diocesan elector who is not a lay representative shall vote in such area as the Diocesan Conference may decide.

Conduct of Elections

23.—(1) Subject to any directions given by the Church Assembly, an election to the House of Laity shall be held in each diocese at such time between Easter Day and Whit-Sunday as shall be fixed by the Bishop of the diocese.

(2) The presiding officer or officers in each diocese shall be appointed by the Bishop.

(3) Every candidate must be nominated and seconded by diocesan electors qualified to vote in the area in which the candidate is seeking to be elected. All nominations shall be in writing and shall be sent to the presiding officer of the area, together with evidence of the candidate's consent to serve, on or before a date to be specified by the presiding officer.

(4) If more candidates are nominated for any area than there are seats to be filled, the election shall be conducted by voting papers upon the principle of proportional representation by the method of the single transferable vote, under rules to be made from time to time by the Archbishop of the Province.†

(5) A full statement of the result of each election shall be furnished to every candidate within the area, and published in such manner as the Bishop may approve.

* See The House of Laity Representation Regulation, 1923, p. 431.

† Rules for elections to the House of Laity approved by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York came into force in October, 1939, and are obtainable from the Church House Bookshop, Church House, Westminster, S.W. 1. Price 1*s*.

SUPPLEMENTARY

Casual Vacancies

24.—(1) Elections to fill up casual vacancies among lay representatives shall be conducted in the same manner as ordinary elections, a special meeting of the electing body being held, if necessary, for the purpose. Such elections shall, where possible, be held at such times as will enable all casual vacancies among lay representatives who are diocesan electors to be filled at the time of every election to the House of Laity, but so that no such election shall be invalid by reason of any casual vacancies not having been so filled up.

(2) Any person elected to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office only for the unexpired portion of the term of office of the lay representative in whose place he is elected.

(3) The resignation of a member of a Parochial Church Council (by reason of its being a corporate body) requires the consent of the Council. Members of the House of Laity, the Diocesan Conference, and the Ruridecanal Conference may resign at will.

Special Provisions

25.—(1) In the carrying out of these Rules in any diocese the Bishop of such diocese shall have power, which shall be exerciseable from time to time,—

(a) to make provision for any matter not herein provided for;

(b) to vary or modify any scheme framed or direction given under these Rules;

(c) to appoint a person to do any act in respect of which there has been any neglect or default on the part of any person or body charged with any duty under these Rules;

(d) to extend or alter the time for holding any meeting or election or to modify the procedure laid down by these Rules in connection therewith;

(e) in any case in which there has been no valid election, to direct a fresh election to be held, and to give such directions in connection therewith as he may think necessary; and

(f) in any case in which any difficulty arises, to give any directions consistent with these Rules which he may consider expedient.

(2) In the case of an omission in any parish to prepare or maintain a Roll or to form or maintain a Council or to hold the Annual Meeting, the Rural Dean upon such omission being brought to his notice shall ascertain and report to the Bishop the cause thereof.

APPENDIX V

Conduct of Poll at Elections by the Annual Meeting

1. The Chairman of the Annual Meeting shall fix a day (not being less than seven nor more than fourteen days from the day of the meeting) and hours, and a place or places, for the taking of the poll; and shall cause a notice of the poll and of the day and hours and place or places thereof, signed by himself, to be forthwith affixed on or near to the principal door of the church and of every other building licensed for divine service in the parish, and the same shall remain so affixed until after the day of the poll. The hours of the poll must not be less than four, which need not be consecutive; but not less than two hours thereof must be before and not less than two hours thereof must be after six of the clock in the afternoon.

2. Votes may be tendered by the voter in person by a voting paper signed by him or her in the form set forth below, or in a substantially similar form, or by voting papers addressed to the person presiding over the election in the parish, and sent by post or otherwise delivered at the place in the parish fixed for the taking of the poll, and received by him at any time between the holding of the meeting and the hour appointed for the close of the poll.

3. After the close of the poll the votes shall be scrutinised and counted in one place by the presiding officer in the presence of such of the candidates for election, or persons deputed to attend on their behalf, as desire to be present.

4. Any voter shall be entitled to ascertain, by inquiry of the presiding officer, within seven days of the declaration of the result, whether his vote has been allowed or not, and a notice that voters are so entitled shall be appended to all notices announcing the result of the election.

Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921

To confer powers on Parochial Church Councils and to amend the law relating to the parochial organisation of the Church of England and for other purposes connected therewith. [1st July, 1921.]

WHEREAS by the Constitution of the National Assembly of the Church of England as defined in the Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act 1919 it is provided (amongst other things) that the said Assembly shall before entering on any other legislative business make further provision for the self-government of the Church by passing through the Assembly Measures inter alia for conferring on the Parochial Church Councils constituted under the Schedule to such Constitution such powers as the Assembly may determine.

Definitions.

1. In this Measure—

The "Church Assembly" means the National Assembly of the Church of England constituted in accordance with the Constitution set forth in the Appendix to the Addresses presented to His Majesty by the Convocations of Canterbury and York on the 10th day of May 1919 and laid before both Houses of Parliament (hereinafter referred to as "the Constitution"); *

"Council" means a Parochial Church Council constituted in accordance with the Constitution;

* See Section three (1) of the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929, p. 399.

Powers transferred to Council

4.—(1) From the commencement of this Measure there shall be transferred to the Council of every parish—

(i) All powers duties and liabilities of the Vestry of such parish relating to the affairs of the Church except as regards the election of churchwardens and sidesmen and as regards the administration of ecclesiastical charities but including the power of presentation to the benefice of such parish if the right to present thereto is vested in or in trust for the parishioners and the power of making any voluntary Church rate.

(ii) All powers duties and liabilities of the churchwardens of such parish relating to—

(a) The financial affairs of the Church including the collection and administration of all moneys which may be raised for Church purposes and the keeping of accounts in relation to such affairs and moneys;

(b) The care maintenance preservation and insurance of the fabric of the church and the goods and ornaments thereof;

(c) The care and maintenance of the churchyard (including a closed churchyard) with all rights now possessed by the churchwardens to recover from the overseers the cost of maintaining a closed churchyard:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the property of the churchwardens in the goods and ornaments of the church or their powers duties and liabilities with respect to visitations.

(iii) All powers duties and liabilities of the church trustees (if any) for the parish appointed under the Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Act, 1868.

(2) All enactments in any Act whether general or local or personal relating to any powers duties or liabilities transferred by this Measure to the Council from the Vestry churchwardens or church trustees as the case may be shall subject to the provisions of this Measure and so far as circumstances admit be construed as if any reference therein to the Vestry or the churchwardens or church trustees referred to the Council to which such powers duties or liabilities are transferred by this Measure and the said enactments shall be construed with such modifications as may be necessary for carrying this Measure into effect.

(3)—(i) This Measure shall not affect any enactment in any private or local Act of Parliament under the authority of which church rates may be made or levied in lieu of or in consideration of the extinguishment or of the appropriation to any other purpose of any tithes customary payments or other property or charge upon property which tithes payments property or charge previously to the passing of such Act had been appropriated by law to ecclesiastical purposes or in consideration of the abolition of tithes in any place or upon any contract made or for good or valuable consideration given and every such enactment shall continue in force in the same manner as if this Measure had not been passed.

(ii) For the purposes of this section "ecclesiastical purposes" shall mean the building rebuilding enlargement and repair of any church or chapel and any purpose to which by common or ecclesiastical law a Church rate is applicable or any of such purposes.

5. The Council of every parish shall have power to acquire (whether by way of gift or otherwise) any property real or personal for any ecclesiastical purpose affecting the parish or any part thereof* with power to manage and administer any such property: Powers of Council.

Provided that—

(i) The power to acquire any such property shall (save in the case of chattels personal) be subject to the consent of the Diocesan Authority and the legal interest in any such property (except chattels personal) shall be vested in the Diocesan Authority of the diocese in which the parish is situate subject to all trusts debts and liabilities affecting the same and all persons concerned shall and are hereby required to make or concur in making such transfers (if any) as are requisite for giving effect to this enactment.

(ii) The power of letting for more than one year and of sale and exchange of any such property (other than chattels personal) and the power of taking legal proceedings shall not be exercised without the consent of the Diocesan Authority.

(iii) The accounts of all trusts administered by the Council shall be laid before the Diocesan Authority annually.

6. The Council of every parish shall have the following powers in addition to any powers conferred by the Constitution or otherwise by this Measure:— Other powers of Council.

(i) Power to frame an annual budget of moneys required for the maintenance of the work of the Church in the parish and otherwise and to take such steps as they think necessary for the raising collecting and allocating of such moneys.

(ii) Power to make levy and collect a voluntary Church rate for any purpose connected with the affairs of the Church including the administrative expenses of the Council and the costs of any legal proceedings.

(iii) Power jointly with the Incumbent to appoint and dismiss the parish clerk and sexton or any persons performing or assisting to perform the duties of parish clerk or sexton and to determine their salaries and the conditions of the tenure of their offices or of their employment but subject to the rights of any persons holding the said offices at the date of the commencement of this Measure.

* See Parochial Church Councils (Powers) (Amendment) Measure, 1948, p. 426.

(iv) Power jointly with the Incumbent to determine the objects to which all moneys to be given or collected in Church shall be allocated subject to the directions contained in the Book of Common Prayer as to the disposal of money given at the offertory.

(v) Power to make representations to the Bishop with regard to any matter affecting the welfare of the Church in the parish.

Provisions as to Ecclesiastical Charities.

7.—(1) When the governing body of any parochial charity which is an ecclesiastical charity does not include any persons appointed by the Council of any parish affected thereby the Council of such parish may appoint additional members of such governing body not exceeding the number allowed by the Charity Commissioners in each case who shall hold office for such period not exceeding five years as the Council shall direct.

(2) For the purposes of this section the expression "parochial charity" means a charity the benefits whereof are confined to inhabitants of a single parish but not so as to include rights of patronage vested in trustees by or under any Act of Parliament or scheme or under any decree or order of Court or under any private trust.

(3) The accounts of all parochial ecclesiastical charities shall be laid before the Council of every parish affected thereby.

Council to keep accounts.

8. Subject and in addition to the provisions of Section III paragraph 4 of the Schedule to the Constitution * every Council shall furnish to the annual Church Meeting an account made up to the 31st December immediately preceding such Meeting setting out the Council's income and expenditure during the year together with a statement of the funds and property if any remaining in their hands at the date of the account. Such account and statement having been duly audited shall together with a report upon the fabric goods and ornaments of the church be submitted for approval at such Meeting or at any adjournment thereof and the said account and statement if approved shall be signed by the chairman of the Meeting and shall be forthwith published and affixed on or near the principal door of the church and any other conspicuous place or places in the parish at the discretion of the Council.

Rules of Procedure of Council.

9. The Rules of Procedure set forth in the Schedule to this Measure shall apply to all Councils except so far as the same may be varied by any Council with the consent of a central authority appointed for that purpose by the Church Assembly or until such central authority shall have been appointed with the consent of the Diocesan Conference. Subject as aforesaid every Council may from time to time make bye-laws regulating their own procedure so that such bye-laws be not inconsistent with this Measure or with the Constitution or with any rules made by the Bishop for carrying this Measure into effect or with any rules hereafter made by the Church Assembly.

Standing Committee of Council.

10. The chairman of the Council and the churchwardens of the parish if members of the Council shall be the Standing Committee of the Council and shall have power to transact the business of the Council between the meetings thereof subject to any directions given by the Council. Provided that the Council may by resolution appoint annually other members to serve on the Standing Committee in addition to the chairman of the Council and churchwardens.

Powers of vice-chairman.

11. During the vacancy of the benefice and when the chairman is incapacitated by absence or illness or any other cause the vice-chairman of the Council shall act as chairman and have all the powers vested in the chairman.

Validity of proceedings.

12. No proceedings of any Council shall be invalidated by any vacancy in the membership of the Council or by any defect in the qualification or election of any member thereof.

Election of churchwardens.

13. In any parish in which one or more of the churchwardens have been hitherto elected by the Vestry such churchwarden or churchwardens shall be elected by the Vestry and the Parochial Church Meeting sitting together for this purpose. Such meeting shall be convened as if it were a Vestry Meeting and be held under the same conditions as to chairmanship voting and demand of a poll as a Vestry Meeting except that every person qualified to vote at such meeting shall be entitled to one vote only (other than the chairman's casting vote) on any question voted on at such meeting or at a poll held in connection therewith. The cost of a poll demanded by a candidate shall be borne by him.

Election of sidesmen.

14. The sidesmen of the parish shall be elected annually by the Parochial Church Meeting and the Incumbent and shall have all the rights duties and liabilities heretofore belonging to sidesmen by virtue of their office.

Qualifications of churchwardens, sidesmen and members of Council.

15.—(1) Without prejudice to existing qualifications any person who is eligible to the Council shall be eligible as churchwarden. No person whose name is not on the electoral roll shall be eligible as sidesman but all persons whose names are on the electoral roll shall be eligible.

(2) Without prejudice to any ground on which a churchwarden or sidesman may be disqualified or removed under the existing law a person shall be disqualified from being elected or being a churchwarden or sidesman or a member of a Council if a conviction order or finding becomes or has at any time become conclusive against him which if he were a clergyman would render him incapable of holding preferment under Section one of the Clergy Discipline Act, 1892.

Powers of Bishop.

16.—(1) If any difficulty arises with respect to the summoning holding or conduct of a meeting of the Council for which provision is not made in this Measure or by the Constitution or in the event of a Council and an Incumbent being unable to agree as to any matter in which their joint action is required the Bishop may give such directions as may appear to him to be necessary.

(2) The Bishop may subject to the provisions of this Measure and the Constitution make rules for carrying this Measure into effect within the diocese and for regulating all matters not dealt with by the Constitution relating to the preparation of the electoral roll.

(3) If any act required by this Measure to be done by any person is not done within such time as the Bishop may consider reasonable it may be done by or under the authority of the Bishop.

Short title and extent.

17.—(1) This Measure may be cited as the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921.

(2) This Measure shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland or to such portions of Wales and Monmouthshire as are subject to the provisions of the Welsh Church Act, 1914.

SCHEDULE

Rules of Procedure

Meetings of Council.

1. The Council shall hold not less than four meetings in each year. Meetings shall be convened by the chairman and if not more than four meetings are held they shall be at quarterly intervals so far as possible.

Power to call meetings.

2. The chairman may at any time convene a meeting of the Council. If he refuse or neglect to do so within seven days after a requisition for that purpose signed by not less than one-third of the members of the Council has been presented to him those members may forthwith convene a meeting.

Notice of meeting.

3. Except as provided in Rule 7 at least ten clear days before any meeting of the Council notice thereof specifying the time and place of the intended meeting and signed by or on behalf of the chairman of the Council or the persons convening the meeting shall be posted at or near the principal door of the Parish Church.

Notice of motions.

4. Notices of motions may be sent in writing to the secretary by any member of the Council at any time. Not less than seven days before the meeting a notice thereof specifying the time and place of the meeting signed by or on behalf of the secretary shall be sent to every member of the Council. Such notice shall contain the agenda of the meeting including any motion of which notice has been received by the secretary.

5. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Council unless at least one-third of the full number of members are present thereat and no business which is not specified in the agenda shall be transacted at any meeting except by the consent of three-quarters of the members present at the meeting. Quorum and agenda.

6. The business of a meeting of the Council shall be transacted in the order set forth in the agenda unless the Council by resolution otherwise determine. Order of business.

7. In case of sudden emergency and other special circumstances requiring immediate action by the Council a meeting may be convened by the chairman at not less than three days' notice in writing to the members of the Council but the quorum for the transaction of any business at such meetings shall be a majority of the then existing members of the Council and no business shall be transacted at such meeting except such as is specified in the notice convening the meeting. Short notice for emergency meetings.

8. The meetings of the Council shall be held at such place in the parish as the Council may direct or in the absence of such direction as the chairman may direct. Place of meeting.

9. Subject to the foregoing Rules any motion proposed by any member of the Council present at a meeting shall be submitted to the meeting and shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting thereon. Vote of majority to decide.

10. In case of an equal division of votes the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote. Casting vote.

11. The names of the members present at any meeting of the Council shall be recorded in the minutes and the names of those voting on each question on which a division is taken if the members composing either the majority or the minority so require shall be recorded so as to show how the vote of each member was given. Provided nevertheless that the vote on any question shall be by ballot if the meeting so decide. Minutes.

12. Any meeting of the Council may adjourn its proceedings to such time as may be determined at such meeting and to any place authorised under Rule 8. Adjournments.

13. The Council may appoint one of their number to act as secretary of the Council without remuneration. If no member is appointed so to act the Council shall appoint some other fit person with such remuneration (if any) as they shall think fit. The secretary shall have charge of the electoral roll and of all documents relating to current business of the Council. He shall be responsible for keeping the minutes shall record all resolutions passed by the Council and shall keep the secretary of the Diocesan Conference informed as to his address. Secretary of Council.

Treasurer of Council.

14. The Council may appoint one or more of their number to act as treasurer solely or jointly without remuneration and failing such appointment the churchwardens if members of the Council shall act jointly as treasurers.

Power to appoint committees.

15. The Council may appoint committees for the purpose of the various branches of Church work in the parish and may include therein persons who are not members of the Council. The Incumbent shall be a member of all committees ex officio.

Interpretation.

16. Any question arising on the interpretation of these Rules shall be referred to the Bishop of the diocese and any decision given by him or by any person appointed by him on his behalf shall be final.

Parochial Church Councils (Powers) (Amendment) Measure, 1949

To make further provision with respect to the powers of Parochial Church Councils under the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure 1921, and to provide for related matters. [July 14th, 1949].

1. The Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Measure") shall have effect as if in section five thereof (which relates to the powers of Councils to acquire, manage and administer property) there were inserted after the expression "any ecclesiastical purpose affecting the parish or any part thereof" the words "or for the furtherance of Church work be means of schemes for providing facilities for the spiritual, moral and physical training of persons residing in or near the parish."

2.—(1) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by the said section five as amended by this Measure, the Council of every parish may, for the purpose of providing such facilities as aforesaid, constitute or participate in the constitution of a body of managers or a managing committee consisting either wholly or partly of persons appointed by the Council, and may confer upon any such body or committee such functions in regard to the implementation of such schemes as aforesaid upon property acquired by the Council as the Council thinks expedient.

(2) The Council shall not exercise any of the powers conferred by subsection (1) of this section without the consent of the Diocesan Education Committee, which shall have power to consider all the circumstances, and may make its consent conditional upon compliance with such requirements as the Committee thinks proper in the circumstances of the case.

3. This Measure may be cited as the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) (Amendment) Measure, 1949, and shall be construed as one with the principal Measure, and this Measure and the principal Measure may be cited together as the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measures, 1921 and 1949.

Diocesan Conferences Regulation, 1935 *

(Passed by the Church Assembly at the Spring Session, 1935.)

Diocesan Conferences and their functions.

1. In every diocese there shall be constituted a Diocesan Conference to deliberate on all matters concerning the Church of England in the diocese and (subject to the terms of this Regulation and of any Regulation which may hereafter be made by the Church Assembly) to make such provision in respect to those matters as according to the ruling of the Bishop may be within the competency of the Conference: Provided always that it does not belong to the functions of a Conference to issue any statement purporting to declare the doctrine of the Church on any question of theology, and no such statement shall be issued by any Conference.

The three constituent authorities.

2. A Diocesan Conference shall consist of three constituent authorities, namely,

(1) The Bishop;
(2) The Chamber of Clergy;
(3) The Chamber of Laity;

hereinafter called the three authorities.

Constitution of Chambers of Clergy and Laity.

3. A Diocesan Conference may from time to time, consistently with the provisions of this Regulation, make, revoke or alter rules for the constitution of its Chambers of Clergy and Laity.

Chamber of Clergy.

4.—(1) Except where the Archbishop may in writing otherwise permit, the full number of members of the Chamber of Clergy shall not be greater than the full number of members of the Chamber of Laity, nor less than one-half of that number: Provided that no resolution or act of a Diocesan Conference or of either Chamber thereof shall be invalidated on the ground that the relative numbers of members of the Chamber of Clergy and the Chamber of Laity are not within the limits aforesaid.

(2) Subject to the limitations in respect to number imposed by the preceding sub-section, a Diocesan Conference may in its discretion provide that the Chamber of Clergy shall consist of all clergy beneficed in the diocese or licensed under the Bishop's seal to officiate therein, or, alternatively, that it shall consist of the following members :—

(i) The ex officio members, that is to say :—

The Suffragan or Assistant-Bishop or Bishops;

The Dean of the cathedral;

The Archdeacons;

The Canons-Residentiary of the cathedral;

The Proctors elected from the diocese to the Lower House of the Convocation of the Province;

The Chancellor of the diocese (if in Holy Orders);

The Chairman of the Diocesan Board of Finance (if in Holy Orders);

The Vice-Chairman or Vice-Chairmen of the Diocesan Board of Finance (if in Holy Orders);

In the diocese of London, the Dean of Westminster;

In the diocese of Oxford, the Dean of Windsor;

(ii) The representative members, who shall be elected in accordance with the terms of this Regulation and of the rules made under section three thereof;

(iii) Not more than ten members appointed by the Bishop;

(3) Every clerk in Holy Orders holding a benefice in the diocese or licensed under the Bishop's seal to officiate therein shall be qualified to vote at the election of the representative members of the Chamber of Clergy and himself to be elected or appointed as a member of the chamber; and no other person shall be so qualified.

Chamber of Laity.

5. The Chamber of Laity shall consist of the following members :—

(i) The ex officio members, that is to say :

The Chancellor of the diocese (if not in Holy Orders);

The Registrar of the diocese;

The Chairman of the Diocesan Board of Finance (if not in Holy Orders);

The Vice-Chairman or Vice-Chairmen of the Diocesan Board of Finance (if not in Holy Orders);

The members elected from the diocese to the House of Laity of the Church Assembly.

(ii) The representative members elected in accordance with the Rules for the Representation of the Laity;

(iii) Not more than fifteen teachers, or students, appointed by selection in accordance with Rule 20 (3) of the Rules for the Representation of the Laity;

(iv) Not more than ten members appointed by the Bishop, who shall be actual lay communicant members of the Church of England, of either sex and of not less than twenty-one years of age.

Time of election and casual vacancies.

6. The representative and appointed members of the Chamber of Clergy, and the appointed members of the Chamber of Laity, shall be elected and appointed triennially in the year in which the representative members of the Chamber of Laity are elected; and any casual vacancy shall be filled in such manner as rules made under section three of this Regulation may prescribe.

Sessions and expenses.

7.—(1) Every Diocesan Conference shall meet in session at least once a year on the summons of the Bishop and at such times and places as he may direct.

(2) The Bishop shall be President of the Conference, and either he or some person appointed by him shall be chairman of each of its meetings.

(3) Unless the Conference otherwise determine, the necessary expenses incurred in respect to the election, summoning, meeting and business of the Conference shall be defrayed out of such funds as may be at the disposal of the Diocesan Board of Finance, who shall, subject to the directions of the Conference, decide what expenses are necessary for these purposes.

Assent of all three authorities necessary except for questions relating to conduct of business.

8.—(1) Nothing (except what relates only to the conduct of business) shall be deemed to have the assent of the Diocesan Conference unless the three authorities which constitute the Conference, that is to say—

(a) the Bishop,
(b) the Chamber of Clergy, and
(c) the Chamber of Laity have all given their assent thereto.

(2) Questions relating only to the conduct of business shall be decided by the votes of all the members of the Conference present and voting, without discrimination in respect to different authorities; and every other question shall be decided in like manner (the concurrence of all three authorities being presumed) unless any ten members present demand a vote by Chambers, or unless the Bishop shall require that his distinct opinion shall be recorded.

(3) The assent of the Chambers of Clergy and Laity may be sufficiently given by a majority of the members thereof present and voting, whether those Chambers are sitting together or separately.

(4) If any motion be approved by any one or two of the three authorities, the motion shall be recorded as having such approval as it shall have received.

Power to make Standing Orders.

9.—(1) The Diocesan Conference may from time to time make, revoke or alter Standing Orders, consistently with the terms of this Regulation, for the summoning, holding and procedure of meetings of the Conference, and generally for the transaction of its business.

(2) Subject to the terms of this Regulation and to any Standing Orders of the Conference, the business and procedure of any meeting of the Conference shall be regulated by the Chairman thereof.

Matters referred by the Church Assembly.

10. If the Church Assembly shall resolve that any matter concerning the Church of England should be brought before all or any of the Diocesan Conferences, such resolution shall be communicated by the Secretary of the Assembly to the Bishop of every diocese concerned; and it shall then be the duty of the Bishop, as President of the Conference, to bring the communication to the notice of the Conference, at such time and in such manner as he may think convenient and best suited to secure the expression of the Conference's judgment upon the subject communicated.

Interpretation.

11.—(1) The Interpretation Measure, 1925, shall apply to this Regulation as amended by any subsequent Regulation, as it applies to a Measure passed by the Church Assembly.

(2) In this Regulation—

The expression "the Bishop" means the Bishop of the diocese concerned;

The expression "the Archbishop" means the Archbishop of the Province in which the diocese concerned is situate;

The expression "the Rules for the Representation of the Laity" means the Rules for the Representation of the Laity contained in the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929, and any Measure amending the same;

The expression "the Dean of the cathedral" includes, in all cases where there is no person other than the Bishop of the diocese who has the title of dean, the person for the time being incumbent of the benefice the parish church of which is or is part of the cathedral church, but does not include the Bishop of the diocese although he has the title or exercises the functions of the dean of the cathedral church;

The expression "Benefice" includes an honorary canonry or a prebend, and the expression "beneficed" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) Any question which may arise concerning the interpretation of this Regulation or of any rules made in pursuance of its provisions shall be referred to the Archbishop, and by him decided.

12. The Diocesan Conferences Regulation, 1922, is hereby repealed. Repeal.

13. This Regulation may be cited as "The Diocesan Conferences Regulation, 1935." Short title.

House of Laity Representation Regulation, 1923

(Passed by the Church Assembly at the Autumn Session, 1923.)

A Regulation passed by the National Assembly of the Church of England to provide for the basis of Representation in the House of Laity in accordance with Section IV.,* Rule 4, Sub-section (2), of the Rules for the Representation of the Laity.

WHEREAS by Section IV.,* Rule 4, sub-section (2), of the Rules for the Representation of the Laity, it is directed that as soon as the first electoral rolls of all the dioceses are completed, the Assembly shall provide that the number of electors on those rolls shall become the basis of representation to the House of Laity:

And whereas the first electoral rolls of all the dioceses have been completed:

And whereas it is expedient that such other provisions shall be made as are hereinafter contained:

1. The number of electors on the electoral rolls of the several dioceses in the Provinces of Canterbury and York, as revised in preparation for the Annual Parochial Church Meeting held in the year immediately preceding the year in which any general election to the House of Laity ought to be held, shall be the basis of representation to the House of Laity for the purposes of that election. Electoral rolls to be the basis of representation.

2.—(1) In the year immediately preceding the year in which any general election to the House of Laity ought to be held, the number of electors upon the electoral roll of each parish shall be certified to the Secretary of the Diocesan Conference by the Provisions for ascertaining numbers on electoral rolls.

* Now Rule 21 (2) of the Schedule to the Representation of the Laity Measure, 1929, p. 410.

Parochial Church Council of the parish not later than the first day of May in the same year; and the total number of electors upon the electoral rolls of each diocese shall be certified to the Secretary of the Church Assembly by the secretary of each Diocesan Conference not later than the first day of July in the same year.

(2) The certificate required to be given by the Parochial Church Council under this section may be signed by the Chairman, or the Vice-Chairman, or the Secretary of the Parochial Church Council.

(3) A copy of such certificate shall be affixed at or near to the principal door of the church when the original certificate is sent to the secretary of the Diocesan Conference, and shall remain so affixed for a period of not less than fifteen days.

(4) Any question arising as to the accuracy of any such certificate shall be decided in such manner as the Diocesan Conference shall appoint.

Number of House of Laity to be fixed by Standing Committee.

3. The number of members of the House of Laity to be elected by each diocese shall be fixed by the Standing Committee of the Church Assembly not later than the first day of November in the same year so as to be as nearly as possible proportionate to the total number of electors certified for each diocese, but so that the total number of the House of Laity shall not be less than 320 or greater than 360.

Number so fixed to be reported.

4. The number of members of the House of Laity to be elected by each diocese, when fixed by the Standing Committee of the Church Assembly as aforesaid, shall forthwith be communicated to the secretaries of the Diocesan Conferences, and shall be reported to the Church Assembly at its next Session.

Short Title.

5. This Regulation may be referred to as the "House of Laity Representation Regulation, 1923."

This unique Society, conducted by the Clergy for the Clergy, exists solely to help Priests in every part of the world in times of sickness. In addition to sick pay, grants are made towards medical, surgical, optical, dental, etc. expenses; there is also a payment at death. Endowments from 65–70 to bridge the gap between Church and State Pensions.

For full particulars write to the Secretary:

A WORLD OF DARKNESS

Many men—and women, too—blinded in the service of their country, are learning at St. Dunstan's to live their life in a different world—a world of darkness. St. Dunstan's is training them to become useful, self-supporting and independent once more. Help us to help them on their journey back from the valley of shadows.

STORY OF ST. DUNSTAN'S?

No charge is made for the lectures and no appeal is made for funds.

Particulars of the lectures may be obtained from the Appeals Organiser, St. Dunstan's, 1 South Audley Street, London, W.1.

A COMBINED APPEAL

for the benefit of the Royal School for the Blind, Leatherhead (including the Blind Employment Factory, Waterloo Road); The Royal London Society for the Blind; London Association for the Blind (in which is incorporated the Barclay Workshops for Blind Women); The Workshop for the Blind, Greenwich; Metropolitan Society for the Blind and Indigent Blind Visiting Society; Kent County Association for the Blind; Croydon Voluntary Association for the Blind; West Ham Voluntary Association for the Blind and East Ham Welfare Association for the Blind.

These Societies and Associations provide services for approximately two-thirds of London's blind population, and engage in the welfare of blind children and juveniles, general education, training in employment in workshops or as home workers, provision of homes and hostels for the blind, quick relief to blind persons in distress, administration of pensions and grants, legal advice, clubs for social recreation, etc., etc.

SONS OF THE CLERGY

CORPORATION

Founded A.D. 1655. Incorporated by Royal Charter, A.D. 1678.

For the relief of Clergymen, their Widows, Aged Single Daughters and Children (whether Orphans or not) of every Diocese in England and Wales.

Treasurers— THE DEAN OF ST. PAUL'S, K.C.V.O.
CHANCELLOR N. C. ARMITAGE.
A. L. H. CARTER, ESQ.

The Governors now assist annually about 150 Clergymen by grants, 600 Widows of Clergymen, and 400 Aged Single Daughters of Deceased Clergymen, by Grants and Pensions; and about 450 Clergy Children (many of whom are Orphans), by grants towards Education, or Apprenticeship.

Donors of Thirty Guineas and upwards are elected Governors of the Corporation.

MORE ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS AND DONATIONS ARE NEEDED.

Legacies also form a most important feature in the annual receipts of this ancient Society.

"OUR COUNTRY FOR CHRIST"

IS THIS YOUR AIM ?

The Church Pastoral Aid Society, which is the oldest HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND, is seeking to take "THE GOSPEL TO EVERY MAN'S DOOR" in England and Wales.

It is doing this by supplying grants to Clerical and Lay workers in Evangelical parishes; by giving financial assistance to ORDINATION CANDIDATES IN TRAINING FOR THE MINISTRY, and to women in training for full time parish work.

Summer Camps are arranged for children from the parishes.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

By your PRAYERS. By your WITNESS.

By your GIFTS.

WHAT IS YOUR RESPONSE?

Write to :

The Clerical Secretary,

FORWARD WITH THE GOSPEL!

Once again the Barbican Mission is on the march! Men and women are urgently needed to fill the ranks

NORTH AFRICAN JEWS FOR CHRIST

A million unevangelised Jews, ripe for an effective Gospel ministry. Christ Died to Redeem them; is the Risen Saviour able to save? Who will go and tell!

Here is a great opportunity for men and women whose lives are surrendered to the Lord and consecrated to His service. Here is a great harvest field waiting. Will you pray about it? Will you help?

CONQUEST FOR CHRIST

The difficulties may be many and obstacles great, but to him that overcometh is the promise. Every venture has an element of thrill, but the greatest is in the venture of conquest for Christ.

The King's business brooks no delay, time is short, but the reward for faithful service is sure.

Your prayerful co-operation and practical fellowship is earnestly solicited.

SHERBORNE SCHOOL

ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATION 1954

The following Scholarships and Exhibitions are offered: Open Scholarship of value up to £200 per annum. The amount will be adjusted to the merits of the candidate. Five other Scholarships ranging from £150 to £100 per annum. One Music Scholarship of £60 per annum. Open Exhibitions of varying amounts, together with Closed Exhibitions for sons of Regular Officers, and Clergy of the Church of England. Allowance is made for age. All candidates must be under 14 on May 1st. The Examination is held at Sherborne School at the beginning of June.

Full particulars obtainable from the Headmaster's Secretary, Sherborne School, Dorset.

KING'S COLLEGE, TAUNTON

Scholarships and Exhibitions are awarded annually in May to boys between 12 and 14 years on 1st April, value £100–£30 p.a.

Scholarships in Art and Music, ages 12–14½ are awarded annually in December, special preference given to string-players (particularly 'cellists) or to woodwind players.

Each year in May or June an Aston War Memorial Scholarship or a Pemberton Memorial Scholarship of £50 annual value will be awarded to boys between 12 and 14½ years on 1st April. Preference for the Aston Scholarships is given to sons of Old Boys of the School and of others who have died on Active Service. These awards are made on grounds of general ability and merit more than on academic talent.

Bursaries are awarded, where need exists, to the sons of Clergy and of Officers of Her Majesty's Forces.

King's College is the principal Woodard School in the West of England. The fees are £75 per Term. For full particulars, please apply to the Headmaster.

FOR LONDON'S GOOD

SINCE 1835 the London City Mission has been seeking London's highest good. To-day 170 lay agents are employed by this interdenominational Society in evangelistic and philanthropic efforts among the people of the Metropolis. Many are assisting clergy in large slum parishes, where their door-to-door visitation proves invaluable. Thousands of London's men reached with the Gospel at their work. Latest Report on request. Deputation meetings gladly arranged.

THE MISSION TO LEPERS

International FOUNDED 1874 Interdenominational

President—The Most Rev. J. A. FITZGERALD GREGG, D.D.
(Archbishop of Armagh and Lord Primate of All-Ireland)

For seventy-nine years this Society has been providing for the spiritual, social, and physical needs of sufferers from leprosy, and for their children.

It is the largest and oldest missionary organisation engaged in this Christian task, and it provides the major financial support for Mission Leper Homes conducted as part of the work and witness of the Anglican Communion in non-Christian lands. In 1952 remittances from the headquarters of the Mission to Lepers to Anglican stations in India, China, and Africa totalled £31,315.

The Society is a recognised Associate of the Church Assembly Missionary Council. Preachers, Speakers, lantern and film talks can be arranged on application.
